MERGER PROPOSAL—YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of the stockholders of Angie's List, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Angie's List"), which will be held on September 29, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, at The Alexander, 333 S. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204.

As previously announced, on May 1, 2017, Angie's List and IAC/InterActiveCorp, a Delaware corporation ("IAC"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended, the "Merger Agreement") to combine IAC's HomeAdvisor business and Angie's List under a new publicly traded company to be called ANGI Homeservices Inc. In particular, the Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition of Angie's List by ANGI Homeservices by way of the merger of Casa Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and direct wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices, with and into Angie's List (the "Merger"), with Angie's List continuing as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. If the Merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive for each share of Angie's List common stock that you own, at your election pursuant to the procedures further described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, (i) one share of ANGI Homeservices Inc. Class A common stock or (ii) $8.50 in cash, without interest. Elections to receive the cash consideration by Angie's List stockholders will be subject to the proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, such that Angie's List stockholders will receive in the aggregate no more than $130 million in cash. Accordingly, depending on the elections made by the other stockholders of Angie's List, unless you elect to receive exclusively share consideration you may receive share consideration and cash consideration in a proportion different from what you request on your election form, as further described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. Upon completion of the Merger, Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices Inc. are expected to be listed on NASDAQ under the current Angie's List ticker symbol, "ANGI." Following the Merger, Angie's List common stock will be delisted from NASDAQ, deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and cease to be publicly traded.

After careful consideration, the Angie's List board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and determined that the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable to and in the best interests of Angie's List stockholders. The Angie's List board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the adoption of the Merger Agreement.

Your vote is important, regardless of the number of shares of Angie's List common stock you own. We cannot consummate the Merger unless the Merger Agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. If you abstain from voting, fail to cast your vote, in person or by proxy, or fail to give voting instructions to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

The accompanying proxy statement/prospectus provides you with detailed information about the special meeting, the Merger Agreement and the Merger. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached as Annex B to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. You are encouraged to read carefully the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety including the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 33. You can also obtain information about Angie's List from documents that it has filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. See the section of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Thank you for your ongoing support and your consideration of this matter.

Very truly yours,

/s/ SCOTT A. DURCHSLAG

Scott A. Durchslag

President, Chief Executive Officer and Director

The accompanying proxy statement/prospectus is dated August 30, 2017, and is first being mailed to Angie's List stockholders on or about August 30, 2017.

Table of ContentsANGIE'S LIST, INC.*1030 East Washington Street
Indianapolis, IN 46202*NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON SEPTEMBER 29, 2017

To the Stockholders of Angie's List, Inc.:

A special meeting of stockholders of Angie's List, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Angie's List"), will be held on September 29, 2017, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, at The Alexander, 333 S. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, for the following purposes:

1. to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended, the "Merger Agreement"), dated as of May 1, 2017, among Angie's List, IAC/InterActiveCorp, a Delaware corporation, ANGI Homeservices Inc. (f/k/a Halo TopCo, Inc.), a Delaware corporation and direct wholly owned subsidiary of IAC ("ANGI Homeservices"), and Casa Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and direct wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices;
2. to consider and cast an advisory (non-binding) vote upon a proposal to approve compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger;
3. to consider and vote on a proposal to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement; and
4. to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

The Angie's List board of directors has fixed the close of business on Friday, August 25, 2017 as the record date for the purpose of determining the stockholders who are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Angie's List common stock held as of the close of business on the record date.

THE ANGIE'S LIST BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" EACH PROPOSAL.

The above matters are more fully described in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, which also includes, as Annex B, a copy of the Merger Agreement.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

/S/ SCOTT A. DURCHSLAG

Scott A. Durchslag

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Whether or not you are able to attend the special meeting in person, please submit your proxy via the internet (at www.investorvote.com/ANGI) or by telephone (1-800-652-VOTE (8683)), or complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the envelope provided as soon as possible. If you have internet access, we encourage you to record your vote via the internet. This action will not limit your right to vote in person at the special meeting. If you abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and it will have no effect on the proposal to adjourn the special meeting. If you return a properly signed and dated proxy card but do not mark the box showing how you wish to vote, your shares will be voted "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, "FOR" the proposal to approve on an advisory basis the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement, and in the discretion of the proxyholders on any other matter that may properly come before the special meeting at the discretion of the Angie's List board of directors.

Table of ContentsQUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE TRANSACTIONS

The following section provides brief answers to certain questions that you may have regarding the Merger Agreement, the proposed Merger and the other Transactions. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including its Annexes and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, because the information in this section may not provide all of the information that might be important to you. Additional important information about ANGI Homeservices and Angie's List is contained in the Annexes to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of, and instructions as to how to obtain, this information, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: You are receiving this proxy statement/prospectus because you were a stockholder of record of Angie's List, Inc. ("Angie's List") as of the close of business on August 25, 2017, which is the record date for the special meeting of Angie's List stockholders described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

On May 1, 2017, Angie's List, IAC/InterActiveCorp ("IAC"), ANGI Homeservices Inc., a direct wholly owned subsidiary of IAC formerly known as Halo TopCo, Inc. ("ANGI Homeservices"), and Casa Merger Sub, Inc., a direct wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices ("Merger Sub"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, which was subsequently amended by an Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger on August 26, 2017, and which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Merger Agreement." The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition of Angie's List by ANGI Homeservices by way of the merger of Merger Sub with and into Angie's List (the "Merger"), with Angie's List continuing as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices.

Angie's List is holding a special meeting of its stockholders, which is referred to herein as the "Angie's List special meeting," in order to obtain the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders. Your vote is very important—we will be unable to complete the Merger unless holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement at the Angie's List special meeting.

Q: What will happen in the Merger and what consideration will I receive in exchange for my shares of Angie's List common stock?

A: At the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), each share of Angie's List common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election (i) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive a share of Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of ANGI Homeservices (a "Class A share") has been properly made and not revoked or lost, one Class A share (the "Share Consideration") or (ii) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been properly made and not revoked or lost, $8.50 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration" which, together with the Share Consideration, is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Merger Consideration"), but subject to the proration provisions described in this proxy statement/prospectus. For more information regarding the procedures for electing between the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration."

Table of ContentsQ: Am I guaranteed to receive the form of consideration I elect to receive in the Merger?

A: If you properly elect to receive the Share Consideration, yes. If you properly elect to receive the Cash Consideration, you are not guaranteed to receive entirely Cash Consideration. Under the Merger Agreement, the aggregate Cash Consideration payable in the Merger is capped at $130 million. Depending on the elections made by other Angie's List stockholders, the aggregate Cash Consideration cap of $130 million may be exceeded in which case Angie's List stockholders who properly elected to receive Cash Consideration in the Merger will receive a portion of their Merger Consideration in respect of the Angie's List shares for which the Cash Consideration was properly elected in the form of the Share Consideration.

If the aggregate number of shares of Angie's List common stock in respect of which Cash Consideration is properly elected is less than or equal to 15,294,118 shares (which is the quotient obtained by dividing the aggregate Cash Consideration cap of $130 million by $8.50, the per-share Cash Consideration amount), then (i) all shares of Angie's List common stock for which Cash Consideration was properly elected will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and (ii) all other shares of Angie's List common stock (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, including any shares of Angie's List common stock for which no election is properly made.

However, if the aggregate number of shares of Angie's List common stock in respect of which Cash Consideration is properly elected exceeds 15,294,118 shares, then (i) all shares of Angie's List common stock for which Share Consideration was validly elected will be converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration and (ii) the number of shares of Angie's List common stock of each stockholder of Angie's List who properly elected to receive Cash Consideration that will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares for which such Angie's List stockholder properly elected the Cash Consideration by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is 15,294,118, and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of shares for which all Angie's List stockholders properly elected the Cash Consideration, rounded to the nearest whole share. All other shares of Angie's List common stock (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, including any shares of Angie's List common stock for which no election is properly made.

For more information, including an illustrative example of this proration procedure, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration."

Q: How do I elect the Cash Consideration or the Share Consideration?

A: Angie's List will cause to be mailed or delivered an election form to each Angie's List stockholder as of the close of business on August 25, 2017, which is the record date for the Angie's List special meeting. Angie's List will mail the election forms at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline. The election forms are expected to be mailed on or around August 30, 2017. Angie's List will also make available election forms as may be reasonably requested by anyone who becomes an Angie's List stockholder after the record date for the Angie's List special meeting and prior to the election deadline. The deadline for returning the election forms will be 5:00 p.m., Eastern time on September 28, 2017, the day prior to the date of the Angie's List special meeting, unless another date is agreed in advance by Angie's List and IAC (in which case Angie's List will reasonably promptly announce the rescheduled election deadline). An election will have been properly made only if the exchange agent has received, by the election deadline, an election form properly completed and signed and accompanied by (i) the Angie's List stock certificates, if any, to which such election form relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of Angie's List, and (ii) in the case of book-entry shares of Angie's List common stock, any additional documents specified in the procedures set forth in the election form. See the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration."

Q: What happens if I do not submit a properly completed election form and related materials or they are not received by the exchange agent before the election deadline?

A: For any shares of Angie's List common stock with respect to which the exchange agent does not receive a properly completed and timely election form and any related materials, the holder of those shares will be deemed not to have made an election. Under the Merger Agreement, non-electing shares will be deemed to have elected to receive the Share Consideration, meaning each such share of Angie's List common stock will be converted into one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices in the Merger.

Q: Can I change or revoke an election for the Share Consideration or the Cash Consideration after it has been submitted?

A: Any Angie's List stockholder may, at any time prior to the election deadline, change or revoke such stockholder's election by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline, accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised election form, or by withdrawal prior to the election deadline of such stockholder's Angie's List stock certificates or any documents in respect of book-entry shares of Angie's List previously deposited with the exchange agent. An election may not be revoked after the election deadline. A revocation of an election prior to the election deadline is required in connection with any transfer of shares of Angie's List common stock as to which an election has been properly made. As a result, following the election deadline until the Closing, Angie's List stockholders will not be able to transfer (including by sale) any shares of Angie's List common stock for which an election has been properly made. Any and all elections will be automatically deemed revoked upon receipt by the exchange agent of written notice from Angie's List or IAC that the Merger Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms.

Q: What is the Contribution?

A: Prior to the closing of the Merger (the "Closing"), IAC will contribute its HomeAdvisor Business (as defined herein), along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration, if any, to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of ANGI Homeservices (the "Class B shares"). For further details regarding the Contribution, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Contribution Agreement."

Q: What is the HomeAdvisor Business and what is IAC?

A: The HomeAdvisor Business is the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, connecting homeowners with service professionals for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects. HomeAdvisor's marketplace provides the tools and resources to allow homeowners to find local prescreened service professionals and instantly book appointments online or through HomeAdvisor's award-winning mobile application. HomeAdvisor's marketplace also provides consumers with other home services-related resources, including access to average project costs using HomeAdvisor's True Cost Guide. In addition to its market-leading U.S. operations, the HomeAdvisor Business owns the leading home services online marketplaces in Canada

(HomeStars), Germany (MyHammer), France (Travaux.com) and the Netherlands (Werkspot), as well as operations in Italy (Instapro) and the United Kingdom (MyBuilder). The HomeAdvisor Business also operates Felix, a pay-per-call advertising service, and mHelpDesk, a provider of cloud-based field service software for small to mid-size businesses.

As of June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business's network of service professionals in the United States consisted of approximately 164,000 paying professionals providing services in more than 500 categories ranging from simple home repairs to larger home remodeling projects in more than 400 discrete geographies. The HomeAdvisor Business generated approximately 15.7 million service requests from homeowners in the United States during the twelve months ended June 30, 2017.

For more information about the HomeAdvisor Business, see the sections entitled "Information About the HomeAdvisor Business" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the HomeAdvisor Business."

IAC (NASDAQ:IAC) is a leading media and internet company comprised of widely known consumer brands such as HomeAdvisor, Vimeo, Dictionary.com, The Daily Beast, Investopedia and Match Group's online dating portfolio, which includes Match, Tinder, PlentyOfFish and OkCupid. IAC is headquartered in New York City and has offices worldwide.

Q: What percentage of the combined company will holders of Angie's List common stock own following the completion of the Merger? What percentage will IAC own?

A: Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor, Inc. ("HomeAdvisor (US)") to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock. For further details regarding the calculation of the number of Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued to IAC prior to the Closing, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC."

There is no requirement for any Angie's List stockholder to receive Cash Consideration in the Merger. If no Angie's List stockholder elects to receive the Cash Consideration, 100% of the consideration paid in the Merger will be in the form of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares, if applicable).

Q: What will the corporate governance and management of ANGI Homeservices look like following the completion of the Merger?

A: Following the completion of the Merger, IAC will continue to control a majority of the voting power of the outstanding common stock of ANGI Homeservices. As a result, ANGI Homeservices will be a "controlled company" under the applicable rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market ("NASDAQ"). As a controlled company, ANGI Homeservices will be exempt from the obligation to comply with certain corporate governance requirements under applicable NASDAQ Rules and plans to take advantage of some or all of those exemptions, as further described in the section entitled "Corporate Governance of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

The Merger Agreement provides that the initial board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors. The directors selected by Angie's List will be Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be able and willing to serve. The Merger Agreement further provides that the chairman of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will be Joseph Levin, the current Chief Executive Officer of IAC, and that the Chief Executive Officer of ANGI Homeservices will be Chris Terrill, the current Chief Executive Officer of HomeAdvisor (US). For additional information regarding the expected directors and officers of ANGI Homeservices, see the section entitled "Board of Directors and Executive Officers of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: IAC and Angie's List expect the Closing to occur in the late third quarter or early fourth quarter of 2017, subject to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the Merger. However, no assurance can be provided as to when or if the Transactions will be completed.

Q: What are the conditions to the completion of the Merger?

A: The completion of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. These conditions include, among others, the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders at the special meeting. For more information, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger." Neither IAC nor Angie's List can be certain when or if the conditions to the Merger described above will be satisfied (or waived), or that the Merger will be completed in a timely manner or at all.

Q: What will happen if the Merger is not consummated?

A: If the Merger and the other Transactions are not completed on a timely basis, or at all, the business, financial results and prospects of Angie's List, as well as the market price of Angie's List common stock, may be adversely affected and, without realizing any of the potential benefits of having completed the Transactions, Angie's List and its stockholders will be subject to a number of risks, including the following:

- Angie's List will be required to pay IAC a termination fee of $20 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated in specified circumstances, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses";
- time and resources spent or committed by Angie's List's management to matters relating to the Merger and the other Transactions (including integration planning and expenses for professional services and other transaction costs, many of which are payable by Angie's List regardless of whether or not the Merger and the other Transactions are consummated) that could otherwise have been devoted to pursuing other beneficial opportunities for Angie's List will have been largely wasted;
- negative publicity and a negative impression of Angie's List in the business community; and
- if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Angie's List board of directors seeks an alternative business combination, Angie's List stockholders cannot be certain that Angie's List will be able to find a party willing to enter into a transaction agreement on terms equivalent to, or more attractive than, the terms that IAC has agreed to in the Merger and the other Transactions.

Q: Will I be entitled to dissenters' rights or appraisal rights in the Merger?

A: No. Appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with such extraordinary transaction.

Appraisal rights are not available in all circumstances, and exceptions to these rights are provided under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"). In the Merger, because Angie's List common stock is listed on NASDAQ, and because Angie's List stockholders are not required to accept in the Merger any consideration in exchange for their shares of Angie's List common stock other than Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices, which will be publicly listed on NASDAQ, and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if applicable), holders of Angie's List common stock will not be entitled to any appraisal rights in connection with the Merger with respect to their shares of Angie's List common stock. For a more detailed description of the relevant provisions of the DGCL, see the section entitled "The Transactions—No Appraisal Rights."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANGIE'S LIST SPECIAL MEETING

The following section provides brief answers to certain questions that you may have regarding the Angie's List special meeting of stockholders to be held in connection with the Transactions. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including its Annexes and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, because the information in this section may not provide all of the information that might be important to you. Additional important information about ANGI Homeservices and Angie's List is contained in the Annexes to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of, and instructions as to how to obtain, this information, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Q: How does the Angie's List board recommend that I vote at the special meeting?

A: The board of directors of Angie's List, which is sometimes referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Angie's List board," unanimously recommends that all Angie's List stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, "FOR" the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger and "FOR" the proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. See the sections entitled "The Transactions—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors."

Q: Who can vote at the special meeting?

A: Only holders of record of Angie's List common stock as of the close of business on the record date of August 25, 2017, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "record date," are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock held as of the close of business on the record date entitles its holder to cast one vote on each proposal to be voted on at the special meeting.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held on September 29, at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time, at The Alexander, 333 S. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204. Angie's List stockholders as of the close of business on the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the special meeting. If you hold shares of Angie's List common stock in your name as a stockholder of record and you wish to attend the special meeting, you must present evidence of your stock ownership, such as your most recent account statement, at the special meeting. You should also bring valid picture identification. If your shares of Angie's List common stock are held in "street name" in a stock brokerage account or otherwise by a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and you wish to attend the special meeting, you need to bring a copy of a bank or brokerage statement to the special meeting reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date. You should also bring valid picture identification. Please note that if your shares of Angie's List common stock are held by a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and you plan to attend the special meeting in person and would like to vote at the special meeting, you will need to bring a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as further described in this proxy statement/prospectus. For additional information about the special meeting, see the section entitled "Angie's List Special Meeting of Stockholders."

Table of ContentsQ: What am I being asked to vote on at the special meeting?

A: You are being asked to consider and vote upon (i) a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, (ii) a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger and (iii) a proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Q: Why am I being asked to consider and vote on a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger?

A: Under SEC rules, Angie's List is required to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote with respect to the compensation that may be paid or become payable to its named executive officers that is based on, or otherwise relates to, the Merger.

Q: What will happen if Angie's List stockholders do not approve this Merger-related compensation?

A: Approval by Angie's List stockholders of the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Angie's List's named executive officers that is based on, or otherwise relates to, the Merger is not a condition to completion of the Merger. The vote is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Angie's List, the surviving corporation in the Merger, ANGI Homeservices or any other party. If the Merger is completed, the Merger-related compensation may be paid to Angie's List's named executive officers to the extent payable in accordance with the terms of their compensation agreements and arrangements, even if Angie's List stockholders do not approve, by advisory (non-binding) vote, the Merger-related compensation.

Q: What is the vote required to approve each proposal at the Angie's List special meeting?

A: Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on this proposal. Accordingly, your failure to submit a proxy card or to vote in person at the special meeting, your abstention from voting or your failure to give voting instructions to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee if you hold your shares in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock present, in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting and entitled to vote on this proposal. If your shares are not in attendance at the special meeting, they will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal; however, if a quorum is present and you submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting and indicate "ABSTAIN," your abstention will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

Approval of the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if it is necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement, requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock present, in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting and entitled to vote on this proposal. If your shares are not in attendance at the special meeting, they will have no effect on the outcome of any vote to adjourn or postpone the special meeting; however, if a quorum is present and you submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting and indicate "ABSTAIN," your abstention will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

See the sections entitled, "Angie's List Special Meeting of Stockholders—Record Date; Stockholders Entitled to Vote," "—Quorum; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes" and "—Required Vote."

Q: What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

A: If your shares of Angie's List common stock are registered directly in your name with the transfer agent of Angie's List, Computershare Trust Company, N.A., you are considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares. As the stockholder of record, you have the right to vote or to grant a proxy for your vote directly to Angie's List or to a third party to vote at the special meeting.

If your shares are held by a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name," and your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee is considered the stockholder of record with respect to those shares. Your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will send you, as the beneficial owner, a package describing the procedure for voting your shares. You should follow the instructions provided by them to vote your shares. You are invited to attend the special meeting; however, you may not vote these shares in person at the special meeting unless you obtain a "legal proxy" from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee that holds your shares, giving you the right to vote the shares at the special meeting.

Q: If my shares of Angie's List common stock are held in "street name" by my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee automatically vote those shares for me?

A: Your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will only be permitted to vote your shares of Angie's List common stock if you instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee how to vote. You should follow the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee regarding the voting of your shares of Angie's List common stock. Under the rules that govern brokers who have record ownership of shares that are held in "street name" for their clients, the beneficial owners of the shares, brokers have discretion to vote these shares on routine matters but not on non-routine matters. The proposals to be voted on at the special meeting are not considered routine matters. Accordingly, brokers will not have discretionary voting authority to vote on the matters at the special meeting and, without instruction from the beneficial owner of the shares of Angie's List common stock held by that broker, will not be permitted to vote on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger or the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, shares of Angie's List common stock beneficially owned that have been designated on proxy cards by the broker (or bank or other nominee) as not voted on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which are referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as "broker non-votes," will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and to the extent a broker (or bank or other nominee) has caused your shares to be represented at the special meeting, the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

A: Each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock held as of the close of business on the record date entitles its holder to cast one vote on each proposal to be voted on at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 61,292,181 shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A: The presence, in person or represented by proxy, of a majority of all issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum.

Q: How do I vote?

A: Stockholder of Record. If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote using any of the following methods:

- by telephone or on the internet, by calling the toll-free telephone number or visiting the website specified on the enclosed proxy card. Please have your proxy card handy to verify your identity using the control number provided on your proxy card. When voting over the telephone or online you can confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. Please be aware that if you vote by telephone or over the internet, you may incur costs such as telephone and internet access charges for which you will be responsible;
- by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope; or
- by attending the special meeting in person and casting your vote there. You may also be represented by another person at the special meeting if you execute a proper proxy designating that person.

Beneficial Owner. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to see which of the above choices are available to you. Please note that if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the special meeting you must obtain a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and present it to the inspectors of election with your ballot.

Q: How can I change or revoke my vote?

A: You have the right to revoke a proxy, whether delivered by telephone, over the internet or by mail, at any time before it is voted at the special meeting, by voting again at a later date through any of the methods available to you, by attending the special meeting and voting in person, or by giving written notice of revocation to Angie's List prior to the time the special meeting begins. Written notice of revocation should be mailed to: Angie's List, Inc., Attention: Corporate Secretary, 1030 East Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202. If your shares are held in "street name," you must contact your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to revoke and vote your proxy. If you have questions about how to vote or revoke your proxy, you should contact Angie's List's proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated, toll-free at (888) 750-5834 or collect at (212) 750-5833.

Table of ContentsQ: If I give a proxy, how are my shares of Angie's List common stock voted?

A: Regardless of the method you choose to vote, the individuals named on the enclosed proxy card will vote your shares of Angie's List common stock in the way that you indicate. When completing the telephone or internet processes or the proxy card, you may specify whether your shares of Angie's List common stock should be voted for or against or to abstain from voting on all, some or none of the specific items of business to come before the special meeting.

If you are an Angie's List stockholder of record and you sign, date and return your proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote or do not indicate that you wish to abstain, your shares will be voted (i) "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, (ii) "FOR" the proposal to approve compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger, (iii) "FOR" the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement and (iv) in the discretion of the proxyholders on any other matter that may properly come before the special meeting at the discretion of the Angie's List board of directors.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: If you hold shares of Angie's List common stock in "street name" and also directly as a record holder or otherwise or if you hold shares of Angie's List common stock in more than one brokerage account, you may receive more than one set of voting materials relating to the special meeting. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card (or cast your vote by telephone or internet as provided on your proxy card) or otherwise follow the voting instructions provided in this proxy statement/prospectus in order to ensure that all of your shares of Angie's List common stock are voted. If you hold your shares in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you should follow the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of Angie's List common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date is earlier than both the date of the special meeting and the Effective Time of the Merger. If you transfer your shares of Angie's List common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will, unless the transferee requests a proxy from you, retain your right to vote at the special meeting but will transfer the right to receive the Share Consideration or Cash Consideration, as applicable, to the person to whom you transfer your shares. In order to receive the Share Consideration or Cash Consideration, as applicable, you must hold your shares through the Effective Time of the Merger.

Q: Who will solicit and pay the cost of soliciting proxies?

A: Angie's List is soliciting proxies for the special meeting from Angie's List stockholders. Angie's List has also retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated to solicit proxies for the special meeting from Angie's List stockholders for a fee of approximately $20,000, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Angie's List will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from Angie's List stockholders, and Angie's List will pay all expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition to this mailing, Angie's List's directors, officers and employees (who will not receive any additional compensation for such services) may solicit proxies. Solicitation of proxies may be undertaken through the mail, in person, by telephone, the internet or other means. Angie's List may also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses for forwarding proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Angie's List common stock and in obtaining voting instructions from such beneficial owners.

Table of ContentsQ: What do I need to do now?

A: Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, after carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please vote promptly to ensure that your shares are represented at the special meeting. If you are a stockholder of record, you may vote using any of the following methods:

- by telephone or on the internet, by calling the toll-free telephone number or visiting the website specified on the enclosed proxy card. Please have your proxy card handy to verify your identity using the control number provided on your proxy card. When voting over the telephone or online you can confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. Please be aware that if you vote by telephone or over the internet, you may incur costs such as telephone and internet access charges for which you will be responsible;
- by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card or voting instruction card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope; or
- by attending the special meeting in person and casting your vote there. You may also be represented by another person at the special meeting if you execute a proper proxy designating that person.

If you decide to attend the special meeting and vote in person, your vote by ballot will revoke any proxy previously submitted. If you are a beneficial owner, please refer to the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to see which of the above choices are available to you. Please note that if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the special meeting, must obtain a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and present it to the inspectors of election with your ballot.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates with my proxy?

A: No, please do NOT return your stock certificate(s) with your proxy. You will be mailed a form of election and other customary transmittal materials within five business days of the mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus, under separate cover, describing how you may exchange your shares of Angie's List common stock for the Share Consideration or Cash Consideration, as applicable. If your shares of Angie's List common stock are held in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you will receive instructions from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as to how to effect the surrender of your "street name" shares of Angie's List common stock in exchange for the Share Consideration or Cash Consideration, as applicable, if and when the Merger is completed, as further described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Who can help answer any other questions I have?

A: If you need assistance in voting or completing your proxy card or have questions regarding the special meeting, please contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated, the proxy solicitor for Angie's List, by mail at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10022 or by telephone at (888) 750-5834 (toll-free) or (212) 750-5833 (collect).

SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information included in this proxy statement/prospectus. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including its Annexes and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, because the information in this section may not provide all of the information that might be important to you. Additional important information about ANGI Homeservices and Angie's List is contained in the Annexes to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus. For a description of, and instructions as to how to obtain, this information, see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information." Each topic in this summary includes a page reference directing you to a more complete description of that topic elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Information About the Companies Involved in the Transactions (Page 64)

Angie's List, Inc.

1030 East Washington Street
Indianapolis, Indiana 46202
Phone: (888) 888-5478

Angie's List, Inc. (NASDAQ:ANGI) is a Delaware corporation. Angie's List operates a national local services consumer review service and marketplace with a mission of improving the local service experience for both members and service professionals. To that end, Angie's List helps facilitate transactions between more than five million members and its collection of service professionals in over 700 categories of service nationwide. Built on a foundation of more than ten million verified reviews of local services, Angie's List's unique tools, services and content across multiple platforms enable members to research, shop for and purchase local services for critical needs, as well as rate and review the providers of these services. Angie's List's ratings and reviews, which are now available to members free-of-charge following the introduction of a free membership tier during 2016, assist Angie's List's members in identifying and hiring a provider for their local service needs.

Additional information about Angie's List and its subsidiaries is included in the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

ANGI Homeservices Inc. and the HomeAdvisor Business

14023 Denver West Parkway
Building 64
Golden, Colorado 80401
Phone: (303) 963-7200

ANGI Homeservices is a Delaware corporation that was formed on April 13, 2017 under the name Halo TopCo, Inc. and renamed ANGI Homeservices Inc. on May 4, 2017. ANGI Homeservices was formed in connection with the Transactions as a wholly owned subsidiary of IAC. Following the completion of the Transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, ANGI Homeservices will become the holding company of both the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List.

The HomeAdvisor Business is the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, connecting homeowners with service professionals for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects. HomeAdvisor's marketplace provides the tools and resources to allow homeowners to find local prescreened service professionals and instantly book appointments online or through HomeAdvisor's award-winning mobile application. HomeAdvisor's marketplace also provides consumers with other home services-related resources, including access to average project costs using HomeAdvisor's True Cost Guide. In addition to its market-leading U.S. operations, the HomeAdvisor Business owns the leading home services online marketplaces in Canada (HomeStars), Germany (MyHammer), France (Travaux.com) and the Netherlands (Werkspot), as well as operations in Italy (Instapro) and the United Kingdom (MyBuilder). The HomeAdvisor Business also operates Felix, a pay-per-call advertising service, and mHelpDesk, a provider of cloud-based field service software for small to mid-size businesses.

As of June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business's network of service professionals in the United States consisted of approximately 164,000 paying professionals providing services in more than 500 categories ranging from simple home repairs to larger home remodeling projects in more than 400 discrete geographies. The HomeAdvisor Business generated approximately 15.7 million service requests from homeowners in the United States during the twelve months ended June 30, 2017.

For more information about the HomeAdvisor Business, see the sections entitled "Information About the HomeAdvisor Business" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the HomeAdvisor Business."

Merger Sub

Casa Merger Sub, Inc.
555 West 18th Street
New York, New York 10011
Phone: (212) 314-7300

Casa Merger Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices, is a Delaware corporation that was formed on April 13, 2017 for the purpose of effecting the Merger. In the Merger, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Angie's List, with Angie's List continuing as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices.

IAC/InterActiveCorp

IAC/InterActiveCorp
555 West 18th Street
New York, New York 10011
Phone: (212) 314-7300

IAC (NASDAQ:IAC) is a Delaware corporation. IAC is a leading media and internet company comprised of widely known consumer brands such as HomeAdvisor, Vimeo, Dictionary.com, The Daily Beast, Investopedia, and Match Group's online dating portfolio, which includes Match, Tinder, PlentyOfFish and OkCupid. IAC is headquartered in New York City and has offices worldwide.

Immediately following the completion of the Transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration.

Additional information about IAC, including with respect to its corporate governance and the ownership of its common stock, is available in IAC's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and its proxy statement on Schedule 14A, dated May 10, 2017. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, prior to the Closing, IAC will contribute its HomeAdvisor Business, along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration, if any, to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices. This contribution by IAC is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Contribution" and the issuance by ANGI Homeservices of Class B shares to IAC in connection with the Contribution is referred to as the "IAC Share Issuance." For further details regarding the Contribution, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Contribution Agreement," and for further details regarding the IAC Share Issuance, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC." At the Effective Time, Merger Sub will merge with and into Angie's List, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and Angie's List will continue as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices. This merger is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Merger." For further details regarding the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the effects of the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement."

The Merger, the Contribution, the IAC Share Issuance, and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements (as described in the section entitled "The Ancillary Agreements") are referred to collectively in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Transactions."

Following the Merger, (i) Angie's List common stock will be delisted from NASDAQ, deregistered under the Exchange Act and cease to be publicly traded and (ii) the Class A shares of the combined company, ANGI Homeservices, are expected to trade on NASDAQ under the current Angie's List ticker symbol, "ANGI."

Set forth below are diagrams that graphically illustrate, in simplified form, (1) the existing corporate structure of IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, (2) the structure of the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, following which the HomeAdvisor Business will be owned by ANGI Homeservices, (3) the structure of the Merger, and the issuance of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to holders of Angie's List common stock who properly elect or are deemed to elect to receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, and (4) the corporate structure of IAC and ANGI Homeservices (which at that time will own the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List) immediately following the completion of the Transactions.

Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and

IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

The Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration (Page 124)

At the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), each share of Angie's List common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election (i) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive a Class A share of ANGI Homeservices has been properly made and not revoked or lost, one Class A share (the "Share Consideration") or (ii) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been properly made and not revoked or lost, $8.50 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration" which, together with the Share Consideration, is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Merger Consideration"), but subject to the consideration election procedures and Cash Consideration proration provisions described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration."

There is no requirement for any Angie's List stockholder to receive Cash Consideration in the Merger. If no Angie's List stockholder elects to receive the Cash Consideration, 100% of the consideration paid in the Merger will be in the form of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares, if applicable).

Treatment of Angie's List Equity Awards in the Merger (Page 125)

Options. Each option to purchase shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an option to purchase (i) that number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices equal to the total number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) at a per-share exercise price equal to the exercise price per share of Angie's List common stock at which such Angie's List option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time. Each ANGI Homeservices option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Restricted Stock Unit Awards. Each award of restricted stock units that corresponds to shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award with respect to a number of Class A shares equal to the number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time (assuming satisfaction of any applicable performance goals at the target performance level with respect to Angie's List performance-based restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016). Each ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit awards corresponding to performance-based Angie's List restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016 will vest solely on the basis of service following the Effective Time.

IAC and Angie's List (which, for purposes of this section, are sometimes referred to as "we" and "our") believe that the combination of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List pursuant to the Transactions will enhance stockholder value by, among other things, enabling the combined company, ANGI Homeservices, to capitalize on the market opportunity presented by the following dynamics of the home services market:

- Large and growing addressable market: The U.S. home services market is large and growing, with an estimated total value in excess of $400 billion in 2017, and an expected compound annual growth rate of approximately 6% over the next five years, according to Cowen and Company. As the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, we believe ANGI Homeservices will be well positioned to capitalize on this growing market.
- Fragmented two-sided marketplace: The home services market is also highly fragmented on both the consumer and service professional sides of the marketplace. We believe this substantial fragmentation means that both consumers and service professionals experience significant friction when trying to transact, which creates an opportunity for a technology-driven marketplace to provide a superior solution. We believe a solutions provider such as ANGI Homeservices can provide enduring value to its service professional customers and to homeowners by reducing friction, increasing total transaction volume, enabling more satisfying experiences and delivering improved returns (whether measured by time spent searching or dollars spent marketing) to marketplace participants.
- Accelerating online migration: The home services market is one of the largest remaining marketplaces where digital penetration remains low. We expect the migration to online marketplaces for finding and booking home services to accelerate in the future due to many factors.

We believe that the combined company will be better positioned than either Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business would be on a standalone basis to capitalize on these dynamics of the home services market due to the substantial strategic and financial benefits that we believe will result from the Transactions. We believe these benefits include:

- Network effects of the combination: We believe that combining Angie's List, which has the industry's leading brand (according to a brand measurement study conducted by the HomeAdvisor Business) and significant recurring organic traffic (with an estimated 13.0 million monthly unique visitors to its platform (on average, for the twelve months ended June 30, 2017, measured by daily unique visitors, according to web analytics company Omniture)), with the HomeAdvisor Business, which we believe has the nation's largest online network of service professionals (with approximately 164,000 paying professionals in its network as of June 30, 2017), will create a more comprehensive, liquid and efficient marketplace.
- Diversifying the monetization model: We believe that ANGI Homeservices will have best-in-class monetization capabilities, spanning a variety of monetization methods, and offering choice to service professionals and consumers alike.
- Enhancing innovation: We expect that, by combining the resources of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List, ANGI Homeservices will be able to accelerate the product innovation that is fundamental to removing friction in order to drive home services customers and service professionals online. We believe that the increased reach, scale and resources of ANGI Homeservices will facilitate continued product innovation in the rapidly growing digital home services market, leading to the potential for long-term revenue and earnings growth, as well as improved consumer satisfaction.

- Improving customer and service professional acquisition efficiency: We believe the combined company will use shared best practices and data to deliver market-leading customer acquisition efficiency.
- Achieving substantial synergies: We believe that the Transactions will create significant synergies across the combined company in three major categories: (i) cost savings that result from the streamlining of duplicative resources or the refocusing of such otherwise duplicative resources toward growth initiatives; (ii) enhanced monetization of the Angie's List consumer traffic by application of the HomeAdvisor business model; and (iii) efficiencies and conversion improvements resulting from the increased scale of the combined company, including in the areas of sales, marketing and technology.
- Blending compatible cultures and service philosophies: ANGI Homeservices will have a highly experienced management team assembled from both companies, and a board of directors comprised of representatives of both IAC and the current board of directors of Angie's List. We believe that the industry expertise of management, coupled with the continuity in management oversight in the combined company's board, will provide a deep understanding of the best practices of both companies that will facilitate successful integration of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List.

Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors (Page 87)

The Angie's List board of directors believes that the businesses of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business are complementary and that a combination of Angie's List with the HomeAdvisor Business presents a compelling strategic opportunity to enhance value for Angie's List stockholders. In evaluating the Transactions, the Angie's List board of directors consulted with Angie's List's management and legal and financial advisors.

In reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement and recommend the adoption of the Merger Agreement to Angie's List's stockholders, the Angie's List board of directors considered a number of factors and a number of potential risks, including, among others, the fact that there is no trading history for ANGI Homeservices equity securities or any equity securities of any of the HomeAdvisor Entities, and that therefore there would be substantial uncertainty regarding the prices at which the Class A shares to be received by Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger may trade following the Merger. Certain of the additional factors and potential risks the Angie's List board of directors considered are discussed in more detail under "The Transactions—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors."

Opinions of Angie's List's Financial Advisors (Page 90)Opinion of Allen & Company LLC

Angie's List has engaged Allen & Company LLC ("Allen & Company") as a financial advisor in connection with the Merger. In connection with the Merger, Allen & Company delivered a written opinion, dated May 1, 2017, to the Angie's List board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Angie's List common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The full text of Allen & Company's written opinion, dated May 1, 2017, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex E. The description of Allen & Company's opinion set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Allen & Company's opinion. Allen & Company's opinion was intended for the benefit and use of the Angie's List board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any related transactions or any other terms, aspects or implications of the Merger. Allen & Company's opinion did not constitute a recommendation as to the course of action that Angie's List (or the Angie's List board of directors) should pursue in connection with the Merger or related transactions or otherwise address the merits of the underlying decision by Angie's List to engage in the Merger or related transactions, including in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Angie's List or which Angie's List might engage in or consider. Allen & Company's opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any stockholder as to any election made by such stockholder or how such stockholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the Merger, any related transactions or otherwise.

Opinion of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated

Angie's List also has engaged Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated ("BofA Merrill Lynch") as a financial advisor in connection with the Merger. In connection with the Merger, BofA Merrill Lynch delivered a written opinion, dated May 1, 2017, to the Angie's List board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of such date, to the holders of Angie's List common stock of the Merger Consideration to be received by such holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The full text of BofA Merrill Lynch's written opinion, dated May 1, 2017, is attached as Annex F and sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by BofA Merrill Lynch in rendering its opinion. BofA Merrill Lynch delivered its opinion to the Angie's List board of directors for the benefit and use of the Angie's List board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion did not address any related transactions or any other terms, aspects or implications of the Merger and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger or related transactions in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Angie's List or in which Angie's List might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Angie's List to proceed with or effect the Merger or related transactions. BofA Merrill Lynch also expressed no opinion or recommendation as to any election made by a stockholder or how any stockholder should vote or act in connection with the Merger, any related transactions or any other matter.

Corporate Governance, Board of Directors and Management of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger (Page 190)

Following the completion of the Merger, IAC will continue to control a majority of the voting power of the outstanding common stock of ANGI Homeservices. As a result, ANGI Homeservices will be a "controlled company" under the applicable rules of NASDAQ. As a controlled company, ANGI Homeservices will be exempt from the obligation to comply with certain corporate governance requirements under applicable NASDAQ Rules and plans to take advantage of some or all of those exemptions, as further described in the section entitled "Corporate Governance of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

The Merger Agreement provides that the initial board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors. The directors selected by Angie's List will be Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be able and willing to serve. The Merger Agreement further provides that the chairman of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will be Joseph Levin, the current Chief Executive Officer of IAC, and that the Chief Executive Officer of ANGI Homeservices will be Chris Terrill, the current Chief Executive Officer of

HomeAdvisor (US). For additional information regarding the expected directors and officers of ANGI Homeservices, see the section entitled "Board of Directors and Executive Officers of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (Page 113)

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act") and the rules promulgated thereunder, the Merger may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the "DOJ") and the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (the "FTC") and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Completion of the Merger is subject to the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act. Pursuant to the HSR Act, IAC filed its Notification and Report Form with the FTC and the DOJ on May 11, 2017. Angie's List filed its Notification and Report Form with the FTC and DOJ on May 15, 2017. On June 14, 2017, to give additional time to the DOJ to review the transaction during its initial review period and thus expedite the DOJ's overall review of the transaction, IAC withdrew its Notification and Report Form and re-filed it on June 15, 2017. The applicable waiting period under the HSR Act was terminated early by the FTC effective as of July 13, 2017.

The obligations of Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub to effect the Merger are subject to the fulfillment of the following mutual conditions:

- the adoption of the Merger Agreement proposal by Angie's List stockholders;
- the absence of (i) any injunction or other order having been entered by any court or other governmental entity of competent jurisdiction that continues to be in effect and (ii) any law having been adopted or become effective, in each case, prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions, including the Contribution;
- any waiting period (and any extension thereof) under the HSR Act relating to the Transactions having terminated or expired (which condition was satisfied on July 13, 2017);
- (i) the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part having been declared effective by the SEC, (ii) no stop order suspending the effectiveness of such Form S-4 having been issued by the SEC and (iii) no proceedings for that purpose having been initiated or threatened by the SEC; and
- the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued in the Merger having been approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

The obligation of Angie's List to effect the Merger is also subject to the fulfillment (or waiver by Angie's List) of the following additional conditions, among others:

- the representations and warranties of IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub set forth in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct, subject to specified materiality qualifications;
- IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub must have in all material respects performed all obligations and complied with all covenants required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by them prior to the Effective Time;
- since May 1, 2017, there must not have been any event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—

Representations and Warranties; Material Adverse Effect") with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business;

- Angie's List must have received a written opinion from Sidley Austin LLP ("Sidley Austin") in connection with the Merger, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger"; and
- the Contribution (including the IAC Share Issuance) must have been completed in accordance with the Contribution Agreement.

The obligation of IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub to effect the Merger is also subject to the fulfillment (or waiver by IAC) of the following additional conditions, among others:

- the representations and warranties of Angie's List set forth in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct, subject to specified materiality qualifications;
- Angie's List must have in all material respects performed all obligations and complied with all covenants required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Effective Time;
- since May 1, 2017, there must not have been any event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Representations and Warranties; Material Adverse Effect") with respect to Angie's List; and
- IAC must have received a written opinion from Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz ("Wachtell Lipton") in connection with the Merger, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger."

Neither IAC nor Angie's List can be certain when or if the conditions to the Merger will be satisfied (or waived), or that the Merger will be completed in a timely manner or at all. For further details regarding the risks associated with the Merger, see the section entitled "Risk Factors," and for further details regarding the conditions to the Closing, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger."

Restrictions on Solicitation of Alternative Takeover Proposals by Angie's List (Page 136)

Except as expressly permitted by the Merger Agreement, Angie's List has agreed that it will not, and will cause each of its affiliates and each of its and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, financial advisors, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other representatives not to, among other things, (i) directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate or knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage any inquiries regarding, or the making, submission or announcement by any person of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a "Company Takeover Proposal" (as defined in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals") or (ii) engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding a Company Takeover Proposal, or furnish to any other person (other than IAC and its representatives) any information relating to Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries, or afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries to any person (other than IAC and its representatives), in each case in connection with or for the purpose of encouraging or facilitating a Company Takeover Proposal (other than to refer the inquiring person to the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement).

However, notwithstanding the restrictions described above, if at any time from and after May 1, 2017 and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders (but not after), (i) Angie's List receives a bona fide, unsolicited written Company Takeover Proposal from any person that did not result from, directly or indirectly, a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger

Agreement and (ii) the Angie's List board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Company Takeover Proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a "Superior Proposal" (as defined in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals") and, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Angie's List may, subject to specified procedures, furnish information with respect to Angie's List and its subsidiaries, and afford access to the business, properties, assets, employees, officers, contracts, books and records of Angie's List and its subsidiaries, to the person that made such Company Takeover Proposal and its representatives, and engage in or otherwise participate in discussions or negotiations with the person making such Company Takeover Proposal and its representatives regarding such Company Takeover Proposal.

Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation (Page 139)

As further described in the sections entitled "The Transactions—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors," and subject to the provisions described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation," the Angie's List board of directors recommends that Angie's List stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which recommendation is referred to in this section as the "Angie's List board recommendation."

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Angie's List has agreed that its board of directors will not, among other things, fail to include the Angie's List board recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus, change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify, or authorize or publicly propose to change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to IAC, the Angie's List board recommendation, or fail to recommend against any Company Takeover Proposal or fail to reaffirm the Angie's List board recommendation within five business days after a request by IAC to do so, subject to certain exceptions and limitations.

However, notwithstanding the restrictions on changes to the Angie's List board recommendation described above, at any time prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders, the Angie's List board of directors may make an adverse recommendation change with respect to a Superior Proposal and/or cause Angie's List to terminate the Merger Agreement (which will require concurrent payment of the termination fee to IAC as described below) in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for the consummation of the transaction contemplated by such Superior Proposal, in either case if, subject to certain restrictions, after receiving a bona fide, unsolicited written Company Takeover Proposal that did not result from, directly or indirectly, a breach of the non-solicitation provisions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Angie's List board of directors has determined in good faith (i) after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Company Takeover Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, and (ii) after consultation with its outside legal counsel, in light of such Company Takeover Proposal, that the failure to make such an adverse recommendation change or terminate the Merger Agreement would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Angie's List board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Additionally, notwithstanding the restrictions on changes to the Angie's List board recommendation described above, the Angie's List board of directors may make an adverse recommendation change in response to an Intervening Event (as defined in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation") if the Angie's List board of directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that its failure to make an adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Prior to making any adverse recommendation change or terminating the Merger Agreement as described above, Angie's List must comply with specified procedures to provide notice of the pending change to IAC, and to negotiate in good faith with IAC during a specified period prior to making any such change, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation."

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 146)

Angie's List and IAC may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the completion of the Merger (including after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders).

In addition, either IAC or Angie's List may terminate the Merger Agreement if:

- the Merger is not consummated on or prior to February 1, 2018 (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if the failure of the Closing to occur by such date was due to a material breach of the Merger Agreement by such party);
- an injunction or other order is entered by a court or other governmental entity of competent jurisdiction permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions, and such injunction or other order has become final and nonappealable (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if the injunction was primarily due to the failure of such party to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement);
- the Angie's List special meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) has concluded without the adoption of Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders; or
- the other party (as referring to IAC in this bullet point, "the other party" also includes ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub) has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, and such breach or failure to perform (i) if it occurred on or continued to occur on the Closing Date, would result in a failure of a condition to the Closing to be satisfied by such breaching party, and (ii) is incapable of being cured by February 1, 2018 or, if curable by such date, is not cured within 20 business days of receipt of written notice from the other party (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if such party is then in material breach of the Merger Agreement and such breach would result in a failure of a condition to the Closing to be satisfied by such party).

IAC may also terminate the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders if the Angie's List board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation."

Angie's List may also terminate the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals" (but only if Angie's List enters into such definitive agreement concurrently with the termination of the Merger Agreement and pays the termination fee described below).

Angie's List will be obligated to pay IAC a termination fee of $20 million in any of the following circumstances:

- if Angie's List terminates the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal;
- if IAC terminates the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders because the Angie's List board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change; or
- if a Company Takeover Proposal (as defined in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals," except that all references to "15%" in that definition will be deemed references to "50%" for purposes of this termination fee trigger) has been made or communicated to the Angie's List board of directors or has been publicly announced or become publicly known and:
 - such Company Takeover Proposal has not been publicly withdrawn at least five business days prior to the Angie's List special meeting, and the Merger Agreement is later terminated because the Angie's List special meeting concludes without the adoption of Merger Agreement proposal by Angie's List stockholders; or
 - such Company Takeover Proposal has not been withdrawn prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement due to (a) the Merger having not been consummated by February 1, 2018 or (b) Angie's List having breached or failed to perform under the Merger Agreement in a manner that causes the closing condition relating to the performance by Angie's List of its obligations under the Merger Agreement in all material respects not to be satisfied; and
 - in either of the cases described in the preceding two bullet points, within nine months of such termination, Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to, or consummates a transaction that is, a Company Takeover Proposal with a third party (or a third party otherwise consummates a transaction that is a Company Takeover Proposal).

For additional details, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses."

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (Page 115)

ANGI Homeservices will account for the acquisition of Angie's List pursuant to the Merger using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with GAAP. ANGI Homeservices will measure the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their fair values, including net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed, as of the Closing. Any excess of the purchase price over those fair values will be recorded as goodwill.

Definite lived intangible assets will be amortized over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and goodwill will not be amortized but will be tested for impairment at least annually. All intangible assets and goodwill are also tested for impairment when certain indicators are present, which may occur more frequently than on an annual basis.

The allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements (see the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information") is based on preliminary estimates using assumptions that the management of ANGI Homeservices believes are reasonable based on currently available information as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The final purchase price and fair value assessment of assets and liabilities will be completed following the Closing based in part on a detailed analysis that has not yet been completed.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 157)

It is intended that either (i) the Merger qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or, (ii) the Merger, when combined with the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, qualify as an exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the obligation of Angie's List to effect the Merger that Angie's List receive a written opinion from its counsel, Sidley Austin, to the effect that either (i) the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or (ii) the Merger, when combined with the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, will qualify as an exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code. Accordingly, assuming the receipt and accuracy of such opinion, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders (as defined in the section entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger") of Angie's List common stock generally are as follows:

- If a U.S. holder receives solely shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock in exchange for its shares of Angie's List common stock, such holder generally will not recognize any gain or loss, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock.
- If a U.S. holder receives solely cash in exchange for its shares of Angie's List common stock, such holder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such holder's adjusted tax basis in such Angie's List shares.
- If a U.S. holder receives a combination of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and cash in exchange for its shares of Angie's List common stock, such holder generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and cash received by such holder exceeds such holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of Angie's List common stock surrendered and (ii) the amount of cash received by such holder.

Holders of Angie's List common stock should read the section entitled "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger, including the discussion applicable to holders of Angie's List common stock that acquired blocks of Angie's List common stock at different times or different prices. Holders of Angie's List common stock should consult their own tax advisors to determine the specific consequences to them of exchanging their shares of Angie's List common stock pursuant to the Merger.

Angie's List Special Meeting of Stockholders (Page 58)

The Angie's List special meeting will be held on September 29, at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time, at The Alexander, 333 S. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204. Holders of record of Angie's List common stock as of the close of business on the record date of August 25, 2017, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "record date," are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock held as of the close of business on the record date entitles its holder to cast one vote on each proposal to be voted on at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 61,292,181 shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

At the special meeting, Angie's List stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon (i) a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, (ii) a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger and (iii) a proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Adoption of the Merger Agreement, which is a condition to the completion of the Merger, requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on this proposal. Accordingly, your failure to submit a proxy card or to vote in person at the special meeting, your abstention from voting or your failure to give voting instructions to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee if you hold your shares in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

For additional information about the special meeting, see the section entitled "Angie's List Special Meeting of Stockholders."

Ownership of Angie's List Common Stock by Angie's List Directors, Executive Officers and Their Affiliates (Page 279)

As of the close of business on the record date, Angie's List's directors, executive officers and their respective affiliates owned and were entitled to vote 7,436,575 shares of Angie's List common stock. This represents approximately 12% of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Completion of the Merger is conditioned upon, among other things, the adoption of the Merger Agreement by stockholders of Angie's List. Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock. Angie's List currently expects that the Angie's List directors and executive officers will vote their shares of Angie's List common stock in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and the other proposals to be considered at the special meeting, although none of them is obligated to do so.

In considering whether to approve the proposals set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus to be voted on at the Angie's List special meeting, including the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, you should recognize that some of the members of management and of the Angie's List board of directors may have interests in the Transactions that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as Angie's List stockholders. These interests include:

- the rights of some executive officers to receive payments or other benefits, including the conversion of certain stock options and restricted stock unit awards, acceleration of the vesting of certain equity awards, and possible payments due upon certain terminations of employment during a specified period prior to or following a change in control;
- the expected service of Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans as directors of ANGI Homeservices following the Merger;
- an employment agreement entered into between ANGI Homeservices and Ms. Hicks Bowman providing for her continued service to ANGI Homeservices following the Closing; and
- the continued indemnification of Angie's List's directors and officers after the completion of the Transactions for acts or omissions that occurred in their capacity as directors or officers prior to the Closing.

Historical Per Share Market Price Information of Angie's List Common Stock (Page 273)

Shares of Angie's List common stock are listed on NASDAQ under the symbol "ANGI." Prior to the Closing, no shares of common stock of ANGI Homeservices are or will be listed on any securities exchange. The closing price of Angie's List common stock as reported on NASDAQ on May 1, 2017, the last full trading day before the public announcement of the signing of the Merger Agreement, was $5.89 per share. The closing price of Angie's List common stock as reported on NASDAQ on August 28, 2017, the last practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, was $11.87 per share. For further historical information regarding the trading prices of Angie's List common stock, see the section entitled "Historical Market Price and Dividend Information Regarding Angie's List Common Stock." Angie's List stockholders are urged to consult publicly available sources to obtain current market quotations for Angie's List common stock, and to review carefully the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus), in considering whether to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement at the Angie's List special meeting.

Summary Historical Per Share Financial Information of Angie's List and Pro Forma Per Share Financial Information of ANGI Homeservices (Page 164)

The following table sets forth historical per share information of Angie's List and pro forma combined per share information for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016 after giving effect to the Transactions under the acquisition method of accounting. The historical per share data has been derived from the historical financial statements of Angie's List, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

The pro forma combined per share data has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" and the related notes included in this proxy statement/prospectus. The pro forma combined per share information has been presented for illustrative purposes only and is not necessarily indicative of the operating results and financial position that would have been achieved had the Transactions occurred on the dates indicated. Further, the pro forma information does not purport to project the future financial position or results of operation of ANGI Homeservices following the Transactions.

If the Merger is consummated, stockholders of Angie's List who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger will become holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices. Angie's List and ANGI

Homeservices are both organized under the laws of Delaware. However, differences in the rights of holders of Angie's List common stock and holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices will arise due to differences between their respective certificates of incorporation and bylaws. These differences will include, among other things, differences with respect to the number and types of authorized capital stock and the voting and other rights of the different classes, dividends and distributions, the structure of the board of directors, the removal of directors, the ability of stockholders to act by written consent, future amendments to the organizational documents, and the renunciation of corporate opportunities. For more information, see the sections entitled "Description of ANGI Homeservices Capital Stock" and "Comparison of the Rights of Angie's List Stockholders and Holders of Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices."

It is currently expected that following the Closing, Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices will trade on NASDAQ under the symbol "ANGI." The approval for listing of the Class A shares is a condition to the Closing, as discussed in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger."

No Appraisal Rights (Page 115)

Appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. Under Delaware law, holders of Angie's List common stock are not entitled to any appraisal rights in connection with the Transactions.

Risk Factors (Page 33)

In deciding how to vote your shares of Angie's List common stock at the special meeting, and in deciding whether to elect to receive the Share Consideration or the Cash Consideration (or a combination of the two) in the Merger, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the Annexes and the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, and in particular, you should read the section entitled "Risk Factors."

Litigation Related to the Merger (Page 122)

On July 18, 2017, a putative class action complaint, captioned Parshall v. Angie's List, Inc., C.A. No. 1:17-cv-02418 (the "Parshall Action"), was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana in connection with the Merger. On July 20, 2017, a similar class action lawsuit was filed in the same court, captioned Pill v. Angie's List, Inc., C.A. No. 1:17-cv-02461 (the "Pill Action") (together, the two actions are referred to as the "Actions"). The complaints in both the Parshall Action and the Pill Action named as defendants IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub, Angie's List and the members of the Angie's List board of directors.

The complaints in the Actions allege that Angie's List, the members of the Angie's List board of directors, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub allegedly omitted and/or misrepresented certain information in the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part in violation of the Exchange Act and related SEC regulations. The alleged omissions and/or misrepresentations generally relate to (i) certain of Angie's List's and the HomeAdvisor Business's financial projections, (ii) certain data and inputs underlying the financial analyses, (iii) certain interests of Angie's List's directors and executive officers in the Transactions, and (iv) the background of the Transactions.

The Actions collectively seek the following relief: (i) ordering that the Actions be maintained as a class action and certifying the plaintiffs as the class representative and the plaintiff's counsel as class counsel, (ii) preliminarily and permanently enjoining the defendants and all persons acting in concert with them from proceeding with, consummating or closing the Transactions, (iii) directing the Angie's List board of directors to disseminate a Form S-4 that does not contain any untrue statements of material fact and that states all material facts required in it or necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading, (iv) in the event the defendants consummate the Transactions, rescinding them and setting them aside or awarding rescissory damages to the plaintiffs and the class, (v) declaring that the defendants violated Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act, as well as Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder, and/or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, (vi) directing the defendants to account to the plaintiffs and the class for damages sustained, (vii) awarding the plaintiffs the costs of the Actions, including reasonable allowance for plaintiffs' attorneys and experts' fees, and (viii) granting such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

The defendants consider the claims asserted to be without merit.

Table of ContentsCAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement/prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to the financial condition, results of operations, business strategies, operating efficiencies or synergies, competitive positions, growth opportunities, plans and objectives of the management of each of ANGI Homeservices, Angie's List and IAC, the Transactions, the markets for ANGI Homeservices Class A shares and Angie's List common stock, and other matters. Statements in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference, that are not historical facts are hereby identified as "forward-looking statements" for the purpose of the safe harbor provided by Section 21E of the Exchange Act and Section 27A of the Securities Act. These forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, those relating to the future business prospects, revenues and income of ANGI Homeservices, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List, wherever they occur in this proxy statement/prospectus, are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of the respective managements of ANGI Homeservices, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List at the time such statements were made and involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements should therefore be considered in light of various important factors, including those expressly set forth in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Words such as "estimate," "project," "plan," "intend," "expect," "anticipate," "believe," "would," "should," "could" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are found at various places throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, including in the section entitled "Risk Factors." Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements include, among others, risks and uncertainties relating to the following:

- the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the proposed Transactions are not realized as expected or at all, including as a result of the impact of, or problems arising from, the integration of the HomeAdvisor Business and the business of Angie's List or as a result of changes in the economy and competitive factors in the areas where the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List do business;
- the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to right of one or both of Angie's List and IAC to terminate the Merger Agreement;
- the failure of Angie's List stockholders to adopt the Merger Agreement at the Angie's List special meeting, or the failure to satisfy any of the other conditions to the proposed Transactions on a timely basis or at all;
- the possibility that the proposed Transactions may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events;
- diversion of the attention of the management of Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business from ongoing business operations and opportunities in connection with the Transactions;
- potential adverse reactions or changes to business or employee relationships, including those resulting from the announcement or completion of the Transactions;
- potential changes to tax legislation;
- the ability of the HomeAdvisor Business or Angie's List to retain key personnel; and

- the outcome of any legal proceedings that have been instituted or that may be instituted against IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub or Angie's List in connection with the Transactions or otherwise.

Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by forward-looking statements include those set forth in the section entitled "Risk Factors," as well as those set forth in Angie's List's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and none of IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Angie's List or any of their respective affiliates undertake any obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus), Angie's List stockholders should carefully consider all of the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement at the Angie's List special meeting. Angie's List stockholders should read and consider the risks associated with each of the HomeAdvisor Business and the businesses of Angie's List because these risks are expected to apply to ANGI Homeservices following the completion of the Transactions. Prior to making any decision regarding the Transactions, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including its Annexes and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, and in particular the sections entitled "Item 1A. Risk Factors" of Angie's List's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Risks Related to the Transactions

There can be no assurances regarding the prices at which Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices will trade following the completion of the Transactions.

Assuming the Merger is completed as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, some or all of the Angie's List stockholders will receive Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices as a result of the Merger. The Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices are not and never have been listed for trading on a national securities exchange or otherwise publicly traded. Such shares are expected to be approved for listing on NASDAQ prior to the completion of the Merger, and such approval for listing is one of the conditions to the completion of the Merger.

The trading price of a Class A share of ANGI Homeservices following the Merger is uncertain, and there can be no assurances as to the values at which Class A shares will trade following the Merger. In addition, following the Merger, the trading price of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices is likely to fluctuate and will be dependent on, and subject to fluctuations relating to, general market and economic conditions, changes in the businesses of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business (whether prior to or following the completion of the Merger), and regulatory considerations, among other things. Some of these factors and conditions are beyond the control of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices. For further discussion of these and other risks regarding ownership of ANGI Homeservices Class A shares, see the section below entitled "—Risks Related to an Investment in Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices."

Angie's List stockholders who elect to receive the Cash Consideration may receive a prorated portion of their Merger Consideration in the form of the Share Consideration if the aggregate cap on the Cash Consideration of $130 million is exceeded.

Each Angie's List stockholder will be entitled to elect to receive in the Merger, for each share of Angie's List common stock held at the Effective Time, the Share Consideration or the Cash Consideration (or a combination thereof, by electing Cash Consideration with respect to some shares and Share Consideration with respect to other shares held by such stockholder). Elections to receive the Cash Consideration by Angie's List stockholders will be subject to the proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, such that Angie's List stockholders will receive in the aggregate no more than $130 million in cash. For more information, including an illustrative example of this proration procedure, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration."

Depending on the elections made by other Angie's List stockholders, the aggregate Cash Consideration cap of $130 million may be exceeded, in which case Angie's List stockholders who properly elected to receive Cash Consideration in the Merger will receive a portion of their Merger Consideration in respect of the Angie's List shares for which the Cash Consideration was properly elected in the form of the Share Consideration. Stockholders who receive the Share Consideration will be subject to a number of additional risks relating to ANGI Homeservices and its Class A shares (including the market for buying and selling such shares), as discussed elsewhere in this section.

Angie's List stockholders who make elections to receive the Share Consideration or the Cash Consideration will be unable to sell their Angie's List shares while the Merger remains pending.

As described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, Angie's List stockholders may elect to receive cash, stock or a combination of cash and stock for their shares of Angie's List in the Merger by completing an election form that will be sent under separate cover and is not being provided with this proxy statement/prospectus. Elections will require that stockholders making the election submit their shares of Angie's List common stock, including any stock certificates, or in the case of book-entry shares of Angie's List common stock, any additional documents specified in the procedures set forth in the election form, in order for the election to be properly made. This means that during the time between when the election is made and the Closing Date, Angie's List stockholders who have submitted an election form to receive the Share Consideration or the Cash Consideration will be unable to sell the shares of Angie's List common stock with respect to which any such election has been made unless they first withdraw their election. If the Merger is unexpectedly delayed, this period could extend for a significant period of time. Angie's List stockholders can shorten the period during which they cannot sell their shares by delivering their election shortly before the election deadline. However, elections received after the election deadline will not be accepted or honored. For further details, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration."

Both individually and as a group, Angie's List stockholders will have significantly reduced ownership and voting interests in ANGI Homeservices after the Merger relative to their interests in Angie's List prior to the Merger, and, with limited exceptions for certain class votes, IAC will be able to control any corporate action that requires a vote of ANGI Homeservices stockholders, in addition to appointing a majority of the board of directors.

Angie's List stockholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Angie's List board of directors and on other matters affecting Angie's List. Upon the consummation of the Merger, each Angie's List stockholder that receives the Share Consideration will become a stockholder of ANGI Homeservices with a percentage ownership of ANGI Homeservices that is significantly smaller than such stockholder's percentage ownership of Angie's List immediately prior to the Merger. Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

On this basis, with limited exceptions for certain class votes, IAC will be able to control any corporate action that requires a vote of ANGI Homeservices stockholders, in addition to appointing a majority of the board of directors. For further details regarding the expected ownership and corporate governance of ANGI Homeservices following the Merger, as well as the rights of Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration as holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices following the Merger, see the sections entitled "—Risks Related to ANGI Homeservices' Ongoing Relationship with IAC Following the Completion of the Transactions," "Corporate Governance of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger," "Board of Directors and Executive Officers of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger" and "Comparison of the Rights of Angie's List Stockholders and Holders of Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices."

The completion of the Transactions is subject to a number of conditions, some of which are outside the control of Angie's List, IAC and ANGI Homeservices, and the Transactions may not be completed on a timely basis or at all. Failure to complete the Transactions could negatively impact the share price and the future business and financial results of Angie's List.

The completion of the Contribution, the IAC Share Issuance and the Merger are all subject to a number of conditions, some of which are outside the control of Angie's List, IAC and ANGI Homeservices, and the failure to satisfy any such condition, or delays or difficulties that may occur in attempting to satisfy any such conditions, may prevent, delay or otherwise impair the completion of the Transactions in a material way. These conditions include, in the case of the Merger, the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders, and as a result there exists some uncertainty regarding the timing of the completion of the Transactions, and whether the Transactions will be completed at all. Furthermore, either IAC or Angie's List may terminate the Merger Agreement in specified circumstances, including if the Merger has not been consummated on or prior to February 1, 2018 (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if the failure of the Closing to occur by such date was due to a material breach of the Merger Agreement by the party seeking to terminate). For more information, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger" and "—Termination of the Merger Agreement."

If the Transactions are not completed on a timely basis, or at all, the business, financial results and prospects of Angie's List, as well as the market price of Angie's List common stock, may be adversely affected and, without realizing any of the potential benefits of having completed the Transactions, Angie's List and its stockholders will be subject to a number of risks, including the following:

- Angie's List will be required to pay IAC a termination fee of $20 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated in specified circumstances, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses";
- time and resources spent or committed by Angie's List's management to matters relating to the Transactions (including integration planning and expenses for professional services and other transaction costs, many of which are payable by Angie's List regardless of whether or not the Transactions are consummated) that could otherwise have been devoted to pursuing other beneficial opportunities for Angie's List will have been largely wasted;
- negative publicity and a negative impression of Angie's List in the business community; and
- if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the Angie's List board of directors seeks an alternative business combination, Angie's List stockholders cannot be certain that Angie's List will be able to find a party willing to enter into a transaction agreement on terms equivalent to, or more attractive than, the terms that IAC has agreed to in the Transactions.

While the Transactions are pending, uncertainty regarding the completion of the Transactions may cause consumers, service professionals and other important business counterparties to delay or defer decisions concerning Angie's List and may adversely affect Angie's List's ability to attract and retain employees, consumers and service professionals.

The Merger will be completed only if specified conditions are satisfied (or, to the extent permitted, waived), including the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders. For a description of these conditions, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger." The satisfaction of some of these conditions is beyond the control of IAC, Angie's List and ANGI Homeservices. In addition, both IAC and Angie's List have specified rights to terminate the Merger Agreement in various circumstances, as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement."

While the Transactions remain pending, uncertainty regarding whether (and when) the Transactions may be completed may cause consumers, service professionals or other parties with whom Angie's List has business relationships to delay or defer decisions concerning Angie's List, or to seek to terminate their relationships with Angie's List, which could negatively impact the financial condition and results of operations of Angie's List, regardless of whether the Transactions are ultimately completed. In addition, such consumers, service professionals or other parties may experience uncertainty associated with the Merger, including with respect to concerns about possible changes to Angie's List's technology platform, including website and mobile applications, products, services or policies and current or future business relationships with Angie's List. Such uncertainty may cause such consumers, service professionals or other parties to refrain from using Angie's List's products and services, potentially yielding a reduction in traffic across Angie's List's platforms, all of which could negatively and materially impact Angie's List's business, financial condition or results of operations. Similarly, uncertainty regarding the completion of the Transactions may foster uncertainty among employees about their future roles with the combined company, and may create difficulties in recruiting new employees, consumers and service professionals who may be similarly concerned by the various pending changes and uncertainties. As such, the pendency of the Transactions may adversely affect the ability of Angie's List to attract and retain key management, sales, marketing and technical personnel, as well as new consumers and service professionals.

Additionally, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Angie's List is subject to certain covenants regarding the conduct of its business during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Transactions, including covenants related to Angie's List's ability to enter into material contracts and acquire or dispose of assets. These covenants may prevent Angie's List from taking actions with respect to its business that it may consider advantageous and result in Angie's List's inability to respond effectively to competitive pressures or industry developments, among other things, which could thereby harm Angie's List's business, financial condition or results of operations.

Some of Angie's List's current directors and executive officers have interests in the Transactions that may differ from the interests of other Angie's List stockholders.

In considering whether to approve the proposals set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus to be voted on at the Angie's List special meeting, including the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, you should recognize that some of the members of management and of the Angie's List board of directors may have interests in the Transactions that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as Angie's List stockholders. These interests include:

- the rights of some executive officers to receive payments or other benefits, including the conversion of certain stock options and restricted stock unit awards, acceleration of the vesting of certain equity awards, and possible payments due upon certain terminations of employment during a specified period prior to or following a change in control;

Table of Contents

- the expected service of Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans as directors of ANGI Homeservices following the Merger;
- an employment agreement entered into between ANGI Homeservices and Ms. Hicks Bowman providing for her continued service to ANGI Homeservices following the Closing; and
- the continued indemnification of Angie's List's directors and officers after the completion of the Transactions for acts or omissions that occurred in their capacity as directors or officers prior to the Closing.

These interests are further described in the section entitled "The Transactions—Interests of Angie's List's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions."

The Merger Agreement contains provisions that limit Angie's List's ability to pursue alternatives to the Transactions, could discourage a potential competing acquiror of Angie's List from making a favorable alternative transaction proposal and, in specified circumstances, could require Angie's List to pay a termination fee of $20 million to IAC.

The Merger Agreement contains provisions that restrict Angie's List's ability during the pendency of the Merger to, among other things, solicit, initiate, knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage any inquiries regarding, or the making, submission or announcement by any person of any proposal or offer that constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to, certain alternative transactions. In addition, IAC is generally entitled to an opportunity to offer to modify the terms of the Merger Agreement in response to any third-party alternative transaction proposal before the Angie's List board of directors may change its recommendation in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement or terminate the Merger Agreement to accept an alternative proposal. For further details on these restrictions, including with respect to certain exceptions to these restrictions, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals" and "—Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation."

Moreover, if the Merger Agreement is terminated in specified circumstances, including if Angie's List terminates the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a "Superior Proposal," Angie's List will be required to pay a termination fee of $20 million to IAC. For further details, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement—Termination of the Merger Agreement" and "—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses."

These provisions could discourage a potential third-party acquiror or merger partner that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant portion of Angie's List's business, or pursuing another form of alternative transaction involving Angie's List, from considering or proposing such a transaction, even if the third party was prepared to pay consideration having greater perceived value than that of the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration being offered in the Merger. In addition, these provisions might result in a potential third-party acquiror or merger partner proposing to pay a lower price to the stockholders of Angie's List than it might otherwise have proposed to pay because of the added expense of the $20 million termination fee that may become payable in specified circumstances.

Angie's List stockholders will not be entitled to dissenters' or appraisal rights in the Merger.

Appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with such extraordinary transaction.

Appraisal rights are not available in all circumstances, and exceptions to these rights are provided under the DGCL. In the Merger, because Angie's List common stock is listed on NASDAQ, and because Angie's List stockholders are not required to accept in the Merger any consideration in exchange for their shares of Angie's List common stock other than Class A shares of ANGI

Homeservices, which will be publicly listed on NASDAQ, and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if applicable), holders of Angie's List common stock will not be entitled to any appraisal rights in connection with the Merger with respect to their shares of Angie's List common stock. For a more detailed description of the relevant provisions of the DGCL, see the section entitled "The Transactions—No Appraisal Rights."

ANGI Homeservices may not realize the expected benefits of the Transactions on the anticipated timeframes or at all.

The benefits of the Transactions to ANGI Homeservices and its stockholders following the Merger may not be realized as expected or may not be achieved within the anticipated timeframes or at all. The ability of ANGI Homeservices to realize the anticipated benefits of the Transactions will depend, to a large extent, on its ability to combine the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List in a manner that facilitates growth opportunities, realizes anticipated synergies and achieves the projected cost savings and revenue growth expected by IAC and Angie's List management. For further details regarding these expectations, see the section entitled "The Transactions—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions."

IAC and Angie's List will be required to devote significant attention and resources prior to the Closing to prepare for the post-Closing operation of ANGI Homeservices, and ANGI Homeservices will be required post-Closing to devote significant attention and resources to successfully align the business practices and integrate the operations of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List. This process may disrupt the businesses or cause a loss of momentum in the activities of ANGI Homeservices following the Closing and may adversely affect its business and results of operations. The overall combination of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List may also result in unanticipated problems, expenses, liabilities, responses from competitors, loss of customer and other business relationships and the diversion of management attention. If ANGI Homeservices is not able to efficiently and successfully integrate the HomeAdvisor Business with Angie's List following the Merger, the anticipated benefits of the Transactions may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected, which would have a negative effect on the business and financial results of the combined company and on the value of the Class A shares to be issued to Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger.

Even if the operations of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List are combined successfully, the full benefits of the Transactions may not be realized, including the synergies, cost savings and growth opportunities that are expected, due to competitive pressures, changes in general market or economic conditions or other factors. Moreover, additional unanticipated costs may be incurred in combining the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List. All of these factors could negatively affect the business and financial results of ANGI Homeservices and the market price of ANGI Homeservices Class A shares.

Pending litigation against ANGI Homeservices could result in an injunction preventing the completion of the Transactions or a judgment resulting in the payment of damages.

ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub, IAC, Angie's List and the members of the Angie's List board of directors are named as defendants in two putative class action lawsuits challenging the Merger. The first suit was filed on July 18, 2017 and is captioned Parshall v. Angie's List, Inc., C.A. No. 1:17-cv-02418. The second suit was filed on July 20, 2017 and is captioned Pill v. Angie's List, Inc., C.A. No. 1:17-cv-02461. Both suits were filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana. Other potential plaintiffs may also file additional lawsuits challenging the proposed Merger or any of the other Transactions. The outcome of any such litigation is uncertain.

If not resolved, the pending lawsuits, or any additional litigation, could prevent or delay completion of the Merger or any of the other Transactions and result in substantial costs to ANGI

Homeservices, IAC and Angie's List, including any costs associated with the indemnification of the Angie's List board of directors. One condition to Closing is that no court or other governmental authority in a competent jurisdiction (which would include the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana) has issued an injunction or similar order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions. If any lawsuit is successful in obtaining an injunction preventing the parties to the Merger Agreement from consummating the Merger or the other Transactions, then such injunction may prevent the Merger from being completed, or from being completed within the expected timeframe. Additionally, if the Merger is completed, ANGI Homeservices would assume the risks associated with litigation related to the Transactions that Angie's List and the members of the Angie's List board of directors are party to, and ANGI Homeservices has agreed pursuant to and in accordance with the Merger Agreement to cause Angie's List to continue to indemnify Angie's List's directors and officers after the completion of the Transactions for acts or omissions that occurred in their capacity as directors or officers prior to the Closing.

The defense or settlement of the pending lawsuits and any additional litigation could be time-consuming and expensive, divert the attention of the IAC and ANGI Homeservices management and/or the Angie's List management away from their regular business, and, if any one of the pending lawsuits or any future litigation is adversely resolved against IAC or Angie's List, could have a material adverse effect on their respective financial condition, results of operations or liquidity of IAC or ANGI Homeservices if resolved after the Merger is completed. For more information, see "The Transactions—Litigation Related to the Merger."

Risks Related to the Business of ANGI Homeservices Following the Completion of the Transactions

General economic events or trends, particularly those that adversely impact consumer confidence and spending behavior, could harm ANGI Homeservices' business, financial condition and results of operations.

The HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have historically been, and following the completion of the Transactions ANGI Homeservices will be, particularly sensitive to events and trends that adversely affect consumer confidence and spending behavior. For example, in the event of a general economic downturn or sudden disruption in business conditions, consumer confidence, spending levels and access to credit could be adversely affected. The occurrence of any of these events or trends could result in consumers delaying or foregoing home services projects, which could result in decreases in service requests and a decrease in fees paid by service professionals for consumer matches, which could adversely affect ANGI Homeservices' business, financial condition and results of operations.

ANGI Homeservices could also experience turnover in its network of service professionals given that a significant number of these service professionals are sole proprietorships and small businesses, and as such, are particularly sensitive to events and trends that adversely impact consumer confidence and spending behavior. Any turnover, if significant or recurring over a prolonged period, could adversely impact the number and quality of the service professionals who are members of the ANGI Homeservices network, the reach of that network and the breadth of services offered through the ANGI Homeservices marketplace, any or all of which could result in a decrease in traffic to ANGI Homeservices' properties and increased costs, all of which could adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Finally, ANGI Homeservices will also be sensitive to events and trends that could result in decreased marketing and advertising expenditures by service professionals. Adverse economic conditions and trends could result in service professionals decreasing and/or delaying marketing and advertising expenditures, or decreasing the amount they are willing to pay for connections to consumers through the platforms operated by ANGI Homeservices, either of which would result in decreased revenue and could adversely affect ANGI Homeservices' business, financial condition and results of operations.

Table of ContentsThe success of ANGI Homeservices will depend, in substantial part, on the migration of the home services market online.

The digital penetration of the home services market remains low, with the vast majority of home services customers finding their service professional offline, according to a HomeAdvisor Business internal brand tracking study. While many consumer demographics have historically been (and remain) averse to hiring service professionals online, certain consumer demographics have demonstrated greater willingness to embrace the online shift. For example, millennial homeowners are more willing than homeowners aged 50 plus to hire a service professional online. Accordingly, as millennial homeownership increases, it is expected that more service professionals will be hired online. Service professionals must also embrace the online shift, which ANGI Homeservices expects will occur with more frequency as they experience the benefits of connecting and engaging with consumers online (for example, the ability to reach the largest consumer audience, trackable return on marketing investments and tailored customer management tools) relative to traditional offline efforts. Continued digital and mobile product innovation is also expected to increase online adoption by consumers and service professionals. However, the speed and ultimate outcome of this shift to online marketplaces for finding service professionals is uncertain and may not occur as quickly as ANGI Homeservices expects or at all. The failure or delay of a meaningful number of consumers and/or service professionals to migrate online, or the choice of a meaningful number of existing participants in the online home services marketplace to return to offline markets, could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices will need to establish and maintain relationships with quality service professionals.

To succeed, ANGI Homeservices will need to continue to attract and retain service professionals and grow its network of service professionals who are skilled, reliable and provide services consumers want in a timely manner. To do so, ANGI Homeservices must continue to offer innovative products and services that resonate with consumers and service professionals generally, as well provide service professionals with an attractive return on their marketing investments. If ANGI Homeservices fails to provide compelling products and services, service professionals may leave (or fail to join) the ANGI Homeservices network, or may choose to use its platforms less frequently, which would result in a less attractive marketplace for consumers seeking quality service professionals. In addition, a decrease in quality service professionals (or the lack of potential new quality service professionals) in the markets in which ANGI Homeservices maintains service professional networks would result in a smaller and less diverse network, which could adversely impact the consumer experience and result in decreases in service requests and directory searches, which could adversely impact the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

The success of ANGI Homeservices will depend, in substantial part, on its ability to maintain and/or enhance its various brands.

After the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will own and operate two of the leading home services brands in the United States, as well as leading brands in a number of foreign jurisdictions. Brand recognition is a key differentiating factor among providers of online services generally, and ANGI Homeservices believes that its success will depend, in part, on its ability to maintain and enhance the brands established by the HomeAdvisor Business and by Angie's List, as well as build awareness of (and loyalty to) any of its new and emerging brands by consumers and service professionals alike.

The brands of ANGI Homeservices could be negatively impacted by a number of factors, including product quality concerns, service professional quality concerns, consumer and service professional complaints, actions brought by consumers or service professionals, fraudulent or otherwise unlawful acts perpetrated by consumers or service professionals, actions or proceedings commenced by governmental or regulatory authorities, privacy and security breaches and related bad publicity.

In addition, trust in the integrity and objective, unbiased nature of the ratings and reviews found on the properties operated by Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business contributes significantly to the perception of their brands and to their ability to attract new consumers and service professionals. If existing or prospective consumers perceive that the consumer reviews on Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor properties are not authentic in general, the reputation and the strength of ANGI Homeservices' brands could be materially and adversely affected. While the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List use, and ANGI Homeservices will continue to use, filters to detect fraudulent reviews, the accuracy of consumer reviews cannot be guaranteed. If fraudulent or inaccurate reviews—positive or negative—increase, and ANGI Homeservices is unable to effectively identify and remove such reviews, the overall quality of its ratings and reviews could decrease, and the reputation of the brands of ANGI Homeservices might be harmed, which could deter consumers and service professionals from using its products and services. This could negatively impact the brands, business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

Moreover, ANGI Homeservices' failure to market its products and services successfully (or in a cost-effective manner), inability to develop and introduce products and services that resonate with consumers and/or inability to adapt quickly enough (and/or in a cost-effective manner) to evolving changes in the internet and related technologies, applications and devices, could adversely impact the various brands of ANGI Homeservices and its brand-building efforts, and in turn, its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Marketing efforts designed to drive traffic to the ANGI Homeservices properties may not be successful or cost-effective.

Attracting consumers and service professionals to ANGI Homeservices properties will involve considerable expenditures for offline and online marketing. The HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have made, and following the completion of the Transactions ANGI Homeservices expects to continue to make, significant marketing expenditures, primarily for television advertising and search engine marketing, which may not be successful or cost-effective. Historically, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have had to increase marketing expenditures over time to attract and retain consumers and service professionals and sustain growth.

As traditional television viewership declines and consumers increasingly consume media through various digital means, the reach of traditional advertising channels is contracting and the number of digital advertising channels is increasing. To continue to reach consumers and service professionals and grow its businesses in this environment, ANGI Homeservices will need to devote more of its overall marketing expenditures to newer digital advertising channels, which are undeveloped and unproven relative to traditional advertising channels, and engage consumers and service professionals via new digital means.

With respect to online marketing efforts, rapid and frequent changes in the pricing and operating dynamics of search engines, as well as changing policies and guidelines applicable to keyword advertising (which may unilaterally be updated by search engine providers without advance notice), could adversely affect paid search engine marketing efforts and free search engine traffic. Such changes could adversely affect paid listings (both their placement and pricing), as well as the ranking of ANGI Homeservices websites within paid and organic search results, any or all of which could increase marketing expenditures (particularly if free traffic is replaced with paid traffic). Additionally, if ANGI Homeservices starts depending on other digital platforms in the future for free traffic, these efforts will involve challenges and risks similar to those related to free traffic.

Separately, search engine providers continue to expand their offerings into other, non-search-related categories, including home services. Search engine providers may display their own integrated or related home services offerings in a more prominent manner than those of ANGI Homeservices, which could result in a substantial decrease in free traffic to ANGI Homeservices websites and, in turn, increased marketing expenditures if free traffic is replaced with paid traffic.

No assurances can be provided that ANGI Homeservices will be able to continue to appropriately manage and fine-tune its paid marketing efforts in response to any or all of the events and trends discussed above and the failure to do so could adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations.

The ability of ANGI Homeservices to introduce new and enhanced products and services that resonate with consumers and service professionals, including in response to rapidly evolving trends and technologies, will be critical to its success.

ANGI Homeservices will not succeed unless it is able to introduce new and enhanced products and services in response to evolving trends and technologies and provide quality products and services that otherwise resonate with consumers and service professionals. There is intense competition to operate the leading online marketplaces for home services (and more generally for all consumer products and services), and online marketplaces have historically been, and are expected to continue to be, subject to rapid technological change. Generally, the development of new and enhanced products and services, as well as the identification of new business opportunities in a constantly changing business and technological environment, requires significant time and resources. ANGI Homeservices may not be able to adapt quickly enough to trends online and/or in the home services market (including changes in consumer and service professional preferences and needs), appropriately time the introduction of new and enhanced services and/or identify new business opportunities in a timely manner.

For example, while many consumers and service professionals may continue to access ANGI Homeservices offerings through personal computers, usage of mobile devices, including smartphones and tablets, continues to increase relative to that of personal computers. In addition, consumers are increasingly seeking to access services through so-called digital assistants, such as Amazon's Echo or Google's Home product. The HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have dedicated (and following the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will dedicate) significant time and resources to ensure that their product offerings work across multiple platforms, but ANGI Homeservices may not be successful in keeping up with future technological developments. Even if ANGI Homeservices is able to do so, these efforts could be more costly than anticipated or require partnership or distribution arrangements with third-party providers in order to reach consumers.

In addition, new and/or enhanced products or services may not resonate with consumers and service professionals and, in turn, not generate sufficient traffic and otherwise prove challenging to monetize. Efforts to improve the ANGI Homeservices platforms or otherwise improve its offerings could also require the modification of related technological infrastructures; and the failure to do so in an efficient and cost-effective manner could render ANGI Homeservices websites, applications, services and proprietary technologies obsolete.

The failure to respond to any evolving trends and technologies appropriately and in a cost-effective manner could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

The success of ANGI Homeservices will depend, in part, on the integrity of its systems and infrastructures and on its ability to enhance, expand and adapt these systems and infrastructures in a timely and cost-effective manner.

For ANGI Homeservices to succeed, its systems and infrastructures must perform well on a consistent basis. From time to time, ANGI Homeservices may experience system interruptions that make some or all of its systems or data unavailable and prevent services from functioning properly for consumers and service professionals. Any such interruption could arise for any number of reasons. Further, the systems and infrastructures of ANGI Homeservices will be vulnerable to damage from fire, power loss, telecommunications failures and similar events. While ANGI Homeservices will have backup systems in place for certain aspects of its operations, its systems and infrastructures will not be fully redundant, disaster recovery planning will not be sufficient for all eventualities and property and business interruption insurance coverage may not be adequate to compensate ANGI Homeservices fully for any losses that it may suffer. Any interruptions or outages, regardless of the cause, could negatively impact the experiences of consumers and service professionals, tarnish the reputation of the various brands of ANGI Homeservices and decrease demand for its services, any or all of which could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices will also need to continually work to expand and enhance the efficiency and scalability of its technology and network systems to improve the experience of consumers and service professionals, accommodate substantial increases in traffic to its various services, ensure acceptable page load times for its various services and keep up with changes in technology and consumer and service professional preferences and needs. Any failure to do so in a timely and cost-effective manner could adversely affect the experiences of consumers and service professionals and thereby negatively impact the demand for ANGI Homeservices' offerings, and could increase costs, any of which could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices' success will depend, in part, on the integrity of third-party systems and infrastructure.

After completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will rely on third parties, primarily data-center service providers, as well as third-party computer systems, broadband and other communication systems and service providers, in connection with the provision of its products generally, as well as to facilitate and process certain transactions with its users. ANGI Homeservices will have limited or no control over these third parties and their operations.

Problems experienced by third-party data center service providers upon whom ANGI Homeservices may rely, the telecommunications network providers with whom it contracts or with the systems through which telecommunications providers allocate capacity among their customers could also adversely affect ANGI Homeservices. Any changes in service levels at its data centers or any interruptions, outages or delays in ANGI Homeservices' systems or those of its third-party providers, or deterioration in the performance of these systems, could impair its ability to provide its products or process transactions with its users, which would adversely impact its business, financial condition and results of operations.

ANGI Homeservices may not be able to protect its information technology systems and infrastructure from cyberattacks and may be adversely affected by cyberattacks experienced by third parties.

The business of ANGI Homeservices will rely extensively on secure processing, storage and transmission of confidential and other information in its computer systems and networks and communications systems. ANGI Homeservices may be subject to attacks by perpetrators of malicious technology-related events, such as cyberattacks, computer viruses, worms or other destructive or disruptive software, distributed denial of service attacks and attempts to misappropriate consumer or service professional information, including credit card information, personal information and confidential business information. While the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have invested (and, following the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will continue to invest) in the protection of their information technology systems and infrastructure and related training, there can be no assurance that these efforts will prevent significant breaches in their systems or other such events from occurring. As malicious cyber activity escalates, so do the risks relating to the transmission, storage or processing of data both within and outside the ANGI Homeservices network, including use by ANGI Homeservices of service providers outside of its network. Any cyber or similar attack against which ANGI Homeservices is unable to protect itself could damage its systems and infrastructure, prevent it from providing its products, erode its reputation and brands, lead to termination of advantageous contracts, result in inaccurate reporting of financial information, result in the disclosure of confidential information of its users, expose it to significant liabilities relating to breaches of data privacy laws, result in the disclosure of confidential and sensitive business information or intellectual property, result in claims or litigation against it, and/or be costly to mitigate or remedy. In addition, although ANGI Homeservices will have some insurance to mitigate these risks, such policies may not cover the particular attack experienced and, even if the risk is covered, such insurance coverage may not be adequate to compensate for the losses resulting from any of these events.

The impact of cybersecurity events experienced by third parties with whom ANGI Homeservices will do business (or upon whom ANGI Homeservices otherwise will rely in connection with its day-to-day operations) could have a similar effect on it. Moreover, even cyber or similar attacks that do not directly affect ANGI Homeservices or third parties with whom ANGI Homeservices will do business may result in a loss of consumer confidence in internet-based or technology-reliant businesses generally, which could make users less likely to use or continue to use ANGI Homeservices' products and services. The occurrence of any of these events could have an adverse effect on the future business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

Unauthorized access to personal data could give rise to liabilities as a result of governmental regulations and legal requirements, and compliance with laws designed to prevent unauthorized access of personal data could be costly.

Security breaches or other unauthorized access to, or the use or transmission of, personal consumer and service professional information could result in a variety of claims against ANGI Homeservices, including privacy-related claims. There are numerous laws and regulations in the countries in which ANGI Homeservices businesses will operate regarding privacy and the storage, sharing, use, processing, disclosure and protection of personal information. The scope and subject matter of these laws and regulations have changed considerably in the recent past and are expected to continue to evolve, and likely expand, in the future. In 2016, the European Commission adopted the General Data Protection Regulation, a comprehensive European Union privacy and data protection reform that is expected to become effective in May 2018. In addition, the potential exit from the European Union by the United Kingdom could result in the application of new data privacy and protection laws and standards to ANGI Homeservices' operations in the United Kingdom and the handling of personal data of consumers located in the United Kingdom. At the same time, certain developing countries are also currently considering adopting privacy and data protection laws and regulations and legislative proposals concerning privacy and the protection of consumer information are pending before the U.S. Congress and various U.S. state legislatures.

Any failure or perceived failure by ANGI Homeservices (or the third parties with whom it contracts to store personal consumer and service professional information) to comply with applicable privacy and security laws, policies or related contractual obligations or any compromise of security that results in unauthorized access to or acquisition or use of personal consumer or service provider information could result in governmental enforcement actions, significant fines, litigation, claims of breach of contract and indemnity by third parties and adverse publicity. In the case of such an event, the reputation of ANGI Homeservices and its businesses could be harmed, it could lose consumers and service professionals and the competitive positions of its various brands could be diminished, any or all of which could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

Lastly, compliance with the numerous laws and regulations in the countries in which ANGI Homeservices businesses will operate regarding privacy and the storage, sharing, use, processing, disclosure and protection of personal data could be costly, particularly if, as expected, these laws and regulations continue to evolve and become more comprehensive in scope or require changes to the information technology operations of ANGI Homeservices. If these costs are significant, the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices could be adversely affected.

ANGI Homeservices will be subject to a number of risks related to credit card payments, including data security breaches and fraud that ANGI Homeservices or third parties may experience, as well as additional regulation, any of which could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

The HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have historically accepted, and after completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will continue to accept, payments (including recurring payments) from service professionals and members, as applicable, primarily through credit and debit card transactions. The ability to access credit card information on a real-time basis without having to proactively reach out to service professionals and members to process these payments will be critical to the success of ANGI Homeservices' businesses.

When ANGI Homeservices or a third party experiences a data security breach involving credit card information, affected cardholders will often cancel their credit cards. In the case of a breach experienced by a third party, the more sizable the third party's customer base and the greater the number of credit card accounts impacted, the more likely it is that users of ANGI Homeservices would be impacted by such a breach. To the extent ANGI Homeservices users are ever affected by such a breach experienced by ANGI Homeservices or a third party, affected users would need to be contacted to obtain new credit card information and process any pending payments. It is likely that ANGI Homeservices would not be able to reach all affected service professionals and members, and even if it could, some new credit card information may not be obtained and some pending payments may not be processed, which could adversely affect ANGI Homeservices' business, financial condition and results of operations.

Even if service professionals and members are not directly impacted by a given data security breach, they may lose confidence in the ability of service providers to protect their personal information generally, which could cause them to stop using their credit cards online and choose alternative payment methods that are not as convenient for ANGI Homeservices or restrict its ability to process payments without significant effort by the applicable service professionals or members.

The ability of ANGI Homeservices to access credit card information on a real-time basis without having to proactively reach out to service professionals and members could also be adversely impacted by increases in various fees charged by credit card companies and processors (such as transaction, interchange, chargeback and/or other fees), the malfunction of credit card billing systems and software and non-compliance with applicable payment card association operating rules, certification requirements and rules governing electronic funds transfers, including the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard ("PCI DSS"), a security standard with which companies that collect, store or transmit certain data related to credit and debit cards, credit and debit card holders and credit and debit card transactions are required to comply. If ANGI Homeservices fails to adequately prevent fraudulent credit card transactions and comply with the PCI DSS, it could face litigation, fines, governmental enforcement action, civil liability, diminished public perception of its security measures, significantly higher credit card-related costs and substantial remediation costs, any of which could adversely affect its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Finally, the passage or adoption of any legislation or regulation affecting the ability of service providers to periodically charge consumers for recurring membership payments could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices may fail to adequately protect its intellectual property rights or may be accused of infringing the intellectual property rights of third parties.

The HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have relied, and after the completion of the Transactions ANGI Homeservices will rely, heavily upon its trademarks and related domain names and logos to market its brands and to build and maintain brand loyalty and recognition, as well as upon trade secrets. For example, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have generally registered, and will continue to apply to register and renew, or secure by contract where appropriate, trademarks and service marks as they are developed and used, and reserve, register and renew domain names as deemed appropriate. Effective trademark protection may not be available or may not be sought in every country in which products and services are made available, and contractual disputes may affect the use of marks governed by private contracts. Similarly, not every variation of a domain name may be available or be registered, even if available.

The HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List also rely, and after the completion of the Transactions ANGI Homeservices will rely, on a combination of laws and contractual restrictions with employees, customers, suppliers, affiliates and others to establish and protect their various intellectual property rights.

The HomeAdvisor Business generally seeks to apply for patents or for other similar statutory protections as and if it deems appropriate, based on then-current facts and circumstances, and after the completion of the Transactions ANGI Homeservices may continue to do so in the future. No assurances can be given that any patent application that the HomeAdvisor Business has filed (or that ANGI Homeservices may file) will result in a patent being issued, or that any existing or future patents will afford adequate protection against competitors and similar technologies. In addition, no assurances can be given that third parties will not create new products or methods that achieve similar results without infringing upon patents owned by the HomeAdvisor Business or ANGI Homeservices after completion of the Transactions. Angie's List does not have any patents or pending patent applications.

Despite these measures, the intellectual property rights of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List may still not be protected in a meaningful manner, challenges to contractual rights could arise or third parties could copy or otherwise obtain and use the intellectual property of the HomeAdvisor Business or of Angie's List without authorization. The occurrence of any of these events could result in the erosion of the HomeAdvisor and the Angie's List brands and limitations on the ability of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List, or after the completion of the Transactions of ANGI Homeservices, to control marketing on or through the internet using its various domain names, as well as impede its ability to effectively compete against competitors with similar technologies, any of which could adversely affect ANGI Homeservices' business, financial condition and results of operations.

ANGI Homeservices will face a number of risks in connection with its international operations.

Angie's List operates primarily within the United States. However, the HomeAdvisor Business has historically operated in various jurisdictions and, following the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will own and operate businesses in France, the Netherlands, Italy, Germany, Austria, the United Kingdom and Canada under various regional brands. ANGI Homeservices intends to seek to establish strategic control and market leadership for these brands through significant investments in marketing, sales forces and product innovation, which may not be successful or cost-effective. ANGI Homeservices also intends to seek to expand into additional European and select other jurisdictions in the future, both through acquisitions and organic growth.

Acquiring, operating and building brands and businesses abroad, particularly in jurisdictions where ANGI Homeservices has limited experience, will involve a number of additional risks, including:

- operational and compliance challenges caused by distance, language and cultural differences;
- difficulties in staffing and managing international operations;
- differing levels of social and technological acceptance of online services (or lack of acceptance of them) generally, as well as home services offerings specifically;
- foreign currency fluctuations;

Table of Contents

- restrictions on the transfer of funds among countries and back to the United States and costs associated with repatriating funds to the United States;
- differing and potentially adverse tax laws;
- multiple, conflicting and changing laws, rules and regulations, and difficulties understanding and ensuring compliance with those laws by employees and business partners over whom ANGI Homeservices will exert no control;
- compliance challenges due to different laws and regulatory environments, particularly in the case of privacy and data security;
- competitive environments that favor local businesses;
- limitations on the level of intellectual property protection; and
- trade sanctions, political unrest, terrorism, war and epidemics or the threat of any of these events.

The occurrence of any or all of the events described above could adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices faces operational and financial risks in connection with any future acquisitions.

The HomeAdvisor Business has made numerous acquisitions in the past and ANGI Homeservices expects to seek potential acquisition candidates to expand its business in the future. ANGI Homeservices may experience operational and financial challenges in connection with historical and future acquisitions if it is unable to:

- properly value prospective acquisitions, especially those with limited operating histories;
- successfully integrate the operations, as well as the accounting, financial controls, management information, technology, human resources and other administrative systems, of acquired businesses with its existing operations and systems;
- successfully identify and realize potential synergies among acquired and existing business;
- retain or hire senior management and other key personnel at acquired businesses; and
- successfully manage acquisition-related strain on its management, operations and financial resources.

Furthermore, ANGI Homeservices may not be successful in addressing other challenges it may encounter in connection with acquisitions. The anticipated benefits of one or more historical and/or future acquisitions may not be realized or the value of goodwill and other intangible assets acquired could be impacted by one or more continuing unfavorable events or trends, which could result in significant impairment charges. The occurrence of any these events could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices may enter into a credit agreement which contains affirmative, negative and financial covenants that may limit its flexibility in operating its businesses.

ANGI Homeservices currently intends to enter into a credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent and certain lenders after the Closing. The Credit Agreement is expected to provide for a five-year term loan A facility not to exceed $275 million, and to be guaranteed by ANGI Homeservice's wholly owned material domestic subsidiaries. It is expected to be secured by substantially all assets of ANGI Homeservices and the guarantors, subject to certain exceptions to be agreed. The proceeds of the Credit Agreement, if any, are expected to be used to repay indebtedness outstanding to IAC and its subsidiaries, to pay fees and expenses in connection with the Merger and for general corporate purposes, including working capital and dividends. While ANGI Homeservices currently intends to enter into the Credit Agreement, it may determine not to do so. If ANGI Homeservices were to enter into the Credit Agreement following the Closing, the Credit Agreement is expected to contain affirmative, negative and financial covenants that could limit the manner in which ANGI Homeservices conducts its business, and ANGI Homeservices may be unable to expand or fully pursue its business strategies, engage in favorable business activities, or finance future operations or capital needs. ANGI Homeservices' ability to comply with the covenants under the Credit Agreement may be affected by events beyond its control, and it may not be able to comply with those covenants. A breach of any of the covenants contained in the Credit Agreement could result in a default under the Credit Agreement, which could cause all of the outstanding indebtedness under the facility to become immediately due and payable. If ANGI Homeservices is unable to generate sufficient cash to repay its debt obligations under the Credit Agreement when they become due and payable, either as when such obligations become due, when they mature, or in the event of a default, ANGI Homeservices may not be able to obtain additional debt or equity financing on favorable terms, if at all, which may negatively impact its business, financial condition and results of operations.

ANGI Homeservices will depend on its key personnel.

ANGI Homeservices' future success will depend upon its ability to identify, hire, develop, motivate and retain highly skilled individuals, with the contributions of its senior management being especially critical to its success. Competition for well-qualified employees is intense and ANGI Homeservices' ability to compete effectively will depend, in part, upon its ability to attract new employees and retain existing employees of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List. While the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List have established, and ANGI Homeservices will establish, programs to attract new employees and provide incentives to retain existing employees, particularly senior management, ANGI Homeservices can provide no assurances that it will be able to attract new employees or retain the services of senior management or any other key employees in the future. Effective succession planning is also important to ANGI Homeservices' future success. If ANGI Homeservices fails to ensure the effective transfer of senior management knowledge and smooth transitions involving senior management across its various businesses, its ability to execute short- and long-term strategic, financial and operating goals, as well as its business, financial condition and results of operations generally, could be adversely affected.

ANGI Homeservices may be subject to litigation, and adverse outcomes in such litigation could have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business have historically been, and ANGI Homeservices following the completion of the Transactions may from time to time become, subject to litigation and various legal proceedings, including litigation and proceedings related to intellectual property matters and privacy and consumer protection laws, that involve claims for substantial amounts of money or for other relief or that might necessitate changes to their businesses or operations. The defense of these actions may be both time consuming and expensive. ANGI Homeservices will evaluate these litigation claims and legal proceedings to assess the likelihood of unfavorable outcomes and to estimate, if possible, the amount of potential losses. Based on these assessments and estimates, ANGI Homeservices may establish reserves and/or disclose the relevant litigation claims or legal proceedings, as and when required or appropriate. These assessments and estimates will be based on information available to management at the time of such assessment or estimation and will involve a significant amount of judgment. As a result, actual outcomes or losses could differ materially from initial assessments and estimates. ANGI Homeservices' failure to successfully defend or settle any litigation or other legal proceeding could result in liability that, to the extent not covered by its insurance, could have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

ANGI Homeservices' amended and restated bylaws will provide that a state or federal court within Delaware will be the sole and exclusive forum for certain disputes between ANGI Homeservices and its stockholders, which could limit stockholders' ability to obtain the judicial forum of their choice for disputes with ANGI Homeservices or its current or former directors, officers or employees.

The amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices will provide that unless ANGI Homeservices consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, a state court within the State of Delaware (or, if no state court located within Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware) will be the sole and exclusive forum for all of the following: (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of ANGI Homeservices, (ii) any action asserting a claim for or based on breach of fiduciary duty owed by any current or former director or officer or other employee of ANGI Homeservices to ANGI Homeservices or to its stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against ANGI Homeservices or any of its current or former directors, officers, or other employees pursuant to the DGCL, its certificate of incorporation, its bylaws, (iv) any action asserting a claim relating to or involving ANGI Homeservices that is governed by the internal affairs doctrine, or (v) any action asserting an "internal corporate claim," as defined under the DGCL.

The choice of forum provision may limit a stockholder's ability to bring a claim in a judicial forum that it finds favorable for disputes with ANGI Homeservices or its current or former directors, officers or other employees, which may discourage such lawsuits against ANGI Homeservices and its current or former directors, officers and other employees. Alternatively, if a court were to find the choice of forum provision contained in ANGI Homeservices' amended and restated bylaws to be inapplicable or unenforceable in an action, ANGI Homeservices may incur additional costs associated with resolving such action in other jurisdictions, which could harm its business, results of operations, and financial condition.

Risks Related to ANGI Homeservices' Ongoing Relationship with IAC Following the Completion of the Transactions

Following the completion of the Transactions, IAC will continue to control a substantial majority of the voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock and will have the ability to control the direction of the business of ANGI Homeservices.

Following the completion of the Transactions, IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices that, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration. As long as IAC owns shares of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices that represent a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding capital stock of ANGI Homeservices, with limited exceptions for certain class votes, IAC will be able to control any corporate action that requires a vote of ANGI Homeservices stockholders, regardless of the vote of any other ANGI Homeservices stockholder. As a result, IAC will have the ability to control significant corporate activities of ANGI Homeservices following the completion of the Transactions, including the following:

- the election of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors (subject to the provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement concerning two ANGI-Designated Directors, as further described in the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement") and, through the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, decision-making with respect to its business direction and policies, including the appointment and removal of its officers;
- acquisitions or dispositions of businesses or assets, mergers or other business combinations;

- issuances of shares of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock;
- corporate opportunities that may be suitable for ANGI Homeservices and IAC, subject to the corporate opportunity provisions in the amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices, as further described in the section entitled "Description of ANGI Homeservices Capital Stock";
- the financing or capitalization activities of ANGI Homeservices, including the issuance of additional debt and equity securities, or the incurrence of other indebtedness generally;
- the payment of dividends; and
- the number of shares available for issuance under future equity incentive plans of ANGI Homeservices for prospective and existing employees.

This voting control will limit the ability of other stockholders to influence corporate matters and, as a result, ANGI Homeservices may take actions that stockholders other than IAC do not view as beneficial. This voting control may also discourage transactions involving a change of control of ANGI Homeservices, including transactions in which holders of Class A shares might otherwise receive a premium for their shares.

Even if IAC owns shares of ANGI Homeservices' capital stock that represent less than a majority of the combined voting power of the outstanding capital stock of ANGI Homeservices, so long as IAC owns shares representing a significant percentage of the combined voting power of ANGI Homeservices stockholders, IAC will have the ability to exert substantial influence on, and may even effectively control, these significant corporate activities.

In addition, pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement that ANGI Homeservices will enter into with IAC prior to the Closing, IAC will have the right to maintain its level of ownership in ANGI Homeservices to the extent ANGI Homeservices issues additional shares of its capital stock in the future and, pursuant to the Employee Matters Agreement that ANGI Homeservices will enter into with IAC prior to the Closing, IAC may receive payment for certain compensation expenses through receipt of additional shares of stock of ANGI Homeservices. For a more complete summary of these agreements with IAC, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements."

Until such time as IAC no longer controls or has the ability to exert substantial influence on ANGI Homeservices, ANGI Homeservices will continue to face the risks described in this "Risk Factors" section relating to IAC's control of ANGI Homeservices and the potential conflicts of interest between IAC and ANGI Homeservices.

The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices could prevent it from benefiting from corporate opportunities that might otherwise have been available to ANGI Homeservices.

The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices will include a "corporate opportunity" provision pursuant to which ANGI Homeservices renounces any interests or expectancy in any potential transaction or matter that may constitute a corporate opportunity for both IAC and ANGI Homeservices. This provision also includes a disclaimer that states that ANGI Homeservices recognizes that (i) any of its directors or officers who are also officers, directors, employees or other affiliates of IAC or its affiliates (other than ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries) and (ii) IAC itself will have no duty to offer or communicate information regarding such a corporate opportunity to ANGI Homeservices. Generally, neither IAC nor the officers or directors of ANGI Homeservices who are also officers or directors of IAC or its affiliates will be liable to ANGI Homeservices or any of its stockholders for breach of any fiduciary duty by reason of the fact that any such person pursues or acquires any corporate opportunity for the account of IAC or any of its affiliates, directs or transfers such corporate opportunity to IAC or any of its affiliates, or does not communicate information regarding such corporate opportunity to ANGI Homeservices. The corporate opportunity provision may exacerbate conflicts of interest between IAC and ANGI Homeservices because the provision effectively permits one of the directors or officers of ANGI Homeservices who also serves as a director or officer of IAC to choose to direct a corporate opportunity to IAC instead of to ANGI Homeservices.

IAC's interests may conflict with the interests of ANGI Homeservices and the interests of the other stockholders of ANGI Homeservices. Conflicts of interest between IAC and ANGI Homeservices could be resolved in a manner unfavorable to ANGI Homeservices and the other stockholders of ANGI Homeservices.

Various conflicts of interest between ANGI Homeservices and IAC could arise following the completion of the Transactions. It is expected that upon the completion of the Transactions, five of ten of the directors of ANGI Homeservices will be individuals who are currently (and are intended to remain) directors or executive officers of IAC or officers of its subsidiaries. Ownership interests of directors or officers of IAC in the stock of ANGI Homeservices, the ownership of Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices by IAC, and ownership interests of the directors and officers of ANGI Homeservices in the stock of IAC, or a person's service as either a director or officer of both companies, could create or appear to create potential conflicts of interest when those directors and officers are faced with decisions relating to ANGI Homeservices. These decisions could include:

- corporate opportunities;
- the impact that operating decisions for ANGI Homeservices' business may have on IAC's consolidated financial statements;
- the impact that operating or capital decisions (including the incurrence of indebtedness) for ANGI Homeservices' business may have on IAC's current or future indebtedness or the covenants under that indebtedness;
- business combinations involving ANGI Homeservices;
- the dividend policy of ANGI Homeservices;
- management stock ownership; and
- the intercompany services and agreements between IAC and ANGI Homeservices.

Potential conflicts of interest could also arise if ANGI Homeservices decides to enter into any new commercial arrangements with IAC in the future or in connection with IAC's desire to enter into new commercial arrangements with third parties. Additionally, IAC may be constrained by the terms of its debt instruments from taking actions, or permitting ANGI Homeservices to take actions that may be in the best interests of ANGI Homeservices.

Furthermore, disputes may arise between IAC and ANGI Homeservices relating to past relationships with the HomeAdvisor Business and ongoing relationships with ANGI Homeservices, and these potential conflicts of interest may make it more difficult for ANGI Homeservices to favorably resolve such disputes, including those related to:

- tax, employee benefit, indemnification and other matters arising from the Transactions;
- the nature, quality and pricing of services IAC agrees to provide to ANGI Homeservices;
- sales or other disposal by IAC of all or a portion of its ownership interest in ANGI Homeservices; and
- business combinations involving ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI Homeservices may not be able to resolve any potential conflicts, and even if it does, the resolution may be less favorable to ANGI Homeservices than if it were dealing with an unaffiliated third party. While ANGI Homeservices is controlled by IAC, it may not have the leverage to negotiate amendments to these agreements, if required, on terms as favorable to ANGI Homeservices as those it would negotiate with an unaffiliated third party.

ANGI Homeservices will be a "controlled company" as defined in the NASDAQ Rules, and will rely on exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements that provide protection to stockholders of other companies.

Upon completion of the Transactions, IAC will continue to own more than 50% of the combined voting power of the share capital of ANGI Homeservices, which will thus be a "controlled company" under the rules and regulations of NASDAQ (the "NASDAQ Rules"). As a "controlled company," ANGI Homeservices will be exempt from the obligation to comply with certain NASDAQ Rules related to corporate governance, including the following requirements for which ANGI Homeservices expects to avail itself of the "controlled company" exemption:

- that a majority of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices be "independent directors," as defined under the NASDAQ Rules; and
- that the ANGI Homeservices board of directors have a nominating/governance committee that is composed entirely of independent directors with a written charter addressing the committee's purpose and responsibilities.

Accordingly, for so long as ANGI Homeservices is a "controlled company," to the extent it avails itself of these exemptions, you will not have the same protections afforded to stockholders of companies that are subject to all of the corporate governance requirements of the NASDAQ Rules. For further details, see the section entitled "Corporate Governance of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

In order to preserve the ability of IAC to distribute its shares of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices on a tax-free basis, ANGI Homeservices may be prevented from pursuing opportunities to raise capital, acquire other businesses or provide equity incentives to its employees, which could hurt its ability to grow.

Under current laws, IAC must retain beneficial ownership of at least 80% of the combined voting power and 80% of each class of non-voting capital stock, if any is outstanding, in order to effect a tax-free distribution of ANGI Homeservices shares held by IAC to IAC stockholders. IAC has advised ANGI Homeservices that it does not have any present intention or plans to undertake such a tax-free distribution. However, IAC currently intends to use its majority voting interest in ANGI Homeservices to retain its ability to engage in such a transaction. This intention may cause IAC not to support transactions that ANGI Homeservices wishes to pursue that involve issuing shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock, including for capital-raising purposes, as consideration for an acquisition or as equity incentives to its employees. The inability to pursue such transactions may adversely affect the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices.

The agreements between ANGI Homeservices and IAC will require ANGI Homeservices to indemnify IAC for certain tax liabilities and may limit ANGI Homeservices' ability to engage in desirable strategic or capital-raising transactions, including following any distribution by IAC of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices to IAC stockholders.

Prior to or at the Effective Time, ANGI Homeservices will enter into a Tax Sharing Agreement with IAC. Under the Tax Sharing Agreement, ANGI Homeservices generally will be responsible and will be required to indemnify IAC for (i) all taxes imposed with respect to any consolidated, combined or unitary tax return of IAC or its subsidiaries that includes ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries to the extent attributable to ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries (including certain taxes attributable to ANGI Homeservices, HomeAdvisor (US), HomeAdvisor (International), each of their respective subsidiaries and each other entity that is a direct or indirect subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices as of the Effective Time, other than Angie's List and its subsidiaries (which are collectively referred to as the "HomeAdvisor Entities") for taxable periods (or portions thereof) ending on or before the Effective Time), as determined under the Tax Sharing Agreement, and (ii) all taxes imposed with respect to any consolidated, combined, unitary or separate tax returns of ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries. To the extent IAC failed to pay taxes imposed with respect to any consolidated, combined or unitary tax return of IAC or one of its subsidiaries that includes ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries, the relevant taxing authority could seek to collect such taxes (including taxes for which IAC is responsible under the Tax Sharing Agreement) from ANGI Homeservices or its subsidiaries.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, IAC does not have a present plan or intention to undertake a tax-free spin-off of its interest in ANGI Homeservices. Under the Tax Sharing Agreement, ANGI Homeservices generally will be responsible for any taxes and related amounts imposed on IAC or ANGI Homeservices (or their respective subsidiaries) that arise from the failure of a future spin-off of IAC's retained interest in ANGI Homeservices to qualify as a transaction that is generally tax-free, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, under Section 368(a)(1)(D) and/or Section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the Code, to the extent that the failure to so qualify is attributable to (i) a breach of the relevant representations and covenants made by ANGI Homeservices in the Tax Sharing Agreement or any representation letter provided in support of any tax opinion or ruling obtained by IAC with respect to the U.S. federal income tax treatment of such spin-off, (ii) an acquisition of ANGI Homeservices' equity securities or assets or (iii) any other action or failure to act by ANGI Homeservices after any such spin-off.

To preserve the tax-free treatment of any potential future spin-off by IAC of its interest in ANGI Homeservices, the Tax Sharing Agreement will restrict ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries, for the two-year period following any such spin-off, except in specific circumstances, from: (i) entering into any transaction pursuant to which ANGI Homeservices stock would be acquired above a certain threshold, (ii) merging, consolidating or liquidating, (iii) selling or transferring assets above certain thresholds, (iv) redeeming or repurchasing stock (with certain exceptions), (v) altering the voting rights of ANGI Homeservices stock, (vi) taking or failing to take any other action inconsistent with representations or covenants in any tax opinion or private letter ruling document or (vii) ceasing to engage in any active trade or business as defined in the Code.

The indemnity obligations and other limitations under the Tax Sharing Agreement could have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of ANGI Homeservices. For a more complete description of the Tax Sharing Agreement, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Tax Sharing Agreement."

Future sales or distributions of ANGI Homeservices shares by IAC could depress the price of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices.

After the completion of the Transactions, IAC will have the right to sell or distribute to its stockholders all or a portion of the Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices that IAC holds or Class A shares into which the Class B shares are convertible, including pursuant to one or more registration statements under the Securities Act that IAC may require ANGI Homeservices to file or pursuant to Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act (after the applicable holding period) or otherwise. Although as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus IAC has advised ANGI Homeservices that it does not have any present intention or plans to undertake such a sale or distribution, sales by IAC in the public market or distributions to its stockholders of substantial amounts of ANGI Homeservices stock in the form of Class A shares or Class B shares, or the filing by ANGI Homeservices of a registration statement relating to a sale or other disposition by IAC of a substantial amount of ANGI Homeservices stock, could depress the price of the ANGI Homeservices Class A shares.

In addition, IAC will have the right, subject to certain conditions, to include its shares in other registration statements that ANGI Homeservices may file. If IAC exercises these registration rights and sells all or a portion of its shares of capital stock of ANGI Homeservices, the price of the ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock could decline.

The services that IAC will provide to ANGI Homeservices following the completion of the Transactions may not be sufficient to meet its needs, which may result in increased costs and otherwise adversely affect its business.

Historically, IAC has provided the HomeAdvisor Business with significant corporate and shared services related to corporate functions such as executive oversight, risk management, information technology, accounting, audit, legal, investor relations, tax, treasury and other services. Following completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices expects IAC to continue to provide many of these services in exchange for the fees specified in the Services Agreement, as further described in the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Services Agreement." IAC will not be obligated to provide these services in a manner that differs from the nature of the services provided to the HomeAdvisor Business during the 12 months prior to the Closing Date, and thus ANGI Homeservices may not be able to modify these services in a manner desirable to it as a standalone public company. Further, if ANGI Homeservices no longer receives these services from IAC due to the termination of the Services Agreement or otherwise, it may not be able to perform these services itself, or find appropriate third-party arrangements at a reasonable cost, and the cost may be higher than that charged by IAC.

Risks Related to an Investment in Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices

The multiclass structure of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices has the effect of concentrating voting control with holders of its Class B shares and limiting the ability of the holders of Class A shares to influence corporate matters.

Each Class B share of ANGI Homeservices has ten votes per share, and each Class A share has one vote per share. Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger will receive Class A shares. Class C shares do not have any voting rights except as required by the laws of Delaware, in which case, each Class C share will have one one-hundredth (1/100) of a vote per share. Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock. There will be no shares of Class C common stock outstanding immediately following the completion of the Transactions.

Due to the ten-to-one voting ratio between the Class B shares and the Class A shares, IAC, as the holder of all of the outstanding Class B shares, will continue to control a substantial majority of the combined voting power of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices immediately following the completion of the Transactions, and the holders of the outstanding Class B shares in the future may continue to control a majority of the combined voting power of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices even if and when the outstanding Class B shares represent a small minority of the total outstanding equity of ANGI Homeservices. In addition, because the Class C common stock carries no voting rights (except as required by applicable law), the issuance of Class C shares, including in future stock-based acquisition transactions and to fund employee equity incentive programs, could prolong the duration of IAC's current relative ownership of the voting power of ANGI Homeservices and IAC's ability to elect the ANGI Homeservices directors and determine the outcome of most matters submitted to a vote of ANGI Homeservices stockholders. This concentrated control will significantly limit the ability of holders of Class A shares to influence corporate matters.

The difference in the voting rights of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock may harm the value and liquidity of the Class A common stock.

The holders of Class B common stock will be entitled to ten votes per share and the holders of the Class A common stock will be entitled to one vote per share. The difference in the voting rights of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock could harm the value of the Class A common stock to the extent that any investor or potential future purchaser of Class A common stock ascribes value to the right of the holders of the Class B common stock to ten votes per share. The existence of two classes of common stock with voting rights could result in less liquidity for either class of stock than if there were only one class of ANGI Homeservices common stock. See the section entitled "Description of ANGI Homeservices Capital Stock" for descriptions of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock and the rights associated with each.

An active trading market for the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices may not develop, and the absence of a reliably liquid market may make it difficult for stockholders to sell their Class A shares and may negatively impact the prices at which Class A shares can be sold.

Prior to the completion of the Transactions, there will have been no public market for the Class A shares. ANGI Homeservices cannot predict the extent to which investor interest in its Class A shares will lead to the development of an active trading market on NASDAQ or how liquid that market might become following the completion of the Transactions. If liquidity and trading volume in the market for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices is low following the Transactions, this could adversely impact the trading price of Class A shares, the ability of ANGI Homeservices to issue additional stock in the future and the ability of ANGI Homeservices stockholders to sell their Class A shares at attractive prices if and when desired. Additionally, as of August 23, 2017, ownership of approximately 59% of the outstanding Angie's List common stock was concentrated among a relatively small group of institutional stockholders (excluding shares beneficially owned by Mr. Semler), as further described in the section entitled "Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management of Angie's List." As such, assuming all such stockholders receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, ownership of the outstanding Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices immediately following the Merger will be similarly concentrated. Concentrated ownership of Class A shares may make an active, liquid public market less likely to develop, and less likely that a reliably liquid market will be sustained in the future. An active, liquid public market for the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices may not develop or be sustained after the completion of the Transactions. If an active public market does not develop or is not sustained, it may be difficult for holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to sell their shares at a price that is attractive to them, or at all.

The market price of ANGI Homeservices Class A shares may be volatile, and the value of the Class A shares could materially decline.

Holders of Class A shares may not be able to sell their shares at or above the price at which they purchased the shares of Angie's List common stock that are converted into Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices in the Merger. The price of Angie's List common stock has fluctuated materially from time to time, and the price of ANGI Homeservices Class A shares may fluctuate materially following the completion of the Merger. ANGI Homeservices cannot predict the prices at which its Class A shares will trade in any future period. In addition, the stock market in general has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations that have often been unrelated or disproportionate to the operating performance of individual companies. These broad market and industry factors may materially harm the market price of the Class A shares, regardless of ANGI Homeservices' operating performance. In addition, the Class A share price may be dependent upon the valuations and recommendations of the analysts who cover ANGI Homeservices, and if its results do not meet the analysts' forecasts and expectations, the Class A share price could decline as a result of analysts lowering their valuations and recommendations or otherwise.

Future sales of Class A shares in the public market could cause volatility in the price of the Class A shares or cause the share price to fall.

Sales of a substantial number of Class A shares in the public market, or the perception that these sales might occur, could depress the market price of the Class A shares, and could impair ANGI Homeservices' ability to raise capital through the sale of additional equity securities. It is possible that a number of Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger may seek to sell a substantial number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices shortly after the completion of the Merger, and a high volume of sales or attempted sales within a short period of time, if it were to occur, is likely to negatively impact the price at which Class A shares trade.

The Class A shares to be received by Angie's List stockholders in connection with the Merger will have different rights from the Angie's List common stock.

Upon consummation of the Merger, Angie's List stockholders that receive the Share Consideration in the Merger will become ANGI Homeservices' stockholders and their rights as stockholders will be governed by the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and the amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices and Delaware law. The existing rights associated with Angie's List common stock are different from the rights associated with ANGI Homeservices common stock. For more information, see the sections entitled "Description of ANGI Homeservices Capital Stock" and "Comparison of the Rights of Angie's List Stockholders and Holders of Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices."

ANGI Homeservices may not pay any cash dividends for the foreseeable future and there can be no assurances that investors will realize gains on the Class A shares.

ANGI Homeservices has never declared or paid cash dividends on its capital stock, and ANGI Homeservices has not yet determined whether, when and in what amounts it may pay cash dividends on its Class A common stock, Class B common stock or Class C common stock (if any is then-outstanding) in the future. Any determination to pay dividends in the future will be at the discretion of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors and will depend upon results of operations, financial condition, contractual restrictions, and any future indebtedness it may incur, restrictions imposed by applicable law and other factors the ANGI Homeservices board of directors deems relevant. See the section entitled "The Transactions—Dividend Policy of ANGI Homeservices." There can be no assurances regarding the prices at which Class A shares will trade following the Merger, and the realization of any gains on the Class A shares by investors will depend on the price at which the Class A shares can be sold in the marketplace.

Provisions in the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws of ANGI Homeservices or Delaware law may discourage, delay or prevent a change of control of ANGI Homeservices or changes in its management and, therefore, depress the trading price of the Class A shares.

Delaware corporate law and the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws of ANGI Homeservices contain provisions that could discourage, delay or prevent a change in control of

ANGI Homeservices or changes in its management that the stockholders of ANGI Homeservices may deem advantageous, including provisions which:

- authorize the issuance of "blank check" preferred stock that the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices could issue to increase the number of outstanding shares and to discourage a takeover attempt;
- limit the ability of ANGI Homeservices stockholders to call special meetings of stockholders;
- provide that certain litigation against ANGI Homeservices can only be brought in Delaware; and
- provide that the ANGI Homeservices board of directors is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the bylaws of ANGI Homeservices.

Any provision of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws of ANGI Homeservices or Delaware law that has the effect of delaying or deterring a change in control could limit the opportunity for the ANGI Homeservices stockholders to receive a premium for their Class A shares, and could also affect the price that some investors are willing to pay for the Class A shares.

The multiclass structure of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices may render the Class A shares ineligible for inclusion in certain stock market indices, including the S&P Composite 1500 and its component indices and all indices managed by FTSE Russell. Exclusion from these and potentially other stock market indices may adversely affect the price and liquidity of the Class A shares.

Recently, certain operators of U.S. stock market indices have announced plans or adopted policies to exclude equity securities of companies with multiple classes of outstanding publicly traded equity securities and/or companies with outstanding classes of publicly traded equity securities that have no voting rights (or "low" voting rights, relative to another outstanding class of equity securities) from their stock indices. On July 26, 2017, FTSE Russell, which manages multiple stock market indices (including many in the United States) and is wholly owned by the London Stock Exchange Group, published a proposal to exclude from the indices it manages any company with 5% or less of its voting rights (aggregated across all of its equity securities, including those that are not listed or trading) held by "unrestricted (free-float) shareholders as defined by FTSE Russell." Following the Closing, IAC is expected to hold approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and as such ANGI Homeservices Class A shares may not be eligible for inclusion in any indices managed by FTSE Russell. Similarly, on July 31, 2017, S&P Dow Jones Indices announced that it planned to exclude companies with multiple share class structures (which would include ANGI Homeservices) from being added to the S&P Composite 1500 and its component indices. In addition, similar policies may be announced or implemented in the future by other operators of stock market indices. Absent a change in the total voting power in ANGI Homeservices represented by the Class A shares (including as a result of any voluntary conversion by IAC of its Class B shares to Class A shares), any such changes in policy or index selection criteria could render the Class A shares ineligible for inclusion in other stock market indices. Exclusion from stock market indices could adversely affect the price and reduce the liquidity and demand for the Class A shares.

Other Risks Related to the Businesses of Angie's List

In addition to the risks described above, you should read and consider the risk factors specific to the businesses of Angie's List, which are also expected to affect ANGI Homeservices following the completion of the Transactions. These risks are described in Angie's List's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by any subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K filed by Angie's List, all of which are or will be filed with the SEC and are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. ANGIE'S LIST SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

This section contains information about the special meeting of Angie's List stockholders that has been called to consider and adopt the Merger Agreement, to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger, and to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement.

This proxy statement/prospectus is being furnished to the stockholders of Angie's List in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Angie's List board for use at the special meeting. Angie's List is first mailing this proxy statement/prospectus and accompanying proxy card to its stockholders on or about August 30, 2017.

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held on Friday, September 29, 2017, at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time at The Alexander, 333 S. Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46204, unless the special meeting is adjourned or postponed.

Purpose of the Special Meeting; Proposals

At the special meeting, Angie's List stockholders will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

- a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement;
- a proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger; and
- a proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors

The Angie's List board has (i) unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are advisable and in the best interests of Angie's List and its stockholders, (ii) adopted, approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the Merger, (iii) recommended that the Angie's List stockholders adopt the Merger Agreement and (iv) directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted for adoption by the Angie's List stockholders at the special meeting.

The Angie's List board unanimously recommends that Angie's List stockholders vote:

- "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement;
- "FOR" the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger; and
- "FOR" the proposal to approve the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement.

See the sections entitled "The Transactions—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors."

Your vote is important, regardless of the number of shares of Angie's List common stock you own. The Merger cannot be consummated unless the Merger Agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. If you abstain from voting, fail to cast your vote, in person or by proxy, or fail to give voting instructions to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Angie's List stockholders should carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety for more detailed information concerning the Transactions. In addition, Angie's List stockholders are directed to the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Adoption of the Merger Agreement is subject to a vote by Angie's List stockholders separate from the vote on approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger. Approval of the compensation arrangements is not a condition to completion of the Merger.

Record Date; Stockholders Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of shares of Angie's List common stock at the close of business on the record date, which is August 25, 2017, will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock held as of the close of business on the record date entitles its holder to cast one vote on each proposal to be voted on at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 61,292,181 shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Voting by Directors and Executive Officers of Angie's List

As of the close of business on the record date, Angie's List's directors, executive officers and their respective affiliates owned and were entitled to vote 7,436,575 shares of Angie's List common stock. This represents approximately 12% of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Completion of the Merger is conditioned upon, among other things, the adoption of the Merger Agreement by stockholders of Angie's List. Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock. Angie's List currently expects that the Angie's List directors and executive officers will vote their shares of Angie's List common stock in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and the other proposals to be considered at the special meeting, although none of them is obligated to do so.

Quorum; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

A quorum is the minimum number of shares required to be present at the special meeting for the meeting to be properly held under the bylaws of Angie's List and Delaware law. The presence, in person or represented by proxy, of a majority of all issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting will constitute a quorum at the meeting. In the absence of a quorum, the chairperson of the special meeting or a majority in voting interest of the holders of Angie's List common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting at that time and entitled to vote at the special meeting will have the power to adjourn the special meeting until a quorum is present. Based on the number of shares of Angie's List common stock issued and outstanding as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, 30,646,091 shares of Angie's List common stock will be required to achieve a quorum.

Holders of shares of Angie's List common stock present in person at the special meeting but not voting, and shares of Angie's List common stock for which Angie's List has received proxies indicating that their holders have abstained, will be counted as present at the special meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum is established.

Under the rules that govern brokers who have record ownership of shares that are held in "street name" for their clients, the beneficial owners of the shares, brokers have discretion to vote these shares on routine matters but not on non-routine matters. The proposals to be voted on at the special meeting are not considered routine matters. Accordingly, brokers will not have discretionary voting authority to vote on the matters at the special meeting and, without instruction from the beneficial owner of the shares of Angie's List common stock held by that broker, will not be permitted to vote on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger or the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, shares of Angie's List common stock beneficially owned that have been designated on proxy cards by the broker (or bank or other nominee) as not voted on the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which are referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as "broker non-votes," will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and to the extent a broker (or bank or other nominee) has caused your shares to be represented at the special meeting, the proposal to approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the proposal to approve one or more adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will only be permitted to vote your shares of Angie's List common stock if you instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee how to vote. You should follow the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee regarding the voting of your shares of Angie's List common stock.

Required Vote

Adoption of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock outstanding and entitled to vote on this proposal. Accordingly, your failure to submit a proxy card or to vote in person at the special meeting, your abstention from voting or your failure to give voting instructions to your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee if you hold your shares in "street name" through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

Approval, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, of the compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock present, in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting and entitled to vote on this proposal. If your shares are not in attendance at the special meeting, they will have no effect on the outcome of this proposal; however, if a quorum is present and you submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting and indicate "ABSTAIN," your abstention will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

Approval of the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting (if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement) requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock present, in person or represented by proxy, at the special meeting and entitled to vote on this proposal. If your shares are not in attendance at the special meeting, they will have no effect on the outcome of any vote to adjourn or postpone the special meeting; however, if a quorum is present and you submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting and indicate "ABSTAIN," your abstention will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

How to Vote

Angie's List stockholders may vote using any of the following methods:

By Telephone or on the Internet

Angie's List stockholders can vote by calling the toll-free telephone number on their proxy card. Please have your proxy card handy when you call. Easy-to-follow voice prompts allow you to vote your shares and confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded.

The website for internet voting is www.investorvote.com/ANGI. Please have your proxy card handy when you go online. As with telephone voting, you can confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded.

Telephone and internet voting facilities for Angie's List stockholders of record will be available 24 hours a day beginning on or about August 30, 2017, and will close at 11:59 p.m. Eastern time on September 28, 2017. The availability of telephone and internet voting for beneficial owners will depend on the voting processes of your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. Therefore, Angie's List recommends that you follow the voting instructions in the materials you receive.

By Mail

Angie's List stockholders may complete, sign and date the proxy card or voting instruction card mailed to them and return it in the prepaid envelope.

In Person at the Special Meeting

Angie's List stockholders as of the close of business on the record date may vote in person at the special meeting. You may also be represented by another person at the special meeting if you execute a proper proxy designating that person. If you are a beneficial owner of Angie's List shares, you must obtain a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and present it to the inspectors of election with your ballot to be able to vote at the special meeting.

Voting of Proxies

Shares will be voted in accordance with the instructions provided by an Angie's List stockholder who has voted by internet, by telephone or by completing, signing, dating and mailing a proxy card or voting instruction card. If you are an Angie's List stockholder of record and you sign, date and return your proxy card but do not indicate how you want to vote or do not indicate that you wish to abstain, your shares will be voted "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, "FOR" the proposal to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, compensation payable to certain executive officers of Angie's List in connection with the Merger and "FOR" the proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement, and in the discretion of the proxyholders on any other matter that may properly come before the meeting at the discretion of the Angie's List board.

Table of ContentsRevoking Your Proxy

Angie's List stockholders may revoke a proxy at any time before it is voted at the special meeting. To do this, you must:

- enter a new vote by telephone or over the internet by the date and time indicated on the applicable proxy card or voting instruction card;
- deliver another duly executed proxy card or voting instruction card bearing a later date to the addressee named in the proxy card or voting instruction card;
- provide written notice of the revocation to Angie's List's Corporate Secretary at 1030 East Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202; or
- attend the special meeting and vote in person (your attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy; to do so you must vote in person at the meeting).

If your shares are held in "street name," you must contact your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to revoke and vote your proxy. If you have questions about how to vote or revoke your proxy, you should contact Angie's List's proxy solicitor, Innisfree M&A Incorporated at (888) 750-5834 (toll-free) or (212) 750-5833 (collect).

Attending the Special Meeting

Angie's List stockholders as of the close of business on the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the special meeting. If you hold shares of Angie's List common stock in your name as a stockholder of record and you wish to attend the special meeting, you must present evidence of your stock ownership, such as your most recent account statement, at the special meeting. You should also bring valid picture identification.

If your shares of Angie's List common stock are held in "street name" in a stock brokerage account or otherwise by a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and you wish to attend the special meeting, you need to bring a copy of a bank or brokerage statement to the special meeting reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date. You should also bring valid picture identification. Please note that if you plan to attend the special meeting in person and would like to vote at the special meeting, you will need to bring a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as explained above.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned or postponed for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies. Angie's List may adjourn the special meeting without notice if announced at the special meeting at which the adjournment is taken and if the adjournment is to a date that is not greater than 30 days after the original date fixed for the special meeting and no new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting. Any signed proxies received by Angie's List prior to the special meeting in which no voting instructions are provided on such matter will be voted "FOR" the adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate. Any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting will allow Angie's List stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use at the special meeting as adjourned or postponed.

If, at the special meeting, the number of shares of Angie's List common stock present in person or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement is not sufficient to approve that proposal, Angie's List expects to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable the Angie's List board to solicit additional proxies for the adoption of the Merger Agreement. In that event, Angie's List will ask its stockholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not the Merger Agreement proposal. The adjournment proposal relates to any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. Angie's List retains full authority to the extent set forth in its bylaws and Delaware law to adjourn the special meeting for any other purpose, or to postpone the special meeting before it is convened, without the consent of any Angie's List stockholders.

Solicitation of Proxies

Angie's List is soliciting proxies for the special meeting from Angie's List stockholders. Angie's List has also retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated to solicit proxies for the special meeting from Angie's List stockholders for a fee of approximately $20,000, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Angie's List will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from Angie's List stockholders, and Angie's List will pay all expenses incurred in connection with the printing and mailing of this proxy statement/prospectus. In addition to this mailing, Angie's List's directors, officers and employees (who will not receive any additional compensation for such services) may solicit proxies. Solicitation of proxies may be undertaken through the mail, in person, by telephone, the internet or other means.

Angie's List may also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses for forwarding proxy materials to the beneficial owners of Angie's List common stock and in obtaining voting instructions from such beneficial owners.

Stockholder List

A list of Angie's List stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting will be available for examination by any Angie's List stockholder at the special meeting. At least ten days prior to the date of the special meeting, this stockholder list will be available for inspection by Angie's List stockholders, subject to compliance with applicable provisions of Delaware law, during ordinary business hours at the corporate offices of Angie's List located at 1030 East Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202.

Other Business

There are no other matters that the Angie's List board intends to present at the special meeting. If you have returned your signed and completed proxy card and other matters are properly presented for voting at the special meeting, the proxies appointed by the Angie's List board (the persons named in your proxy card if you are a stockholder of record) will have the discretion to vote on those matters for you.

Assistance

If you need assistance in voting or completing your proxy card or have questions regarding the special meeting, please contact Innisfree M&A Incorporated, the proxy solicitor for Angie's List, by mail at 501 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10022, or by telephone at (888) 750-5834 (toll-free) or (212) 750-5833 (collect).

ANGI Homeservices is a Delaware corporation that was formed on April 13, 2017 under the name Halo TopCo, Inc. and renamed ANGI Homeservices Inc. on May 4, 2017. ANGI Homeservices was formed in connection with the Transactions as a wholly owned subsidiary of IAC. Following the completion of the Transactions described herein, ANGI Homeservices will become the holding company of both the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List.

ANGI Homeservices has not, to date, conducted any activities other than those incidental to its formation and the matters contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements, including the formation of Merger Sub as a wholly owned subsidiary, and the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus and the registration statement of which it forms a part.

Pursuant to the Contribution and prior to the completion of the Merger, IAC will transfer the HomeAdvisor Business to ANGI Homeservices. The HomeAdvisor Business is the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, connecting homeowners with service professionals for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects. HomeAdvisor's marketplace provides the tools and resources to allow homeowners to find local prescreened service professionals and instantly book appointments online or through HomeAdvisor's award-winning mobile application. HomeAdvisor's marketplace also provides consumers with other home services-related resources, including access to average project costs using HomeAdvisor's True Cost Guide. In addition to its market-leading U.S. operations, the HomeAdvisor Business owns the leading home services online marketplaces in Canada (HomeStars), Germany (MyHammer), France (Travaux.com) and the Netherlands (Werkspot), as well as operations in Italy (Instapro) and the United Kingdom (MyBuilder). The HomeAdvisor Business

IAC (NASDAQ:IAC) is a Delaware corporation. IAC is a leading media and internet company comprised of widely known consumer brands such as HomeAdvisor, Vimeo, Dictionary.com, The Daily Beast, Investopedia and Match Group's online dating portfolio, which includes Match, Tinder, PlentyOfFish and OkCupid. IAC is headquartered in New York City and has offices worldwide.

Immediately following the completion of the Transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus, IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration.

Additional information about IAC, including with respect to its corporate governance and the ownership of its common stock, is available in IAC's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and its proxy statement on Schedule 14A dated May 10, 2017. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

THE TRANSACTIONS

Overview of the Transactions and Effects of the Merger

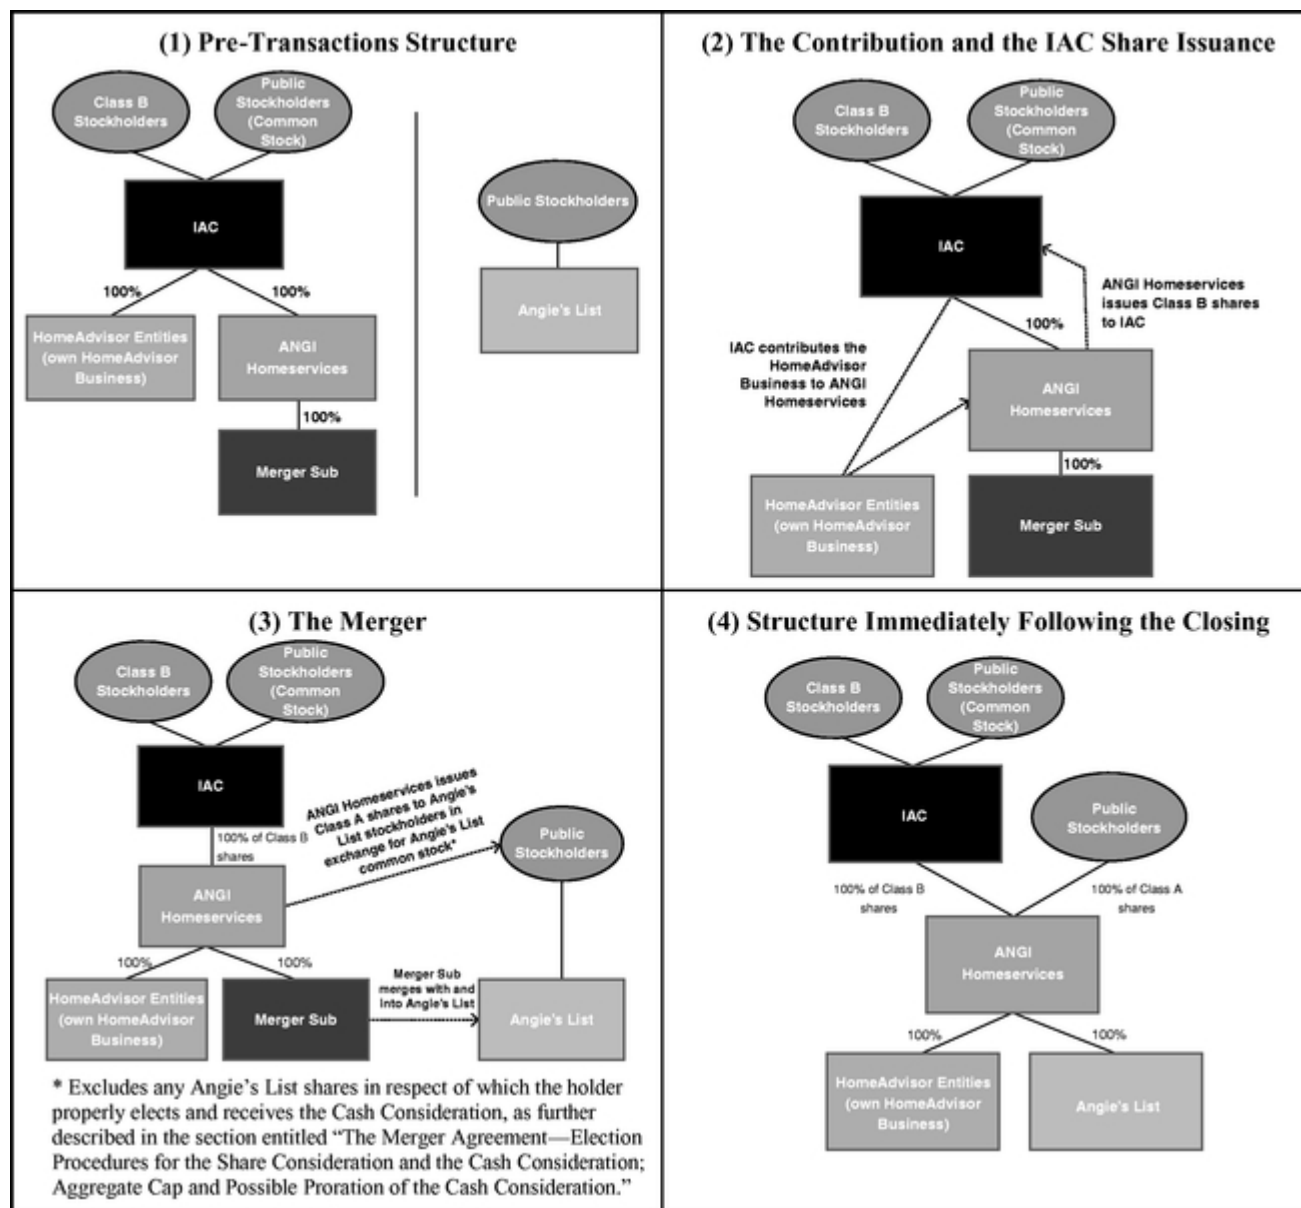

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, prior to the Closing, IAC will contribute its HomeAdvisor Business, along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration, if any, to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices. For further details regarding the Contribution, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Contribution Agreement." At the Effective Time, Merger Sub will merge with and into Angie's List, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and Angie's List will continue as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices.

At the Effective Time, each share of Angie's List common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election (i) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive a Class A share of ANGI Homeservices has been properly made and not revoked or lost, one Class A share (the "Share Consideration") or (ii) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been properly made and not revoked or lost, $8.50 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration" which, together with the Share Consideration, is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Merger Consideration"), but subject to the consideration election procedures and Cash Consideration proration provisions described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. For further details regarding the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the effects of the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement."

Following the Merger, (i) Angie's List common stock will be delisted from NASDAQ, deregistered under the Exchange Act and cease to be publicly traded and (ii) the Class A shares of the combined company, ANGI Homeservices, are expected to trade on NASDAQ under the current Angie's List ticker symbol, "ANGI."

Set forth below are diagrams that graphically illustrate, in simplified form, (1) the existing corporate structure of IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, (2) the structure of the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, following which the HomeAdvisor Business will be owned by ANGI Homeservices, (3) the structure of the Merger, and the issuance of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to holders of Angie's List common stock who properly elect or are deemed to elect to receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, and (4) the corporate structure of IAC and ANGI Homeservices (which at that time will own the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List) immediately following the completion of the Transactions.

Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and

IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

Background of the Transactions

The Angie's List board of directors regularly evaluates the strategic direction and ongoing business plan of Angie's List with a view toward strengthening Angie's List's business and enhancing stockholder value. As part of this evaluation, the Angie's List board of directors, from time to time, has considered various potential strategic alternatives for Angie's List, including continuation as a standalone enterprise, potential strategic alliances and other commercial arrangements, modifications to its strategy and direction, strategic mergers and acquisitions and other business combinations and/or a possible sale of Angie's List, including the possibility of a combination with IAC's HomeAdvisor business.

Angie's List announced in September 2015 that it had named Scott Durchslag as its new Chief Executive Officer. In October 2015, under the direction of Mr. Durchslag, Angie's List began a comprehensive operational review to develop a new strategic plan, with objectives of accelerating revenue growth, improving operational execution and improving profitability and cash flow. Among the initiatives to be examined, Angie's List cited identification of cost reductions, redesign of the sales force, improving marketing execution, scaling the Angie's List next generation operating platform, releasing a new service provider mobile application and improving execution in e-commerce.

On October 5, 2015, Joey Levin, the Chief Executive Officer of IAC, wrote to John Chuang, Angie's List's Chairman of the board of directors at that time, indicating IAC's interest in exploring a strategic transaction involving Angie's List. On October 9, 2015, after discussion with the Angie's List board of directors, Mr. Durchslag, on behalf of Angie's List, contacted Mr. Levin to inform him that if IAC were to articulate a specific proposal regarding the terms of a potential transaction, Mr. Durchslag would discuss it with the Angie's List board of directors but, absent a specific proposal, Angie's List would remain focused on improving operational execution rather than diverting resources to explore a possible transaction. In response, Mr. Levin requested a meeting with Angie's List management and told Mr. Durchslag that after such meeting was held, IAC would be in a position to deliver a specific proposal to Angie's List. Mr. Durchslag informed Mr. Levin that he would formally reply to IAC's proposal by letter and would also seek to find a suggested time for the management teams of IAC and Angie's List to meet. Later that afternoon, Mr. Levin received a letter from Mr. Durchslag confirming receipt of IAC's October 5, 2015 letter, requesting a clearly articulated proposal from IAC with respect to value, deal structure and form of consideration, suggesting a meeting later that month between the management teams of IAC and Angie's List and requesting the negotiation of a non-disclosure agreement. The letter also noted that given the work ahead for Angie's List management in executing Angie's List's standalone strategic plan, Mr. Durchslag believed that the Angie's List board of directors would not support the diversion of resources to explore a potential transaction with IAC absent a specific proposal from IAC.

On October 13, 2015, Mr. Durchslag contacted Mr. Levin and agreed during this exchange to meet on October 23, 2015.

On October 23, 2015, Mr. Durchslag and Thomas R. Fox, the Chief Financial Officer of Angie's List, met Mr. Levin and Mark Stein, Senior Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer of IAC at that time, for dinner in Chicago. At the meeting, the representatives of IAC expressed IAC's interest in exploring a potential acquisition of Angie's List for $8.50 per share in cash and also indicated IAC's willingness to explore a combination of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor business in an all-stock transaction if that would be of interest to the Angie's List board of directors. The attendees discussed

IAC's view of the potential strategies that the combined company might pursue and the potential operational benefits of a combination. The closing price of Angie's List common stock on October 23, 2015 was $6.94 per share.

On November 3, 2015, Mr. Durchslag reported IAC's expression of interest and the meeting in Chicago to the Angie's List board of directors at a meeting attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin, legal counsel to Angie's List, and BofA Merrill Lynch, one of Angie's List's financial advisors. After discussing IAC's expression of interest, the Angie's List board of directors determined that the Angie's List board should fully evaluate the strategic plan being prepared by Angie's List management, and share that plan with Angie's List stockholders, before deciding whether to pursue a transaction with IAC or any other party and instructed Mr. Durchslag to tell Mr. Levin that Angie's List was not interested in pursuing the proposed transaction with IAC at this time. After the meeting, Mr. Durchslag communicated the Angie's List board of directors' decision to Mr. Levin.

On November 11, 2015, IAC submitted to the Angie's List board of directors and substantially simultaneously publicly announced via a press release a proposal to acquire Angie's List for $8.75 per share in cash. IAC also indicated its willingness to consider a combination of Angie's List with the HomeAdvisor business through a tax-free stock-for-stock exchange. The closing price of Angie's List common stock on November 10, 2015, the last full trading day before IAC's public announcement, was $7.84 per share.

On November 17, 2015, Angie's List delivered a written response to IAC, which Angie's List substantially simultaneously published via a press release, stating that after a comprehensive review, conducted in consultation with independent financial and legal advisors, the Angie's List board of directors had determined that it was premature to conclude that a strategic transaction was in the best interests of Angie's List stockholders, and concluded that the proposal by IAC undervalued Angie's List and its long-term standalone prospects. The Angie's List board of directors reiterated that it believed that it should have the opportunity to fully evaluate the strategic plan being prepared by Angie's List management and share that plan with Angie's List stockholders before deciding whether to engage in a transaction with IAC or any other party. There were no further contacts between IAC and Angie's List concerning a potential business combination transaction in the months that followed. On March 3, 2016, Angie's List held an "Investor Day" in New York City at which it unveiled its new three-phase strategic plan. The first phase, to be executed over the remainder of 2016, included adoption of a new member pricing strategy, including a basic free membership tier intended to increase membership and member engagement, introduction of new member products and increased operational effectiveness across information technology, marketing and sales. The second phase of the plan, to be executed during 2017 and 2018, focused on improving service provider offerings and increasing Angie's List's e-commerce business. The third phase, to be executed after 2018, was to expand the Angie's List business into adjacent markets. Angie's List noted at that time that the plan was expected to involve substantial near-term investment coupled with a decline in membership revenue resulting from the new membership pricing structure, and that returns on Angie's List's investment in the form of improved operating results would likely not be realized before 2017.

During the second and third calendar quarters of 2016, Angie's List began to roll out the first phase of the strategic plan, including making service provider reviews available to members free of charge, introducing a new tiered membership plan and migrating to its new technology platform. During this period, Angie's List management regularly updated the Angie's List board of directors on management's progress in executing the new strategic plan as well as Angie's List's financial condition and operating results. In that context, the Angie's List board of directors regularly evaluated Angie's List's overall prospects, liquidity requirements for the strategic plan and potential costs and benefits of pursuing a major strategic transaction such as a merger or acquisition of Angie's List in order to enhance stockholder value.

At a meeting of the Angie's List board of directors on October 6, 2016, which was also attended by Angie's List management and a representative of Sidley Austin, the Angie's List board of directors discussed, among other matters, various potential paths to enhance stockholder value, including by reducing expenses and investment, raising additional capital to increase investment under the new strategic plan and exploring potential strategic alternatives (including a possible sale of Angie's List). The representative of Sidley Austin advised the Angie's List board of directors on the fiduciary duties of the members of the Angie's List board of directors' regarding its potential exploration of these alternatives. Following discussion, the Angie's List board of directors approved the formation of a committee of the Angie's List board of directors having the authority to examine various potential strategic options and consider financial advisors, with George Bell, Thomas Evans, Dave Mullen and Eric Semler serving as members of this newly created Strategic Advisory Committee (the "Committee").

The Committee's first meeting was held on October 11, 2016. Also attending was Shannon Shaw, General Counsel of Angie's List and additional members of Angie's List management. Among other initial matters, the Committee discussed the process for selecting financial advisors to assist in the exploration of potential strategic alternatives.

On October 17, 2016, at a meeting of the Angie's List board of directors, which was also attended by Angie's List management and a representative of Sidley Austin, the Committee updated the Angie's List board of directors on its progress, including the financial advisor selection process. The Committee recommended, and the Angie's List board of directors concurred, that both Allen & Company and BofA Merrill Lynch (collectively, the "Financial Advisors") be engaged to assist Angie's List in a review and potential pursuit of strategic alternatives. Thereafter, Angie's List engaged the Financial Advisors.

The Committee held three meetings between October 20 and October 31, 2016, at which Angie's List management and representatives of the Financial Advisors were present, and during which various process-related matters were discussed, including potential acquirors of Angie's List (which included both strategic counterparties and financial sponsors), the process for contacting potential acquirors and the appropriate time and method for announcing the Angie's List board of directors' decision to explore potential strategic alternatives.

When announcing its third quarter 2016 financial results on November 1, 2016, Angie's List stated that it was focused on opportunities to accelerate growth and, in addition to continuing to execute on a turnaround plan, had determined to explore strategic alternatives to achieve the full potential of its new platform. Angie's List also announced its engagement of the Financial Advisors to assist Angie's List in exploring these strategic opportunities.

Beginning on November 15, 2016, at the direction of Angie's List, the Financial Advisors began to contact 62 potential acquirors, including 51 strategic parties and 11 financial sponsors. The Committee held a meeting on November 16, 2016, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of the Financial Advisors. At the Committee's request, the Financial Advisors briefed the Committee on the initial outreach to potential acquirors, the preparation of management presentations and related matters, and the Committee provided instruction regarding the same. The Committee engaged in additional discussion regarding interested potential acquirors, the timing for a potential transaction and the scheduling of introductory meetings over the coming months.

As part of the outreach to potential acquirors on behalf of Angie's List, a representative of Allen & Company contacted Mr. Levin on November 16, 2016. Mr. Levin and the representative of Allen & Company spoke on November 18, 2016 whereby, in accordance with the directives of the Angie's List board of directors, IAC was invited to participate in Angie's List's strategic alternatives review process. Mr. Levin, on behalf of IAC, expressed interest in participating. In accordance with the directives of Angie's List's board of directors, the representative of Allen & Company noted that IAC would be required to execute Angie's List's non-disclosure agreement prior to receiving information, and Mr. Levin in response requested that Angie's List's draft non-disclosure agreement be sent to IAC for review. Later that afternoon, IAC received Angie's List's draft non-disclosure agreement, which Angie's List and IAC negotiated over the ensuing weeks.

On November 23, 2016, the Angie's List board of directors held a meeting also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors during which the Angie's List board of directors discussed certain financial information prepared by management both for purposes of Angie's List's budgeting process and evaluation of Angie's List's execution of the turnaround plan and to be provided to potential acquirors, and provided guidance to management and the Committee for finalizing the strategic plan. Management reviewed the work undertaken to prepare such information and related assumptions. Mr. Bell and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors also updated the Angie's List board of directors on the work of the Committee and potential next steps.

The Committee held a meeting on December 5, 2016, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of the Financial Advisors. The Committee received and approved the updated strategic plan from management and received an update from the Financial Advisors as to the status of the third-party solicitation process. The Committee also approved providing certain materials, including management presentations, to interested parties that had executed non-disclosure agreements and allowing such parties to conduct due diligence reviews of Angie's List and its business.

Beginning on December 6, 2016 and continuing through May 1, 2017, a number of interested parties (including IAC) engaged in a due diligence review of Angie's List. Non-disclosure agreements were executed with 28 parties, including IAC (on December 13, 2016), and 13 of such parties (which did not include IAC) attended separate presentations by Angie's List management.

At an Angie's List board of directors meeting on December 13, 2016, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors, the Angie's List board of directors received an update on the progress of the third-party solicitation process and discussed potential next steps with respect to the interested parties. A representative of Sidley Austin further discussed with the Angie's List board of directors the Angie's List board of directors' fiduciary duties in connection with a sale process and reviewed a proposed form of merger agreement that could be provided to potential acquirors, which form had been circulated to the Angie's List board of directors in advance of the meeting. At the meeting, management reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors Angie's List's fourth quarter financial results and operating plan for 2017.

The Committee met on January 2, 2017, with Angie's List management and representatives of the Financial Advisors present, and received an update from the Financial Advisors regarding the third-party solicitation process, including summaries of management presentation meetings previously held with potentially interested acquirors. The Committee discussed setting appropriate deadlines for the submission of initial indications of interest. The Committee also discussed and approved the content of the first round bid instruction letter to be provided to parties that had executed a non-disclosure agreement and indicated an interest in pursuing an acquisition of Angie's List. This instruction letter, which set an initial bid deadline of January 18, 2017, was sent over the next few days to the 27 parties that had expressed an interest in exploring a potential transaction with Angie's List, including IAC. Management also updated the Committee regarding certain matters related to Angie's List's business. On January 10, 2017, the Angie's List board of directors held a regularly scheduled meeting, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. Among other matters covered at the meeting, the Financial Advisors reviewed the status of the outreach to, and discussions with, potential acquirors and discussed with the Angie's List board of directors certain market and financial matters relating to Angie's List and a potential transaction and potential next steps in the process. At the meeting, management reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors Angie's List's operating plan and financial outlook. The Angie's List board of directors and management discussed the assumptions underlying the plan and outlook as well as member engagement, the service provider value proposition, operating margin efficiencies, investment focus and deliverables. Given Angie's List's financial outlook as discussed at the meeting, including with respect to member engagement, the service provider value proposition, operating margin efficiencies and investment focus and deliverables, it was determined that, absent additional financing or a potential sale transaction, Angie's List would not be expected to fully execute its operating plan, but would instead require substantial reductions in its cost structure.

On January 18, 2017, a potential strategic acquiror (which is referred to in this section as "Company A") submitted a preliminary indication of interest that contemplated a combination of Company A with Angie's List in which Angie's List stockholders in the aggregate would receive, upon consummation of the transaction, 43% of the combined company's outstanding common stock. Also on January 18, 2017, representatives of IAC informed representatives of the Financial Advisors that, given a lack of sufficient due diligence materials provided by Angie's List, IAC would not be submitting a preliminary indication of interest by the requested deadline.

On January 20, 2017, at the direction of Angie's List, representatives of the Financial Advisors spoke with representatives of Company A in order to clarify the terms of its proposal and to request financial information regarding Company A's business, including certain financial projections.

On January 23, 2017, the Committee held a meeting with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors present. The Financial Advisors updated the Committee as to the third-party solicitation process and the attendees discussed the four parties that were then actively pursuing a potential acquisition of Angie's List pursuant to the process established by Angie's List, which were IAC, Company A, and two additional potential strategic acquirors (which are referred to in this section as "Company B" and "Company C"). The reasons given by other, previously interested parties for having elected not to continue to participate in the process were also discussed. These stated reasons included, among other things, the relevant counterparty's inability to realize synergies by acquiring Angie's List; competing internal initiatives undertaken or expected to be undertaken by the counterparty; the counterparty's decision that acquiring Angie's List was not consistent with the counterparty's strategic focus; and, particularly in the case of the financial sponsors that previously expressed interest as potential acquirors, the perception of these potential acquirors that Angie's List was too early in the ongoing process of transitioning its business model for a potential acquiror to formulate and support a compelling leveraged buyout model for an acquisition of Angie's List given the risks and uncertainties associated with the ongoing transformation of its business. The Committee discussed Company A's indication of interest and potential responses, as well as potential next steps. The Committee directed management and the Financial Advisors to seek greater clarity from Company A as to the structure and terms of its proposal, to continue to encourage Company B and Company C to submit indications of interest, and to provide additional requested information to, and continue discussions with, IAC.

The next day, on January 24, 2017, Company B submitted a preliminary indication of interest reflecting a proposed purchase price for all of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock in the range of $8.65 to $8.95 per share in cash.

On January 26, 2017, the Committee held a meeting with Angie's List management and a representative of Sidley Austin present. During this meeting, management reviewed with the Committee further information and considerations regarding strategic priorities for Angie's List and its business and associated capital requirements. Risks and potential benefits of various operating scenarios were discussed as well as the potential implementation of various initiatives. After discussion, the Committee instructed management to continue to develop an operating plan reflecting the alternative operating strategy discussed at the meeting for further consideration by the Angie's List board of directors.

Later on January 26, 2017, the Committee held another meeting, with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors present, during which meeting Company B's proposal was discussed. The Committee directed the Financial Advisors to inform Company B that it would need to increase its proposed purchase price, but would be permitted to continue its due diligence review and discussions with Angie's List to validate a higher purchase price and to continue to participate in the process. The Financial Advisors conveyed that message to Company B later that evening as instructed. In addition, during the Committee meeting, the Committee discussed the status of conversations with Company A, and determined that it would require further financial information regarding Company A before the Committee would respond to Company A's proposal. Also discussed at the meeting were a request by Company C for Angie's List's strategic rationale for a potential combination with Company C and the parties' efforts to schedule a meeting of the representatives of Angie's List and Company C. With respect to IAC, the Committee discussed various potential responses to IAC's request to receive more information about Angie's List before submitting a preliminary indication of interest. The Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to continue discussions with IAC while seeking to further evaluate the two proposals received to date.

On January 31, 2017, the Angie's List board of directors held a meeting, also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. A member of the Committee updated the Angie's List board of directors on the work undertaken to date by the Committee. The Financial Advisors then updated the Angie's List board of directors as to the third-party solicitation process, including with respect to the four interested parties that remained in the process and the reasons stated by other potential acquirors for declining to participate further in the process as discussed with the Committee at its January 23, 2017 meeting. As part of the discussion at this meeting, the Angie's List board of directors, management and Financial Advisors discussed the perspectives of potential financial sponsor acquirors, and the potential ability of Angie's List to take certain operational actions that might increase the attractiveness of Angie's List to financial sponsors as an acquisition target. Also at this meeting, management reviewed and discussed with the Angie's List board of directors a revised operational plan for Angie's List as a standalone company reflecting a narrowed operational focus, as requested by the Angie's List board at prior meetings. The attendees also discussed, among other things, management's views of the potential impact of adopting such a plan on the near-term operations and financial condition and long-term prospects of Angie's List, as well as the timing and desirability of adopting this revised operational plan and related implications.

Also on January 31, 2017, Company A and Company B were given access to an online data room prepared by Angie's List that contained confidential information about Angie's List intended to allow a further due diligence review of Angie's List and its business.

From February 7 through February 14, 2017, Angie's List management held due diligence meetings (both telephonic and in person) with Company A, Company B and Company C. Representatives of the Financial Advisors also attended these meetings. Also during this period, the Committee held a meeting on February 10, 2017, at which management was present, to discuss these due diligence meetings. The Committee directed Angie's List management to provide additional due diligence information to IAC pursuant to its request.

Beginning in early to mid-February of 2017, Company C ceased active engagement in the process, but Company C did not formally withdraw or provide any reason for discontinuing discussions with Angie's List, notwithstanding multiple efforts to keep Company C engaged.

On February 16, 2017, Mr. Levin spoke with a representative of Allen & Company to express IAC's interest in pursuing a stock-for-stock combination of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor business. In accordance with Angie's List's directives, the representative of Allen & Company indicated that the Angie's List board of directors might be willing to consider a stock-for-stock combination but was also continuing to consider alternative proposals, and suggested that representatives of Angie's List meet with representatives of IAC and the HomeAdvisor business to discuss the potential benefits of combining Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor business and the outlook for such a combined company.

On February 23, 2017, representatives of IAC held a conference call with the Committee and representatives of the Financial Advisors and presented IAC's views on the benefits of combining Angie's List with IAC's HomeAdvisor business. At the end of this presentation, IAC indicated its willingness to pursue a potential transaction whereby Angie's List would be combined with IAC's HomeAdvisor business in North America in a stock-for-stock combination that would result in Angie's List securityholders owning, upon consummation of the transaction, 10% of the combined company on a cash-free, debt-free basis, with governance arrangements for the combined company to be determined.

On February 28, 2017, the Committee held a meeting, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. The Financial Advisors discussed with the Committee IAC's proposal and certain financial matters regarding IAC's proposed transaction and the HomeAdvisor business, noting that while IAC publicly reported some financial information regarding the HomeAdvisor segment of its business, IAC had not provided sufficient financial information to allow a more detailed review of its HomeAdvisor business. The Committee discussed potential responses to IAC's proposal, as well as the Committee's desire to obtain more information about the HomeAdvisor business. The Committee directed management to schedule a due diligence meeting between the management teams of Angie's List and IAC to further evaluate the potential merits of the proposed combination. Representatives of the Financial Advisors also provided an update to the Committee on discussions with Company B, including Company B's indication that it might reduce its previously proposed purchase price because the underlying operating metrics of the business made available by Angie's List did not align with Company B's expectations.

On March 1, 2017, Angie's List and IAC entered into a non-disclosure agreement for the provision by IAC to Angie's List of non-public information concerning the HomeAdvisor business.

On March 2, 2017, Company B indicated in a telephone call to a representative of Allen & Company that if Company B were to proceed, its proposal would likely be lower, in the range of $7.00 to $8.00 per share in cash, based on its further due diligence review of Angie's List.

Also on March 2, 2017, representatives of Angie's List and IAC met to discuss IAC's proposal of February 23, 2017 and engage in a due diligence review regarding the assumptions and expectations underlying that proposal.

On March 7, 2017, the Angie's List board of directors held a meeting, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. The Financial Advisors updated the Angie's List board of directors as to the status of discussions with the three parties that had submitted preliminary indications of interest and the financial terms of their respective proposals. The Angie's List board of directors discussed with management and the Financial Advisors potential responses to, and potential next steps with, each bidder. The Angie's List board of directors directed the Committee to develop a response to IAC that would seek an increased stake for Angie's List's securityholders in the combined company. The Angie's List board of directors also discussed with management, among other matters, financial information and forecasts for the first quarter of 2017, the revised 2017 operating plan for Angie's List as a standalone company and various assumptions and expectations underlying the operating plan, including with respect to the narrowed strategic focus of Angie's List, headcount assumptions and the potential impact of the revised plan on various business units. After discussion, the Angie's List board of directors approved the revised plan (which replaced Angie's List's prior preliminary budget and forecast), including cost-cutting initiatives in certain areas to shift spending more heavily towards marketing and more narrowly focus on Angie's List's core business.

Pursuant to the direction of the Angie's List board of directors, the Committee met on March 9, 2017 with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors in attendance to discuss potential responses to IAC. After discussion, the Committee directed the Financial Advisors to respond to IAC's proposal with a counterproposal for a combination of Angie's List with IAC's HomeAdvisor business that would result in Angie's List's stockholders receiving, upon consummation of the transaction, 22% of the combined company. The Committee also discussed potential next steps with the other interested parties, and directed the Financial Advisors to seek greater clarity from Company A as to the structure and terms of its proposal and to instruct Company A that it would need to increase the valuation of Angie's List reflected in its proposal. The Financial Advisors delivered those responses to IAC and Company A the following day, March 10, 2017, as instructed. IAC responded that it was not interested in pursuing a transaction on the terms indicated by Angie's List and requested to speak directly with representatives of the Angie's List board of directors.

On March 16, 2017, Mr. Evans met with Mr. Levin to further discuss IAC's proposal of February 23, 2017 and Angie's List's counterproposal of March 10, 2017. At this meeting, Mr. Evans indicated that Angie's List was not interested in pursuing a transaction resulting in Angie's List securityholders holding 10% of the equity in the combined company. In response, Mr. Levin proposed to include the HomeAdvisor's European business and certain other assets in IAC's contribution to the combined company, and to calculate the relative ownership percentages without regard to the outstanding indebtedness of Angie's List. Mr. Levin indicated that, except for the foregoing modifications, IAC's prior proposal of February 23, 2017 was unchanged, including the proposal that Angie's List securityholders would receive 10% of the equity in the combined company.

The Committee met three times, once on March 17, 2017 and twice on March 22, 2017, to discuss IAC's revised proposal conveyed on March 16, 2017. Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors were also in attendance at these meetings. After discussion of various potential responses to IAC, as well as the potential operational restructuring that Angie's List was considering, the Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to propose to IAC that, in addition to IAC's proposed modifications to its proposal conveyed on March 16, 2017, Angie's List securityholders receive 18% of the outstanding equity in the combined company. The Financial Advisors conveyed this response to IAC on March 23, 2017, as instructed.

On March 24, 2017, IAC rejected Angie's List's latest proposal regarding ownership by Angie's List securityholders of 18% of the equity in the combined company and instead proposed to increase the consideration offered in IAC's March 16, 2017 proposal by including $1.00 in cash per share of Angie's List common stock.

On March 28, 2017, the Angie's List board of directors held a meeting, which was also attended by Angie's List management, representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. Management provided an update on Angie's List's business and execution against the revised operating plan, including with respect to the timing of the previously discussed reduction in the Angie's List workforce. The Financial Advisors updated the Angie's List board of directors as to the financial terms and status of the various proposals received by Angie's List to date, noting that Company A had yet to provide a clearer explanation regarding the structure and other details of its proposal, and that Company B had not yet scheduled a meeting with Angie's List management. The Angie's List board of directors discussed and considered these matters, as well as various protections that Angie's List might negotiate for the benefit of Angie's List's stockholders in connection with a potential negotiated combination with the HomeAdvisor Business in which IAC would become the controlling stockholder of the combined company. The Angie's List board of directors discussed potential responses to IAC and authorized the Committee to formulate a response to IAC that would not include the $1.00 per share cash consideration recently proposed by IAC (which the Angie's List board of directors determined would deprive stockholders of additional potential upside in the combined company) and would instead seek an increased equity stake for Angie's List securityholders of between 12% and 15% in the combined company.

Immediately following the Angie's List board of directors' meeting, the Committee met on March 28, 2017 with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors in attendance, to discuss potential responses to IAC and how best to increase the interest of Company B in an acquisition of Angie's List and its engagement in the process. After discussion of various potential responses to IAC, as well as the possibility of Angie's List continuing as a standalone company and potential stockholder responses to Angie's List pursuit of these various alternatives, the Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to respond to IAC with a counterproposal for a stock-for-stock transaction in which Angie's List securityholders would receive 13% of the equity in the combined company. The Financial Advisors conveyed this response to a representative of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, IAC's financial advisor ("JPMorgan"), on March 29, 2017, as instructed.

On March 29, 2017, a representative of JPMorgan responded to Angie's List's counterproposal of March 29, 2017 with a revised proposal for an all-stock transaction in which Angie's List securityholders would receive 12% of the equity in the combined company, and also provided a term sheet to Angie's List specifying certain proposed governance terms for the combined company, including a multi-class structure for the combined company's common stock (with IAC holding the high-vote shares), and certain protections for minority stockholders. The term sheet also indicated that IAC's proposal was made on the basis that IAC would enter into a satisfactory voting agreement in support of the proposed transaction with certain significant stockholders of Angie's List holding, in the aggregate, approximately 40% of the outstanding shares of Angie's List's common stock, and also noted that IAC's proposal was contingent on satisfactory completion of due diligence. The term sheet also proposed a transaction structure whereby HomeAdvisor and Angie's List would be combined into a new publicly traded company through a contribution of HomeAdvisor to a newly formed company, and a merger of Angie's List into a subsidiary of such newly formed company.

The Committee met on March 30, 2017 with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors also in attendance. The Financial Advisors informed the Committee that Company A had verbally indicated earlier that day that it would provide a revised proposal for a combination of Company A and Angie's List in which Angie's List stockholders in the aggregate would receive, upon consummation of the transaction, approximately 40% of the combined company's outstanding common stock in addition to cash consideration of $100 million. The Committee also discussed IAC's counterproposal of March 30, 2017 and determined to inform IAC that the Committee was not willing to pursue the proposed combination with the HomeAdvisor Business if it would result in Angie's List stockholders receiving less than an aggregate of 13% of the equity in the combined company.

On March 31, 2017, in accordance with the directives of the Committee, Mr. Evans discussed with Mr. Levin Angie's List's counterproposal and informed Mr. Levin of the Committee's position that Angie's List securityholders receive 13% of the equity in the combined company. During this discussion, Mr. Levin initially countered with a 12.5% equity stake for Angie's List stockholders, but ultimately agreed to pursue further negotiations regarding a combination in which Angie's List securityholders would receive 13% of the equity in the combined company, subject to agreement on satisfactory governance terms and IAC's entry into a satisfactory voting agreement with certain stockholders of Angie's List, as previously indicated. Mr. Levin also indicated a desire to enter into an exclusivity arrangement with Angie's List in order to proceed expeditiously in negotiating definitive transaction agreements, and representatives of JPMorgan provided a draft exclusivity letter to representatives of Allen & Company the following day.

On April 2, 2017, Company B verbally indicated to the Financial Advisors that Company B had revised its proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock to an indicative range of $8.00 to $8.50 per share in cash. Prior to the following meetings on April 3, 2017, Company B informed the Financial Advisors that it would not submit a revised indication of interest but that Company B might be interested in further discussions with Angie's List if a strategic transaction were not agreed upon and consummated with another interested party.

On April 3, 2017, the Committee met, with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors also in attendance. The Financial Advisors updated the Committee as to Company B's revised proposal. The Committee also discussed IAC's request for exclusivity as well as IAC's request that Angie's List approach certain Angie's List stockholders to discuss the combination proposed by IAC, request their support and assess their willingness to enter into a proposed voting agreement. Following these discussions, the Committee temporarily adjourned its meeting to join an Angie's List board of directors meeting. During the course of the Angie's List board of directors meeting, which was also attended by Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors, the Angie's List board of directors discussed IAC's proposed governance term sheet provided on March 30, 2017 and IAC's request for exclusivity, as well as the desire of the Angie's List board to obtain further details regarding the proposed 13% equity interest of Angie's List securityholders in the combined company. The Angie's List board of directors determined to seek agreement on how the outstanding equity awards of Angie's List and outstanding equity awards held by employees of the HomeAdvisor Business, as well as equity awards expected to be granted prior to the completion of the proposed transaction, would impact the proposed relative ownership percentages in the combined company. The Angie's List board of directors also discussed the status of discussions with Company A, the significant business challenges faced by Company A and the lack of a clear proposal from Company A as to how a combination of Angie's List with Company A would improve the prospects of the combined business, as well as the implied value of Company A's proposal to Angie's List stockholders based on financial information provided by Company A. In light of the uncertainties regarding Company A's proposal, the Angie's List board of directors directed management, with the assistance of the Financial Advisors, to prioritize development of the proposals from Company B and IAC as the Angie's List board of directors believed they offered greater value and certainty to Angie's List stockholders. Regarding Company B, the Angie's List board of directors discussed the status of the discussions with Company B and noted that Company B had indicated that it still needed to conduct additional due diligence and further develop its business model. The Angie's List board of directors determined that the Committee should also engage in further negotiations with IAC regarding the terms of its proposed combination before determining whether to enter into the requested exclusivity arrangement with IAC.

Following the Angie's List board of directors meeting, during a continuation of the Committee's prior meeting, the Committee further compared the relative merits and risks of the proposals submitted by IAC and Company B. The Committee discussed concerns regarding the likelihood that Company B would ultimately make a compelling, actionable offer and successfully complete a potential acquisition of Angie's List in light of Company B's failure to meet with Angie's List management as requested by Angie's List or conduct more detailed due diligence despite ample time to do so and the efforts to increase Company B's engagement and interest in a potential acquisition. The Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to continue pursuing a revised proposal from Company B that offered greater value to Angie's List stockholders and to engage in discussions with IAC and its advisors regarding the calculation of the ownership split, capitalization and governance of the proposed combined company, as discussed with the Angie's List board of directors. The Committee also instructed Sidley Austin to engage in discussions with Wachtell Lipton, legal counsel to IAC, regarding the terms of the transaction proposed by IAC.

On April 3, 2017, Wachtell Lipton provided a draft merger agreement to Sidley Austin. This initial draft of the merger agreement contemplated several "deal protections," including, among others, a "force-the-vote" provision that would require the merger agreement to be submitted to a vote of Angie's List stockholders even if the Angie's List board of directors were no longer recommending its adoption, a $20 million termination fee payable by Angie's List to IAC following the termination of the merger agreement in specified circumstances and a $10 million expense reimbursement payable by Angie's List to IAC if the merger agreement were to be terminated for failure to obtain the approval of the Angie's List stockholders. The draft merger agreement also reflected the transaction structure proposed in the term sheet, whereby HomeAdvisor and Angie's List would be combined into a new publicly traded company. Over the course of the next several weeks, Wachtell Lipton provided to Sidley Austin drafts of the proposed ancillary agreements to be entered into in connection with the proposed transaction, forms of the proposed certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the combined company to be in effect as of the closing of the proposed transaction, and a form of voting agreement that IAC sought to enter into with several of Angie's List's significant stockholders. On April 4, 2017, representatives of Sidley Austin and Wachtell Lipton held a conference call during which representatives of Sidley Austin indicated that, prior to engaging in negotiations regarding the terms of a definitive merger agreement, Angie's List sought to agree on the treatment of Angie's List and HomeAdvisor Business equity awards in the calculation of the proposed ownership split in the combined company.

On April 6, 2017, Company A submitted a revised indication of interest for a combination of Company A and Angie's List in which Angie's List stockholders in the aggregate would receive, upon consummation of the transaction, approximately 42% of the combined company's outstanding common stock, as well as cash consideration of $100 million. Also on April 6, 2017, representatives of Sidley Austin contacted representatives of Wachtell Lipton and communicated the high-level issues that the Angie's List board of directors had with the voting agreement that IAC sought to enter into with certain stockholders of Angie's List and the other deal protections proposed by IAC, including with respect to the ability of Angie's List to engage with third parties that may be interested in making competing proposals following the execution of the merger agreement, the limited rights of Angie's List to terminate the merger agreement prior to a vote of Angie's List stockholders on its adoption, the circumstances under which Angie's List would be obligated to pay IAC a termination fee upon termination of the merger agreement, the amount of the termination fee and other deal protections contained in Wachtell Lipton's draft merger agreement. In response, representatives of Wachtell Lipton conveyed IAC's reasons for the proposed provisions and IAC's positions on the topics raised. The representatives of Sidley Austin and Wachtell Lipton also discussed the proposed transaction structure and agreed that the proposed structure was the most efficient from a tax and governance perspective.

On April 7, 2017, the Committee met with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors in attendance. Representatives of the Financial Advisors updated the Committee as to their discussions with IAC since the prior Committee meeting, and representatives of Sidley Austin updated the Committee as to discussions with Wachtell Lipton regarding exclusivity, certain proposed deal protections and the ongoing due diligence reviews of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business. Representatives of the Financial Advisors also updated the Committee as to Company A's revised proposal submitted on April 6, 2017 and the transaction timeline proposed by Company A. The Committee requested that the Financial Advisors ask Company A to further increase the value offered by its proposal to Angie's List stockholders. The attendees also discussed Company B's statements to the Financial Advisors on April 3, 2017, and Company B's failure to formally submit a revised bid. The Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to pursue further discussions with Company B, offer to provide Company B with updated capitalization data of Angie's List, and request a "best and final" proposal from Company B. The Committee also determined that it was not prepared to agree to the requested exclusivity arrangement with IAC.

Later in the day on April 7, 2017, at the direction of the Angie's List board of directors, representatives of the Financial Advisors spoke with a representative of Company A, who stated that Company A's proposal provided on the previous day was its best and final offer. Additionally, at the direction of the Angie's List board of directors, representatives of the Financial Advisors provided Angie's List's updated capitalization data to Company B.

On April 9, 2017, as directed by IAC and Angie's List, representatives of JPMorgan and Allen & Company discussed IAC's and Angie's List's respective proposals for the treatment of the outstanding equity awards of Angie's List and the outstanding equity awards held by employees of the HomeAdvisor Business in the calculation of the number of Class B shares of the combined company to be held by IAC upon the completion of the proposed transaction (and the resultant ownership percentages of Angie's List securityholders, on the one hand, and IAC and HomeAdvisor Business equity award holders, on the other hand, in the combined company).

On April 10, 2017, Company B submitted a preliminary, non-binding proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock for $7.50 per share in cash. Also on April 10 and April 11, 2017, representatives of Angie's List (including a Committee member, Mr. Evans) and IAC met in Indianapolis to conduct due diligence on Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business and discussed potential synergies that might be achieved by the combined company. Representatives of the Financial Advisors and JPMorgan also attended these meetings.

On April 11, 2017, Sidley Austin provided a revised draft merger agreement to Wachtell Lipton. Among other changes, this revised draft of the merger agreement rejected the force-the-vote provision of the April 3 draft and permitted Angie's List to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal upon payment of the termination fee, reduced the termination fee to $10 million and rejected the $10 million expense reimbursement obligations on Angie's List. Thereafter, until the agreement was finalized and executed on May 1, 2017, Wachtell Lipton and Sidley Austin negotiated the terms of the Merger Agreement, the forms of the Ancillary Agreements and the other transaction documents.

On April 12, 2017, the Committee met with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. The Financial Advisors updated the Committee as to the status of the most recently received proposals from each of IAC, Company A and Company B, and the attendees discussed Company B's non-binding proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock for $7.50 per share in cash and Company A's statement that its proposal submitted on April 6, 2017 was its best and final offer. The Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to schedule a telephone call with Company B in order to further discuss Company B's proposal. The attendees discussed the status of the negotiations with IAC and IAC's ongoing due diligence review of Angie's List. In addition, a representative of Sidley Austin updated the Committee as to the status of ongoing negotiations regarding the proposed merger agreement, the forms of certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the combined company to be in effect at the closing of the proposed transaction and certain ancillary agreements that the combined company would enter into with IAC in connection with the proposed transaction.

On April 15, 2017, representatives of Angie's List (including Mr. Evans), together with representatives of Allen & Company and Sidley Austin, held a conference call with representatives of IAC (including Mr. Levin), JPMorgan and Wachtell Lipton to discuss the most recent proposals of each of IAC and Angie's List regarding deal protections, the governance of the combined company and the protections sought by Angie's List for the minority stockholders of the combined company to determine whether there was a basis on which to continue negotiations. Following discussion, it was determined that Angie's List would formulate a revised proposal and deliver the proposal to IAC.

On April 16, 2017, the Committee met with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. During this meeting, Sidley Austin provided the Committee with an update as to the status of negotiations with IAC regarding the terms of the proposed transaction, including with respect to deal protections and governance of the combined company, and the Committee gave guidance and instruction to Sidley Austin regarding such terms.

Later that day, Sidley Austin delivered a revised proposal regarding deal protections, combined company governance and minority stockholder protections to Wachtell Lipton which, in key part, proposed that Angie's List be permitted to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal upon payment of a termination fee, provided for a prohibition on IAC completing certain "squeeze out" transactions during a specified post-closing period without the approval of an independent committee of the combined company's board of directors, and provided for representation on the combined company's board of directors by current Angie's List directors (or their chosen successors). Although open issues remained, IAC agreed that it would continue negotiating the terms of the draft merger agreement and related ancillary agreements on this basis.

On April 17, 2017, Wachtell Lipton provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to Sidley Austin, which contemplated a $20 million termination fee, but accepted Angie's List's rejection of the expense reimbursement provision and of the force-the-vote provision. Moreover, this updated draft accepted Angie's List's proposal that Angie's List be permitted to terminate the merger agreement to accept a superior proposal after complying with specified procedures and upon payment of the termination fee.

On April 18, 2017, a mutual due diligence session was held in New York City with representatives of IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business, JPMorgan, Angie's List (including a Committee member, Mr. Evans) and the Financial Advisors in attendance. At this meeting, the representatives and advisors of IAC conducted follow-up due diligence on Angie's List and Angie's List's representatives and advisors reviewed certain financial and operational information relating to the HomeAdvisor Business.

On April 20, 2017, representatives of Angie's List management, Mr. Evans and Company B met in Chicago, Illinois to discuss Angie's List's business, operating results and financial model, as well as potential synergies, prospects for a combined company, and certain financial information regarding Company B's proposal.

On April 20, 2017, as directed by IAC and Angie's List, representatives of JPMorgan and Allen & Company further discussed IAC's and Angie's List's respective positions regarding the treatment of certain unvested outstanding equity awards held by employees of the HomeAdvisor Business in the calculation of the number of Class B shares of the combined company to be held by IAC upon completion of the proposed transaction (and the resultant ownership percentages of Angie's List securityholders, on the one hand, and IAC and HomeAdvisor Business equity award holders, on the other hand, in the combined company), as IAC and Angie's List had not yet reached agreement on this point. At the request of IAC and Angie's List, representatives of JPMorgan and Allen & Company spoke again on April 22, 2017 to discuss the same topic, with a representative of Allen & Company stating, as instructed by Angie's List, that Angie's List had not accepted IAC's prior proposal. The representatives of JPMorgan and Allen & Company concluded that Mr. Levin and Mr. Evans should speak in an effort to reach agreement on this topic. Mr. Levin and Mr. Evans spoke on April 24, 2017 and agreed that 50% of the outstanding in-the-money unvested equity awards held by employees of the HomeAdvisor Business would reduce the number of Class B shares in the combined company to be held by IAC at the closing, with the remaining 50% diluting all stockholders of the combined company post-closing. Although the parties continued to frame their discussions on the basis of an equity split between IAC and the Angie's List stockholders of approximately 87% and 13%, respectively, when taking into account the treatment of equity awards, former Angie's List securityholders (including option and RSU holders) would own approximately 12.75% of the outstanding common stock of the combined company on a fully diluted basis upon consummation of the transaction. The Angie's List board of directors focused on, and similarly directed the Financial Advisors to assume, this 12.75% fully diluted equity ownership percentage, as it represented a more conservative view (as it reflected dilution from outstanding equity awards relating to the HomeAdvisor Business) of the relative equity ownership percentage for former Angie's List securityholders. The financial projections shared with Company B on April 20, 2017 were also shared with IAC on April 21, 2017 and are the financial projections set forth in the section entitled "—Certain Financial Projections."

On April 24, 2017, the Committee met with certain members of Angie's List management in attendance. A Committee member briefed the Committee on discussions held with a significant stockholder of Angie's List that had entered into a non-disclosure agreement and from which IAC had requested that the Company obtain a voting agreement in order to share with such stockholder the progress in evaluating strategic alternatives and the proposals from IAC, Company A and Company B, and to ascertain the stockholder's relative interest in each of the three proposals. The stockholder indicated a preference for the combination with IAC, but expressed that it wanted additional value and downside protection. The Committee also discussed Company B's revised proposal, submitted earlier that day, to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock for $7.85 to $8.00 per share in cash (subsequently verbally confirmed by representatives of Company B to be $8.00 per share based on Angie's List's then current capitalization), and the guidance to be provided to the Financial Advisors and Sidley Austin on continuing discussions with Company B and outreach to Angie's List stockholders to assess their support of the proposed transaction with IAC.

Also on April 24, 2017, the IAC board of directors held a meeting to discuss the proposed transaction with members of IAC management and representatives of Wachtell Lipton in attendance. IAC management updated the IAC board of directors on the proposed transaction, reviewed the course of negotiations with Angie's List over the previous weeks and described the key economic terms of the proposed transaction. Management and representatives of Wachtell Lipton also reviewed with the IAC board of directors the key terms of the proposed merger agreement and related ancillary agreements and discussed the remaining open items prior to entering into a definitive agreement, including whether IAC would ultimately be able to obtain voting agreements with certain significant stockholders of Angie's List, and discussed the expected timeline to reaching agreement with Angie's List on the definitive terms of the proposed transaction. After discussion, the IAC board of directors approved the entry by IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub into definitive agreements with Angie's List on the terms described at the meeting and delegated to the Executive Committee of the IAC board of directors the authority to oversee and approve the negotiation and finalization of the remaining open terms of the proposed transaction.

On April 25, 2017, with the consent of Angie's List and at the request of a certain significant stockholder of Angie's List, a representative of IAC met with the stockholder to discuss the proposed transaction and such stockholder's willingness to enter into a voting agreement in support of the transaction with IAC. The stockholder indicated to the IAC representative that the stockholder would not be willing to enter into a voting agreement with IAC if the economic terms of the transaction were not improved from those currently proposed by IAC and Angie's List.

On April 28, 2017, the Committee met with representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. Representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors briefed the Committee on the ongoing negotiations with IAC regarding the terms of the proposed transaction. The Financial Advisors also briefed the Committee on discussions held by Mr. Evans with three significant stockholders of Angie's List (that had entered into non-disclosure agreements and from which IAC had requested that Angie's List obtain voting agreements) regarding Angie's List's progress in evaluating strategic alternatives and the proposals from IAC, Company A and Company B. The stockholders indicated a preference for the combination with IAC, but expressed that they wanted additional value and downside protection for the stockholders of Angie's List. The stockholders also encouraged Angie's List to seek to obtain a higher proposal from Company B. The Committee also discussed Company B's proposal to acquire Angie's List with representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors. The Committee instructed the Financial Advisors to contact Company B to again request its best and final offer. The Committee also instructed the Financial Advisors to inform IAC's advisors that the value offered to Angie's List stockholders in IAC's proposal of March 31, 2017 must be improved and to continue to seek agreement on the treatment of unvested equity awards of Angie's List in the calculation of the number of Class B shares of the combined company to be held by IAC upon the completion of the proposed transaction.

Later that same day, in accordance with the Committee's directives, a representative of Allen & Company contacted a representative of JPMorgan and communicated the Committee's position that, in order to proceed with the proposed transaction, IAC must increase the consideration Angie's List securityholders would receive in the transaction. After discussion with IAC, the representative of JPMorgan responded to the representative of Allen & Company and stated that IAC was not willing to increase the consideration offered in the proposed transaction by any amount, but that, to alleviate certain concerns communicated by the Committee regarding downside protection for Angie's List stockholders, IAC would consider offering a portion of the transaction consideration in cash, at the election of Angie's List stockholders.

On April 29, 2017, the Angie's List board of directors met with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors in attendance. The Financial Advisors provided an update as to the current status of negotiations with the three parties that had submitted preliminary indications of interest and subsequent proposals and reviewed the financial terms of the then-current proposals, noting, among other things, that representatives of each of Company A and Company B had communicated to the Financial Advisors that their respective then-current proposals were their best and final offers to acquire Angie's List. The Angie's List board of directors discussed the proposal from Company A and determined that, compared to the value and the certainty of the proposal from IAC, Company A's proposal undervalued Angie's List, that it was not reasonably likely that Company A would improve its proposal and that, as a result, Angie's List should not further pursue negotiations regarding a potential transaction with Company A. The Angie's List board of directors also discussed the status of discussions with Company B, and in particular Company B's revised proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock for $8.00 per share in cash, which Company B had confirmed was its best and final offer. The Angie's List board of directors then concluded that IAC's stock-for-stock proposal offered Angie's list stockholders greater value potential than Company B's proposal. Representatives of Sidley Austin reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors the material terms of the proposed transaction documentation in respect IAC's proposed combination of Angie's List with the HomeAdvisor Business. The Financial Advisors also discussed with the Angie's List board of directors preliminary financial perspectives regarding a combination with the HomeAdvisor Business and members of the Committee, along with representatives of the Financial Advisors, updated the Angie's List board of directors regarding the outreach, as directed by the Committee, to certain of Angie's List's significant stockholders to gauge their support for the proposed transaction with IAC. The Angie's List board of directors discussed the status of these discussions and instructed the Financial Advisors to inform IAC's financial advisor that the Angie's List board of directors would require that three of the 13 percentage points of the equity in the combined company proposed to be allocated to Angie's List securityholders be offered as a cash election at a price of $8.50 per share of Angie's List common stock. Representatives of Sidley Austin also reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors certain fiduciary duties and legal matters relating to the Angie's List board of directors' consideration of the proposed Transactions and discussed certain material terms of the proposed Merger Agreement, the proposed Ancillary Agreements and the proposed amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices.

Later that day, in accordance with the directives of the Angie's List board of directors, a representative of Allen & Company informed a representative of JPMorgan of the requirement of the Angie's List board of directors that, in order to proceed with the proposed transaction, the value attributable to three of the 13 percentage points of the equity in the combined company proposed to be allocated to Angie's List securityholders should be offered to Angie's List stockholders in the form of cash at a price of $8.50 per share of Angie's List common stock. The representative of Allen & Company also relayed the request from a significant stockholder of Angie's List that such stockholder receive representation on the board of directors of the combined company. Following discussion with IAC, including the members of the Executive Committee of the IAC board of directors, the representative of JPMorgan informed the representative of Allen & Company that IAC was willing to accept the requirement of the Angie's List board of directors to make cash consideration of $8.50 per share of Angie's List common stock available for election by Angie's List stockholders, subject to a cap on the aggregate cash consideration payable by IAC of $130 million, and that IAC was not willing to extend a board seat to the Angie's List stockholder. Mr. Levin concurrently called Mr. Evans to relay the same message.

On April 30, 2017, in accordance with the directives of the Angie's List board of directors, representatives of Allen & Company contacted representatives of JPMorgan to report that, subject to the approval of the Angie's List board of directors, Angie's List was willing to agree to the $130 million cap on the aggregate cash consideration to be made available for election by Angie's List stockholders. Representatives of IAC, JPMorgan and Wachtell Lipton, on the one hand, and the representatives of Angie's List, the Financial Advisors and Sidley Austin, on the other hand, worked to resolve the remaining open issues. Representatives of Sidley Austin and Wachtell Lipton also continued to negotiate the terms of the proposed voting agreement with certain significant stockholders of Angie's List.

On May 1, 2017, the Angie's List board of directors met to consider IAC's proposed combination of Angie's List with the HomeAdvisor Business, with Angie's List management and representatives of Sidley Austin and the Financial Advisors in attendance. The Angie's List board of directors was provided in advance of the meeting with proposed final versions of the Merger Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, the proposed amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that would be in effect upon completion of the transaction, and certain other materials related to the Transactions. At the meeting, representatives of the Financial Advisors and Sidley Austin updated the Angie's List board of directors on negotiations with IAC since the last Angie's List board of directors meeting and the Financial Advisors reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors the proposed final terms negotiated with IAC, subject to the Angie's List board of directors' approval, of the Transactions, noting among other things that, under the proposed terms, each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock would be converted into the right to receive, at the option of the holder thereof, either one Class A share of the combined company or $8.50 in cash, without interest (subject to a cap on the aggregate cash consideration payable by IAC of $130 million). Members of the Committee, along with representatives of the Financial Advisors, also updated the Angie's List board of directors as to the status of the proposed voting agreement to be entered into by certain significant stockholders of Angie's List, noting that one of those stockholders had expressed support for the proposed Transactions but, given pre-existing encumbrances on the stockholder's Angie's List stock, was unable to enter into a voting agreement with IAC and that the other stockholders indicated that they were not willing to execute voting agreements. Representatives of Sidley Austin had notified representatives of Wachtell Lipton of the status of the voting agreement immediately prior to the Angie's List board meeting and informed the Angie's List board of directors that IAC had indicated its willingness nevertheless to proceed with the Transactions in the absence of the proposed voting agreements.

At the May 1, 2017 meeting, representatives of Sidley Austin again reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors certain legal matters and fiduciary duties relating to the Angie's List board of directors' consideration of the proposed Transactions and discussed certain material terms of the proposed Merger Agreement, the proposed Ancillary Agreements and the proposed amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices. Also at this meeting, the Financial Advisors reviewed with the Angie's List board of directors their financial analyses of the proposed Merger Consideration, and each Financial Advisor separately rendered an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery by of a written opinion dated May 1, 2017, to the Angie's List board of directors to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, limitations and qualifications described in the opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received pursuant to the Merger Agreement by holders of Angie's List common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Following discussion, the Angie's List board of directors, taking into account various factors and potential risks, including those described below in the sections entitled "—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors," unanimously determined that it is in the best interests of Angie's List's stockholders, and declared it advisable, to enter into the proposed Merger Agreement, approved the execution, delivery and performance of the proposed Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Transactions and resolved to recommend adoption of the proposed Merger Agreement by the stockholders of Angie's List and to submit the proposed Merger Agreement to the stockholders of Angie's List for adoption.

After the meeting, the Merger Agreement was executed by Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub and the execution of the Merger Agreement and the proposed Transactions were announced at approximately 5:30 p.m. Eastern time on May 1, 2017 in a press release jointly issued by Angie's List and IAC.

Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions

IAC and Angie's List (which, for purposes of this section, are sometimes referred to as "we" and "our") believe that the combination of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List pursuant to the Transactions will enhance stockholder value by, among other things, enabling the combined company, ANGI Homeservices, to capitalize on the market opportunity presented by the following dynamics of the home services market:

- Large and growing addressable market: The U.S. home services market is large and growing, with an estimated total value in excess of $400 billion in 2017, and an expected compound annual growth rate of approximately 6% over the next five years, according to Cowen and Company. Following the completion of the Transactions, we expect ANGI Homeservices to have a network of approximately 200,000 service professionals, with the ability to cover more than 500 categories of home services jobs in more than 400 discrete geographic markets in the United States. As the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, we believe ANGI Homeservices will be well positioned to capitalize on this growing market.
- Fragmented two-sided marketplace: The home services market is also highly fragmented on both the consumer and service professional sides of the marketplace. According to the U.S. Census Bureau's 2015 American Housing Survey, there are 74 million owner-occupied households in the United States and, on average, homeowners complete over six jobs per year, according to HomeAdvisor's internal brand tracking study. There are over 3 million service professionals serving this addressable market (according to Cowen and Company estimates), who we believe are using a wide array of solutions to connect to homeowners. We believe this substantial fragmentation means that both consumers and service professionals experience significant friction when trying to transact, which creates an opportunity for a technology-driven marketplace to provide a superior solution. We believe a solutions provider such as ANGI Homeservices can provide enduring value to service professionals and to homeowners by reducing friction, increasing total transaction volume, enabling more satisfying experiences and delivering improved returns (whether measured by time spent searching or dollars spent marketing) to marketplace participants.

- Accelerating online migration: The home services market is one of the largest remaining marketplaces where digital penetration remains low. We believe that a significant portion of service requests are fulfilled offline through word of mouth and referrals. We expect the migration to online marketplaces for finding and booking home services to accelerate in the future due to many factors, including: (i) the increased convenience and appeal of matching homeowners with service professionals through the application of technology, facilitated by the increased consumer adoption of internet-connected mobile devices, (ii) an increasing supply of digitally-savvy service professionals as more of them join online marketplaces as part of the continued shift toward more efficient and trackable marketing solutions and (iii) favorable demographic trends, including increasing homeownership by millennials, who we believe are generally more willing to use online services than older populations.

We believe that the combined company will be better positioned than either Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business would be on a standalone basis to capitalize on these dynamics of the home services market due to the substantial strategic and financial benefits that we believe will result from the Transactions. We believe these benefits include:

- Network effects of the combination: We believe that combining Angie's List, which has the industry's leading brand (according to a brand measurement study conducted by the HomeAdvisor Business) and significant recurring organic traffic (with an estimated 13.0 million monthly unique visitors to its platform (on average, for the twelve months ended June 30, 2017, measured by daily unique visitors, according to web analytics company Omniture)), with the HomeAdvisor Business, which we believe has the nation's largest online network of service professionals (with approximately 164,000 paying professionals in its network as of June 30, 2017), will create a more comprehensive, liquid and efficient marketplace. Specifically, combining Angie's List's substantial intent-driven consumer traffic with HomeAdvisor's network of service professionals is expected to result in a greater number of service requests on ANGI Homeservices platforms, which will help absorb the current unused capacity in the HomeAdvisor network. The increased scale of the combined company is also expected to accelerate the powerful network effects via a positive feedback loop that HomeAdvisor currently enjoys, as a larger number of service requests will attract more quality service professionals to the ANGI Homeservices network, which in turn will attract more consumers and generate more service requests which will attract even more service professionals, and so on. The combined company will also have a more robust set of data to improve the matching of service requests to service professionals, which is expected to increase the quality of the platforms and thereby increase our ability to convert consumers and service professionals into long-term users of our platforms. In the HomeAdvisor Business's experience, such network effects lead to better service professional quality, increased service request frequency, improved customer and service professional retention and higher return on investment for participating service professionals.
- Diversifying the monetization model: We believe that ANGI Homeservices will have best-in-class monetization capabilities, spanning a variety of monetization methods, and offering choice to service professionals and consumers alike. Currently, Angie's List operates an advertising business in which service professionals pay a fixed fee for advertising on the Angie's List platform. HomeAdvisor operates a connection fee-based model, where the service professional pays customer connection fees for matches provided by HomeAdvisor, as well as a subscription fee. The combined company will apply HomeAdvisor's model to Angie's List traffic, and will offer Angie's List users the ability to be matched with service professionals (through HomeAdvisor's various services for homeowners, including matching services using HomeAdvisor's proprietary algorithm, Instant Booking and Instant Connect), with those service professionals paying connection fees. In addition to monetizing Angie's List traffic through connection fees, the combined company will continue to offer Angie's List's historical advertising products, which offer service professionals access and exposure to the substantial consumer traffic on the Angie's List platform for a fixed advertising price. To further drive revenue at the combined company, the ANGI Homeservices sales force will cross-market and cross-sell both transactional and ad-based offerings to their combined base of service professionals. We believe that offering service professionals the choice and flexibility to select the product that works best for them will attract more service professionals to the network, and strengthen its offerings to home service customers as a result.

- Enhancing innovation: We expect that, by combining the resources of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List, ANGI Homeservices will be able to accelerate the product innovation that is fundamental to removing friction in order to drive home services customers and service professionals online. Key focus areas include: (i) providing service professionals better tools to track spending and revenues, (ii) increasing mobile app adoption (by consumers and service professionals), (iii) enhancing the combined company's on-demand instant booking and instant connect offering, (iv) rolling out same-day service and (v) continual improvement of the combined company's proprietary matching algorithms by increasingly applying artificial intelligence and machine learning against our large database of transactions and customer feedback. We believe that the increased reach, scale and resources of ANGI Homeservices will facilitate continued product innovation in the rapidly growing digital home services market, leading to the potential for long-term revenue and earnings growth, as well as improved consumer satisfaction.
- Improving customer and service professional acquisition efficiency: We believe the combined company will leverage shared best practices and data to deliver market-leading customer acquisition efficiency, including: (i) enabling more efficient nationwide online and offline advertising across our enlarged platforms due to larger (combined) advertising buys, (ii) benefitting from additional data to enable more powerful online advertisement targeting and (iii) leveraging a combined email list, which will increase the pool of potential consumers in the network. Moreover, we believe that the combined company will have a more effective nationwide sales force, with the ability to utilize the combined company's platforms to acquire service professionals more efficiently.
- Achieving substantial synergies: We believe that the Transactions will create significant synergies across the combined company in three major categories: (i) cost savings that result from the streamlining of duplicative resources or the refocusing of such otherwise duplicative resources toward growth initiatives; (ii) enhanced monetization of the Angie's List consumer traffic by application of the HomeAdvisor business model; and (iii) efficiencies and conversion improvements resulting from the increased scale of the combined company, including in the areas of sales, marketing and technology.
- Blending compatible cultures and service philosophies: ANGI Homeservices will have a highly experienced management team assembled from both companies, and a board of directors comprised of representatives of both IAC and the current board of directors of Angie's List. We believe that the industry expertise of management, coupled with the continuity in management oversight in the combined company's board, will provide a deep understanding of the best practices of both companies that will facilitate successful integration of the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List. Further, given the expected headcount growth at the HomeAdvisor Business, the Angie's List workforce may help reduce HomeAdvisor's outside hiring needs with the addition of qualified trained industry professionals.

Table of ContentsAngie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors

The Angie's List board of directors believes that the businesses of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business are complementary and that a combination of Angie's List with the HomeAdvisor Business presents a compelling strategic opportunity to enhance value for Angie's List stockholders. In evaluating the Transactions, the Angie's List board of directors consulted with Angie's List's management and legal and financial advisors. In reaching its decision to approve the Merger Agreement and recommend the adoption of the Merger Agreement to Angie's List's stockholders, the Angie's List board of directors considered a number of factors, including those described above under "—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions," as well as, among others, the following additional factors:

- the Angie's List board of directors' and management's knowledge of Angie's List's business, operations, financial condition and prospects, and its and their understanding of the HomeAdvisor Business and its operations, financial condition and prospects, including information obtained through due diligence reviews;
- the fact that Angie's List's business and operations complement those of the HomeAdvisor Business and, despite the similar nature of the businesses of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business and that certain consumers and/or service providers using the platforms operated by Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business may overlap, the fact that the market opportunity for growth and the ability of the combined company to be better positioned to capitalize on the opportunities for growth than Angie's List would be able to accomplish alone is compelling;
- the expected synergies to be realized by the combined company, ANGI Homeservices, and the expectation of the Angie's List board of directors that the future earnings and prospects of the combined company (and, relatedly, the value to Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration) would be superior to those of Angie's List on a standalone basis;
- the Angie's List board of directors' view that, following an extensive solicitation process (as further discussed above under "—Background of the Transactions"), other strategic alternatives reasonably available to Angie's List would not result in value for Angie's List stockholders greater than the Merger Consideration;
- the fact that holders of Angie's List common stock will have an opportunity to receive shares of Class A common stock of ANGI Homeservices pursuant to the Merger, the perceived likelihood that the future value of a Class A share of ANGI Homeservices will exceed the potential future value of a share of Angie's List common stock, the potential for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to increase in value following completion of the Merger, the ability that Angie's List stockholders that receive the Share Consideration and hold Class A shares will have to participate in any such potential increase in value, and the expected tax treatment of the receipt of Class A common stock of ANGI Homeservices in the Merger;
- the fact that holders of Angie's List common stock may elect to receive the Share Consideration or the Cash Consideration in the Merger (or a combination thereof, by electing Cash Consideration with respect to some shares and Share Consideration with respect to other shares held by such stockholder), subject to the proration procedures regarding the aggregate Cash Consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement;
- the value of the Merger Consideration in comparison to the current and historical market prices of Angie's List common stock, including the fact that the $8.50 per share in cash that will be paid to stockholders who properly elect to receive the Cash Consideration in the Merger (subject to the proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement) represents a premium of approximately 45% to the $5.89 per share closing price of Angie's List common stock on NASDAQ on May 1, 2017, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement, and the percentage of ANGI Homeservices outstanding capital stock that Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration are expected to own following the Merger;

- the financial presentation and separate opinions, each dated May 1, 2017, of Allen & Company and BofA Merrill Lynch to the Angie's List board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of such date, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Angie's List common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement, which opinions were based on and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken, as more fully described in the section entitled "—Opinions of Angie's List's Financial Advisors;"
- the efforts made to negotiate a merger agreement that would be favorable to Angie's List and its stockholders and the terms and conditions of the fully negotiated Merger Agreement, including the size of the termination fee of $20 million payable to IAC in specified circumstances, and the parties' agreement on the circumstances under which such fee may become payable, as further discussed in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses;"
- the efforts made to negotiate the contribution agreement and the other ancillary agreements in forms that would be favorable to Angie's List and its stockholders, and the terms and conditions of the fully negotiated Ancillary Agreements;
- the extent of IAC's commitment to obtain the required regulatory approvals for the Merger under the Merger Agreement;
- the ability of Angie's List under the terms of the Merger Agreement to negotiate with third parties concerning certain unsolicited competing acquisition proposals if Angie's List were to receive such proposals prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the Angie's List stockholders, and the ability of Angie's List to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal under certain circumstances, each as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals;"
- the fact that two representatives from the Angie's List board of directors will serve as directors of ANGI Homeservices following the Closing pursuant to the Merger Agreement (the directors selected by Angie's List, who will be Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be able and willing to serve, together with any replacements designated pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement are referred to as the "ANGI-Designated Directors"), and the fact that there are certain protections for the benefit of the minority stockholders of ANGI Homeservices set forth in the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that will be in effect upon the Closing, as well as certain provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement negotiated for the benefit of the minority stockholders of ANGI Homeservices, including that from the Effective Time until the date the 2020 annual meeting of stockholders of ANGI Homeservices is held, (i) certain procedures for selecting a replacement director in the event that one or both of the ANGI-Designated Directors become unable or unwilling or otherwise cease to serve on the ANGI Homeservices board of directors are in effect, (ii) IAC is prohibited from effecting a "squeeze-out" transaction pursuant to Section 253 of the DGCL unless approved by a committee of independent directors of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, at least 50% of whom must be ANGI-Designated Directors so long as any ANGI-Designated Directors who qualify as independent are then serving on the ANGI Homeservices board, and (iii) certain transferees of 20% or more of IAC's equity interest in ANGI Homeservices are required to assume IAC's obligations under the Investor Rights Agreement, as further described in the sections entitled "Corporate Governance of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger" and "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

The Angie's List board of directors also weighed the factors described above against certain factors and potential risks associated with entering into the Merger Agreement, including, among others, the following:

- the fact that Angie's List stockholders will receive ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock in the Merger, which will have one vote per share, while IAC will own all of the shares of ANGI Homeservices Class B common stock, which will have 10 votes per share, immediately following the Merger, and that IAC is expected to control a substantial majority of the voting and economic interests in ANGI Homeservices immediately following the Merger;
- the fact that there is no trading history for ANGI Homeservices equity securities or any equity securities of any of the HomeAdvisor Entities, and that therefore there would be substantial uncertainty regarding the prices at which the Class A shares to be received by Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger may trade following the Merger;
- the possibility of significant costs and delays resulting from seeking regulatory approvals necessary to complete the Transactions, the possibility that the Transactions may not be completed if such approvals are not obtained or if any of the other conditions to the Closing are not satisfied, and the potential negative impacts on Angie's List, its business, and the price of Angie's List common stock if such approvals are not obtained or any such other conditions are not satisfied;
- the fact that the integration of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business may be complex and time-consuming and may require substantial resources and effort, and the risk that if ANGI Homeservices does not successfully integrate Angie's List with the HomeAdvisor Business, the anticipated benefits of the Transactions may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected;
- the possibility that strategic and other benefits expected to be created by the combination of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business following the completion of the Transactions, including expected synergies, may not be realized by ANGI Homeservices or will take longer to realize than expected;
- the risks to and costs that could be borne by Angie's List if the Transactions are not completed, including the potential for diversion of management and employee attention and for increased employee attrition during the period prior to completion of the Transactions, and the potential effect of the pendency of the Transactions on Angie's List's business and relations with customers, partners and suppliers;
- the risk that certain key employees and customers of Angie's List might not choose to remain with the combined company;
- the restrictions set forth in the Merger Agreement on the conduct of Angie's List's business prior to completion of the Transactions, which require Angie's List to conduct its business only in the ordinary course, subject to specified limitations, which could delay or prevent Angie's List from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Transactions and could negatively impact Angie's List's relationships with its employees, customers, partners or suppliers;

- the fact that the Merger Agreement prohibits Angie's List from soliciting proposals for alternative transactions prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement and includes certain restrictions on the ability of Angie's List to engage in discussions regarding unsolicited proposals for alternative transactions and on the ability of Angie's List to enter into an alternative transaction, including a termination fee of $20 million that would become payable to IAC if Angie's List were to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal, as further described in the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals" and "—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses;"
- the fact that if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, Angie's List will be required to pay a termination fee of $20 million either upon or following such termination, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Effects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses;"
- the costs to be incurred by Angie's List in connection with the Transactions; and
- the various other applicable risks associated with Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, IAC, ANGI Homeservices, and the Transactions, including the risks described in the sections entitled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors."

In considering the recommendation of the Angie's List board of directors with respect to the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, you should be aware that some of Angie's List's directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from yours. The Angie's List board of directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating the Merger Agreement and the Transactions, and in recommending that the Merger Agreement be adopted by Angie's List stockholders. See the section entitled "—Interests of Angie's List's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions."

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Angie's List board of directors in reaching its conclusions and recommendations is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Angie's List board of directors. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and the complexity of these matters, the Angie's List board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify, rank or assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors considered in reaching its determination and making its recommendation. In addition, individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Angie's List board of directors considered all of the foregoing factors as a whole and based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented.

The foregoing discussion also contains forward-looking statements with respect to future events that may have an effect on Angie's List's business, financial condition, or results of operations or the future financial performance of ANGI Homeservices. See the sections entitled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors."

Opinions of Angie's List's Financial Advisors

Opinion of Allen & Company LLC

Angie's List has engaged Allen & Company as a financial advisor in connection with the proposed Merger. In connection with this engagement, Angie's List requested that Allen & Company render an opinion to the Angie's List board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Angie's List common stock of the Merger Consideration to be received by such holders pursuant to the Merger Agreement. On May 1, 2017, at a meeting of the Angie's List board of directors held to evaluate the Merger, Allen & Company rendered an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 1, 2017, to the Angie's List board of directors to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken described in such opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Angie's List common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Allen & Company's written opinion, dated May 1, 2017, which describes the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex E and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. The description of Allen & Company's opinion set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Allen & Company's opinion. Allen & Company's opinion was intended for the benefit and use of the Angie's List board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view and did not address any related transactions or any other terms, aspects or implications of the Merger. Allen & Company's opinion did not constitute a recommendation as to the course of action that Angie's List (or the Angie's List board of directors) should pursue in connection with the Merger or related transactions or otherwise address the merits of the underlying decision by Angie's List to engage in the Merger or related transactions, including in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Angie's List or which Angie's List might engage in or consider. Allen & Company's opinion does not constitute advice or a recommendation to any stockholder as to any election made by such stockholder or how such stockholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the Merger, any related transactions or otherwise.

Allen & Company's opinion reflected and gave effect to Allen & Company's general familiarity with Angie's List and IAC as well as information that Allen & Company received during the course of its assignment, including information provided by the managements of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business in the course of discussions relating to the Merger and related transactions as more fully described below. In arriving at its opinion, Allen & Company neither conducted a physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business nor made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities (contingent, accrued, derivative, off-balance sheet or otherwise) of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business, or conducted any analysis concerning the solvency or fair value of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business. Allen & Company assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that (i) ANGI Homeservices would retain or acquire all assets, properties and rights necessary for its and its subsidiaries' operations, (ii) there were no material undisclosed liabilities of or relating to Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business and, with respect to liabilities that ANGI Homeservices and/or its subsidiaries would assume in connection with the Merger or related transactions, appropriate reserves, indemnification arrangements or other provisions were or would be made, and (iii) neither ANGI Homeservices nor any of its subsidiaries would directly or indirectly retain, assume or incur any liabilities that were contemplated to be excluded as a result of the Merger, related transactions or otherwise.

In arriving at its opinion, Allen & Company, among other things:

- (i) reviewed the financial terms and conditions of the Merger as reflected in a draft, provided to Allen & Company on May 1, 2017, of the Merger Agreement;
- (ii) reviewed certain publicly available historical business and financial information relating to Angie's List and certain historical business and financial information relating to the HomeAdvisor Business, including public filings of Angie's List and historical market prices for Angie's List common stock;

- (iii) reviewed certain financial information relating to Angie's List provided to or discussed with Allen & Company by the management of Angie's List, including certain internal financial forecasts, estimates and other financial and operating data relating to Angie's List prepared by the management of Angie's List reflective of such management's views as to the likely future financial performance of Angie's List on a standalone basis (such forecasts, as prepared by such management and approved for Allen & Company's use and reliance on behalf of the Angie's List board of directors by the transaction committee thereof, the "Angie's List forecasts");
- (iv) reviewed certain financial information relating to the HomeAdvisor Business provided to or discussed with Allen & Company by the managements of IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List, including certain internal financial forecasts, estimates and other financial and operating data relating to the HomeAdvisor Business prepared by the managements of IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2017 and 2018 as adjusted by the management of Angie's List and extrapolations therefrom as prepared by the management of Angie's List for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2019 through December 31, 2020 based on guidance from the managements of IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business (such forecasts, as adjusted and extrapolated and approved for Allen & Company's use and reliance on behalf of the Angie's List board of directors by the transaction committee thereof, the "HomeAdvisor Business forecasts");
- (v) held discussions with the managements of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business relating to the past and current operations, financial condition and prospects of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business as well as the operations, financial condition, prospects and capitalization of ANGI Homeservices;
- (vi) held discussions with the management of Angie's List as to the strategic rationale for, and certain potential cost savings and revenue enhancements (collectively, the "Synergies") expected by such management to result from, the Merger and related transactions;
- (vii) reviewed certain financial information relating to ANGI Homeservices provided to or discussed with Allen & Company by the managements of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business, including certain internal financial forecasts, estimates and other financial and operating data relating to ANGI Homeservices prepared by the management of Angie's List based on the Angie's List forecasts and the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts and pro forma for the Merger and related transactions after taking into account the Synergies (such forecasts, as prepared by such management and approved for Allen & Company's use and reliance on behalf of the Angie's List board of directors by the transaction committee thereof, the "ANGI Homeservices forecasts");
- (viii) reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available information, including certain stock market data and financial information, relating to selected companies with businesses that Allen & Company deemed generally relevant in evaluating Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business;
- (ix) reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available financial information relating to selected transactions that Allen & Company deemed generally relevant in evaluating the Merger; and
- (x) conducted such other financial analyses and investigations as Allen & Company deemed necessary or appropriate for purposes of its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Allen & Company relied upon and assumed, with Angie's List's consent and without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information available to Allen & Company from public sources, provided to or discussed with Allen & Company by the managements and/or other representatives of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business or otherwise reviewed by Allen & Company. Allen & Company assumed, at the direction of Angie's List, without independent verification, that the internal unaudited financial statements with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business provided to Allen &

Company were accurate and complete in all respects and fairly represented the items described therein and that, when delivered as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the audited combined and consolidated financial statements and interim combined and consolidated unaudited financial statements relating to the HomeAdvisor Business would not reflect any information that would be meaningful in any respect to Allen & Company's analyses or opinion. With respect to the Angie's List forecasts (including, without limitation, as to net operating loss carryforwards of Angie's List), the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts (including, without limitation, adjustments and extrapolations prepared by the management of Angie's List), the ANGI Homeservices forecasts and the Synergies that Allen & Company was directed to utilize for purposes of its analyses, Allen & Company was advised by the management of Angie's List, and Allen & Company assumed, at the direction of Angie's List, that such financial forecasts, estimates and other financial and operating data were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of such management as to, and were a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate, the future financial and operating performance of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices, the Synergies and the other matters covered thereby. Allen & Company also assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that the financial results, including, without limitation, as to the Synergies, reflected in the financial forecasts, estimates and other financial and operating data utilized in its analyses would be realized in the amounts and at the times projected. As the Angie's List board of directors was aware, the management of Angie's List provided potential buyers in connection with the sale process for Angie's List with certain perspectives regarding illustrative initiatives for Angie's List that Allen & Company was advised were not expected to be pursued by Angie's List or implemented in the manner then contemplated and such management also prepared alternative financial forecasts for the HomeAdvisor Business which Allen & Company was advised were not reflective of such management's views as to the likely future financial performance of the HomeAdvisor Business; accordingly, Allen & Company was directed not to take into account such initiatives or alternative financial forecasts for purposes of its analyses and opinion. Allen & Company expressed no opinion or view as to any financial forecasts, estimates or other financial or operating data or the assumptions on which they were based.

Allen & Company relied, at the direction of Angie's List, upon the assessments of the managements of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business as to, among other things, (i) transactions related to the Merger, including with respect to the timing thereof and assets, liabilities and financial and other terms involved, (ii) the potential impact on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices of certain market, cyclical, seasonal, competitive and other trends and developments in and prospects for, and governmental, regulatory and legislative matters relating to or otherwise affecting, the internet and technology industry, including the digital marketplace services sector thereof, (iii) the technology and intellectual property (and related risks) of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices, (iv) existing and future contracts and relationships, agreements and arrangements with, and the ability to attract, retain and/or replace, key employees, vendors and other commercial relationships of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices, and (v) the ability of ANGI Homeservices to integrate the operations of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business. Allen & Company assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that there would be no developments with respect to any such matters that would have an adverse effect on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices, the Merger or any related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof) or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to its analyses or opinion.

Further, Allen & Company's opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Allen & Company as of, the date of its opinion. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusion expressed in Allen & Company's opinion and that Allen & Company assumed no responsibility for advising any person of any change in any matter affecting Allen & Company's opinion or for updating or revising its opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date of its opinion. As the Angie's List board of directors was aware, the credit, financial and stock markets, and the industries in which Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business operate, have experienced and continue to experience volatility and Allen & Company expressed no opinion or view as to any potential effects of such volatility on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business or ANGI Homeservices (or their respective businesses), the Merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof). In connection with Allen & Company's engagement and at the direction of the Angie's List board of directors following public announcement by Angie's List that it would explore its strategic alternatives, discussions were held on behalf of Angie's List with selected third parties regarding their potential interest in a possible acquisition of Angie's List.

Allen & Company did not express any opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation or other consideration payable to any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger or related transactions or any related entities, or any class of such persons or any other party, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. Allen & Company expressed no opinion as to the actual value of ANGI Homeservices common stock when issued in connection with the Merger and related transactions or the prices at which Angie's List common stock or ANGI Homeservices common stock (or any other securities) may trade or otherwise be transferable at any time.

In addition, Allen & Company expressed no opinion or view as to, and Allen & Company relied, at the direction of Angie's List, upon the assessments of representatives of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business regarding, legal, regulatory, accounting, tax and similar matters relating to Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices, the Merger and related transactions, as to which Allen & Company understood such advice was obtained as deemed necessary from qualified professionals. Allen & Company assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that the Merger and related transactions would be consummated in accordance with their respective terms and in compliance with all applicable laws, documents and other requirements, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement, and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory or third party approvals, consents, releases, waivers, decrees and agreements for the Merger and related transactions, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition, including any divestiture or other requirements or remedies, amendments or modifications, would be imposed or occur that would have an adverse effect on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices, the Merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof) or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to its analyses or opinion. Allen & Company also assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that the Merger, the Contribution, the IAC Share Issuance and certain other related transactions would qualify for the intended tax treatment contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Allen & Company further assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that the final executed Merger Agreement would not differ from the draft reviewed by Allen & Company in any respect meaningful to its analyses or opinion.

Allen & Company evaluated the portion of the Merger Consideration consisting of Share Consideration taking into account the relative values of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business based on the relative estimated pro forma equity ownership percentages of approximately 12.75% and 87.25% that Allen & Company was advised holders of ANGI Homeservices common stock who formerly were Angie's List securityholders and holders of ANGI Homeservices common stock who formerly were equity holders in the HomeAdvisor Business, respectively, would hold of the outstanding shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock on a fully diluted basis upon consummation of the Merger and related transactions assuming, among other things, all outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock were converted in the Merger into Share Consideration. Allen & Company's opinion did not address related transactions or any other terms, aspects or implications of the Merger, including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, the form or structure, or financial or other terms, of any related transactions or any terms, aspects or implications of the Contribution Agreement or any investor rights, services or tax sharing agreements, any intercompany note or any governance or other arrangements, agreements or understandings entered into in connection with, related to or contemplated by the Merger, related transactions or otherwise. Allen & Company's opinion was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of its date, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Angie's List common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement, without regard to individual circumstances of, or allocation or relative fairness among, holders of Angie's List common stock, ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock or ANGI Homeservices Class B common stock or any other securities of Angie's List or ANGI Homeservices, or any rights, preferences, restrictions or limitations (whether by virtue of control, voting, liquidity or otherwise) that may be attributable to any such securities or that may distinguish any holders thereof, and Allen & Company expressed no opinion or view with respect to any consideration received in connection with the Merger or related transactions by the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of any party. Except as described in this summary, Angie's List imposed no other instructions or limitations on the investigations made or procedures followed by Allen & Company in rendering its opinion.

Miscellaneous

Angie's List selected Allen & Company as a financial advisor in connection with the Merger based on, among other things, Allen & Company's reputation, experience and familiarity with the industries in which Angie's List and IAC operate. Allen & Company, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, private placements and related financings, bankruptcy reorganizations and similar recapitalizations, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In the ordinary course, Allen & Company as a broker-dealer and market maker and certain of Allen & Company's affiliates and/or related entities have invested or may invest, hold long or short positions and may trade, either on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis, for their own account or for those of Allen & Company's clients, in the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and/or their respective affiliates. The issuance of Allen & Company's opinion was approved by Allen & Company's fairness opinion committee.

For Allen & Company's financial advisory services, Angie's List has agreed to pay Allen & Company an aggregate cash fee currently estimated to be approximately $10.4 million, of which a portion was payable upon delivery of Allen & Company's opinion and approximately $9.2 million is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. Angie's List also agreed to reimburse Allen & Company's reasonable expenses and to indemnify Allen & Company and related parties against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

Although Allen & Company did not during the two-year period prior to the date of its opinion provide investment banking services unrelated to the Merger to Angie's List for which Allen & Company received compensation, Allen & Company may in the future provide such services to Angie's List and/or its affiliates, for which services Allen & Company would expect to receive compensation. As the Angie's List board of directors was aware, Allen & Company in the past has provided, and in the future may provide, investment banking services to IAC and/or its affiliates, for which services Allen & Company has received and/or may receive compensation, including, during the two-year period prior to the date of its opinion, having acted as a lead bookrunning manager in connection with an initial public offering of Match Group, Inc., a subsidiary of IAC, as well as assisting IAC in effecting certain share repurchases of IAC common stock, for which services Allen & Company received during such two-year period aggregate fees of approximately $5.2 million from IAC.

Angie's List also has engaged BofA Merrill Lynch as a financial advisor in connection with the Merger. BofA Merrill Lynch is an internationally recognized investment banking firm which is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. Angie's List selected BofA Merrill Lynch to act as a financial advisor in connection with the Merger on the basis of BofA Merrill Lynch's experience in similar transactions, its reputation in the investment community and its familiarity with Angie's List and its business.

At the May 1, 2017 meeting of the Angie's List board of directors held to evaluate the Merger, BofA Merrill Lynch rendered an oral opinion, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 1, 2017, to the Angie's List board of directors to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, limitations and qualifications described in the opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Angie's List common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of BofA Merrill Lynch's written opinion, dated May 1, 2017, delivered to the Angie's List board of directors, is attached as Annex F and is incorporated by reference herein in its entirety. The written opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the review undertaken by BofA Merrill Lynch in rendering its opinion. The following summary of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. BofA Merrill Lynch delivered its opinion to the Angie's List board of directors for the benefit and use of the Angie's List board of directors (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for purposes of its evaluation of the Merger Consideration from a financial point of view. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion did not address any related transactions or any other terms, aspects or implications of the Merger and no opinion or view was expressed as to the relative merits of the Merger or related transactions in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Angie's List or in which Angie's List might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Angie's List to proceed with or effect the Merger or related transactions. BofA Merrill Lynch also expressed no opinion or recommendation as to any election made by a stockholder or how any stockholder should vote or act in connection with the Merger, any related transactions or any other matter.

In connection with its opinion, BofA Merrill Lynch, among other things:

- (i) reviewed certain business and financial information relating to Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business;
- (ii) reviewed certain internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Angie's List furnished to or discussed with BofA Merrill Lynch by the management of Angie's List, including certain financial forecasts relating to Angie's List prepared by the management of Angie's List reflective of such management's views as to the likely future financial performance of Angie's List on a standalone basis (such forecasts, as prepared by such management and approved for BofA Merrill Lynch's use and reliance on behalf of the Angie's List board of directors by the transaction committee thereof, the "Angie's List forecasts");
- (iii) reviewed certain internal financial and operating information with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business and its operations and prospects furnished to or discussed with BofA Merrill Lynch by the management of IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List, including certain financial forecasts relating to the HomeAdvisor Business prepared by the management of IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business for fiscal years 2017 and 2018 as adjusted by the management of Angie's List and extrapolations therefrom as prepared by the management of Angie's List for fiscal years

2019 through 2020 based on guidance from the management of IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business (such forecasts, as adjusted and extrapolated and approved for BofA Merrill Lynch's use and reliance on behalf of the Angie's List board of directors by the transaction committee thereof, the "HomeAdvisor Business forecasts");

- (iv) reviewed certain estimates provided by the management of Angie's List as to the amount and timing of potential cost savings and revenue enhancements (collectively, the "Synergies") anticipated by such management to result from the Merger and related transactions;
- (v) reviewed certain internal financial and operating information with respect to ANGI Homeservices furnished to or discussed with BofA Merrill Lynch by the management of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business, including certain financial forecasts relating to ANGI Homeservices prepared by the management of Angie's List based on the Angie's List forecasts and the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts and pro forma for the Merger and related transactions after taking into account the Synergies (such forecasts, as prepared by such management and approved for BofA Merrill Lynch's use and reliance on behalf of the Angie's List board of directors by the transaction committee thereof, the "ANGI Homeservices forecasts");
- (vi) discussed the past and current business, operations, financial condition and prospects of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business, as well as the business, operations, financial condition, prospects and capitalization of ANGI Homeservices, with members of the senior management of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business;
- (vii) reviewed the trading history for Angie's List common stock and a comparison of that trading history with the trading histories of other companies BofA Merrill Lynch deemed relevant;
- (viii) compared certain financial and stock market information of Angie's List and certain financial information of the HomeAdvisor Business with similar information of other companies and businesses BofA Merrill Lynch deemed relevant;
- (ix) compared certain financial terms of the Merger to financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of other transactions BofA Merrill Lynch deemed relevant;
- (x) considered the fact that Angie's List publicly announced that it would explore its strategic alternatives and the results of the efforts on behalf of Angie's List to solicit, at the direction of the Angie's List board of directors, indications of interest and definitive proposals from selected third parties with respect to a possible acquisition of Angie's List;
- (xi) reviewed a draft, provided to BofA Merrill Lynch on May 1, 2017, of the Merger Agreement (the "Draft Agreement"); and
- (xii) performed such other analyses and studies and considered such other information and factors as BofA Merrill Lynch deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, BofA Merrill Lynch assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information and data publicly available or provided to or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with it and relied upon the assurances of the management of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information or data inaccurate or misleading in any material respect. BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, at the direction of Angie's List, without independent verification, that the internal unaudited financial statements with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business provided to BofA Merrill Lynch were accurate and complete in all respects and fairly represented the items described therein and that, when delivered as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the audited combined and consolidated financial statements and interim combined and consolidated unaudited financial statements relating to the HomeAdvisor Business would not reflect any information that would be meaningful in any respect to BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses or opinion. With respect to the Angie's List forecasts (including, without limitation, as to net operating loss carryforwards), the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts (including, without limitation, adjustments and extrapolations prepared by the management of Angie's List), the ANGI Homeservices forecasts and the Synergies, BofA Merrill Lynch was advised by Angie's List, and BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of Angie's List as to, and were a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate, the future financial performance of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices, the Synergies and the other matters covered thereby. BofA Merrill Lynch relied, at the direction of Angie's List, on the assessments of the management of Angie's List as to ANGI Homeservices' ability to achieve the Synergies and BofA Merrill Lynch was advised by Angie's List, and BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, that such Synergies would be realized in the amounts and at the times projected. As the Angie's List board of directors was aware, the management of Angie's List provided potential buyers in connection with the sale process for Angie's List with certain perspectives regarding illustrative initiatives for Angie's List that BofA Merrill Lynch was advised were not expected to be pursued by Angie's List or implemented in the manner then contemplated and such management also prepared alternative financial forecasts for the HomeAdvisor Business which BofA Merrill Lynch was advised were not reflective of such management's views as to the likely future financial performance of the HomeAdvisor Business; accordingly, BofA Merrill Lynch was directed not to take into account such initiatives or alternative financial forecasts for purposes of its analyses and opinion. BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or view as to any financial forecasts, estimates or other financial or operating information or the assumptions on which they were based.

At the direction of Angie's List, BofA Merrill Lynch relied upon the assessments of the management of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business as to, among other things, (i) transactions related to the Merger, including with respect to the timing thereof and assets, liabilities and financial and other terms involved, (ii) the potential impact on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices of certain market, cyclical, seasonal, competitive and other trends and developments in and prospects for, and governmental, regulatory and legislative matters relating to or otherwise affecting, the internet and technology industry, including the digital marketplace services sector thereof, (iii) the technology and intellectual property (and related risks) of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices, (iv) existing and future contracts and relationships, agreements and arrangements with, and the ability to attract, retain and/or replace, key employees, vendors and other commercial relationships of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices, and (v) the ability of ANGI Homeservices to integrate the operations of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business. BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that there would be no developments with respect to any such matters that would have an adverse effect on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices, the Merger or any related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof) or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses or opinion.

BofA Merrill Lynch did not make and was not provided with any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent, off-balance sheet, accrued, derivative or otherwise) of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business, nor did BofA Merrill Lynch make any physical inspection of the properties or assets of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business. BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, with the consent of Angie's List, that (i) ANGI Homeservices would retain or acquire all assets, properties and rights necessary for its and its subsidiaries' operations, (ii) there were no material undisclosed liabilities of or relating to Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business and, with respect to liabilities that ANGI Homeservices and/or its subsidiaries would assume in connection with the Merger or related transactions, appropriate reserves, indemnification arrangements or other provisions were or would be made, and (iii) neither ANGI Homeservices nor any of its subsidiaries would directly or indirectly retain, assume or incur any liabilities that were contemplated to be excluded as a result of the Merger, related transactions or otherwise. BofA Merrill Lynch did not evaluate the solvency or fair value of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any other entity or business under any state, federal or other laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. BofA Merrill Lynch assumed, at the direction of Angie's List, that the Merger and related transactions would be consummated in accordance with their respective terms and in compliance with all applicable laws, documents and other requirements, without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement, and that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory and other approvals, consents, releases and waivers for the Merger and related transactions, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition, including any divestiture requirements or amendments or modifications, would be imposed or occur that would have an adverse effect on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices, the Merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof) or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to BofA Merrill Lynch's analyses or opinion. BofA Merrill Lynch also assumed, at the direction of Angie's List, that the Merger, the Contribution, the IAC Share Issuance and certain other related transactions would qualify for the intended tax treatment contemplated by the Merger Agreement. BofA Merrill Lynch further assumed, at the direction of Angie's List, that the final executed Merger Agreement would not differ in any material respect from the Draft Agreement reviewed by BofA Merrill Lynch.

BofA Merrill Lynch evaluated the portion of the Merger Consideration consisting of Share Consideration taking into account the relative values of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business based on the relative estimated pro forma equity ownership percentages of approximately 12.75% and 87.25% that BofA Merrill Lynch was advised holders of ANGI Homeservices common stock who formerly were Angie's List securityholders and holders of ANGI Homeservices common stock who formerly were equity holders in the HomeAdvisor Business, respectively, would hold of the outstanding shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock on a fully diluted basis upon consummation of the Merger and related transactions assuming, among other things, all outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock were converted in the Merger into Share Consideration. BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or view as to any related transactions or any terms or other aspects or implications of the Merger (other than the Merger Consideration to the extent expressly specified in its opinion), including, without limitation, the form or structure of the Merger, the form or structure, or financial or other terms, of any related transactions or any terms, aspects or implications of the Contribution Agreement or any investor rights, services or tax sharing agreements, any intercompany note or any governance or other arrangements, agreements or understandings entered into in connection with, related to or contemplated by the Merger, related transactions or otherwise. BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of Angie's List common stock, without regard to individual circumstances of, or allocation or relative fairness among, holders of Angie's List common stock, ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock or ANGI Homeservices Class B common stock or any other securities of Angie's List or ANGI Homeservices, or any rights, preferences, restrictions or limitations (whether by virtue of control, voting, liquidity or otherwise) that may be attributable to any such securities or that may distinguish any holders thereof, and BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or view with respect to any consideration received in connection with the Merger or related transactions by the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of any party. In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or view with respect to the fairness (financial or otherwise) of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation or other consideration to any of the officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger or related transactions or any related entities, or class of such persons, relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. Furthermore, BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or view as to the relative merits of the Merger or related transactions in comparison to other strategies or transactions that might be available to Angie's List or in which Angie's List might engage or as to the underlying business decision of Angie's List to proceed with or effect the Merger.

or related transactions. BofA Merrill Lynch did not express any opinion as to what the value of ANGI Homeservices common stock actually would be when issued or the prices at which ANGI Homeservices common stock, Angie's List common stock or any other securities would trade or otherwise be transferable at any time, including following announcement or consummation of the Merger and related transactions. BofA Merrill Lynch also expressed no opinion or view with respect to, and BofA Merrill Lynch relied, at the direction of Angie's List, upon the assessments of representatives of Angie's List, IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business regarding, legal, regulatory, accounting, tax and similar matters relating to Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices, the Merger and related transactions, as to which BofA Merrill Lynch understood such advice was obtained as deemed necessary from qualified professionals. In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or recommendation as to any election made by a stockholder or how any stockholder should vote or act in connection with the Merger, any related transactions or any other matter.

BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions and circumstances as in effect on, and the information made available to BofA Merrill Lynch as of, the date of its opinion. As the Angie's List board of directors was aware, the credit, financial and stock markets, and the industries in which Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business operate, have experienced and continue to experience volatility and BofA Merrill Lynch expressed no opinion or view as to any potential effects of such volatility on Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business or ANGI Homeservices (or their respective businesses), the Merger or related transactions (including the contemplated benefits thereof). It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion and BofA Merrill Lynch does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. The issuance of BofA Merrill Lynch's opinion was approved by a fairness opinion review committee of BofA Merrill Lynch. Except as described in this summary, Angie's List imposed no other instructions or limitations on the investigations made or procedures followed by BofA Merrill Lynch in rendering its opinion.

Miscellaneous

Angie's List has agreed to pay BofA Merrill Lynch for its services as financial advisor to Angie's List in connection with the Merger an aggregate fee currently estimated to be approximately $10.4 million, of which a portion was payable upon delivery of its opinion and approximately $9.2 million is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. In addition, Angie's List has agreed to reimburse BofA Merrill Lynch for its expenses incurred in connection with BofA Merrill Lynch's engagement and to indemnify BofA Merrill Lynch, any controlling person of BofA Merrill Lynch and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and affiliates against specified liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates comprise a full service securities firm and commercial bank engaged in securities, commodities and derivatives trading, foreign exchange and other brokerage activities, and principal investing as well as providing investment, corporate and private banking, asset and investment management, financing and financial advisory services and other commercial services and products to a wide range of companies, governments and individuals. In the ordinary course of its business, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates may invest on a principal basis or on behalf of customers or manage funds that invest, make or hold long or short positions, finance positions or trade or otherwise effect transactions in equity, debt or other securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and certain of their respective affiliates.

BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing, and in the future may provide, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services to Angie's List and certain of its affiliates, and have received or in the future may receive compensation for the rendering of these services, including having acted as financial advisor to Angie's List in connection with its review of strategic alternatives and related matters. From May 1, 2015 through April 30, 2017, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates derived aggregate revenues from Angie's List and certain of its affiliates of less than $1 million for investment and corporate banking services.

In addition, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates in the past have provided, currently are providing, and in the future may provide, investment banking, commercial banking and other financial services to IAC and certain of its affiliates and portfolio companies, and have received or in the future may receive compensation for the rendering of these services, including (i) having acted or acting as a bookrunning manager and/or underwriter for certain debt and equity offerings of an affiliate of IAC, (ii) having acted as a dealer manager for a debt tender offer of IAC and debt exchange offer of IAC and an affiliate thereof, (iii) having acted or acting as a bookrunner and arranger for, and/or as a lender under, certain letters of credit, credit facilities and other credit arrangements of IAC and/or certain of its affiliates and portfolio companies, (iv) having provided or providing certain foreign exchange and other trading services to IAC and/or certain of its affiliates and portfolio companies, (v) having provided or providing certain managed investments services and products to IAC and/or certain of its affiliates and portfolio companies, and (vi) having provided or providing certain treasury management products and services to IAC and/or certain of its affiliates and portfolio companies. From May 1, 2015 through April 30, 2017, BofA Merrill Lynch and its affiliates derived aggregate revenues from IAC and certain of its affiliates and portfolio companies of approximately $12 million for investment and corporate banking services. BofA Merrill Lynch and certain of its affiliates have been requested to participate as a joint lead arranger for, and as a lender under, and have indicated a commitment (subject to certain conditions) to provide a portion of the loan contemplated by, the Credit Agreement for ANGI Homeservices and also have been requested to participate in certain financings for IAC unrelated to the Transactions, for which BofA Merrill Lynch and/or such affiliates would receive fees currently estimated to be approximately $900,000 in the aggregate. In the event ANGI Homeservices does not enter into the Credit Agreement, such aggregate fee is currently estimated to be approximately $600,000.

In connection with their respective opinions, Allen & Company and BofA Merrill Lynch performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of the analyses below and certain factors considered is not a comprehensive description of all analyses undertaken or factors considered by the Financial Advisors. The preparation of a financial opinion or analysis is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a financial opinion and analyses are not readily susceptible to summary description. The Financial Advisors believe that the analyses and factors summarized below must be considered as a whole and in context. The Financial Advisors further believe that selecting portions of the analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying the Financial Advisors' analyses and opinions.

In performing the financial analyses, the Financial Advisors considered industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Angie's List and IAC. The estimates of the future performance of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business in or underlying the Financial Advisors' analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those estimates or those suggested by such analyses. These analyses were prepared solely as part of the Financial Advisors' analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration and were provided to the Angie's List board of directors in connection with the delivery of the Financial Advisors' respective opinions. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which a company might actually be sold or the prices at which any securities have traded or may trade at any time in the future. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the ranges of valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described below are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken as the views of the Financial Advisors regarding the actual values of Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business.

The Financial Advisors did not recommend that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration in the Merger or related transactions. The type and amount of consideration payable in the Merger and related transactions was determined through negotiations between Angie's List and IAC, rather than by any financial advisor, and was approved by the Angie's List board of directors. The decision to enter into the Merger Agreement was solely that of the Angie's List board of directors. The Financial Advisors' opinions and analyses were only one of many factors considered by the Angie's List board of directors in its evaluation of the proposed Merger and the Merger Consideration and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Angie's List board of directors or management with respect to the Merger or the consideration payable in the Merger or related transactions.

Financial Analyses

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses provided by the Financial Advisors in connection with their respective opinions, each dated May 1, 2017, to the Angie's List board of directors. The summary set forth below is not a comprehensive description of all analyses undertaken by the Financial Advisors in connection with their respective opinions, nor does the order of the analyses in the summary below indicate that any analysis was given greater weight than any other analysis. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses performed by the Financial Advisors, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses performed by the Financial Advisors. Considering the data set forth in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by the Financial Advisors. Future results may differ from those described and such differences may be material.

For purposes of the financial analyses described below, the term "adjusted EBITDA" means earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation, amortization, non-cash stock-based compensation expense, asset impairment charges and other one-time items, as applicable, and includes, in the case of the HomeAdvisor Business, shared services expenses. Implied per share equity value reference ranges of Angie's List reflected in the summaries of the financial analyses described below were rounded to the nearest $0.05 and implied aggregate equity value reference ranges of the HomeAdvisor Business reflected in the summaries of the financial analyses described below were rounded to the nearest $5 million.

In calculating approximate implied exchange ratio reference ranges as reflected in the financial analyses described below, (i) the low end of each such approximate implied exchange ratio reference range was calculated by dividing (a) the quotient obtained by dividing the low end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for the HomeAdvisor Business (without reflecting rounding) by a relative value ratio reflecting relative estimated pro forma equity percentages of 87.25% and 12.75%, by (b) the high end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List and (ii) the high end of each such approximate implied exchange ratio reference range was calculated by dividing (a) the quotient obtained by dividing the high end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for the HomeAdvisor

Business (without reflecting rounding) by a relative value ratio reflecting relative estimated pro forma equity percentages of 87.25% and 12.75%, by (b) the low end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List. In calculating approximate implied pro forma equity ownership percentages as reflected in the financial analyses described below, (i) the low end of each such approximate implied ownership reference range was calculated by dividing the low end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List by the sum of the high end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for the HomeAdvisor Business (without reflecting rounding) plus the low end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List and (ii) the high end of each such approximate implied ownership reference range was calculated by dividing the high end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List by the sum of the low end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for the HomeAdvisor Business (without reflecting rounding) plus the high end of the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List. Approximate implied exchange ratio reference ranges and pro forma equity ownership reference ranges were calculated before taking into account Synergies and assuming that all stockholders of Angie's List elected to receive Share Consideration in the Merger.

Selected Publicly Traded Companies Analyses. The Financial Advisors performed selected publicly traded companies analyses of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business in which the Financial Advisors reviewed and compared financial and operating data of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and the selected publicly traded companies listed below.

based on public filings, publicly available Wall Street research analysts' estimates and other publicly available information (pro forma, as applicable, for certain recent acquisitions). Financial data of Angie's List were based on publicly available Wall Street research analysts' estimates and the Angie's List forecasts.

The overall low to high calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the Angie's List primary selected companies were 7.8x to 18.5x (with a mean of 11.5x and a median of 10.0x) and 5.9x to 14.4x (with a mean of 9.8x and a median of 9.1x), respectively. The overall low to high calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the Angie's List other selected companies were 8.9x to 56.6x (with a mean of 21.9x and a median of 18.1x) and 7.9x to 33.4x (with a mean of 16.0x and a median of 14.7x), respectively.

The Financial Advisors noted that the calendar year 2017 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for Angie's List were 13.2x (based on publicly available Wall Street research analysts' estimates) and 13.9x (based on the Angie's List forecasts), the calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for Angie's List were 11.5x (based on publicly available Wall Street research analysts' estimates) and 8.5x (based on the Angie's List forecasts) and the calendar year 2016 through calendar year 2018 estimated revenue compound annual growth rates for Angie's List were (1.6%) (based on publicly available Wall Street research analysts' estimates) and (2.8%) (based on the Angie's List forecasts). The Financial Advisors then applied selected ranges of calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples derived from the Angie's List primary selected companies of 8.5x to 10.5x and 8.0x to 10.0x, respectively, to corresponding data of Angie's List utilizing the Angie's List forecasts. This analysis indicated implied aggregate equity value reference ranges for Angie's List of approximately $229 million to $287 million and $361 million to $457 million, respectively, resulting in approximate implied per share equity value reference ranges for Angie's List, based on calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples, of $3.50 to $4.40 and $5.50 to $6.95, respectively, as compared to the Cash Consideration of $8.50 per share.

HomeAdvisor Business. In performing a selected publicly traded companies analysis of the HomeAdvisor Business, the Financial Advisors reviewed publicly available financial and stock market information (as applicable) of the HomeAdvisor Business and the following nine selected companies that the Financial Advisors considered relevant as publicly traded companies with operations in the internet and technology industry and calendar year 2016 through calendar year 2018 estimated revenue compound annual growth rates of greater than 10%, referred to as the HomeAdvisor Business primary selected companies. The Financial Advisors also reviewed publicly available financial and stock market information of the following eight selected companies that the Financial Advisors considered generally relevant as publicly traded companies with operations in the internet and technology industry and calendar year 2016 through calendar year 2018 estimated revenue compound annual growth rates of less than 10%, referred to as the HomeAdvisor Business other selected companies.

The Financial Advisors reviewed, among other information and to the extent meaningful, enterprise values, calculated as fully diluted equity values based on closing stock prices on April 28, 2017, plus total debt, preferred stock and non-controlling interests and less cash and cash equivalents and short-and long-term investments, as a multiple of calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA. Financial data of the HomeAdvisor Business primary selected companies and the HomeAdvisor Business other selected companies were based on public filings and other publicly available information (pro forma, as applicable, for certain recent acquisitions). Financial data of the HomeAdvisor Business were based on the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts.

The overall low to high calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the HomeAdvisor Business primary selected companies were 8.9x to 56.6x (with a mean of 21.9x and a median of 18.1x) and 7.9x to 33.4x (with a mean of 16.0x and a median of 14.7x), respectively. The overall low to high calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the HomeAdvisor Business other selected companies were 7.8x to 18.5x (with a mean of 11.5x and a median of 10.0x) and 5.9x to 14.4x (with a mean of 9.8x and a median of 9.1x), respectively.

The Financial Advisors then applied selected ranges of calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples derived from the HomeAdvisor Business primary selected companies of 15.0x to 20.0x and 12.0x to 18.0x, respectively, to corresponding data of the HomeAdvisor Business. This analysis indicated implied aggregate equity value reference ranges for the HomeAdvisor Business, based on calendar year 2017 and calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples, of approximately $1,420 to $1,900 and $2,360 to $3,555, respectively.

Utilizing the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges derived for Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business as described above, the Financial Advisors calculated the following approximate implied exchange ratio reference ranges, as compared to the exchange ratio in the Merger of one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices for each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock:

Approximate Implied Exchange Ratio Reference Ranges Based On:
CY 2017E Adjusted EBITDA	CY 2018E Adjusted EBITDA	Merger Exchange Ratio
0.722x - 1.215x	0.755x - 1.437x	1.000x

The Financial Advisors also calculated, based on the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges derived from these analyses, approximate implied pro forma equity ownership reference ranges for securityholders of Angie's List of 10.7% to 16.8% (based on calendar year 2017 estimated adjusted EBITDA) and 9.2% to 16.2% (based on calendar year 2018 estimated adjusted EBITDA), respectively, as compared to the estimated pro forma equity ownership of securityholders of Angie's List in ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Merger and the related transactions of approximately 12.75%.

No company or business used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading or other values of the companies or businesses to which Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business were compared.

Selected Precedent Transactions Analysis. The Financial Advisors reviewed, to the extent publicly available, financial information relating to the following 10 selected transactions that the Financial Advisors considered relevant as transactions involving target companies with operations in the internet and technology industry with next 12 months estimated revenue growth rates of less than 10%, referred to collectively as the selected transactions:

Announcement Date	Acquiror	Target
4/10/2017	• Harland Clarke Holdings Corp.	• RetailMeNot, Inc.
11/7/2016	• Bain Capital Private Equity/Bow Street LLC	• Blue Nile, Inc.
10/21/2016	• j2 Global, Inc.	• Everyday Health, Inc.
8/9/2016	• Randstad Holding nv	• Monster Worldwide, Inc.
7/25/2016	• Verizon Communications Inc.	• Yahoo! Inc.
2/11/2016	• Web.com Group, Inc.	• Yodle, Inc.
2/12/2015	• Expedia, Inc.	• Orbitz Worldwide, Inc.
1/23/2015	• Expedia, Inc.	• Sabre Corporation (Travelocity brand and operations)
8/11/2014	• Apax Partners	• Answers Corporation
8/26/2012	• IAC/InterActiveCorp	• The About Group

The Financial Advisors reviewed, among other information, transaction values of the selected transactions, calculated as the enterprise values implied for the target companies based on the consideration paid for 100% of the equity value of the target companies, plus total debt, preferred equity and non-controlling interests (as applicable) and less cash and cash equivalents and unconsolidated assets (as applicable), as a multiple, to the extent meaningful and publicly available, of the applicable target company's next 12 months estimated adjusted EBITDA as of the applicable announcement date. Financial data for the selected transactions were based on public filings, publicly available Wall Street research analysts' estimates and other publicly available information. Financial data of Angie's List were based on the Angie's List forecasts.

The overall low to high next 12 months estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples observed for the selected transactions were 5.7x to 17.2x (with a mean of 9.7x and a median of 8.7x). The Financial Advisors then applied a selected range of next 12 months estimated adjusted EBITDA multiples derived from the selected transactions of 8.5x to 12.5x to the calendar year 2017 estimated adjusted EBITDA of Angie's List. This analysis indicated an implied aggregate equity value reference range for Angie's List of approximately $229 million to $346 million, resulting in an approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Angie's List of $3.50 to $5.30, as compared to the Cash Consideration of $8.50 per share.

Utilizing the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for Angie's List as described above and the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference range derived for the HomeAdvisor Business under "—Selected Publicly Traded Companies Analyses—HomeAdvisor Business" based on the HomeAdvisor Business calendar year 2017 estimated adjusted EBITDA, the Financial Advisors calculated the following approximate implied exchange ratio reference range, as compared to the exchange ratio in the Merger of one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices for each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock:

The Financial Advisors also calculated, based on the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges, an approximate implied pro forma equity ownership reference range for

securityholders of Angie's List of 10.7% to 19.6%, as compared to the estimated pro forma equity ownership of securityholders of Angie's List in ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Merger and the related transactions of approximately 12.75%.

No company, business or transaction used in this analysis is identical or directly comparable to Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business or the Merger. Accordingly, an evaluation of the results of this analysis is not entirely mathematical. Rather, this analysis involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition or other values of the companies, businesses or transactions to which Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and the Merger were compared.

Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. The Financial Advisors performed separate discounted cash flow analyses of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business.

Allen & Company

Angie's List. Allen & Company performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Angie's List by calculating the estimated present value (as of December 31, 2016) of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Angie's List was forecasted to generate, based on the Angie's List forecasts, during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017 through the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 (assuming normalized terminal year depreciation and working capital) and after taking into account the estimated present value (as of December 31, 2016) of net operating loss carryforwards of Angie's List. For purposes of this analysis, stock-based compensation was treated as a cash expense. Allen & Company calculated terminal values for Angie's List by applying to Angie's List's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 a selected range of adjusted EBITDA multiples of 8.5x to 11.0x. The cash flows, terminal values and net operating loss carryforwards were then discounted to present value (as of December 31, 2016) using a selected range of discount rates of 11.5% to 12.3%. This analysis indicated an implied aggregate equity value reference range for Angie's List of approximately $482 million to $626 million, resulting in an approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Angie's List of $7.30 to $9.40, as compared to the Cash Consideration of $8.50 per share.

HomeAdvisor Business. Allen & Company performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the HomeAdvisor Business by calculating the estimated present value (as of December 31, 2016) of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that the HomeAdvisor Business was forecasted to generate, based on the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts, during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017 through the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 (assuming normalized terminal year depreciation and working capital). For purposes of this analysis, stock-based compensation was treated as a cash expense. Allen & Company calculated terminal values for the HomeAdvisor Business by applying to the HomeAdvisor Business's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 a selected range of adjusted EBITDA multiples of 10.0x to 14.0x. The cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value (as of December 31, 2016) using a selected range of discount rates of 11.3% to 12.3%. This analysis indicated an implied aggregate equity value reference range for the HomeAdvisor Business of approximately $3,060 million to $4,300 million.

Utilizing the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges derived for Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business as described above, Allen & Company calculated the following

approximate implied exchange ratio reference range, as compared to the exchange ratio in the Merger of one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices for each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock:

0.714x - 1.303x	1.000x

Allen & Company also calculated, based on the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges derived from this analysis, an approximate implied pro forma equity ownership reference range for securityholders of Angie's List of 10.1% to 17.0%, as compared to the estimated pro forma equity ownership of securityholders of Angie's List in ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Merger and the related transactions of approximately 12.75%.

BofA Merrill Lynch

Angie's List. BofA Merrill Lynch performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Angie's List by calculating the estimated present value (as of December 31, 2016) of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that Angie's List was forecasted to generate, based on the Angie's List forecasts, during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017 through the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 (assuming normalized terminal year depreciation and working capital) and after taking into account the estimated present value (as of December 31, 2016) of net operating loss carryforwards of Angie's List. For purposes of this analysis, stock-based compensation was treated as a cash expense. BofA Merrill Lynch calculated terminal values for Angie's List by applying to Angie's List's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 a selected range of adjusted EBITDA multiples of 8.5x to 11.0x. The cash flows, terminal values and net operating loss carryforwards were then discounted to present value (as of December 31, 2016) using a selected range of discount rates of 11.5% to 14.0%. This analysis indicated an implied aggregate equity value reference range for Angie's List of approximately $454 million to $626 million, resulting in an approximate implied per share equity value reference range for Angie's List of $6.90 to $9.40, as compared to the Cash Consideration of $8.50 per share.

HomeAdvisor Business. BofA Merrill Lynch performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the HomeAdvisor Business by calculating the estimated present value (as of December 31, 2016) of the standalone unlevered, after-tax free cash flows that the HomeAdvisor Business was forecasted to generate, based on the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts, during the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017 through the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 (assuming normalized terminal year depreciation and working capital). For purposes of this analysis, stock-based compensation was treated as a cash expense. BofA Merrill Lynch calculated terminal values for the HomeAdvisor Business by applying to the HomeAdvisor Business's estimated adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020 a selected range of adjusted EBITDA multiples of 10.0x to 14.0x. The cash flows and terminal values were then discounted to present value (as of December 31, 2016) using a selected range of discount rates of 10.0% to 13.0%. This analysis indicated an implied aggregate equity value reference range for the HomeAdvisor Business of approximately $2,985 million to $4,495 million.

Utilizing the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges derived for Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business as described above, BofA Merrill Lynch calculated the following

approximate implied exchange ratio reference range, as compared to the exchange ratio in the Merger of one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices for each outstanding share of Angie's List common stock:

BofA Merrill Lynch also calculated, based on the approximate implied aggregate equity value reference ranges derived from this analysis, an approximate implied pro forma equity ownership reference range for securityholders of Angie's List of 9.2% to 17.3%, as compared to the estimated pro forma equity ownership of securityholders of Angie's List in ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Merger and the related transactions of approximately 12.75%.

Illustrative Has/Gets Overview. The Financial Advisors calculated the range of implied per share equity values of ANGI Homeservices allocable to holders of Angie's List common stock on a pro forma basis assuming a closing date of December 31, 2016 and utilizing the results of the standalone discounted cash flow analyses for Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business described above after taking into account potential Synergies (net of after-tax costs to achieve such Synergies) and the net impact of net operating loss carryforwards and assuming that all stockholders of Angie's List elected to receive in the Merger either (i) Share Consideration (implying an estimated pro forma equity ownership percentage for securityholders of Angie's List in ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Merger and the related transactions of approximately 12.75%) or (ii) Cash Consideration, subject to proration as contemplated by the Merger Agreement (implying an estimated pro forma equity ownership percentage for securityholders of Angie's List in ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Merger and the related transactions of approximately 9.70%). The Financial Advisors then compared these implied per share equity value reference ranges to the implied per share equity value reference ranges derived for Angie's List on a standalone basis utilizing the results of the standalone discounted cash flow analyses for Angie's List described above. Financial data were based on public filings, the Angie's List forecasts, the HomeAdvisor Business forecasts and other estimates and data of the management of Angie's List, excluding the impact of transaction costs. This overview indicated that the Merger could result in incremental value to holders of Angie's List common stock relative to the implied per share equity value of Angie's List common stock on a standalone basis. Actual results achieved by Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business and the pro forma combined company may vary from forecasted results and such variations may be material.

Certain Additional Information

The Financial Advisors observed certain additional information that was not considered part of their financial analyses for their respective opinions but was noted for informational purposes, including the following:

- historical trading prices of Angie's List common stock during the 52-week period ended April 28, 2017, which indicated low and high closing prices for Angie's List common stock during such period of approximately $5.29 and $10.67 per share, respectively; and
- stock price targets for Angie's List common stock as reflected in selected publicly available Wall Street research analysts' reports, which indicated an overall low to high target stock price range of $4.75 to $9.00 per share, implying a range of approximately $4.20 to $8.00 per share on a discounted basis (discounted one year using Angie's List's cost of equity).

Table of ContentsCertain Financial Projections

In connection with the evaluation of a potential sale of Angie's List, Angie's List management prepared long-range financial projections for the fiscal years 2017 through 2020 for both Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business, which were provided to (i) the Angie's List board in connection with its evaluation of the Transactions and (ii) Angie's List's financial advisors for their use and reliance in connection with their financial analyses and respective opinions. The financial projections for Angie's List were also provided to IAC in connection with its evaluation of the Transactions. In the case of projections related to the HomeAdvisor Business, those projections, a summary of which is set forth in the table below, were, in part, based upon information regarding the HomeAdvisor Business for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2017 and 2018 provided to Angie's List by management of IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business. The financial projections do not, and were not intended to, act as public guidance regarding future financial performance of Angie's List, the HomeAdvisor Business or ANGI Homeservices.

The information set forth below is a summary of the financial projections and is included in this proxy statement/prospectus solely to give Angie's List stockholders access to information regarding the financial projections considered by the Angie's List board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the Transactions and is not included to influence any stockholder of Angie's List to decide to vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement or for any other purpose.

The financial projections reflect Angie's List management's subjective judgment in many respects and, therefore, are susceptible to multiple interpretations and periodic revisions based on actual experience and business developments. The financial projections were necessarily based on a variety of assumptions and estimates. The assumptions and estimates underlying the financial projections may not be realized and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Angie's List, IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices. The assumptions and estimates used in the preparation of the financial projections involved judgments with respect to, among other things, growth rates, market size, required investments and future levels of operating expenses, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are outside the control of Angie's List, IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business and ANGI Homeservices. Moreover, the financial projections were based on expectations regarding certain future business decisions that are subject to change. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the financial projections, or the assumptions and estimates reflected therein, will be realized, and actual results may materially differ.

The inclusion of the summary of the financial projections set forth below in this proxy statement/prospectus should not be regarded as an indication that any of Angie's List, IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any of their respective affiliates, advisors or other representatives considered or consider the financial projections to be necessarily predictive of actual future events, and the summary of the financial projections should not be relied upon as such. None of Angie's List, IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any of their respective affiliates, advisors or other representatives has made or makes any representation regarding the information contained in the financial projections, and except as may be required by applicable securities laws, none of Angie's List, IAC, the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices or any of their respective affiliates intends to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the financial projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date such financial projections were prepared or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the financial projections are not realized. The financial projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared. Further, the financial projections do not take into account the effect of any failure of the Transactions to be consummated. Angie's List stockholders are cautioned not to rely on the financial projections.

HomeAdvisor Business

	FY 2017E	FY 2018E	FY 2019E	FY 2020E
Total revenue	$ 720	$ 958	$ 1,241	$ 1,557
Adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	96	199	308	434

- (1) This financial measure excludes the impact of certain items and as such is not in accordance with GAAP. Adjusted EBITDA means earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation, amortization, non-cash stock-based compensation expense, asset impairment charges and other one-time items, as applicable, and, in the case of the HomeAdvisor Business, includes shared services expenses.

The summary of the financial projections set forth above should be read together with the historical financial statements of Angie's List, which have been filed with the SEC, and the historical financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, which are included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, as well as the other information regarding Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the information regarding Angie's List incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. The financial projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, nor were they prepared with a view toward compliance with the published guidelines of the SEC or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. Neither Angie's List's independent auditors, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined, or performed any procedures with respect to the financial projections summarized above, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the financial projections.

Angie's List expects that there will be differences between actual and projected results, and actual results may be materially greater or materially less than those contained in the financial projections given numerous risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to the important factors listed under the section entitled "Risk Factors" as well as those set forth in Angie's List's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information." All projections are forward-looking statements, and these and other forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by the risks and uncertainties identified in these reports and in any other filings with the SEC.

Considerations of the IAC Board of Directors Regarding the Transactions

In determining to approve the Merger Agreement and the Transactions, the IAC board of directors consulted with IAC management as well as IAC's outside financial and legal advisors and considered the following factors and risks in addition to the specific reasons described above under "—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions":

- The series of events leading to the potential business combination transaction, as described above under "—Background of the Transactions."
- Information concerning the respective businesses, financial results and prospects of Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business, including the results of IAC's due diligence investigation of Angie's List.
- The expectation that immediately following the Closing, IAC will hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices that, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration.
- The treatment of vested and unvested equity awards in respect of the common stock of Angie's List and the common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) in determining the number of ANGI Homeservices Class B shares that IAC will hold upon the completion of the Transactions.
- The fact that prior to the Angie's List special meeting, Angie's List may terminate the Merger Agreement in order to enter into a "Superior Proposal," but only if, among other requirements, it has complied with its obligations to negotiate with IAC to amend the Merger Agreement in order to permit the Transactions to proceed, as further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals."
- The fact that Angie's List would be required in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement in certain circumstances to pay to IAC a termination fee of $20 million, and the fact that in certain circumstances no termination fee or expense reimbursement would be payable to IAC if the Merger Agreement were to be terminated because the stockholders of Angie's List fail to adopt the Merger Agreement at the Angie's List special meeting.
- The fact that the Merger Agreement provides for the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices at the time of the Closing to consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two ANGI-Designated Directors.
- The management team of ANGI Homeservices expected to be in place following the completion of the Transactions, including the expectation that the chairman of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will be Joseph Levin, the current Chief Executive Officer of IAC, and that the Chief Executive Officer of ANGI Homeservices will be Chris Terrill, the current Chief Executive Officer of HomeAdvisor (US); and the willingness of Angie Hicks Bowman to continue in an executive capacity following the Closing.
- The provisions in the Investor Rights Agreement negotiated by the Angie's List board of directors for the benefit of the public stockholders of ANGI Homeservices to be applicable during the period from the Effective Time until the date the 2020 annual meeting of stockholders of ANGI Homeservices is held, including:
 - the procedures for selecting a replacement director in the event that one or both of the ANGI-Designated Directors become unable or unwilling or otherwise cease to serve on the ANGI Homeservices board of directors,

- the prohibition on IAC effecting a "squeeze-out" transaction pursuant to Section 253 of the DGCL unless approved by a committee of independent directors of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, at least 50% of whom must be ANGI-Designated Directors so long as any ANGI-Designated Directors who qualify as independent are then serving on the ANGI Homeservices board, and
- the requirement that certain transferees of 20% or more of IAC's equity interest in ANGI Homeservices assume IAC's obligations under the Investor Rights Agreement.
- The provisions in the Investor Rights Agreement for the benefit of IAC, including, among others:
 - registration rights and preemptive rights to be granted to IAC,
 - the obligation of ANGI Homeservices to cooperate with IAC in the event IAC intends to dispose of all or a portion of its interest in ANGI Homeservices,
 - IAC's right to assign the Investor Rights Agreement and the other Ancillary Agreements to a subsidiary of IAC holding its interest in ANGI Homeservices in the event of a spin-off of such subsidiary to IAC's stockholders, and
 - ANGI Homeservices' agreement (unless IAC otherwise consents) to avail itself of the exemptions available to a "controlled company" under NASDAQ Rules so long as IAC's voting interest in ANGI Homeservices exceeds fifty percent.
- The provisions of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices to be in effect as of the Closing, including the limitation of liability in connection with "corporate opportunities" and business initiatives of IAC and related matters and the availability of an authorized class of non-voting common stock, among others.
- The restrictions contained in the Merger Agreement on the conduct of the HomeAdvisor Business pending the completion of the Transactions.
- The terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, and the provisions in the Ancillary Agreements that will govern the relationships between ANGI Homeservices and IAC after the Closing.
- The risk of diverting HomeAdvisor's management focus, employee attention and resources from operational matters and other strategic initiatives while working to complete the proposed Transactions and successfully integrate Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business.
- The risk that anticipated cost savings and revenue synergies or other expected benefits of the Transactions will not be achieved.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the IAC board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the IAC board.

Regulatory Approvals

The Merger is conditioned on, among other things, the termination or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act. IAC and Angie's List have each agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Transactions, subject to specified limitations. For additional details, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Efforts to Close the Merger."

Pursuant to the HSR Act, IAC filed its Notification and Report Form with the FTC and the DOJ on May 11, 2017. Angie's List filed its Notification and Report Form with the FTC and DOJ on May 15, 2017. On June 14, 2017, to give additional time to the DOJ to review the transaction during its initial review period and thus expedite the DOJ's overall review of the transaction, IAC withdrew its Notification and Report Form and re-filed it on June 15, 2017. The applicable waiting period under the HSR Act was terminated early by the FTC effective as of July 13, 2017. As such, this closing condition under the Merger Agreement has been satisfied.

At any time before or after the Closing, any of the DOJ, the FTC or another person could take action under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including without limitation seeking to enjoin the consummation of the Merger, conditionally approving the Merger upon the divestiture of assets of Angie's List and/or IAC, subjecting the consummation of the Merger to regulatory conditions or seeking other remedies. The parties do not believe that the Merger violates federal or state antitrust laws, but there can be no assurance that a challenge to the Merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, it will not succeed.

Neither IAC nor Angie's List is aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the Transactions other than as described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Listing of Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices

IAC and Angie's List have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued in connection with the Merger, as well as the Class A shares to be reserved for issuance upon exercise or settlement of options and other of equity awards of ANGI Homeservices, to be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, before the Closing. The approval for listing of the Class A shares is a condition to the Closing (see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger"). It is currently expected that following the completion of the Transactions, Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices will trade on NASDAQ under the symbol "ANGI," which is the current ticker symbol for Angie's List.

Delisting and Deregistration of Angie's List Common Stock

If the Merger is completed, Angie's List common stock, which is currently listed on NASDAQ and traded under the ticker symbol "ANGI," will be delisted and cease to be quoted on NASDAQ upon the Closing and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act shortly thereafter.

Dividend Policy of ANGI Homeservices

ANGI Homeservices has never declared or paid cash dividends on its capital stock, and ANGI Homeservices has not yet determined whether, when and in what amounts it may pay cash dividends on its Class A common stock, Class B common stock or Class C common stock (if any is outstanding) in the future. Future determinations relating to ANGI Homeservices' dividend policy will be made by its board of directors following the Merger and will depend on a number of factors, including:

- its historic and projected financial condition, liquidity and results of operations;
- its capital levels and needs;
- tax considerations;
- any acquisitions or potential acquisitions that ANGI Homeservices may consider;
- statutory and regulatory prohibitions and other limitations;
- the terms of any credit agreements or other borrowing arrangements that restrict its ability to pay cash dividends;
- general economic conditions; and

- other factors deemed relevant by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors.

ANGI Homeservices is not obligated to pay dividends on its Class A common stock, its Class B common stock or its Class C common stock.

As a Delaware corporation, ANGI Homeservices will be subject to certain restrictions on dividends under the DGCL. Generally, a Delaware corporation may only pay dividends either out of "surplus" or out of the current or the immediately preceding year's net profits. Surplus is defined as the excess, if any, at any given time, of the total assets of a corporation over its total liabilities and statutory capital. The value of a corporation's assets can be measured in a number of ways and may not necessarily equal their book value.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

ANGI Homeservices will account for the acquisition of Angie's List pursuant to the Merger using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with GAAP. ANGI Homeservices will measure the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their fair values, including net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed, as of the Closing. Any excess of the purchase price over those fair values will be recorded as goodwill.

Definite lived intangible assets will be amortized over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and goodwill will not be amortized but will be tested for impairment at least annually. All intangible assets and goodwill are also tested for impairment when certain indicators are present, which may occur more frequently than on an annual basis.

The allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined financial statements (see the section entitled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information") is based on preliminary estimates using assumptions that the management of ANGI Homeservices believes are reasonable based on currently available information as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The final purchase price and fair value assessment of assets and liabilities will be completed following the Closing based in part on a detailed analysis that has not yet been completed.

No Appraisal Rights

Appraisal rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable stockholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to stockholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction.

Appraisal rights are not available in all circumstances, and exceptions to these rights are provided under the DGCL. Section 262 of the DGCL provides that stockholders have the right, in some circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate actions and to instead demand payment of the fair value of their shares. Stockholders do not have appraisal rights with respect to shares of any class or series of stock if such shares of stock, or depositary receipts in respect thereof, are either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders, unless the stockholders are required to receive in exchange for their shares anything other than shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation (or depositary receipts in respect thereof), or of any other corporation that is publicly listed or held by more than 2,000 holders of record, cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depositary receipts described above or any combination of the foregoing. Therefore, because Angie's List common stock is listed on NASDAQ, and because Angie's List stockholders are not required to accept in the Merger any consideration in exchange for their shares of Angie's List common stock other than Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices, which will be publicly listed on NASDAQ, and cash in lieu of fractional shares (if applicable), holders of Angie's List common stock will not be entitled to any appraisal rights in connection with the Transactions with respect to their shares of Angie's List common stock.

Interests of Angie's List's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions

Angie's List stockholders should be aware that some of Angie's List's directors and officers have interests in the Merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Angie's List stockholders generally. Angie's List's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that Angie's List stockholders vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement. See the sections entitled "The Transactions—Background of the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors."

Treatment of Angie's List Stock Options

Each option to purchase shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an option to purchase (i) that number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices equal to the total number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) at a per-share exercise price equal to the exercise price per share of Angie's List common stock at which such Angie's List option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time. Each ANGI Homeservices option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Treatment of Angie's List Restricted Stock Unit Awards

Each award of restricted stock units that corresponds to shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award with respect to a number of Class A shares equal to the number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time (assuming satisfaction of any applicable performance goals at the target performance level with respect to Angie's List performance-based restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016). Each ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit awards corresponding to performance-based Angie's List restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016 will vest solely on the basis of service following the Effective Time.

Angie's List Employment Agreements and Offer Letters with Angie's List's Executive Officers

Angie's List has entered into an employment agreement or offer letter with each of its executive officers, other than Ms. Hicks Bowman, which provides for payments and benefits in the event of a termination of the executive officer's employment by Angie's List without cause or by the executive officer with good reason (each of which is referred to in this section as a "qualifying termination"), in each case, during a specified period prior to or following a change in control. The Merger will constitute a change in control under these employment agreements and offer letters.

Scott A. Durchslag

The employment agreement with Scott A. Durchslag, Angie's List's President and Chief Executive Officer, provides that, in the event of his qualifying termination within the six-month period prior to or 18-month period following the Effective Time, Mr. Durchslag will be eligible to receive the following:

(i) a cash payment equal to 3.0 times the sum of his then-current annual base salary and target bonus, payable in one lump sum on the 60th day following his termination date, less all applicable taxes and withholdings; and (ii) a lump sum payment equal to 18 months of the cost of COBRA payments, payable on the 60th day following his termination date (provided Mr. Durchslag is eligible for and timely elects to continue receiving group medical insurance pursuant to COBRA).

Thomas R. Fox

The offer letter with Thomas R. Fox, Angie's List's Chief Financial Officer, provides that, in the event of his qualifying termination within the six-month period prior to or 12-month period following the Effective Time, Mr. Fox will be eligible to receive the following: (i) a cash payment equal to two years of his then-current annual base salary, payable in one lump sum on the 60th day following his termination date, less all applicable taxes and withholdings, and (ii) reimbursement of 18 months of COBRA premium payments that Angie's List then pays on behalf of similarly situated active employees (provided Mr. Fox is eligible for and timely elects to continue receiving group medical insurance pursuant to COBRA).

J. Mark Howell

The offer letter with J. Mark Howell, Angie's List's Chief Operating Officer, provides that, in the event of his qualifying termination within the six-month period prior to or 12-month period following the Effective Time, Mr. Howell will be eligible to receive the following: (i) a cash payment equal to two years of his then-current annual base salary, payable in one lump sum on the 60th day following his termination date, less all applicable taxes and withholdings, and (ii) reimbursement of 18 months of COBRA premium payments that Angie's List then pays on behalf of similarly situated active employees (provided Mr. Howell is eligible for and timely elects to continue receiving group medical insurance pursuant to COBRA).

Shannon M. Shaw

The offer letter with Shannon M. Shaw, Angie's List's Chief Legal Officer & Corporate Secretary, provides that, in the event of her qualifying termination within the three-month period prior to or the 18-month period following the Effective Time, Ms. Shaw will be eligible to receive the following: (i) a cash payment equal to two years of her then-current annual base salary, payable in one lump sum on the 60th day following her termination date, less all applicable taxes and withholdings, and (ii) a lump sum payment equal to 18 months of the cost of COBRA payments, payable on the 60th day following her termination date.

Darin E. Brown

The offer letter with Darin E. Brown, Angie's List's Chief Technology Officer, provides that, in the event of his qualifying termination within the 18-month period following the Effective Time, Mr. Brown will be eligible to receive the following: (i) a cash payment equal to two years of his then-current annual base salary, payable in biweekly installments commencing on the 60th day following his termination date, less all applicable taxes and withholdings, and (ii) a stipend equal to the cost of the COBRA premium payments for 18 months, payable in biweekly installments commencing on the 60th day following his termination date (provided Mr. Brown is eligible for and timely elects to continue receiving group medical insurance pursuant to COBRA).

Charles Hundt

The offer letter with Charles Hundt, Angie's List's Chief Accounting Officer, provides that, in the event of his qualifying termination within the three-month period prior to or the 18-month period following the Effective Time, Mr. Hundt will be eligible to receive the following: (i) a cash payment equal to two years of his then-current annual base salary, payable in one lump sum on the 60th day following his termination date, less all applicable taxes and withholdings, and (ii) a lump sum payment equal to 18 months of the cost of COBRA payments, payable on the 60th day following his termination date.

The employment agreements or offer letters with each of Angie's List's executive officers provide that payments and benefits that are subject to the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code will be cut back in certain circumstances such that no payments or benefits are subject to the excise tax. The employment agreement with Mr. Durchslag and the offer letter with Mr. Brown each provide for a 12-month post-termination noncompetition covenant. All of the severance payments and benefits described above are contingent on the executive officer's execution and non-revocation of a separation and release agreement provided by Angie's List.

For an estimate of the severance payments and benefits that would be payable to each of Angie's List's named executive officers upon a qualifying termination following the Merger, see "—Golden Parachute Compensation" below. The estimated aggregate amount of severance benefits that would be payable to Angie's List's two executive officers who are not named executive officers if the Effective Time occurred on August 23, 2017 and they experienced a qualifying termination on that date is $1,274,555.

Equity Acceleration

The terms of the agreements for stock options granted during 2013 and later to Angie's List's named executive officers (other than for Mr. Durchslag's at-hire grant in 2015, as described below) provide for accelerated vesting if the named executive officer's employment is terminated within the six-month period prior to, or 18-month period following, a change in control. The terms of the stock option award agreements for Angie's List's other executive officers provide for accelerated vesting if the executive officer's employment is terminated within the 12-month period following a change in control. The terms of the stock option award agreements for Angie's List's non-employee directors provide for accelerated vesting upon a change in control, whether or not the service of the non-employee director is terminated in connection with the change in control. The Merger will constitute a change in control for this purpose. No non-employee directors hold any unvested stock options.

The terms of the restricted stock unit award agreements for executive officers (other than for Mr. Durchslag's at-hire grant in 2015, as described below) provide that, if within 12 months following a change in control, the employment of the executive officer is terminated without cause or he or she resigns for good reason, the vesting of the restricted stock unit award will be accelerated automatically and will become fully vested upon such termination of employment or service. With respect to restricted stock unit awards granted to non-employee directors, such awards will be accelerated automatically and become fully vested upon a change in control if they are either not substituted, assumed or otherwise continued in connection with the change in control or if a termination of service of the non-employee director occurs in connection with the change in control. The Merger will constitute a change in control for this purpose.

The terms of the performance-based restricted stock unit award agreements for executive officers (other than for Mr. Durchslag's at-hire grant in 2015, as described below) provide that in the event of a change in control of Angie's List prior to the conclusion of the 33-month performance period applicable to those awards, the Adjusted EBITDA and Total Cumulative Revenue performance conditions will be deemed satisfied, with the Total Cumulative Revenue goal deemed satisfied at the target performance level, and each holder of such an award will remain subject to the service-based vesting conditions set forth under the award agreement. In the event an executive officer experiences a termination of service without cause or resigns for good reason, in each case, within 18 months following a change in control, and provided that within 60 days following the executive officer's termination date, the executive officer timely executes and does not revoke a separation agreement releasing Angie's List and its affiliates from all claims, a pro-rated portion of the performance-based restricted stock unit award will vest based on the number of full months during the performance period that the executive officer was employed by Angie's List. The Merger will constitute a change in control for this purpose.

Mr. Durchslag's employment agreement provides that, in the event of a qualifying termination within the six-month period prior to or 18-month period following a change in control and subject to Mr. Durchslag's execution and non-revocation of a separation agreement releasing Angie's List and its affiliates from all claims, the at-hire equity awards granted to Mr. Durchslag pursuant to his employment agreement will vest, with applicable performance goals being deemed satisfied at the greater of actual performance through the date of his termination of employment and 100% of the target level of performance.

For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to each of Angie's List's named executive officers upon settlement of their unvested Angie's List equity awards upon a qualifying termination, see "—Golden Parachute Compensation" below. The estimated aggregate amount that would be payable to Angie's List's two executive officers who are not named executive officers in settlement of their unvested Angie's List equity awards if the Effective Time occurred on August 23, 2017 and they experienced a qualifying termination on that date is $3,377,305. Angie's List's eight non-employee directors only hold unvested annual restricted stock awards granted in 2017, and Angie's List estimates that the aggregate amount that would be payable to Angie's List's eight non-employee directors for their unvested Angie's List equity awards if the Effective Time occurred on August 23, 2017 is $1,580,467. The amounts in this paragraph are determined using a per share price of Angie's List common stock of $10.40, the average closing price per share of Angie's List common stock over the first five business days following the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement.

Grants to Strategic Advisory Committee Members

The compensation committee of the Angie's List board of directors approved the grant of cash payments to certain Angie's List directors who serve on the Strategic Advisory Committee of the Angie's List board of directors in recognition of their additional efforts and contributions in the following amounts: (i) $35,000 to each of George D. Bell, David B. Mullen and H. Eric Semler, and (ii) $50,000 to Thomas R. Evans. These cash payments will be paid at or just prior to the Closing.

Golden Parachute Compensation

In accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, the tables below present the estimated amounts of compensation that each named executive officer of Angie's List could receive that are based on or otherwise relate to the Merger. This compensation is referred to as "golden parachute" compensation by the applicable SEC disclosure rules, and in this section such term is used to describe the Merger-related compensation that may become payable to Angie's List's named executive officers. This Merger-related compensation will be the subject of a non-binding advisory vote of Angie's List stockholders at the special meeting. See the section entitled "Proposal 2: Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation."

The amounts set forth below have been calculated assuming completion of the Merger on August 23, 2017, the latest practicable date prior to the filing of this proxy statement/prospectus, and, where applicable, assuming each named executive officer experiences a qualifying termination as of August 23, 2017. In addition, the amounts below are determined using a price per share of Angie's List common stock of $10.40, the average closing price per share of Angie's List common stock over the first five business days following the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement. The amounts indicated below are estimates of amounts that would be payable to Angie's List's named executive officers, and the estimates are based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Some of the assumptions are based on information not currently available, and as a result, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by a named executive officer may differ in material respects from the amounts set forth below. In addition, consistent with SEC guidance, the amounts below do not take into account the effect of the new agreement between ANGI Homeservices and Ms. Hicks Bowman, which is described below in the section entitled "—ANGI Homeservices Employment Agreement with Ms. Hicks Bowman." All dollar amounts set forth below have been rounded to the nearest whole number.

Name	Golden Parachute Payment(1)			Total ($)
	Cash Severance ($)(2)	Equity ($)(3)	Perquisites/ Benefits ($)(4)
Scott A. Durchslag	3,600,000	8,503,050	17,277	12,120,327

- (1) All amounts reflected in the table are attributable to "double-trigger" arrangements (i.e., the amounts are triggered by (a) the change in control that will occur upon completion of the Merger and (b) the officer's qualifying termination in connection with the change in control).
- (2) The amounts reflect cash severance benefits that would be payable under the employment agreements or offer letters, as applicable, entered into with Messrs. Durchslag, Fox, and Howell and Ms. Shaw, assuming Angie's List terminates the officer's employment without cause or the officer terminates his or her employment for good reason, in each case within six months prior to or 18 months following the change in control (for Mr. Durchslag) or within six months prior to or 12 months following the change in control (for Messrs. Fox and Howell) or within three months prior to or 18 months following the change in control (for Ms. Shaw). In the case of Mr. Durchslag, the amount listed includes the value of three times the sum of his then-current base salary and his annual target bonus, the total amount of which is $1,200,000. The severance benefits payable under the applicable employment agreements are described in more detail above in the section entitled "—Angie's List Employment Agreements and Offer Letters with Angie's List's Executive Officers."
- (3) The amounts reflect the aggregate value of time-based and performance-based stock options, restricted stock unit awards, and performance-based restricted stock unit awards held by each of the named executive officers that would be accelerated assuming a qualifying termination in connection with the change in control. The terms of equity acceleration under the applicable employment agreements and equity award agreements are described in more detail above in the section entitled "—Equity Acceleration." Set forth below are the values of each type of unvested equity-based award that would vest upon a qualifying termination based on a price per share of Angie's List common stock of $10.40, the average closing price per share of Angie's List common stock over the first five business days following the announcement of the execution of the Merger Agreement.

- (4) The amounts reflect the payment(s) of COBRA premiums for 18 months provided under the employment agreements or offer letters entered into with Messrs. Durchslag, Fox, and Howell and Ms. Shaw, assuming Angie's List terminates the officer's employment without cause or the officer terminates his or her employment for good reason, in each case within six months prior to or 18 months following the change in control (for Mr. Durchslag) or within six months prior to or 12 months following the change in control (for Messrs. Fox and Howell) or within three months prior to or 18 months following the change in control (for Ms. Shaw). The COBRA premiums under the applicable employment agreements or offer letters are described in more detail above in the section entitled "— Angie's List Employment Agreements and Offer Letters with Angie's List's Executive Officers."

Board Composition

At the Effective Time, the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will consist of six members designated by IAC, an additional two directors designated by IAC who will qualify as "independent" pursuant to the NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors, who will be Thomas R. Evans and Angela R. Hicks Bowman, if they continue to be able and willing to serve. ANGI Homeservices has not entered into and does not plan to enter into an employment agreement with Mr. Evans, although he will be entitled to compensation for his service as a non-employee member of the board of directors, as described in the section entitled "ANGI Homeservices Director Compensation." ANGI Homeservices has entered into an employment agreement with Ms. Hicks Bowman, which is summarized below. For further information regarding the composition of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors from and after the Effective Time, see the section entitled "Board of Directors and Executive Officers of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

ANGI Homeservices Employment Agreement with Ms. Hicks Bowman

On June 29, 2017, ANGI Homeservices and Ms. Hicks Bowman entered into an employment agreement, pursuant to which Ms. Hicks Bowman will serve as the Chief Customer Officer of ANGI Homeservices following the completion of the Transactions. The employment agreement has a scheduled term of one year from the date of completion of the Transactions and provides for automatic renewals for successive one-year terms absent written notice from ANGI Homeservices or Ms. Hicks Bowman 60 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term.

The employment agreement provides that Ms. Hicks Bowman will be eligible to receive an annual base salary of $500,000, discretionary annual cash bonuses, equity awards and such other employee benefits as may be reasonably determined by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. Under the terms of the employment agreement, following the completion of the Transactions, Ms. Hicks Bowman will be granted an option to purchase 250,000 shares of Class A common stock of ANGI Homeservices that will vest 25% per year on the first four anniversaries of the grant date, subject to Ms. Hicks Bowman's continued employment with ANGI Homeservices, and will have an exercise price equal to the closing price of the Class A common stock of ANGI Homeservices on the grant date.

Upon certain involuntary terminations of Ms. Hicks Bowman's employment and subject to her execution and non-revocation of a release and compliance with the restrictive covenants described in the next paragraph: (i) ANGI Homeservices will continue to pay Ms. Hicks Bowman her annual base salary for one year following such termination, (ii) any Angie's List equity awards that convert into equity awards of ANGI Homeservices will vest as of such date of termination, (iii) all vested and outstanding ANGI Homeservices stock options held by Ms. Hicks Bowman as of the date of such termination will remain outstanding and exercisable for 18 months from the date of such termination, and (iv) ANGI Homeservices will provide continued health benefits coverage for 12 months following the termination of Ms. Hicks Bowman's employment.

Pursuant to her employment agreement, Ms. Hicks Bowman is bound by a covenant not to compete with the businesses of ANGI Homeservices during the term of her employment and for 12 months after certain involuntary terminations and covenants not to solicit IAC's employees or business partners during the term of her employment and for 18 months after such a termination. In addition, Ms. Hicks Bowman has agreed not to use or disclose any confidential information of IAC or its affiliates. The employment agreement also grants to ANGI Homeservices the right to use Ms. Hicks Bowman's likeness for the promotion of ANGI Homeservices.

The employment agreement with Ms. Hicks Bowman will become effective subject to, and upon the consummation of, the Transactions.

Indemnification; Directors' and Officers' Insurance

Angie's List is party to indemnification agreements with each of its directors and executive officers that require Angie's List, among other things, to indemnify the directors and executive officers against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors or officers. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Angie's List's directors and executive officers will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification from ANGI Homeservices and the surviving corporation in the Merger and coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies. Such indemnification and insurance coverage is further described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Indemnification and Insurance for Angie's List's Directors, Officers and Employees."

Other

Ms. Hicks Bowman and Mr. Evans are the only current Angie's List directors or officers that are expected to join either the board of directors or the executive management team of ANGI Homeservices.

Litigation Related to the Merger

On July 18, 2017, a putative class action complaint, captioned Parshall v. Angie's List, Inc., C.A. No. 1:17-cv-02418 (the "Parshall Action"), was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana in connection with the Merger. On July 20, 2017, a similar class action lawsuit was filed in the same court, captioned Pill v. Angie's List, Inc., C.A. No. 1:17-cv-02461 (the "Pill Action") (together, the two actions are referred to as the "Actions"). The complaints in both the Parshall Action and the Pill Action named as defendants ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub, IAC, Angie's List and the members of the Angie's List board of directors.

The complaints in the Actions allege that Angie's List, the members of the Angie's List board of directors, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub allegedly omitted and/or misrepresented certain information in the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part in violation of the Exchange Act and related SEC regulations. The alleged omissions and/or misrepresentations generally relate to (i) certain of Angie's List's and the HomeAdvisor Business's financial projections, (ii) certain data and inputs underlying the financial analyses, (iii) certain interests of Angie's List's directors and executive officers in the Transactions, and (iv) the background of the Transactions.

The Actions collectively seek the following relief: (i) ordering that the Actions be maintained as a class action and certifying the plaintiffs as the class representative and the plaintiff's counsel as class counsel, (ii) preliminarily and permanently enjoining the defendants and all persons acting in concert with them from proceeding with, consummating or closing the Transactions, (iii) directing the Angie's List board of directors to disseminate a Form S-4 that does not contain any untrue statements of material fact and that states all material facts required in it or necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading, (iv) in the event the defendants consummate the Transactions, rescinding them and setting them aside or awarding rescissory damages to the plaintiffs and the class,

(v) declaring that the defendants violated Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act, as well as Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder, and/or Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act, (vi) directing the defendants to account to the plaintiffs and the class for damages sustained, (vii) awarding the plaintiffs the costs of the Actions, including reasonable allowance for plaintiffs' attorneys and experts' fees, and (viii) granting such other and further relief as the court may deem just and proper.

The defendants consider the claims asserted to be without merit. Notwithstanding that belief, one of the conditions to the Closing is that no court or other governmental authority in a competent jurisdiction (which would include the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana) has issued an injunction or similar order prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions. As such, if the plaintiffs are successful in obtaining an injunction prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, then such injunction may prevent the Merger from becoming effective or from becoming effective within the expected timeframe.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following section summarizes certain material provisions of the Merger Agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated herein by reference. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. The following summary and the Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices, their respective subsidiaries and affiliates, and the Transactions that is contained in (including the information incorporated by reference into) this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

The Merger Agreement and this summary of its terms have been included in this proxy statement/prospectus to provide you with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement and this summary are not intended to provide any other information (financial or otherwise) about Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement (i) were made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement and as of specific dates, (ii) are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, (iii) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties to the Merger Agreement, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk among the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing those matters as facts, and (iv) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties to the Merger Agreement that differ from those applicable to investors. You should not rely on these representations, warranties or covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions relating to Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub, their respective subsidiaries or affiliates, or the HomeAdvisor Business. In addition, such representations and warranties will not survive the Closing. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of these representations, warranties and covenants may have changed after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates.

The Merger, the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, prior to the Closing, IAC will contribute its HomeAdvisor Business, along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration, if any, to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices. For further details regarding the Contribution, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Contribution Agreement." At the Effective Time, Merger Sub will merge with and into Angie's List, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and Angie's List will continue as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices.

At the Effective Time, each share of Angie's List common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election (i) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive a Class A share of ANGI Homeservices has been properly made and not revoked or lost, one Class A share (the "Share Consideration" which, together with the Share Consideration, is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Merger Consideration") or (ii) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been properly made and not revoked or lost, $8.50 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration"), but subject to the proration provisions described below.

There is no requirement for any Angie's List stockholder to receive Cash Consideration in the Merger. If no Angie's List stockholder elects to receive the Cash Consideration, 100% of the consideration paid in the Merger will be in the form of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares, if applicable).

Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

ANGI Homeservices will not issue any fractional Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices in the Merger. Instead, in lieu of any fractional Class A shares, the exchange agent (as described below under "—Exchange Agent; Exchange and Payment Procedures") will issue a cash payment (without interest) in an amount representing the applicable Angie's List stockholder's proportionate interest in the net proceeds from the sale by the exchange agent of the aggregated amount of all such fractional Class A shares that would otherwise have been issued.

No right to fair value or appraisal or similar rights will be available to Angie's List stockholders with respect to the Merger or the other Transactions.

Treatment of Angie's List Equity Awards in the Merger

Options. Each option to purchase shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an option to purchase (i) that number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices equal to the total number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) at a per-share exercise price equal to the exercise price per share of Angie's List common stock at which such Angie's List option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time. Each ANGI Homeservices option will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Restricted Stock Unit Awards. Each award of restricted stock units that corresponds to shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award with respect to a number of Class A shares equal to the number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time (assuming satisfaction of any applicable performance goals at the target performance level with respect to Angie's List performance-based restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016). Each ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit awards corresponding to performance-based Angie's List restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016 will vest solely on the basis of service following the Effective Time.

Unless IAC and Angie's List otherwise agree, the closing of the Merger, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Closing," will take place (i) on September 29, 2017, if all of the conditions to the Closing set forth in the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waived, other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions at the Closing or (ii) if such conditions have not been satisfied or waived on September 29, 2017, on the third business day after all of the conditions to the Closing set forth in the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waived, other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions at the Closing. For further details regarding these conditions, see the section entitled "—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger." The date on which the Closing actually occurs is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Closing Date."

Concurrently with the Closing, Angie's List and Merger Sub will cause a certificate of merger effecting the Merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware. The Merger will become effective at the time the certificate of merger is filed, unless the parties to the Merger Agreement agree to make the Merger effective at another, later date and/or time and specify such time in the certificate of merger. The time at which the Merger is deemed effective under Delaware law is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Effective Time."

IAC and Angie's List expect the Closing to occur in the late third quarter or early fourth quarter of 2017, subject to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the Merger. See the section entitled "—Conditions to the Closing of the Merger."

Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration

Merger Consideration Elections. Pursuant to the election procedures described below, each Angie's List stockholder will be able to specify whether such stockholder desires to receive, in exchange for each share of Angie's List common stock held by such stockholder as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, either (i) one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices or (ii) $8.50 in cash, without interest. The election form will permit Angie's List stockholders to choose (1) all Share Consideration, (2) all Cash Consideration or (3) Share Consideration for specified shares of Angie's List common stock held by such stockholder and Cash Consideration for other specified shares of Angie's List common stock held by such stockholder. The election form will also permit each Angie's List stockholder to specify the order in which the election should apply if the election is subject to proration of the Cash Consideration, as described below. Any share of Angie's List common stock for which the exchange agent does not receive an effective, properly completed election on or before the election deadline described below will receive Share Consideration in the Merger.

There is no requirement for any Angie's List stockholder to receive Cash Consideration in the Merger. If no Angie's List stockholder elects to receive the Cash Consideration, 100% of the consideration paid in the Merger will be in the form of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares, if applicable).

Consideration Election Forms and Procedures. Angie's List will cause to be mailed or delivered an election form to each Angie's List stockholder as of the close of business on August 25, 2017, which is the record date for the Angie's List special meeting. Angie's List will mail the election forms at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline. The election forms are expected to be mailed on or around August 30, 2017. Angie's List will also make available election forms as may be reasonably requested by anyone who becomes an Angie's List stockholder after the record date for the Angie's List special meeting and prior to the election deadline. The deadline for returning the election forms will be 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on September 28, 2017, the day prior to the date of the Angie's List special meeting, unless another date is agreed in advance by Angie's List and IAC (in which case Angie's List will reasonably promptly announce the rescheduled election deadline). An election will have been properly made only if the exchange agent has received, by the election deadline, an election form properly completed and signed and accompanied by (i) the Angie's List stock certificates, if any, to which such election form relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of Angie's List, and (ii) in the case of book-entry shares of Angie's List common stock, any additional documents specified in the procedures set forth in the election form. The exchange agent will have reasonable discretion to determine if any election is not properly made, and none of Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub or the exchange agent will have any duty to notify any Angie's List stockholder of any defective election form or election.

Changes to Elections Previously Made. Any Angie's List stockholder may, at any time prior to the election deadline, change or revoke such stockholder's election by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline, accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised election form, or by withdrawal prior to the election deadline of such stockholder's Angie's List stock certificates or any documents in respect of book-entry shares of Angie's List previously deposited with the exchange agent. An election may not be revoked after the election deadline. A revocation of an election prior to the election deadline is required in connection with any transfer of shares of Angie's List common stock as to which an election has been properly made. As a result, following the election deadline until the Closing, Angie's List stockholders will not be able to transfer (including by sale) any shares of Angie's List common stock for which an election has been properly made. Any and all elections will be automatically deemed revoked upon receipt by the exchange agent of written notice from Angie's List or IAC that the Merger Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms.

Aggregate Cash Consideration Cap and Proration Procedures. Under the Merger Agreement, the aggregate Cash Consideration payable in the Merger is capped at $130 million.

If the aggregate number of shares of Angie's List common stock in respect of which Cash Consideration is properly elected (as described above) is less than or equal to 15,294,118 shares (which is the quotient obtained by dividing the aggregate Cash Consideration cap of $130 million by $8.50, the per-share Cash Consideration amount), then (i) all shares of Angie's List common stock for which Cash Consideration was properly elected will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration and (ii) all other shares of Angie's List common stock (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, including any shares of Angie's List common stock for which no election is properly made.

However, if the aggregate number of shares of Angie's List common stock in respect of which Cash Consideration is properly elected exceeds 15,294,118 shares, then (i) all shares of Angie's List common stock for which Share Consideration was properly elected will be converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration and (ii) the number of shares of Angie's List common stock of each stockholder of Angie's List who properly elected to receive Cash Consideration that will be converted into the right to receive the Cash Consideration will be equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the number of shares for which such Angie's List stockholder properly elected the Cash Consideration by (2) a fraction, the numerator of which is 15,294,118, and the denominator of which is the aggregate number of shares for which all Angie's List stockholders properly elected the Cash Consideration, rounded to the nearest whole share. All other shares of Angie's List common stock (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration in the Merger, including any shares of Angie's List common stock for which no election is properly made. As an illustration of this possible outcome, if the exchange agent has received proper elections (not properly withdrawn) for the Cash Consideration in respect of 25,000,000 shares of Angie's List common stock as of the election deadline, then an Angie's List stockholder who properly elected to receive the Cash Consideration in respect of 10 shares of Angie's List common stock will receive the Cash Consideration in respect of six of those shares (or $51 in the aggregate), and the Share Consideration in respect of the other four shares for which Cash Consideration was elected. This illustrative proration is calculated as the product of (i) the quotient of 15,294,118 divided by 25,000,000 (the number of shares for which Cash Consideration was properly elected), which equals 0.612, multiplied by (ii) 10, the number of shares of Angie's List common stock in respect of which the hypothetical stockholder properly elected the Cash Consideration. This amount (6.12) is then rounded to the nearest whole number, which is 6, and the stockholder will receive $51 in exchange for six shares of Angie's List common stock (i.e., 6 multiplied by $8.50). Had the aggregate Cash Consideration cap not been exceeded (i.e., if the Cash Consideration was properly elected in respect of 15,294,118 or fewer shares of Angie's List common stock in the aggregate), then the hypothetical stockholder would have received $85 in cash, without interest, in respect of such stockholder's 10 shares, and no Share Consideration.

Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC

Prior to the Effective Time, IAC will contribute its HomeAdvisor Business, along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration, if any, to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices. For further details regarding the Contribution, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Contribution Agreement." The number of Class B shares to be issued to IAC in connection with the Contribution will be calculated by IAC on the business day prior to the anticipated Closing Date, based on the number of shares of Angie's List common stock, Angie's List equity awards and HomeAdvisor stock appreciation rights, in each case, outstanding as of 5:00 p.m. Eastern time on the second business day prior to the anticipated Closing Date.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the number of Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued to IAC in connection with the Contribution will equal the sum of (i) the quotient, rounded to the nearest whole number, of (1) (a) the HomeAdvisor Allocation of Combined Company Implied Value (as defined below) less (b) the sum of (x) the aggregate value of the spread between the exercise price and the implied HomeAdvisor share price of specified vested HomeAdvisor stock appreciation rights outstanding as of immediately prior to the anticipated Effective Time and (y) 50% of the aggregate value of the spread between the exercise price and the implied share price of specified unvested HomeAdvisor stock appreciation rights outstanding as of immediately prior to the anticipated Effective Time (each computed in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement) divided by (2) the Unaffected ANGI Price (as defined below), plus (ii) the aggregate number of shares of Angie's List common stock for which Cash Consideration has been properly elected (unless such number exceeds the maximum number of shares for which Cash Consideration may become payable under the Merger Agreement, in which case this last number will be capped at 15,294,118).

Under the Merger Agreement, the "HomeAdvisor Allocation of Combined Company Implied Value" is defined as the product, rounded to the nearest whole cent, of (i) the sum of (1) the product of (a) the number of shares of Angie's List common stock that will be outstanding as of immediately prior to the anticipated Effective Time, excluding any shares of common stock scheduled to be issued in respect of Angie's List restricted stock unit awards between the measurement time and the anticipated Effective Time (and, for the avoidance of doubt, excluding any Angie's List shares held in treasury or held by a subsidiary of Angie's List), multiplied by (b) the average of the daily dollar-volume-weighted average price for Angie's List common stock on NASDAQ for each of the ten trading days immediately preceding the anticipated Closing Date, subject to certain adjustments set forth in the Merger Agreement if such average trading price is less than $8.50 (such average trading price, after any such required adjustment, the "Unaffected ANGI Price"), plus (2) the product of (a) the net value of the Angie's List equity awards outstanding as of immediately prior to the anticipated Effective Time (computed in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement) multiplied by (b) the quotient of the Unaffected ANGI Price divided by the average of the daily dollar-volume-weighted average price for Angie's List common stock on NASDAQ for each of the ten trading days immediately preceding the anticipated Closing Date (which may or may not be equal to one), multiplied by (ii) 6.6923 (which is 0.87 divided by 0.13).

Immediately following the Closing, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive Cash Consideration, former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards are expected to hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing between approximately 10% (assuming Angie's List stockholders elect to receive the maximum aggregate Cash Consideration) and 13% (assuming no Angie's List stockholders elect to receive Cash Consideration) of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, and IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

Within two business days after the first anniversary of the Closing Date, ANGI Homeservices and IAC will calculate the number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices underlying the Angie's List equity awards assumed by ANGI Homeservices in the Merger that were forfeited during the period commencing at the Closing and ending on the first anniversary of the Closing Date. (i) If the actual number of such forfeited shares exceeds 2,300,000 (which is the number of forfeited shares assumed for purposes of the calculation to be made prior to the Closing), then a number of Class B shares held by IAC equal to the number of such excess will be cancelled, thereby reducing IAC's proportionate ownership of ANGI Homeservices relative to the holders of Class A shares, and (ii) if the actual number of such forfeited shares is less than 2,300,000, then a number of additional Class B shares will be issued to IAC equal to the number of such deficit, thereby increasing IAC's proportionate ownership of ANGI Homeservices relative to the holders of Class A shares.

Governance of ANGI Homeservices and Organizational Documents of ANGI Homeservices and Angie's List Following the Closing

ANGI Homeservices. At or prior to the Closing, IAC will cause the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of ANGI Homeservices to be amended and restated in their entirety to read as set forth in the exhibits to the Merger Agreement, and as so amended and restated, those will be the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of ANGI Homeservices until thereafter amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law. For details regarding certain terms of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that will be in effect at the Closing, see the sections entitled "Description of ANGI Homeservices Capital Stock" and "Comparison of the Rights of Angie's List Stockholders and Holders of Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices."

The Merger Agreement provides that the initial board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors. The directors selected by Angie's List will be Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be able and willing to serve. The Merger Agreement further provides that the chairman of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will be Joseph Levin, the current Chief Executive Officer of IAC, and that the Chief Executive Officer of ANGI Homeservices will be Chris Terrill, the current Chief Executive Officer of HomeAdvisor (US). For additional information regarding the expected directors and officers of ANGI

Homeservices, see the section entitled "Board of Directors and Executive Officers of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger."

The Merger Agreement also provides that at the Closing, IAC and ANGI Homeservices will enter into the Investor Rights Agreement, the terms of which are described in the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Angie's List. From and after the Effective Time, Angie's List will be a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices. The Merger Agreement provides that, at the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Angie's List will be amended and restated in their entirety to read as set forth in the applicable exhibits to the Merger Agreement. The forms of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Angie's List that will become effective at the Effective Time are different from the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Angie's List in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, with many of the changes made to reflect that Angie's List will be a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices (and will no longer have public stockholders) from and after the Effective Time. However, the forms of certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Angie's List that will become effective at the Effective Time include provisions regarding exculpation of directors, indemnification of and advance of expenses to directors and officers, and the power of Angie's List to purchase and maintain related insurance that are substantially identical to those set forth in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Angie's List in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The forms of certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Angie's List that will become effective at the Effective Time are included as exhibits to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and are incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference.

Exchange Agent; Exchange and Payment Procedures

Prior to the Closing, IAC will enter into an agreement with a bank or trust company to act as exchange agent on behalf ANGI Homeservices for payment of the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration (if any) in the Merger. The identity and the terms of appointment of the exchange agent must be reasonably acceptable to Angie's List. The parties expect that Computershare Trust Company, N.A. and Computershare, Inc. will serve as the exchange agent.

Prior to the Closing, IAC will deposit or cause ANGI Homeservices to deposit with the exchange agent (i) evidence of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices in book-entry form (and/or stock certificates, at IAC's election) representing the number of Class A shares issuable in the Merger and (ii) cash in immediately available funds in an amount sufficient to deliver the aggregate Cash Consideration properly elected to be received by Angie's List stockholders pursuant to the election procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the Closing (and no later than the tenth business day after the Closing Date), ANGI Homeservices will cause the exchange agent to mail to each holder of record of Angie's List common stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Share Consideration and/or the Cash Consideration a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Angie's List stock certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for the applicable Merger Consideration.

Upon surrender of Angie's List stock certificates or book-entry shares to the exchange agent, along with a completed and signed letter of transmittal and any other documents as may customarily be required by the exchange agent, the holder of the surrendered shares will be entitled to receive the applicable Merger Consideration in exchange for such surrendered shares as promptly as practicable after the Closing (and no later than five business days after the Closing and the surrender of such shares, whichever is later). No interest will accrue or be paid on any cash payable upon surrender of any Angie's List shares. The amount of any Merger Consideration to be paid to any Angie's List stockholder may be reduced as required by any applicable tax laws.

If any portion of the Merger Consideration deposited with the exchange agent is not claimed within 180 days of the Closing Date, then it will be delivered to ANGI Homeservices upon its demand. Thereafter, any Angie's List stockholder who has not complied with the exchange procedures of the Merger Agreement may thereafter look only to ANGI Homeservices or Angie's List (subject to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws) as general creditor for payment of the applicable Merger Consideration. None of IAC, ANGI Homeservices, Angie's List, Merger Sub or the exchange agent will be liable to any person for any portion of the Merger Consideration or amounts deposited with the exchange agent that are delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of the Merger Consideration that remains undistributed to Angie's List stockholders as of the second anniversary of the Closing Date (or immediately prior to any earlier date on which the applicable Merger Consideration would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any governmental entity) will, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of Angie's List as the surviving company in the Merger, free and clear of all claims or interest of any other person.

The letter of transmittal will include instructions for obtaining payment of the Merger Consideration if an Angie's List stockholder has lost his, her or its stock certificate or if such certificate has been stolen, mutilated or destroyed. If an Angie's List stockholder has lost a stock certificate, or if such certificate has been stolen, mutilated or destroyed, then before such stockholder will be entitled to receive the applicable Merger Consideration, such stockholder will have to make an affidavit of the loss, theft, mutilation or destruction and may be required to post a bond in such amount as ANGI Homeservices or the exchange agent may determine is reasonably necessary as indemnity against any claim that may be made with respect to such lost, stolen, mutilated or destroyed certificate.

Representations and Warranties; Material Adverse Effect

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Angie's List, on the one hand, and IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub, on the other hand, have made certain representations and warranties to each other as of the date of the Merger Agreement. These representations and warranties will also be made, subject to certain materiality, "material adverse effect," knowledge and other qualifications, as of the Closing Date (except for certain representations and warranties that by their terms address matters only as of a specified date, which are and will be made only as of such date). These representations and warranties relate to, among other things, the following:

- legal organization, qualification, corporate power and good standing, organizational documents and ownership of subsidiaries;
- capital structure;
- corporate power and authority to enter into the Merger Agreement and to enter into or deliver the other agreements contemplated by the Merger Agreement and to consummate the Transactions;
- the need for approval of, or notice to, governmental entities;
- the absence of conflicts with, or violations of, organizational documents or applicable laws;
- consents and approvals relating to the Merger and the other Transactions;
- SEC reports and financial statements;
- internal controls and procedures;
- the absence of undisclosed liabilities;
- compliance with applicable laws and permits;

Table of Contents

- compliance with environmental laws and regulations;
- employee benefit matters;
- labor and employment matters;
- the absence of certain changes or events since January 1, 2017 through the date of the Merger Agreement;
- investigations and litigation matters;
- the accuracy of information supplied or to be supplied for use in this proxy statement/prospectus or the registration statement on Form S-4 of which it forms a part;
- tax matters;
- intellectual property matters;
- insurance policies;
- broker's fees payable in connection with the Merger; and
- transactions with affiliates.

IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub have also made representations and warranties to Angie's List regarding (i) the sufficiency of the assets to be held by or licensed to ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries following the Contribution, (ii) the absence of ownership by any of them of Angie's List common stock, (iii) the lack of any vote required of the stockholders of IAC or ANGI Homeservices to approve the Transactions and (iv) the absence of guarantees of indebtedness by ANGI Homeservices of IAC or any of IAC's affiliates following the Effective Time.

Angie's List has also made representations and warranties to IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub regarding (i) material contracts of Angie's List and its subsidiaries, (ii) its owned and leased real property and other assets, (iii) receipt of an opinion from each of its financial advisors and (iv) the inapplicability or absence of state anti-takeover statutes, regulations or provisions under applicable law or under the Angie's List organizational documents.

Certain of the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement are qualified as to "materiality" or "material adverse effect." None of the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement will survive the Closing, and the Merger Agreement does not contain any post-closing indemnification obligations with respect to breaches of any of the representations and warranties.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a "material adverse effect" with respect to either Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business means any event, circumstance, change, effect, development, occurrence or combination of the foregoing that individually or in the aggregate (i) prevents, materially impedes or materially delays, or would prevent, materially impede or materially delay, the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions, or (ii) has had a material adverse effect on the business, condition (financial or otherwise) or results of operations of Angie's List and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole (in the case of a material adverse effect on Angie's List), or the HomeAdvisor Business (in the case of a material adverse effect on it). However, in the case of the foregoing clause (ii), no event, circumstance, change, effect, development or occurrence resulting from or arising out of any of the following will be deemed (either alone or in combination) to constitute a "material adverse effect":

- changes in general economic, business, credit, capital or other financial market conditions (including prevailing interest rates);

- any changes or developments generally in the industries in which Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries conducts business (in the case of Angie's List) or in which the HomeAdvisor Business operates (in the case of the HomeAdvisor Business);
- the announcement or the existence of, or compliance with or performance under, the Merger Agreement, the other agreements contemplated by the Merger Agreement or the Transactions (subject to certain limited exceptions);
- any taking of, or any failure in taking, any action at the request or with the express prior consent of (1) IAC, ANGI Homeservices or Merger Sub, in the case of Angie's List, or (2) Angie's List, in the case of the HomeAdvisor Business;
- changes in applicable law, GAAP or accounting standards;
- any earthquakes, floods, tornadoes, fires or natural disasters or outbreak or escalation of hostilities, acts of war, sabotage or terrorism;
- any litigation or other proceeding in connection with the Merger Agreement or the Transactions; or
- the failure of Angie's List or any of the HomeAdvisor Entities, as applicable, to meet any internal or published projections, forecasts, estimates or predictions in respect of revenues, earnings or other financial or operating metrics, or (in the case of Angie's List only) changes in the market price or trading volume of Angie's List common stock or the credit rating of Angie's List (although the underlying facts giving rise or contributing to any failure or change described in this bullet point may be taken into account in determining whether there has been a "material adverse effect" if such failure or change is not otherwise excluded by another of the bullet points listed in this paragraph).

However, with respect to the matters described in the first, second, fifth and sixth bullet points listed above, an event, circumstance, change, effect, development or occurrence may be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred if and to the extent that such event, circumstance, change, effect, development or occurrence disproportionately affects (i) in the case of Angie's List, Angie's List and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, relative to other similarly situated companies in the industries in which Angie's List and its subsidiaries conduct their business or (ii) in the case of the HomeAdvisor Business, the HomeAdvisor Business, taken as a whole, relative to other similarly situated companies in the industries in which the HomeAdvisor Business operates.

Conduct of Business from the Execution of the Merger Agreement Until the Closing

Under the Merger Agreement, each of Angie's List and IAC (with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business) has agreed to specified restrictions on the conduct of its business between the date of the Merger Agreement and the Closing. In general, Angie's List has agreed to conduct its business, and IAC has agreed to conduct the HomeAdvisor Business, in the ordinary course of business in all material respects, and Angie's List and IAC must use their respective reasonable best efforts to preserve intact the present lines of business, maintain their rights, franchises and permits and preserve relationships with employees, customers and suppliers with respect to Angie's List and the HomeAdvisor Business, respectively.

In addition, from the date of the Merger Agreement until the Closing (or, if earlier, the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms), Angie's List has agreed not to take any of the following actions (except (i) with the prior written consent of IAC, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, (ii) as may be expressly contemplated or required by the Merger Agreement, (iii) as set forth in specified confidential disclosure schedules delivered to IAC or (iv) as permitted by specified exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement):

- amend or restate its organizational documents or permit any of its subsidiaries to amend or restate their respective organizational documents;
- (i) split, combine or reclassify any of its capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its capital stock or (ii) repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of or other ownership interest in Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for any such shares or ownership interest (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- authorize or pay any dividends on or make any distribution with respect to outstanding shares of its capital stock, or permit any non-wholly owned subsidiary to do so with respect to its capital stock;
- adopt (or permit any subsidiary to adopt) a plan of complete or partial liquidation, dissolution, merger, consolidation, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization or take any action with respect to any securities owned by it or any of its subsidiaries that would reasonably be expected to prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the Merger;
- acquire, or permit any subsidiary to acquire, any other person or business or make any loans, advances or capital contributions to, or investments in, any other person or entity with a value in excess of $250,000 in the aggregate;
- sell, lease, license, transfer, exchange, swap or otherwise dispose of or encumber any properties or assets with a value in excess of $500,000 in the aggregate (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- authorize, or permit any subsidiary to authorize, any capital expenditures in excess of $250,000 per month in the aggregate;
- modify, amend, terminate or waive any material rights under any "material contract" (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or enter into any new contract that (i) would be a "material contract" or (ii) has a term in excess of two years (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- change or permit any subsidiary to change any material financial accounting policies or procedures or any of its methods of reporting income, deductions or other material items;
- issue, sell, pledge, dispose of or encumber, or authorize the issuance, sale, pledge, disposition or encumbrance of, any shares of capital stock of or other ownership interest in Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for any such shares or ownership interest, or any rights, warrants or options to acquire any such shares of capital stock, ownership interest or convertible or exchangeable securities, or take any action to cause to be exercisable any otherwise unexercisable option under any existing Angie's List benefit plan (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- incur, assume, guarantee or otherwise become liable for any liabilities for borrowed money or other indebtedness or related obligations or any guarantee of any of the foregoing (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- waive, release, assign, settle or compromise any claim, action or proceeding (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions), other than waivers, releases, assignments, settlements or compromises that do not exceed $500,000 individually and $1,000,000 in the aggregate and do not involve any admission of wrongdoing or equitable relief;

- (i) increase the compensation or benefits payable or to become payable to any of its directors, officers, employees or individual independent contractors, (ii) grant to any of its directors, officers, employees or individual independent contractors any increase in severance or termination pay, (iii) pay or award, or commit to pay or award, any bonuses or incentive compensation, (iv) enter into any employment, severance or retention agreement (excluding offer letters that provide for no severance or change in control benefits) with any of its directors, officers, employees or individual independent contractors, (v) establish, adopt, enter into, amend or terminate any collective bargaining agreement or benefit plan, (vi) take any action to accelerate any payment or benefit, or the funding of any payment or benefit, payable or to become payable to any of its directors, officers, employees or individual independent contractors, (vii) terminate the employment of any employee or individual independent contractor whose total annual cash compensation exceeds $150,000, other than for poor performance or for "cause," or (viii) hire any employee or individual independent contractor whose total annual cash compensation exceeds $150,000;
- (i) abandon, cancel, fail to renew, permit to lapse or fail to defend any challenge to any of its material registered intellectual property or (ii) sell, transfer, license or otherwise encumber any of its material intellectual property (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions), other than non-exclusive licenses entered into in the ordinary course of business;
- change or revoke any material tax election, change any tax accounting period or material tax accounting method, file any material amended tax return, enter into any closing agreement relating to material taxes, request any material tax ruling, settle or compromise any material tax claim, liability or refund, extend the statutory period of limitations with respect to the assessment or collection of any material tax, or surrender any claim for a material refund of taxes; or
- agree or permit any subsidiary to agree to take any of the actions described in any of the foregoing bullet points.

In addition, Angie's List has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to make marketing expenditures in the remaining months of the 2017 calendar year in specified aggregate amounts, with determinations regarding the allocation of such amounts among various marketing programs to be made by Angie's List in its reasonable discretion.

From the date of the Merger Agreement until the Closing (or, if earlier, the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms), IAC has agreed, on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries, that IAC will not take any of the following actions (except (i) with the prior written consent of Angie's List, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, (ii) as may be expressly contemplated or required by the Merger Agreement, (iii) as set forth in specified confidential disclosure schedules delivered to Angie's List, (iv) as permitted by specified exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement or (v) pursuant to the restructuring or reorganization of the assets and liabilities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business in accordance with the Contribution Agreement):

- amend or restate (or permit the amendment or restatement of) the organizational documents of ANGI Homeservices or any of the HomeAdvisor Entities in any manner that would reasonably be expected to (i) prevent, materially delay or materially impair the ability of IAC, ANGI Homeservices or Merger Sub to consummate the Merger or (ii) otherwise be adverse to Angie's List or its stockholders after giving effect to the conversion of Angie's List common stock in exchange for the applicable Merger Consideration pursuant to the Merger Agreement;
- permit ANGI Homeservices or any of the HomeAdvisor Entities to (i) split, combine or reclassify any of its capital stock or issue or authorize the issuance of any other securities in respect of, in lieu of or in substitution for shares of its capital stock or (ii) repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of or other ownership interest in the HomeAdvisor Entities or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for any such shares or ownership interest;

- adopt a plan of complete or partial liquidation, dissolution, merger, consolidation, restructuring, recapitalization or other reorganization with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business, or permit ANGI Homeservices or any of the HomeAdvisor Entities to do any of the foregoing;
- make any acquisition of any other person or business or make any loan, advance or capital contribution to, or investment in, any other person or entity, which acquisition, loan, advance, capital contribution or investment would reasonably be expected to materially delay or impede the consummation of the Merger (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- sell, lease, license, transfer, exchange, swap or otherwise dispose of or encumber any properties or assets of the HomeAdvisor Business with a value in excess of $5 million in the aggregate (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- issue, sell, pledge, dispose of or encumber, or authorize the issuance, sale, pledge, disposition or encumbrance of, any shares of the capital stock or other ownership interest in any of the HomeAdvisor Entities or any securities convertible into or exchangeable for any such shares or ownership interest, any rights, warrants or options to acquire any such shares of capital stock, ownership interest or convertible or exchangeable securities or any equity award of a HomeAdvisor Entity (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- permit the HomeAdvisor Business or any HomeAdvisor Entity to incur, assume, guarantee or otherwise become liable for any indebtedness for borrowed money or any guarantee of such indebtedness;
- enter into (or permit any subsidiary that is not a HomeAdvisor Entity to enter into) any contract with any HomeAdvisor Entity that would be a contract with an affiliate under specified SEC rules and that will not be terminated prior to or at the Closing;
- solely with respect to separate tax returns of ANGI Homeservices, Merger Sub or any of the HomeAdvisor Entities, or tax returns of any consolidated, combined or unitary group which consists solely of the foregoing entities, change or revoke any material income tax election, change any tax accounting period or material tax accounting method, file any material amended tax return, enter into any closing agreement relating to material taxes, request any material tax ruling, settle or compromise any material tax liability or refund, extend the statutory period of limitations with respect to the assessment or collection of any material tax, or surrender any claim for a material refund of taxes (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions);
- abandon, cancel, fail to renew, permit to lapse or fail to defend any challenge to any material registered intellectual property of the HomeAdvisor Business (or permit any subsidiary to take any of the foregoing actions); or
- agree or permit any subsidiary to agree to take any of the actions described in any of the foregoing bullet points.

No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals

Restrictions on Soliciting Alternative Takeover Proposals and Related Requirements. Except as expressly permitted by the Merger Agreement, Angie's List has agreed that it will, and will cause each of its affiliates and each of its and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, financial advisors, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other representatives (collectively referred to as "representatives"):

- to immediately cease and cause to be terminated any solicitation, knowing encouragement, discussions or negotiations with any person that may have been ongoing at the time the Merger Agreement was signed with respect to any Company Takeover Proposal (as defined below);

- to promptly instruct or otherwise request any person that executed a confidentiality agreement with Angie's List from May 1, 2016 to May 1, 2017 in connection with any actual or potential Company Takeover Proposal to return or destroy all such confidential information or documents previously furnished in connection therewith or material incorporating any such information in the possession of such person or its representatives;
- to terminate access by all persons (other than IAC and its representatives) to any physical or electronic data rooms relating to a possible Company Takeover Proposal; and
- from and after May 1, 2017 until the Closing (or, if earlier, the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance its terms), not to, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:
 - solicit, initiate or knowingly facilitate or knowingly encourage (including by furnishing confidential information) any inquiries regarding, or the making, submission or announcement by any person of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a Company Takeover Proposal;
 - engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding a Company Takeover Proposal, or furnish to any other person (other than IAC and its representatives) any information relating to Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries, or afford access to the business, properties, assets, books or records of Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries to any person (other than IAC and its representatives), in each case in connection with or for the purpose of encouraging or facilitating a Company Takeover Proposal (other than to refer the inquiring person to the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement);
 - approve, endorse or recommend any Company Takeover Proposal or approve, endorse, recommend or enter into, or propose to approve, endorse, recommend or enter into, any letter of intent or similar document, agreement, commitment or agreement in principle providing for a Company Takeover Proposal; or
 - resolve, propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Definition of Company Takeover Proposal. For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a "Company Takeover Proposal" means (i) any inquiry, proposal or offer for or with respect to (or expression by any person that it is considering or may engage in) a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, binding share exchange, liquidation, dissolution, joint venture or other similar transaction involving Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, taken together, constitute 15% or more of Angie's List's consolidated assets, (ii) any inquiry, proposal or offer (including a tender or exchange offer) to acquire in any manner, directly or indirectly, in one or more transactions, more than 15% of the outstanding common stock of Angie's List or securities of Angie's List representing more than 15% of the voting power of Angie's List or (iii) any inquiry, proposal or offer to acquire in any manner (including the acquisition of stock in any subsidiary of Angie's List), directly or indirectly, in one or more transactions, assets or businesses of Angie's List or its subsidiaries, including pursuant to a joint venture, representing more than 15% of the consolidated assets, revenues or net income of Angie's List, in each of the foregoing cases, excluding the Merger.

Additional Restrictions. Additionally, except as specifically permitted by the Merger Agreement, Angie's List is prohibited from taking any action to exempt any person from the restrictions on "business combinations" contained in Section 203 of the DGCL or the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Angie's List, or otherwise causing such restrictions not to apply. Unless the Angie's List board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that any such action or forbearance would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, Angie's List and its subsidiaries are prohibited from releasing any third party from, or waiving, amending or modifying any provision of, or granting permission under any (i) standstill provision in any agreement to which Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries is a party or (ii) confidentiality provision in any agreement to which Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries is a party (excluding any waiver, amendment, modification or permission under a confidentiality provision that does not, and would not reasonably be likely to, facilitate or encourage a Company Takeover Proposal).

Exception for Superior Proposals. However, notwithstanding the restrictions described above, if at any time from and after May 1, 2017 and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders (but not after), (i) Angie's List receives a bona fide, unsolicited written Company Takeover Proposal from any person that did not result from, directly or indirectly, a breach of the non-solicitation provisions of the Merger Agreement and (ii) the Angie's List board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Company Takeover Proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal (as defined below) and, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Angie's List may:

- furnish, pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement with provisions no less favorable in the aggregate to Angie's List than those applicable to IAC in its confidentiality agreement with Angie's List, information (including nonpublic information) with respect to Angie's List and its subsidiaries, and afford access to the business, properties, assets, employees, officers, contracts, books and records of Angie's List and its subsidiaries, to the person that made such Company Takeover Proposal and its representatives (so long as Angie's List provides to IAC any nonpublic information concerning Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries that is provided or made available to such person or its representatives substantially concurrently with its delivery to such person); and
- engage in or otherwise participate in discussions or negotiations with the person making such Company Takeover Proposal (including making counterproposals) and its representatives regarding such Company Takeover Proposal.

Definition of Superior Proposal. For purposes of the Merger Agreement, a "Superior Proposal" means a bona fide, unsolicited written Company Takeover Proposal (i) that if consummated would result in a third party (or in the case of a direct merger between such third party and Angie's List, the shareholders of such third party) acquiring, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the outstanding Angie's List common stock or more than 50% of the assets of Angie's List and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (ii) that the Angie's List board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, is reasonably capable of being completed, taking into account all financial, legal, regulatory, timing and other aspects of such proposal, including all conditions contained therein and the person making such Company Takeover Proposal and (iii) that the Angie's List board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel (taking into account any changes to the Merger Agreement proposed by IAC in response to such Company Takeover Proposal, and all financial, legal, regulatory, timing and other aspects of such Company Takeover Proposal, including all conditions contained therein and the person making such proposal, and the Merger Agreement), is more favorable to the stockholders of Angie's List from a financial point of view than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements.

Notice Requirements. Angie's List must promptly (and in any event within 24 hours after receipt) notify IAC of any Company Takeover Proposal received by Angie's List or its representatives. The notice must include the identity of the person making the proposal and the material terms and conditions of the proposal. The notice must also include unredacted copies of any written proposal received and indicate whether Angie's List has furnished nonpublic information to, or entered into discussions or negotiations with, such third party. Angie's List must keep IAC reasonably informed on a reasonably current basis as to the status of (including changes to any material terms of, and any other material developments with respect to) any such Company Takeover Proposal.

Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation

Restrictions on Changes to the Angie's List Board Recommendation. As further described in the sections entitled "The Transactions—Joint Reasons of Angie's List and IAC for the Transactions" and "—Angie's List's Reasons for the Transactions; Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors," and subject to the provisions described below, the Angie's List board of directors recommends that Angie's List stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which recommendation is referred to in this section as the "Angie's List board recommendation."

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Angie's List has agreed that its board of directors will not:

- fail to include the Angie's List board recommendation in this proxy statement/prospectus;
- change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify, or authorize or publicly propose to change, qualify, withhold, withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to IAC, the Angie's List board recommendation;
- make, or publicly propose to make, any recommendation in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer (other than a recommendation against such offer or a customary "stop, look and listen" communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act);
- fail to recommend against any Company Takeover Proposal or fail to reaffirm the Angie's List board recommendation within five business days after a request by IAC to do so, subject to certain exceptions and limitations; or
- resolve, agree or publicly propose to take any of the foregoing actions.

Any action described in the foregoing five bullet points is referred to in this section as an "adverse recommendation change."

In addition, the Angie's List board of directors may not authorize, approve or recommend or cause or permit Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries to enter into any letter of intent, agreement, commitment or agreement in principle providing for any Company Takeover Proposal (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement as described above under "—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals").

Exception for Superior Proposals. However, notwithstanding the restrictions on changes to the Angie's List board recommendation described above, at any time prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders, the Angie's List board of directors may make an adverse recommendation change with respect to a Superior Proposal and/or cause Angie's List to terminate the Merger Agreement (which will require concurrent payment of the termination fee to IAC as described below) in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for the consummation of the transaction contemplated by such Superior Proposal, in either case if:

- Angie's List is not in breach of the non-solicitation provisions set forth in the Merger Agreement; and
- after receiving a bona fide, unsolicited written Company Takeover Proposal that did not result from, directly or indirectly, a breach of the non-solicitation provisions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Angie's List board of directors has determined in good faith:
 - after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such Company Takeover Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal; and

- after consultation with its outside legal counsel, in light of such Company Takeover Proposal, that the failure to make such an adverse recommendation change or terminate the Merger Agreement would be reasonably likely to be inconsistent with the Angie's List board of directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Prior to making any adverse recommendation change or terminating the Merger Agreement as described in the preceding paragraph, Angie's List must comply with the following procedures:

- Angie's List must give IAC at least three business days' prior written notice of its intention to make such an adverse recommendation change (and the notice must specify the material terms and conditions of any such Superior Proposal) and must contemporaneously provide IAC with a copy of the Superior Proposal and a copy of any written proposed transaction documents relating to such Superior Proposal (including any financing commitments related thereto);
- Angie's List must negotiate in good faith with IAC during such notice period, to the extent IAC wishes to negotiate in good faith, to enable IAC to propose revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement such that it would cause such Superior Proposal to no longer constitute a Superior Proposal;
- following the end of such notice period, the Angie's List board of directors must have considered in good faith any revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed in writing by IAC, and must have determined, after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the Superior Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal even if the revisions proposed by IAC were to be given effect; and
- in the event of any change to any material terms of such Superior Proposal, Angie's List must have delivered to IAC an additional notice consistent with that described in the first bullet point of this paragraph and a new notice period of two business days (rather than three business days) will then commence, during which time Angie's List must comply with the requirements of the preceding three bullet points anew.

Exception for Intervening Events. Additionally, notwithstanding the restrictions on changes to the Angie's List board recommendation described above, the Angie's List board of directors may make an adverse recommendation change in response to an Intervening Event (as defined below) if the Angie's List board of directors has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that its failure to make an adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Prior to making any adverse recommendation change in response to an Intervening Event, Angie's List must comply with the following procedures:

- Angie's List must give IAC at least four business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action, and the notice must specify in reasonable detail the reasons for the adverse recommendation change;
- Angie's List must negotiate and direct its representatives to negotiate in good faith with IAC during such notice period, to the extent IAC wishes to negotiate in good faith, to enable IAC to propose revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement such that it would not permit the Angie's List board of directors to make an adverse recommendation change under the Merger Agreement; and
- following the end of such notice period, the Angie's List board of directors must have considered in good faith any revisions to the terms of the Merger Agreement proposed by IAC, and must have determined, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to make an adverse recommendation change in response to such Intervening Event would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, an "Intervening Event" means any material event or material development or material change in circumstances first occurring or arising after May 1, 2017 and prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders, if and only if such event, development or change in circumstances was neither known by the Angie's List board of directors (or if known, the consequences of which were not known to or reasonably foreseeable by the Angie's List board of directors) as of or prior to May 1, 2017. However, none of the following may constitute an Intervening Event: (i) the receipt, existence or terms of a Company Takeover Proposal, (ii) changes in and of themselves in the market price or trading volume of Angie's List common stock or IAC common stock or (iii) the fact in and of itself that Angie's List or IAC or the HomeAdvisor Business meets or exceeds or fails to meet or exceed internal or published projections, forecasts or revenue or earnings predictions for any period (although the exceptions described in clauses (ii) and (iii) will not exclude any event, development or change in circumstance underlying any such change in market price or trading volume, or meeting or exceeding, or failure to meet or exceed such projections, forecasts or predictions).

If the Angie's List board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change in response to an Intervening Event, Angie's List will nonetheless continue to be obligated to hold a special meeting of stockholders and submit the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement to its stockholders.

Efforts to Close the Merger

Under the Merger Agreement, each of Angie's List and IAC must use its reasonable best efforts to take or cause to be taken and to do or cause to be done all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Transactions, including:

- making filings and responding to inquiries under the HSR Act;
- defending any lawsuit or other proceeding challenging the Merger Agreement or the consummation of the Transactions; and
- executing and delivering any additional instruments or documents necessary to consummate the Transactions or to fully carry out and document the intent of the Merger Agreement and the other agreements contemplated thereby.

IAC and Angie's List agreed to file their respective initial pre-merger notifications under the HSR Act no later than ten business days after the date of the Merger Agreement. IAC and Angie's List filed such notifications on May 11, 2017 and May 15, 2017, respectively. On June 14, 2017, to give additional time to the DOJ to review the transaction during its initial review period and thus expedite the DOJ's overall review of the transaction, IAC withdrew its Notification and Report Form and re-filed it on June 15, 2017. The applicable waiting period under the HSR Act was terminated early by the FTC effective as of July 13, 2017. See the section entitled "The Transactions—Regulatory Approvals."

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing obligations, but subject to the limitations described in the following two paragraphs, under the Merger Agreement IAC must and must cause its subsidiaries to use its and their respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective the Transactions, including taking all such further action as may be necessary to resolve such objections, if any, as any governmental entity may assert under any antitrust or competition law with respect to the Transactions, and to avoid or eliminate each and every impediment under any such law that may be asserted by any governmental entity with respect to the Transactions so as to enable the

Closing to occur as soon as reasonably practicable (and in any event no later than February 1, 2018), including by:

- proposing, negotiating, committing to and effecting, by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, the sale, divestiture or disposition of any assets or businesses of ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries (including HomeAdvisor (US) and its subsidiaries and Angie's List and its subsidiaries after the Closing); and
- otherwise taking or committing to take any actions that after the Closing would limit the freedom of ANGI Homeservices or its subsidiaries (including HomeAdvisor (US) and its subsidiaries and Angie's List and its subsidiaries after the Closing) with respect to, or their ability to retain, one or more of their businesses, product lines or assets, in each case as may be required in order to avoid the entry of, or to effect the dissolution of, any order, injunction or judgment that would otherwise have the effect of preventing the Closing or delaying the Closing beyond February 1, 2018.

However, IAC and its subsidiaries will only become subject to, or be required to consent or agree to or otherwise take any action with respect to, any requirement, condition, understanding, agreement or order described in the preceding paragraph if it is binding only in the event that the Closing occurs. Additionally, any proposed sale, divestiture or disposition of any assets or businesses of ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries may only occur following the Contribution, and the proceeds of any such sale, divestiture or disposition will be paid to ANGI Homeservices.

Moreover, notwithstanding the preceding two paragraphs, neither IAC nor any of its subsidiaries or affiliates will be required to offer or commit to hold separate, sell, divest or dispose of any assets or businesses of IAC or any of its subsidiaries (including ANGI Homeservices, HomeAdvisor (US) and its subsidiaries and Angie's List and its subsidiaries after the Closing) that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect as measured against Angie's List.

Efforts to Hold the Special Meeting of Angie's List Stockholders to Adopt the Merger Agreement

Subject to specified rights of Angie's List and IAC in certain circumstances to postpone or adjourn the special meeting, Angie's List has agreed to hold a meeting of its stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable for the purpose of obtaining its stockholders' adoption of the Merger Agreement. Angie's List must use its reasonable best efforts to (i) solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and (ii) take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of its stockholders required by the NASDAQ Rules or applicable laws to obtain such approvals.

Indemnification and Insurance for Angie's List's Directors, Officers and Employees

Under the Merger Agreement, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub have agreed that all rights to exculpation, indemnification and advancement of expenses existing as of May 1, 2017 for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Closing in favor of the current or former directors, officers or employees of Angie's List or its subsidiaries as provided in their respective organizational documents or in any agreement will survive the Merger and continue in full force and effect.

Additionally, for a period of six years from the Closing Date, ANGI Homeservices and Angie's List must maintain in effect (to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law) any and all exculpation, indemnification and advancement of expenses provisions of the organizational documents of Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries that were in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time or in any indemnification agreements of Angie's List or its subsidiaries with any of their respective current or former directors, officers or employees in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, and must not amend, repeal or otherwise modify any such provisions or the exculpation, indemnification or advancement of expenses provisions of the organizational documents of Angie's List in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of any individuals who immediately before the Effective Time were current or former directors, officers or employees of Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries.

Moreover, Angie's List (as the surviving company in the Merger) must, and ANGI Homeservices must cause Angie's List to, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless (and advance funds in respect of each of the foregoing to) each current and former director, officer or employee of Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries and each person who served as a director, officer, member, trustee or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, pension or other employee benefit plan or enterprise if such service was at the request or for the benefit of Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries, in each case against any costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages, liabilities and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any actual or threatened claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation arising out of, relating to or in connection with any action or omission by them in their capacities as such occurring or alleged to have occurred whether commenced before or after the Closing.

Moreover, for a period of six years from the Closing Date, ANGI Homeservices must cause to be maintained in effect the coverage provided by the policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance of Angie's List and its subsidiaries in effect as of May 1, 2017, or provide substitute policies for Angie's List and its current and former directors and officers who are covered by such directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance coverage, in either case, of not less than the amounts of such existing coverage and having other terms not less favorable to the insured persons than the directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance coverage with respect to matters existing or arising on or before the Effective Time, including the Transactions. However, ANGI Homeservices will not be required to pay annual premiums in excess of 300% of the last annual premium paid by Angie's List prior to May 1, 2017 in respect of the insurance coverage required to be obtained, but in such case will be obligated to obtain a policy with the greatest coverage possible that does not exceed 300% of the last annual premium paid prior to May 1, 2017. If (i) Angie's List elects, with the prior written consent of IAC, or (ii) IAC elects, then prior to the Closing Angie's List or IAC, as applicable, may (at the cost of ANGI Homeservices) purchase a "tail policy" with respect to acts or omissions occurring or alleged to have occurred prior to the Effective Time that were committed or alleged to have been committed by such indemnified parties in their capacity as such (and if such a "tail policy" is purchased, ANGI Homeservices will have none of the other obligations described in this paragraph).

Other Covenants and Agreements

The Merger Agreement contains certain other covenants and agreements, including those relating to the following:

- cooperation between Angie's List and IAC in the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus;
- confidentiality and access by IAC and Angie's List to the representatives of and specified information about the other party during the period prior to the Closing;
- cooperation between Angie's List and IAC in connection with public announcements relating to the Transactions;
- certain Angie's List employee matters;
- exemptions from the application of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act;
- participation by IAC in the defense or settlement of any stockholder litigation against Angie's List relating to the Transactions;

- actions to be taken or not to be taken for the Merger (or the Merger and a subsequent forward merger described in the Merger Agreement, taken together) to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), or for the Merger, when combined with the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, to qualify as an exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code;
- the listing on NASDAQ of the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued in the Merger;
- the delisting of shares of Angie's List common stock from NASDAQ and deregistration of such shares under the Exchange Act following the Closing;
- Angie's List's obligation to deliver a payoff letter with respect to its credit agreement prior to the Closing;
- one or more Intercompany Notes, pursuant to which IAC or a subsidiary of IAC will provide the funds necessary at the Effective Time to repay the outstanding balance under Angie's List's existing credit agreement;
- certain notifications of IAC and Angie's List to the other party relating to the occurrence of a material adverse effect or material breach of the Merger Agreement;
- IAC's efforts to consummate the Contribution, including the IAC Share Issuance in connection with the Contribution;
- IAC's obligations to cause ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub to perform their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement prior to the Effective Time; and
- IAC's obligation to provide Angie's List, as promptly as reasonably practicable and in no event later than August 1, 2017, certain audited and unaudited combined and consolidated financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business.

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger

The obligations of Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub to effect the Merger are subject to the fulfillment of the following mutual conditions at or prior to the Effective Time. None of these five conditions may be waived by the parties:

- the adoption of the Merger Agreement proposal by Angie's List stockholders;
- the absence of (i) any injunction or other order having been entered by any court or other governmental entity of competent jurisdiction that continues to be in effect and (ii) any law having been adopted or become effective, in each case, prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions, including the Contribution;
- any waiting period (and any extension thereof) under the HSR Act relating to the Transactions having terminated or expired (which condition was satisfied on July 13, 2017);
- (i) the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part having been declared effective by the SEC, (ii) no stop order suspending the effectiveness of such Form S-4 having been issued by the SEC and (iii) no proceedings for that purpose having been initiated or threatened by the SEC; and
- the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued in the Merger having been approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

The obligation of Angie's List to effect the Merger is also subject to the fulfillment of the following additional conditions at or prior to the Effective Time. Any of the following conditions may be waived by Angie's List in its sole discretion, although Angie's List does not have any expectation of waiving or intention to waive any of these conditions:

- the representations and warranties of IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub set forth in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct, subject to specified materiality qualifications set forth in the Merger Agreement, as of May 1, 2017 and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent a representation and warranty is expressly made as of a specific date, in which case such representation and warranty must be true and correct only as of such date);
- IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub must have in all material respects performed all obligations and complied with all covenants required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by them prior to the Effective Time;
- since May 1, 2017, there must not have been any event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined above under "— Representations and Warranties; Material Adverse Effect") with respect to the HomeAdvisor Business;
- each of IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub must have delivered to Angie's List a certificate, dated as of the Closing Date, certifying that the conditions set forth in the preceding three bullet points with respect to its representations, warranties and obligations under the Merger Agreement have been satisfied;
- Angie's List must have received a written opinion from Sidley Austin, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Angie's List, dated as of the Closing Date, and based on the facts, representations, assumptions and exclusions set forth or referred to in such opinion, to the effect that either (i) the Merger (or the Merger and a subsequent forward merger described in the Merger Agreement, taken together) will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or (ii) the Merger, when combined with the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, will qualify as an exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code;
- IAC must have delivered each duly executed Ancillary Agreement to Angie's List and each such agreement must be, or must automatically be at the Effective Time, in full force and effect; and
- the Contribution (including the IAC Share Issuance) must have been completed in accordance with the Contribution Agreement.

The obligation of IAC, ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub to effect the Merger is also subject to the fulfillment of the following additional conditions at or prior to the Effective Time. Any of these the following conditions may be waived by IAC in its sole discretion, although IAC does not have any expectation of waiving or intention to waive any of these conditions:

- the representations and warranties of Angie's List set forth in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct, subject to specified materiality qualifications set forth in the Merger Agreement, as of May 1, 2017 and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent a representation and warranty is expressly made as of a specific date, in which case such representation and warranty must be true and correct only as of such date);
- Angie's List must have in all material respects performed all obligations and complied with all covenants required by the Merger Agreement to be performed or complied with by it prior to the Effective Time;
- since May 1, 2017, there must not have been any event, change, effect, development or occurrence that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined above under "— Representations and Warranties; Material Adverse Effect") with respect to Angie's List;

- Angie's List must have delivered to IAC a certificate, dated as of the Closing Date, certifying that the conditions set forth in the preceding three bullet points have been satisfied; and
- IAC must have received a written opinion from Wachtell Lipton, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to IAC, dated as of the Closing Date, and based on the facts, representations, assumptions and exclusions set forth or referred to in such opinion, to the effect that the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, taken together, will qualify as an exchange as described in Section 351(a) of the Code.

Neither IAC nor Angie's List can be certain when or if the conditions to the Merger described above will be satisfied (or waived), or that the Merger will be completed in a timely manner or at all. For further details regarding the risks associated with the Merger, see the section entitled "Risk Factors."

Termination of the Merger Agreement

Angie's List and IAC may mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the completion of the Merger (including after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders).

In addition, either IAC or Angie's List may terminate the Merger Agreement if:

- the Merger is not consummated on or prior to February 1, 2018 (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if the failure of the Closing to occur by such date was due to a material breach of the Merger Agreement by such party);
- an injunction or other order is entered by a court or other governmental entity of competent jurisdiction permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the Merger or any of the other Transactions, and such injunction or other order has become final and nonappealable (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if the injunction was primarily due to the failure of such party to perform any of its obligations under the Merger Agreement);
- the Angie's List special meeting (including any adjournments or postponements thereof) has concluded without the adoption of Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders; or
- the other party (as referring to IAC in this bullet point, "the other party" also includes ANGI Homeservices and Merger Sub) has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, and such breach or failure to perform (i) if it occurred on or continued to occur on the Closing Date, would result in a failure of a condition to the Closing to be satisfied by such breaching party, and (ii) is incapable of being cured by February 1, 2018 or, if curable by such date, is not cured within 20 business days of receipt of written notice from the other party (provided that this right to terminate will not be available to a party if such party is then in material breach of the Merger Agreement and such breach would result in a failure of a condition to the Closing to be satisfied by such party).

IAC may also terminate the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders if the Angie's List board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change as described above under "—Change in the Angie's List Board Recommendation."

Angie's List may also terminate the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal, as described above under "—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals" (but only if Angie's List enters into such definitive agreement concurrently with the termination of the Merger Agreement and pays the termination fee described below).

Table of ContentsEffects of Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee and Expenses

Except as described below, each party to the Merger Agreement will pay all fees and expenses incurred by it in connection with the Merger and the other Transactions, whether or not the Merger is consummated.

If the Merger Agreement is validly terminated, there will be no liabilities or obligations on the part of any party to the Merger Agreement except for (i) any liabilities arising out of the confidentiality agreement between Angie's List and IAC, (ii) the termination fee described below and (iii) liabilities arising out of or the result of fraud or any willful and material breach of the Merger Agreement occurring prior to its termination, in which case the aggrieved party will not be limited to expense reimbursement or the termination fee described below and will be entitled to all rights and remedies available at law or in equity. The provisions of the Merger Agreement relating to the effects of termination, fees and expenses, termination payments, governing law, jurisdiction, specific enforcement, waiver of jury trial and nonsurvival of representations and warranties, as well as the confidentiality agreement entered into between Angie's List and IAC, will continue in effect notwithstanding any termination of the Merger Agreement.

Angie's List will be obligated to pay IAC a termination fee of $20 million in any of the following circumstances:

- if Angie's List terminates the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by its stockholders in order to enter into a definitive agreement providing for a Superior Proposal;
- if IAC terminates the Merger Agreement prior to the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders because the Angie's List board of directors makes an adverse recommendation change; or
- if a Company Takeover Proposal (as defined above under "—No Solicitation by Angie's List of Alternative Takeover Proposals," except that all references to "15%" in that definition will be deemed references to "50%" for purposes of this termination fee trigger) has been made or communicated to the Angie's List board of directors or has been publicly announced or become publicly known and:
 - such Company Takeover Proposal has not been publicly withdrawn at least five business days prior to the Angie's List special meeting, and the Merger Agreement is later terminated because the Angie's List special meeting concludes without the adoption of Merger Agreement proposal by Angie's List stockholders; or
 - such Company Takeover Proposal has not been withdrawn prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement due to (i) the Merger having not been consummated by February 1, 2018 or (ii) Angie's List having breached or failed to perform under the Merger Agreement in a manner that causes the closing condition relating to the performance by Angie's List of its obligations under the Merger Agreement in all material respects not to be satisfied; and
 - in either of the cases described in the preceding two bullet points, within nine months of such termination, Angie's List or any of its subsidiaries enters into a definitive agreement with a third party with respect to, or consummates a transaction that is, a Company Takeover Proposal with a third party (or a third party otherwise consummates a transaction that is a Company Takeover Proposal).

In no event will IAC be entitled to more than one payment of the termination fee. If Angie's List fails to pay the termination fee if and when it becomes due under the Merger Agreement in a timely manner and, in order to obtain such payment, IAC commences a suit that results in an award against Angie's List for such amount, then Angie's List must reimburse IAC for all costs and expenses (including reasonable fees of counsel) incurred in such suit and pay interest on such amount from and including the date payment of such amount was due to but excluding the date of actual payment at the prime rate set forth in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made.

Governing Law; Exclusive Jurisdiction

The Merger Agreement and all claims, disputes or causes of action that may be based upon, arise out of or relate to the Merger Agreement or the negotiation, execution or performance of the Merger Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or any rule that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than Delaware.

In addition, each of the parties to the Merger Agreement has irrevocably agreed that any legal action or proceeding with respect to the Merger Agreement and the rights and obligations arising thereunder, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect of the Merger Agreement and the rights and obligations arising thereunder brought by any other party thereto, must be brought and determined exclusively in the Delaware Court of Chancery and any state appellate court therefrom within Delaware (or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any state or federal court within Delaware).

Specific Performance

In addition to any other remedy under applicable law that may be available to such party to the Merger Agreement, including monetary damages, each of the parties will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the Merger Agreement and to enforce specifically its terms and provisions.

Amendments and Waivers

Subject to the procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, any provision of the Merger Agreement may be amended by the parties to the Merger Agreement or waived by the party entitled to the benefit of such provision at any time prior to the Effective Time. However, after the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders there may not be, without further approval of Angie's List stockholders, any amendment or waiver of any provision of the Merger Agreement for which applicable law or applicable NASDAQ Rules require further approval by Angie's List stockholders.

The Merger Agreement was amended by the parties on August 26, 2017 to implement certain ministerial changes to certain timing mechanics related to the Closing. These amendments are reflected in the Merger Agreement attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus and such amendment (referred to as Amendment No. 1 to the Agreement and Plan of Merger) is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and is incorporated herein by reference.

ANCILLARY AGREEMENTS

The following section summarizes certain material provisions of the Ancillary Agreements. Each such summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the applicable Ancillary Agreement, the form of each of which is included as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and incorporated herein by reference. These summaries do not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the Ancillary Agreements that is important to you. The following summaries and the forms of the Ancillary Agreements incorporated herein by reference should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding Angie's List, IAC, ANGI Homeservices, their respective subsidiaries and affiliates, and the Transactions that is contained in (including the information incorporated by reference into) this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Contribution Agreement

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC will enter into the Contribution Agreement, the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. The Contribution Agreement will set forth the agreements between IAC and ANGI Homeservices regarding the principal transactions necessary for IAC to separate the HomeAdvisor Business from IAC's other businesses and cause the HomeAdvisor Business, including its assets and liabilities and the HomeAdvisor Entities, to be transferred to ANGI Homeservices prior to the Effective Time. Under the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, ANGI Homeservices will issue to IAC a certain number of Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices in exchange for the contribution of the HomeAdvisor Business and cash in an amount equal to the aggregate Cash Consideration payable in the Merger. The contribution of the HomeAdvisor Business and cash to ANGI Homeservices pursuant to the Contribution Agreement is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Contribution." For further details regarding the determination of the number of Class B shares to be issued in exchange for the Contribution, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC." The Contribution Agreement will also govern certain aspects of ANGI Homeservices' relationship with IAC after the completion of the Transactions.

In the Contribution Agreement, ANGI Homeservices will agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless IAC and its subsidiaries and their respective current and former directors, officers and employees, from and against any losses arising out of:

- the operation or conduct of the HomeAdvisor Business, or the assets and liabilities of the HomeAdvisor Business, including any failure by ANGI Homeservices to assume and perform any of the liabilities allocated to ANGI Homeservices in the Contribution Agreement;
- any breach by ANGI Homeservices of the Contribution Agreement, the Merger Agreement or the other Ancillary Agreements;
- any obligation relating to certain guarantees provided by IAC entities;
- any use by ANGI Homeservices or its subsidiaries of the intellectual property owned by, or licensed to, IAC or its subsidiaries (other than ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries); and
- untrue statements and information contained in filings by ANGI Homeservices with the SEC, including this proxy statement/prospectus, and information provided by ANGI Homeservices to IAC for inclusion in filings by IAC with the SEC.

IAC will agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless ANGI Homeservices and its affiliates and their respective current and former directors, officers and employees, from and against losses arising out of:

- the operation or conduct of the businesses and liabilities retained by IAC, including any failure by IAC to assume and perform any of the liabilities allocated to IAC in the Contribution Agreement;
- any breach by IAC of the Contribution Agreement or the other Ancillary Agreements;
- any obligation relating to certain guarantees provided by a HomeAdvisor Entity;
- any failure of IAC or its subsidiaries (other than ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries) to comply with any applicable bulk sales law;
- any use by IAC or its subsidiaries (other than ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries) of the intellectual property owned by, or licensed to, ANGI Homeservices or its subsidiaries; and
- untrue statements and information provided by IAC for inclusion in filings by ANGI Homeservices with the SEC, including this proxy statement/prospectus.

ANGI Homeservices and IAC will also agree to release the other party, the other party's subsidiaries and their respective affiliates, successors, assigns, stockholders, directors, officers, agents and employees from all claims and other actions, of any nature, relating to claims, transactions or occurrences occurring prior to the completion of the Transactions, including in connection with the Transactions.

In addition, the Contribution Agreement sets forth a dispute resolution mechanism and will also govern other matters related to the provision and retention of records, access to information and property, confidentiality, cooperation in the preparation of ANGI Homeservices' financial statements, licensing of certain intellectual property and cooperation with respect to governmental filings and third-party consents necessary to complete the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement.

Investor Rights Agreement

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC will enter into the Investor Rights Agreement, the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. The Investor Rights Agreement will set forth certain registration, preemptive and governance rights of IAC with respect to ANGI Homeservices, as well as certain governance rights for the benefit of ANGI Homeservices stockholders other than IAC, in each case following the Closing.

Registration Rights. IAC will be entitled to request registrations of its shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock under the Securities Act, including registration of shares to be distributed by means of an underwriting, subject to certain limitations. If ANGI Homeservices at any time intends to file on its behalf or on behalf of any of its other securityholders a registration statement in connection with a public offering of any of its securities on a form and in a manner that would permit the registration for offer and sale of ANGI Homeservices common stock held by IAC, IAC will have the right to include its shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock in that offering. After the Effective Time, ANGI Homeservices will be required to use its reasonable best efforts to qualify to register the sale of ANGI Homeservices securities on Form S-3 and, after ANGI Homeservices is so qualified, IAC may request that ANGI Homeservices facilitate the registration of IAC's ANGI Homeservices shares under the Securities Act on Form S-3, subject to certain limitations. After the Form S-3 becomes effective and as long as it remains effective, IAC will be permitted to effect an unlimited number of non-underwritten offerings or shelf take-downs (which may be underwritten offerings) using Form S-3 without notice to or inclusion of any other securities held by ANGI Homeservices or any other persons or entities.

In connection with a distribution of all or any portion of the shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock held by IAC to IAC's stockholders, IAC will be entitled to registration rights with respect to such shares with any applicable federal or state governmental authority, and ANGI Homeservices will be obligated to register such shares as requested by IAC and to list any Class A Shares required to be delivered upon any conversion, exchange or transfer of such shares on each national securities exchange on which the ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock is listed at the time of such distribution.

ANGI Homeservices will generally be responsible for the registration expenses in connection with the performance of its obligations under the registration rights provisions in the Investor Rights Agreement, with the exception of underwriting discounts, commissions and transfer taxes, which will be borne by IAC with respect to any shares held by IAC that are registered and sold.

The Investor Rights Agreement will contain indemnification and contribution provisions by ANGI Homeservices for the benefit of IAC and its affiliates and representatives and by IAC for the benefit of ANGI Homeservices and its affiliates and representatives, in each case, with respect to written information furnished to and stated by the other party to be specifically included in any registration statement, prospectus or related document or any violation by the other party of the Securities Act or any similar federal or state securities law, rule or regulation in connection with the registration of any securities under the Investor Rights Agreement. Except in the case of intentional misrepresentation by IAC or by its affiliates or representatives, IAC's indemnification obligations under the Investor Rights Agreement are capped at the net proceeds that IAC receives from the sale of securities that give rise to the applicable indemnification obligations.

Anti-Dilution Rights. If, after the Effective Time, ANGI Homeservices issues or proposes to issue any shares of capital stock (with certain limited exceptions), including shares issued upon the exercise, conversion or exchange of options, warrants and convertible securities, IAC will generally have a purchase right that permits it to purchase for cash at a price per share equal to the issue price, as defined in the Investor Rights Agreement, the following:

- with respect to an issuance of voting stock of ANGI Homeservices, up to a number of shares of the class of ANGI Homeservices voting stock issued in the issuance and one or more other classes of voting stock of ANGI Homeservices then authorized as is necessary for IAC to maintain a voting interest and equity interest in ANGI Homeservices equal to IAC's voting interest and equity interest immediately prior to such issuance or proposed issuance (and if such maintenance is not possible, IAC has the ability to determine the mix of then authorized shares it will receive in its sole discretion, provided that the issuance may not result in IAC exceeding its pre-issuance equity interest or voting interest); or
- with respect to an issuance of non-voting stock of ANGI Homeservices, up to a number of shares of such class or classes of non-voting stock of ANGI Homeservices that would enable IAC to maintain the same equity interest in ANGI Homeservices as it had immediately prior to such issuance or proposed issuance and at least 80.1% ownership of the issued and outstanding shares of each class of ANGI Homeservices non-voting stock.

Board Matters. At the Effective Time, the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two ANGI-Designated Directors, which refer to the directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors, who will be Angie R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be willing and able to serve. IAC will retain the right to nominate a certain number of ANGI Homeservices directors corresponding to its degree of equity and voting interest in ANGI Homeservices until such time as its equity and voting interest are both less than 10%, and to appoint replacements of its designated directors should such individuals become unable or unwilling to serve.

Until and excluding the ANGI Homeservices annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2020, the two ANGI-Designated Directors, including any successor(s) to the initial ANGI-Designated Directors, will, if able and willing, continue to serve on the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices. IAC will agree to vote its shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock in favor of the ANGI-Designated Directors at any meeting at which any of them stand for election and will further agree not to vote to remove any ANGI-Designated Director, other than for cause. If, prior to the annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders in 2020, any ANGI-Designated Director becomes unwilling or unable to serve, the ANGI Homeservices board of directors will select a replacement. Any individual selected as a replacement must be (i) "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, if the director to be replaced was also "independent," (ii) qualified to serve as an "independent" director of IAC (were such individual to be appointed) and (iii) acceptable to the remaining ANGI-Designated Director then serving on the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. Until the annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders to be held in 2020, either Ms. Hicks Bowman or Mr. Evans (or her or his replacement, if applicable), may serve on the ANGI Homeservices audit committee if such individual qualifies as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act.

Other Protective Provisions. The Investor Rights Agreement contains the following agreements for the benefit of ANGI Homeservices stockholders (other than IAC) until and excluding the annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders to be held in 2020:

- IAC will not effect any squeeze out transaction under Section 253 of the DGCL without obtaining the prior approval of a committee of independent ANGI Homeservices directors, at least 50% of which must be the ANGI-Designated Directors, if such persons are independent.
- IAC will agree not to vote in favor of any amendments to the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that would be inconsistent with certain provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement other than as may be approved by the audit committee of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors or by the majority of the holders of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock, as applicable.
- If IAC desires to sell or transfer 20% or more of its equity interest in ANGI Homeservices to an affiliate or an unaffiliated third party or IAC determines to distribute its equity interest in ANGI Homeservices to IAC stockholders and such distribution would result in a person holding a 20% or greater interest in ANGI Homeservices, IAC agrees that as a condition to such sale, transfer or distribution such affiliate or third party will agree to assume IAC's obligations under the Investor Rights Agreement (unless such transaction would result in the affiliate or third party owning 100% of the outstanding capital stock of ANGI Homeservices).
- Certain provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement may not be amended or waived without the prior consent of a majority of the holders of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock.

Employee Matters Agreement

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC will enter into the Employee Matters Agreement, the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. The Employee Matters Agreement will address certain compensation and benefits issues following the Closing. Under the Employee Matters Agreement:

- IAC will assume or retain: (i) all liabilities with respect to IAC employees, former IAC employees, and their respective dependents and beneficiaries under all IAC employee benefit plans, and (ii) all liabilities with respect to the employment or termination of employment of all IAC employees and former IAC employees (other than the employees and former employees of the HomeAdvisor Business or Angie's List); and

- ANGI Homeservices will assume or retain: (i) all liabilities under Angie's List and HomeAdvisor employee benefit plans, and (ii) all liabilities with respect to the employment or termination of employment of employees and former employees of Angie's List or the HomeAdvisor Business.

Following the Closing, ANGI Homeservices will participate in IAC's U.S. health and welfare plans, 401(k) plan, and flexible benefits plan and will reimburse IAC for the costs of such participation. In the event that IAC no longer retains shares representing at least 80% of the aggregate voting power of shares entitled to vote in the election of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, including in the event of a future spin-off of IAC's interest in ANGI Homeservices to IAC stockholders, the Employee Matters Agreement provides that ANGI Homeservices will cease to participate in IAC's employee benefit plans and will establish its own employee benefit plans that will be substantially similar to the plans sponsored by IAC prior to the spin-off.

Pursuant to the Employee Matters Agreement, outstanding HomeAdvisor stock appreciation rights will be converted into stock appreciation rights in respect of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices in connection with the Contribution. The number of shares subject to the award and the exercise price of the award will be adjusted to preserve the aggregate intrinsic value of the original HomeAdvisor award, as measured immediately before and immediately after the Contribution, subject to rounding.

The Employee Matters Agreement also will provide that ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of any IAC equity awards held by ANGI Homeservices employees and former employees; IAC may elect to receive payment either in cash or in Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices. The Employee Matters Agreement will further provide that, with respect to equity awards in certain subsidiaries of ANGI Homeservices, IAC may elect to cause those awards to be settled in either shares of IAC common stock or in Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices; to the extent shares of IAC common stock are issued in settlement, ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of those shares by issuing to IAC additional Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices.

Under the Employee Matters Agreement, the compensation committee of the IAC board of directors will have the exclusive authority to determine the treatment of outstanding IAC equity awards in the event of a subsequent spin-off of IAC's retained interest in ANGI Homeservices to IAC stockholders and ANGI Homeservices will agree to assume any IAC equity awards that are converted into ANGI Homeservices equity awards in connection with any such spin-off.

Intercompany Note

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC or a subsidiary of IAC will enter into one or more intercompany loan agreements (collectively referred to as the "Intercompany Note"), the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Intercompany Note, IAC or a subsidiary of IAC will provide the funds necessary at the Effective Time to repay the outstanding balance under Angie's List's existing credit agreement. ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries may also request further advances under the Intercompany Note or under additional agreements substantially in the form of the Intercompany Note following the Closing to cover general corporate purposes such as the provision of working capital, which IAC in its discretion may agree to provide on the terms set forth in the Intercompany Note.

Amounts owing under the Intercompany Note may be advanced in dollars, or if agreed to by the parties, in foreign currencies. Any such amounts will bear interest at three-month LIBOR plus 3.25% per annum, or in the case of amounts denominated in a foreign currency, the applicable foreign benchmark rate plus 3.25% per annum. If the Intercompany Note is not paid when due, default interest at a rate of 2% per annum will also accrue.

Amounts owing under the Intercompany Note may be voluntarily prepaid at par at any time, without premium or penalty. Amounts owing under the Intercompany Note will be mandatorily prepayable, without premium or penalty, upon a change of control. If ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries incurs more than $25 million of debt for borrowed money, the net cash proceeds of such indebtedness must be used to prepay amounts owing under the Intercompany Note.

Services Agreement

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC will enter into the Services Agreement, the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Services Agreement, IAC will provide certain of the services that it has historically provided to the HomeAdvisor Business to ANGI Homeservices following the Closing. The Services Agreement will also allow both ANGI Homeservices and IAC to continue to receive services under certain shared contracts.

Types of Services to Be Provided by IAC. ANGI Homeservices currently expects that IAC will provide a combination of the following services, among others, pursuant to the Services Agreement following the Closing:

- assistance with certain legal, M&A, human resources, finance, risk management, internal audit and treasury functions, health and wellness, information security services, and insurance and tax affairs, including assistance with certain public company and unclaimed property reporting obligations;
- accounting, controllership and payroll processing services;
- investor relations services;
- tax compliance services; and
- such other services as to which IAC and ANGI Homeservices may agree.

Cost of Services Provided by IAC. The costs charged to ANGI Homeservices will generally be determined based on the actual cost to IAC. These costs will be subject to increase following the Closing upon increases in the actual cost to IAC.

Manner of Providing Services. Unless the parties otherwise agree with respect to a particular service, (i) each applicable service provider will be required to perform services under the Service Agreement in a manner, scope, nature and quality as provided by or within IAC that is similar in all material respects to the manner in which such services were performed in the 12 months immediately prior to the Closing Date and (ii) the services may only be used for substantially the same purposes and in substantially the same manner as the services were used immediately prior to the Closing Date.

Requests for Additional Services. From time to time during the term applicable to any service being provided by a service provider, each of IAC and ANGI Homeservices may request that the other party (i) provide additional or different services that the other party is not expressly obligated to provide under the Services Agreement, if those services are of the type and scope provided by such providing party within IAC, or (ii) expand the scope of any service. The party receiving such request must consider such request in good faith and use its commercially reasonable efforts to provide the requested additional service. However, neither party will be obligated to provide any additional services if it does not, in its reasonable judgment, have adequate resources to provide such additional services or if the provision of such additional services would interfere with the operation of its business.

Term for Services Provided. In general, the services to be provided under the Services Agreement will begin at the Effective Time and will continue for an initial term of one year. This initial one-year term will automatically renew for additional one-year periods thereafter for so long as IAC continues to own a majority of the outstanding shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock, unless all services under the Services Agreement have been otherwise terminated. The party receiving a service under the Services Agreement may terminate the agreement with respect to one or more particular services, or may reduce the scope of any particular service, at any time, subject to a specified notice period. The party providing a service may terminate the agreement with respect to one or more particular services, or may reduce the scope of any particular service, at any time after the first anniversary of the Closing Date, subject to a notice period.

Tax Sharing Agreement

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC will enter into the Tax Sharing Agreement, the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. The Tax Sharing Agreement will govern the parties' respective rights, responsibilities and obligations with respect to tax matters, including responsibility for taxes attributable to ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries, entitlement to refunds, allocation of tax attributes, preparation of tax returns, certain tax elections, control of tax contests and other matters.

Under the Tax Sharing Agreement, ANGI Homeservices generally will be responsible and will be required to indemnify IAC for:

- all taxes imposed with respect to any consolidated, combined or unitary tax return of IAC or its subsidiaries that includes ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries to the extent attributable to ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries (including certain taxes attributable to the HomeAdvisor Entities for taxable periods (or portions thereof) ending on or before the Effective Time), as determined under the Tax Sharing Agreement, and
- all taxes imposed with respect to any of ANGI Homeservices' or its subsidiaries' consolidated, combined, unitary or separate tax returns.

Under the Tax Sharing Agreement, IAC generally will have the right to control audits or other tax proceedings with respect to any consolidated, combined or unitary tax return that includes IAC or any of its subsidiaries and ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries, provided that ANGI Homeservices will have certain information and participation rights with respect to any such audit or tax proceeding that could reasonably be expected to result in additional taxes above certain thresholds for which it is liable under the Tax Sharing Agreement. ANGI Homeservices generally will have the right to control any audits or other tax proceedings with respect to any tax returns that solely include ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, IAC has advised ANGI Homeservices that it does not have a present plan or intention to undertake a tax-free spin-off of its interest in ANGI Homeservices. Because IAC intends to retain the ability to engage in such a tax-free spin-off in the future, the Tax Sharing Agreement also addresses the parties' respective rights, responsibilities and obligations with respect to such a transaction. Under the Tax Sharing Agreement, each party generally will be responsible for any taxes and related amounts imposed on IAC or ANGI Homeservices (or their respective subsidiaries) that arise from the failure of a future spin-off of IAC's retained interest in ANGI Homeservices to qualify as a transaction that is generally tax-free, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, under Section 368(a)(1)(D) and/or Section 355 of the Code, to the extent that the failure to so qualify is attributable to (i) a breach of the relevant representations and covenants made by that party in the Tax Sharing Agreement or any representation letter provided in support of any tax opinion or ruling obtained by IAC with respect to the U.S. federal income tax treatment of such spin-off, (ii) an acquisition of such party's equity securities (or certain arrangements or substantial negotiations or discussions with respect to certain such acquisitions), or (iii) solely with respect to ANGI Homeservices, any other action or failure to act by ANGI Homeservices after any such spin-off.

ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries generally will be required to take any action reasonably requested by IAC to consummate a tax-free spin-off of IAC's interest in ANGI Homeservices and will not take or fail to take any action that could reasonably be expected to prevent such a spin-off.

In addition, the Tax Sharing Agreement will impose certain restrictions on ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries during the two-year period following any future spin-off that are designed to preserve the tax-free status thereof. Specifically, during such period, except in specific circumstances, ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries generally would be prohibited from: (i) entering into any transaction pursuant to which ANGI Homeservices stock would be acquired above a certain threshold, (ii) merging, consolidating or liquidating, (iii) selling or transferring assets above certain thresholds, (iv) redeeming or repurchasing stock (with certain exceptions), (v) altering the voting rights of ANGI Homeservices stock, (vi) taking or failing to take other actions inconsistent with representations or covenants in any tax opinion or private letter ruling documents or (vii) ceasing to engage in any active trade or business as defined in the Code.

Table of ContentsMATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

To the extent this section constitutes statements as to matters of U.S. federal income tax law, this section constitutes the opinion of Sidley Austin LLP.

The following is a general discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Angie's List common stock whose shares are exchanged for ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and/or cash pursuant to the Merger. This discussion is based on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, judicial opinions, and administrative rulings and published positions of the Internal Revenue Service, each as in effect as of the date hereof. These authorities are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly on a retroactive basis, and any such change or interpretation could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth in this discussion. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax consequences. This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 or the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act of 2010 (including the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and agreements entered into in connection therewith), nor does it address any tax consequences arising under state, local or foreign laws or U.S. federal laws other than those pertaining to the U.S. federal income tax.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Angie's List common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- a citizen or individual resident of the United States;
- a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- a trust if (i) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more U.S. persons are authorized to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) the trust has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or
- an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "non-U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of Angie's List common stock that is not a U.S. holder (other than an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

This discussion is limited to U.S. holders of shares of Angie's List common stock who hold such shares as a "capital asset" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). Further, this discussion does not purport to consider all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a U.S. holder in light of its particular circumstances, or that may apply to U.S. holders that are subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws (including, for example, insurance companies, dealers or brokers in securities or foreign currencies, traders in securities who elect the mark-to-market method of accounting, holders subject to the alternative minimum tax, holders that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, tax-exempt organizations, governmental agencies or instrumentalities, tax-qualified retirement plans, banks and certain other financial institutions, mutual funds, certain expatriates, partnerships (or other entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes), S corporations or other pass-through entities or investors in partnerships, S corporations or other pass-through entities, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, holders who hold shares of Angie's List common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other integrated transaction, holders that own (actually or constructively) 5% or more of the outstanding Angie's List common stock or that own (actually or constructively) both IAC common stock and Angie's List common stock, holders who acquired their shares of Angie's List common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or other compensation arrangements, and non-U.S. holders (except to the extent specifically discussed below)).

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds shares of Angie's List common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership will generally depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If you are, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a partner of a partnership holding shares of Angie's List common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

All holders of Angie's List common stock should consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of the Merger, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax, the unearned income Medicare contribution tax and any other U.S. federal, state, local, foreign or other tax laws. Non-U.S. holders of Angie's List common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the possibility that, in the event the applicable withholding agent is unable to determine whether any Cash Consideration paid in the Merger should be treated as a dividend for applicable U.S. federal income tax purposes, such withholding agent may withhold at a rate of 30% (or a lower applicable treaty rate) on the payment of the Cash Consideration to such non-U.S. holders, and such non-U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors as to the possible desirability and timing of selling any shares of IAC common stock or Angie's List common stock they own.

It is a condition to the obligation of Angie's List to effect the Merger that Angie's List receive a written opinion from its counsel, Sidley Austin, to the effect that either (i) the Merger will qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or (ii) the Merger, when combined with the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, will qualify as an exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code. This condition to the Closing may be waived by Angie's List in its sole discretion, although Angie's List does not have any intention to waive this condition, and in any event would not waive this condition without first resoliciting the approval of its stockholders. This opinion will be based on facts, representations, assumptions and covenants set forth or referred to therein. If any of such representations or covenants is or becomes incorrect or is violated, the validity of the opinion may be affected and the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could differ materially from those described below. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the IRS or any court. Angie's List has not sought and does not intend to seek any ruling from the IRS with respect to the Merger. Angie's List does not intend to and will not waive this condition without recirculating this document in order to resolicit Angie's List stockholder approval.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders

Assuming the receipt and accuracy of the opinion described above and subject to the discussion below under the headings "Blocks of Angie's List Common Stock Acquired at Different Times or Different Prices" and "Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares," the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders of Angie's List common stock generally are as follows:

U.S. Holders That Receive Solely ANGI Homeservices Class A Common Stock. A U.S. holder of Angie's List common stock that exchanges such common stock solely for ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock in the Merger generally will not recognize gain or loss upon receipt of such ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock (as discussed below). The aggregate tax basis of the shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock received (including any fractional shares deemed received and exchanged for cash) generally will be equal to the adjusted tax basis in the Angie's List common stock exchanged. The holding period of the shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock received (including any fractional shares deemed received and exchanged for cash) will include the holding period of the shares of Angie's List common stock exchanged therefor.

U.S. Holders That Receive Solely Cash. A U.S. holder of Angie's List common stock that exchanges such common stock solely for cash generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Angie's List common stock exchanged. Such capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for the Angie's List common stock exchanged is greater than one year as of the Closing Date. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

U.S. Holders That Receive a Combination of ANGI Homeservices Class A Common Stock and Cash. A U.S. holder of Angie's List common stock that exchanges such common stock for a combination of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and cash (other than cash received in lieu of fractional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock) generally will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and cash received by such holder exceeds such holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of Angie's List common stock surrendered, and (ii) the amount of cash received (in each case, excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock). Any recognized gain generally will be long-term capital gain if, as of Closing Date, the U.S. holder's holding period for the Angie's List common stock exchanged is greater than one year. The tax basis of the ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock received (including any fractional shares deemed received and exchanged for cash) by a U.S. holder that exchanges Angie's List common stock for a combination of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and cash will be equal to the adjusted tax basis of the Angie's List common stock exchanged, reduced by the amount of cash received by the holder (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock) and increased by the amount of gain, if any, recognized by the holder (excluding any gain recognized with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock) in the Merger with respect to such Angie's List common stock. The holding period of the ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock received (including any fractional shares deemed received and exchanged for cash) will include the holding period of the Angie's List common stock exchanged.

Blocks of Angie's List Common Stock Acquired at Different Times or Different Prices. If a U.S. holder of Angie's List common stock acquired different blocks of stock at different times or different prices, certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to such holder may depend on whether the Merger qualifies as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code or whether the Merger, combined with the Contribution and the IAC Share Issuance, qualifies as an exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code. Specifically, in the event the Merger qualifies as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, such holders may be able to designate how shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and cash, if any, are allocated among the different blocks of shares of Angie's List common stock exchanged for purposes of determining the amount of gain recognized as well as the tax basis and holding period of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock received in the Merger. Whether the Merger qualifies as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code will depend, among other facts, on the relative fair market values at the Closing of the aggregate Cash Consideration, if any, and the aggregate Share Consideration into which shares of Angie's List common stock are converted pursuant to the Merger and, accordingly, will not be known prior to the Closing. It is anticipated that information regarding the qualification of the Merger as a "reorganization" or as part of an overall exchange described in Section 351(a) of the Code will be made available on IRS Form 8937 following the Closing. U.S. holders that acquired different blocks of Angie's List common stock at different times or different prices should consult their own tax advisors regarding the manner in which gain, loss, tax basis and holding periods should be determined.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. A U.S. holder of Angie's List common stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock in the Merger generally will be treated as having received such fractional share in the Merger, and then as having sold such fractional share for cash. Gain or loss generally will be recognized by such holder based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the tax basis allocated to such fractional share of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding. Payments of cash made to a U.S. holder of Angie's List common stock in connection with the Merger will be subject to information reporting and may be subject to "backup withholding" (currently at a rate of 28%) unless such holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise timely complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules are not additional taxes and may be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

SELECTED HISTORICAL COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF THE HOMEADVISOR BUSINESS

The following tables present selected historical combined financial information for the HomeAdvisor Business. This information has been derived, in part, from the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus and reflects the operations and financial position of the HomeAdvisor Business at the dates and for the periods indicated. The unaudited combined interim financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business have been prepared on the same basis as the audited combined financial statements and, in the opinion of management of the HomeAdvisor Business, reflect all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of this information. These historical results are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for any future period, and results for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

The historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business have been prepared on a standalone basis and are derived from the consolidated financial statements and accounting records of IAC. The combined financial statements reflect the historical financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the businesses comprising the HomeAdvisor Business since their respective dates of acquisition by IAC and the allocation to the HomeAdvisor Business of certain IAC corporate expenses relating to the HomeAdvisor Business based on the historical financial statements and accounting records of IAC. In the opinion of management of the HomeAdvisor Business, the assumptions underlying the historical combined financial statements, including the basis on which expenses have been allocated from IAC, are reasonable. However, the allocations may not reflect the expenses that the HomeAdvisor Business may have incurred as an independent, standalone company (or as part of ANGI Homeservices) for the periods presented. The historical combined financial statements may not reflect what the actual financial position, results of operation and cash flows of the HomeAdvisor Business would have been if the HomeAdvisor Business had been an independent, standalone company (or part of ANGI Homeservices) for the periods presented. For the purposes of the combined financial statements, income taxes have been computed as if the entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business filed on a standalone, separate tax return basis.

The information presented below is only a summary and should be read in conjunction with the rest of the information included in this proxy statement/prospectus, and in particular the sections entitled "Information About the HomeAdvisor Business," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the HomeAdvisor Business" and the audited and unaudited combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, including the notes thereto,

(a) Includes the impact of a true up of estimated to actual forfeitures.

- (2) In considering the financial performance of the HomeAdvisor Business, management and the chief operating decision maker analyze the primary financial performance measure of Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets, if applicable.

Management of the HomeAdvisor Business believes Adjusted EBITDA is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between the performance of the HomeAdvisor Business and that of its competitors. Moreover, management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of the HomeAdvisor Business as a whole and its individual business segments, and this measure is one of the primary metrics on which internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. The above items are excluded from Adjusted EBITDA because these items are non-cash in nature, and management believes that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from the HomeAdvisor Business, from which capital investments are made and long-term related party debt is serviced.

Adjusted EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool. It is not a presentation made in accordance with GAAP. Adjusted EBITDA is not a measure of financial condition or liquidity and should not be considered as an alternative to operating income or net income determined in accordance with GAAP. Adjusted EBITDA is not necessarily comparable to similarly titled measures used by other companies. As a result, you should not consider Adjusted EBITDA in isolation from, or as a substitute analysis for, the results of operations of the HomeAdvisor Business as determined in accordance with GAAP. See the section entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the HomeAdvisor Business—HomeAdvisor's Principles of Financial Reporting."

FINANCIAL DATA OF ANGIE'S LIST

The following selected historical consolidated financial information of Angie's List as of December 31, 2015 and 2016, and for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2016, has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Angie's List, which are included in Angie's List's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, which was filed with the SEC on February 21, 2017 and is incorporated herein by reference. The following selected historical consolidated financial information of Angie's List as of December 31, 2012, 2013 and 2014, and for each of the years in the two-year period ended December 31, 2013, has been derived from the audited consolidated financial statements of Angie's List not included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following selected historical condensed consolidated financial information as of June 30, 2017, and for the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, has been derived from the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Angie's List, which are included in Angie's List's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2017, which was filed with the SEC on July 27, 2017 and is incorporated herein by reference. The unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements of Angie's List have been prepared on the same basis as the audited consolidated financial statements of Angie's List and, in the opinion of Angie's List management, reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature, necessary for a fair presentation of this information. These historical results are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for any future period, and results for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

The following selected historical consolidated financial and other data of Angie's List is only a summary and should be read in conjunction with the rest of the information included in this proxy statement/prospectus, including the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, and in particular (i) the section entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" of Angie's List's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016, as well as the consolidated historical financial statements and related notes included in such Annual Report on Form 10-K, and (ii) the section entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" of Angie's List's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three and six months ended June 30, 2017, as well as the condensed

- (1) Total free memberships reflects the number of free members as of the end of the period who joined subsequent to Angie's List dropping its ratings and reviews paywall in June 2016, as well as the number of former paid members who requested a change in membership status from paid to free over the same time period. Total paid memberships represents the number of paid members at the end of each period presented. Total paid memberships as of December 31, 2015, 2014, 2013 and 2012 also included a de minimis number of complimentary memberships in what formerly comprised paid markets. These complimentary memberships are no longer included in paid membership accounts and are therefore not reflected in the paid membership totals presented in the table above as of December 31, 2016 or June 30, 2017.

- (2) Gross free memberships added represents the total number of new free members added during the reporting period. For the year ended December 31, 2016, this figure includes new free members added since Angie's List dropped its ratings and reviews paywall in June 2016 but does not include former paid members who requested a change in membership status from paid to free over the same time period. Gross paid memberships added reflects the total number of new paid members added in the reporting period.
- (3) Reflects the percentage of all paid memberships expiring in the reporting period that are renewed as paid members.
- (4) Reflects the total number of service providers under contract for advertising, e-commerce or both at the end of the period.
- (5) Reflects the total contract value of active service provider contracts at the end of the period. Contract value is the total payment obligation of a service provider to us, including amounts already recognized in revenue, over the stated term of the contract.
- (6) Reflects the portion of service provider contract value at the end of the period that is not yet recognized as revenue.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION
ANGI HOMESERVICES INC.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is based upon the historical financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, which are included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, as adjusted to include the pro forma impact of the recent acquisitions of controlling interests in MyHammer, HomeStars and MyBuilder, and the historical financial statements of Angie's List, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of June 30, 2017 is presented as if the Transactions were completed on June 30, 2017. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016 are presented as if the Transactions were completed on January 1, 2016.

The pro forma adjustments give effect to the following:

- the settlement of $99.8 million of existing related party debt between certain of HomeAdvisor's international subsidiaries and certain IAC international subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time by: (1) the payment of $28.0 million by HomeAdvisor's international subsidiaries from cash on hand to IAC's international subsidiaries, (2) the contribution of $67.4 million by IAC to HomeAdvisor's international subsidiaries and the subsequent payment to IAC's international subsidiaries of the $67.4 million, and (3) the distribution of an intercompany note of €4.0 million, or $4.4 million, by a HomeAdvisor international subsidiary to an IAC international subsidiary;
- the issuance of an Intercompany Note between IAC and ANGI Homeservices immediately prior to the Effective Time, pursuant to which, IAC or a subsidiary of IAC will provide the funds necessary to repay the outstanding balance under Angie's List's existing Term Loan, which is $60.0 million as of June 30, 2017;
- the contribution of the HomeAdvisor Business by IAC to ANGI Homeservices for 414.3 million Class B shares, which together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards of ANGI Homeservices, will represent 87% to 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock. IAC's ownership percentage will be dependent upon the number of Angie's List stockholders electing to receive cash consideration. Angie's List stockholders can elect cash consideration of $8.50 per share up to a cap of $130.0 million. For purposes of the unaudited pro forma combined financial information, it is assumed that no Angie's List stockholders will elect to receive the cash consideration, therefore, IAC, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will own 87% of the economic interest of ANGI Homeservices; (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method); and
- the consummation of the Merger as described under the section "The Transactions" and more fully in the Merger Agreement (assuming for the purposes of calculating the number of Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued to IAC pursuant to the Merger Agreement, an ANGI Unaffected Price of $11.80, which for simplicity was the closing price of Angie's List common stock on the NASDAQ on August 17, 2017).

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the HomeAdvisor Business will be contributed to ANGI Homeservices on a net cash free, debt free basis exclusive of any cash required to fund the Cash Consideration. As the contribution represents a transaction between entities under common control, the HomeAdvisor Business's assets and liabilities will be transferred at their historical carrying values.

ANGI Homeservices will account for the acquisition of Angie's List pursuant to the Merger using the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP"). ANGI Homeservices will measure the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at their fair values, including net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, as of the Closing. The excess of the purchase price over those fair values will be recorded as goodwill.

The allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements is based on preliminary estimates using assumptions that management believes are reasonable. The determination of the final purchase price and fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be completed following the Closing. The final purchase price and allocation may be different from that reflected in the pro forma purchase price allocation presented herein, and the differences may be material.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and pro forma adjustments, which are described in the accompanying notes, should be read in conjunction with the unaudited and audited combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, which are included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, and the unaudited and audited consolidated financial statements of Angie's List, which are incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. The pro forma adjustments give effect to events that are (1) directly attributable to the Transactions, (2) factually supportable, and (3) with respect to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations, expected to have a continuing impact on the consolidated results of ANGI Homeservices following the Transactions. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements have been presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results and financial position that would have been achieved had the Transactions occurred on the dates indicated. Further, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements do not purport to project the future financial position or results of operations of ANGI Homeservices following the Merger.

ANGI Homeservices currently intends to enter into a credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent and certain lenders after the Closing. The Credit Agreement is expected to provide for a five-year term loan A facility not to exceed $275 million, and to be guaranteed by ANGI Homeservice's wholly owned material domestic subsidiaries. It is expected to be secured by substantially all assets of ANGI Homeservices and the guarantors, subject to certain exceptions to be agreed. The proceeds of the Credit Agreement, if any, are expected to be used to repay indebtedness outstanding to IAC and its subsidiaries, to pay fees and expenses in connection with the Merger and for general corporate purposes, including working capital and dividends. The Credit Agreement is expected to have affirmative, negative and financial covenants to be agreed among the lenders and ANGI Homeservices. While ANGI Homeservices currently intends to enter into the Credit Agreement, it may determine not to do so. In addition, the Transactions are not contingent upon ANGI Homeservices entering into the Credit Agreement. Therefore, the Credit Agreement is not included in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information and pro forma adjustments.

Table of ContentsANGI HOMESERVICES INC.*NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION*Note 1. Description of Transaction

On May 1, 2017, Angie's List and IAC entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger to combine IAC's HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List under a new publicly traded company to be called ANGI Homeservices. The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition of Angie's List by ANGI Homeservices by way of the merger of Casa Merger Sub, a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices, with and into Angie's List, with Angie's List continuing as the surviving company in the Merger and a wholly-owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices. The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the Contribution Agreement, prior to the Closing, IAC will contribute its HomeAdvisor Business, along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration (defined below), if any, to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for 414.3 million Class B shares which together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards of ANGI Homeservices will represent 87% to 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock. IAC's ownership percentage will be dependent upon the number of Angie's List stockholders electing to receive cash. Angie's List stockholders can elect cash consideration of $8.50 per share up to a cap of $130.0 million.

At the Effective Time of the Merger, each share of Angie's List common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than shares owned or held in treasury by Angie's List, which will automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist for no consideration) will be converted into the right to receive, at the holder's election (i) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive a Class A share of ANGI Homeservices has been properly made, one Class A share of ANGI Homeservices (the "Share Consideration") or (ii) in the case of a share of Angie's List common stock with respect to which an election to receive cash has been properly made, $8.50 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration") subject to proration. Elections to receive the Cash Consideration by Angie's List stockholders will be subject to the proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, such that Angie's List stockholders will receive, in the aggregate, no more than $130.0 million in cash. For further details regarding the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the effects of the Merger, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement." Each option to purchase shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an option to purchase (i) that number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices equal to the total number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) at a per-share exercise price equal to the exercise price per share of Angie's List common stock at which such Angie's List option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time. Each award of restricted stock units that corresponds to shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award with respect to a number of Class A shares equal to the number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time (assuming satisfaction of any applicable performance goals at the target performance level with respect to Angie's List performance-based restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016). Each ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit awards corresponding to performance-based Angie's List restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016 will vest solely on the basis of service following the Effective Time.

A detailed discussion of the Merger Agreement and the Merger may be found in the sections of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Transactions," "The Merger Agreement" and "Ancillary Agreements."

Note 2. HomeAdvisor Business Financing Pro Forma Adjustments

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the HomeAdvisor Business will be contributed to ANGI Homeservices on a net cash free, debt free basis exclusive of any cash required to fund the Cash Consideration.

- (a) To reflect the settlement of $99.8 million of existing related party debt between certain of HomeAdvisor's international subsidiaries and certain IAC international subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time by: (1) the payment of $28.0 million by HomeAdvisor's international subsidiaries from cash on hand to IAC's international subsidiaries, (2) the contribution of $67.4 million in cash by IAC to HomeAdvisor's international subsidiaries and the subsequent payment to IAC's international subsidiaries of the $67.4 million, and (3) the distribution of an intercompany note of €4.0 million, or $4.4 million, by a HomeAdvisor international subsidiary to an IAC international subsidiary.
- (b) To eliminate the interest expense related to the debt arrangements for the HomeAdvisor Business in the amount of $4.0 million and $7.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.
- (c) To reflect the issuance of the Intercompany Note by IAC or by a subsidiary of IAC to ANGI Homeservices immediately prior to the Effective Time in the amount of $60.0 million.
- (d) To reflect estimated transaction costs (excluding integration planning, severance, retention and other employee related costs) of approximately $12.3 million that are expected to be incurred by the HomeAdvisor Business. Approximately $3.6 million has been paid and/or accrued prior to June 30, 2017.
- (e) To reflect the elimination of costs incurred by the HomeAdvisor Business related to the Merger for the six months ended June 30, 2017 as they are not expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results.
- (f) To reflect the pro forma interest expense on the Intercompany Note in the amount of $1.3 million and $2.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.

The pro forma interest expense on the Intercompany Note is calculated as follows (in thousands):

	Six months ended June 30, 2017	Year ended December 31, 2016
Principal	$ 60,000	$ 60,000
Average LIBOR	1.16%	1.29%
Spread	3.25%	3.25%
Interest rate	4.41%	4.54%
Pro forma annual interest expense	$ 2,646	$ 2,727
Pro forma semi-annual interest expense	$ 1,323

Amounts owed under the Intercompany Note will bear interest at a rate of three-month LIBOR plus 3.25% per annum. A 125 basis point increase or decrease in the interest rate on the Intercompany Note would increase or decrease pro forma interest expense by $38 thousand and $76 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.

Note 3. Transaction Pro Forma Adjustments

- (g) To reflect the contribution of the HomeAdvisor Business to ANGI Homeservices in exchange for 414.3 million Class B shares which together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards of ANGI Homeservices will represent 87% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock. For purposes of the unaudited pro forma combined financial information, it is assumed that no Angie's List stockholders will elect to receive Cash Consideration. As the contribution represents a transaction between entities under common control, the HomeAdvisor Business's assets and liabilities will be contributed at their historical carrying values and Class B common stock will be issued for the respective carrying value of the contribution.
- (h) The total preliminary estimated purchase price of approximately $746.5 million was determined based on the number of shares of Angie's List common stock and equity awards outstanding under Angie's List stock plans as of August 18, 2017, the most recent practicable in the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus. The stock price assumed for the total preliminary purchase price is the closing price of Angie's List common stock on the NASDAQ on August 17, 2017 ($11.80 per share), the most recent practicable in the preparation of this proxy statement/prospectus. It is assumed that no Angie's List stockholders will elect to receive the Cash Consideration.

A portion of the preliminary estimated Merger consideration has been attributed to the pro rata vested portion of Angie's List stock options and restricted stock units outstanding as of August 18, 2017, which will be converted into stock options and restricted stock units of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock. Each option to purchase shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an option to purchase (i) that number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices equal to the total number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such Angie's List option immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) at a per-share exercise price equal to the exercise price per share of Angie's List common stock at which such Angie's List option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time. Each award of restricted stock units that corresponds to shares of Angie's List common stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will, as of the Effective Time, be converted into an ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award with respect to a number of Class A shares equal to the number of shares of Angie's List common stock subject to such restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time (assuming satisfaction of any applicable performance goals at the target performance level with respect to Angie's List performance-based restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016). Each ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit award will otherwise be subject to the same terms and conditions (including vesting) as applied to the corresponding Angie's List restricted stock unit award immediately prior to the Effective Time, except that ANGI Homeservices restricted stock unit awards corresponding to performance-based Angie's List restricted stock unit awards granted in June 2016 will vest solely on the basis of service following the Effective Time.

The aggregate purchase price will be based on the actual closing price per share of Angie's List common stock immediately prior to the Effective Time, and could differ, and that difference could be material, from the assumed value of $11.80 per share used to determine the total purchase price of $746.5 million, which was used to prepare these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. Generally, if the actual closing price per share of Angie's List common stock on the Closing Date is higher than the assumed amount, the actual amount recorded for goodwill would be higher; conversely, if the actual closing price is lower, the actual amount recorded for goodwill would be lower.

Preliminary Estimated Purchase Price Calculation and Allocation

The total preliminary estimated purchase price described above has been allocated to Angie's List's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities for purposes of these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements based on their estimated relative fair values. Goodwill is calculated as the difference between the preliminary estimate of fair value of the consideration expected to be transferred and the preliminary estimates of fair value assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed.

The total preliminary estimated purchase price was calculated and allocated as follows, based on Angie's List's June 30, 2017 balance sheet (in thousands):

Calculation of allocable purchase price

Class A common stock	$ 723,209
Fair value of vested and the pro rata portion of the unvested converted stock options attributable to pre-combination services	18,255
Fair value of the pro rata portion of converted unvested restricted stock attributable to pre-combination services	5,004
Total purchase price	$ 746,468

Allocation of purchase price

Net assets acquired	$ 8,834
Record estimated fair value step-up of identifiable definite and indefinite-lived intangible assets	306,270
Adjust deferred revenue to fair value	15,448
Write off Angie's List sales commissions historically capitalized by Angie's List	(10,742)
Write off historical cost of Angie's List developed technology	(47,611)
Established deferred tax liability	(101,420)
Goodwill	575,689
Total allocation of purchase price	$ 746,468

The preliminary estimated fair value of identifiable intangible assets acquired consists of the following (in thousands):

	Preliminary Fair Value	Estimated Useful Life (in years)
Trade names and trademarks	$ 129,000	Indefinite
Developed technology	64,200	6
User base	10,000	1
Service providers	88,500	3
Memberships	15,500	3
Total intangible assets acquired	307,200
Historical intangible assets of the HomeAdvisor Business	27,274
Total pro forma intangible assets at June 30, 2017	$ 334,474

The estimated deferred tax liability is calculated as follow (in thousands):

Step-up of identifiable definite and indefinite-lived intangible assets	$ 258,659
Step-down of deferred revenue	15,448
Subtotal	274,107
Tax rate	37%
Estimated deferred tax liability at June 30, 2017	$ 101,420

The allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements is based on the preliminary estimates using assumptions that management of the HomeAdvisor Business believes are reasonable. The determination of the final purchase price fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be completed following the Closing. The final purchase price and allocation may be different from that reflected in the pro forma purchase price allocation presented herein and the differences may be material. As a result, the final acquisition accounting adjustments, could differ materially from the pro forma adjustments presented herein. Any increase or decrease in the fair value of Angie's List's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as compared to the information shown herein would also change the portion of purchase price allocable to goodwill.

- (i) To record the par value related to shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock issued to former Angie's List stockholders as Share Consideration in the Merger.
- (j) To reflect the incremental amortization associated with the preliminary valuation of the definite-lived intangible assets acquired in connection with the acquisition of Angie's List. The assets are being amortized on a straight-line basis based upon the estimated useful lives in the table above.
- (k) To reflect the elimination of historical depreciation expense relating to Angie's List capitalized software that was reflected as developed technology in purchase accounting.
- (l) To reflect the increase in sales commission expense resulting from conforming Angie's List's accounting policy for sales commission to the HomeAdvisor Business's accounting policy, which is to expense sales commission as incurred. Angie's List has historically capitalized its sales commissions. This adjustment reflects the impact to the statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016.
- (m) To reflect estimated transaction costs of approximately $25.2 million that are expected to be incurred by Angie's List. Approximately $4.6 million has been paid and/or accrued prior to June 30, 2017.
- (n) To reflect a liability for certain retention bonuses that are expected to be probable and reasonably estimable as of the Closing date pursuant to the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides for payments of up to $2 million, 50% of which is payable on the Closing and the remaining 50% is payable 90 days following the Closing, in each case subject to continued employment through the payment dates. Unpaid amounts with respect to such payments shall become immediately payable upon a termination of employment without cause following the Closing. The $2 million pro forma balance sheet adjustment represents the accrual for the entire expected payment of $2 million.
- (o) To reflect the elimination of costs incurred by Angie's List related to the Merger for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 as they are not expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results.

- (p) To reflect the repayment of the existing debt of Angie's List, current maturity of $3.0 million and long-term portion of $57.0 million, as well as the write-off of $1.9 million of related unamortized deferred financing costs.
- (q) To eliminate the historical interest expense related to Angie's List Term Loan in the amount of $3.0 million and $4.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.

The calculation of the estimated purchase price in adjustment (h) above assumes that all common shareholders of Angie's List elect to receive the Share Consideration in exchange for their common shares of Angie's List because the closing trading price of Angie's List of $11.80 as of August 17, 2017, which is the assumed purchase price, is in excess of the Cash Consideration of $8.50 per Angie's List common share by $3.30. The maximum Cash Consideration is $130.0 million or 15,294,118 shares at $8.50 per share. In order to illustrate the potential impact of the Cash Consideration being elected by certain Angie's List shareholders, we have assumed that the maximum Cash Consideration has been elected in the tables below. In summary, the impact would be (i) a reduction in the purchase price, shareholders' equity and goodwill of $50.5 million and (ii) a reduction of 15,294,118 in the number of ANGI Homeservices Class A shares issued to common shareholders of Angie's List and a corresponding increase in the number of Class B shares issued to IAC/InterActiveCorp in exchange for funding the maximum Cash Consideration of $130.0 million.

	(in thousands, except per share amounts)

Table of ContentsNote 4. Other Adjustments

- (r) Reflects the income tax effect of pro forma adjustments based on the estimated statutory tax rate of 37%.
- (s) To reclassify depreciation and amortization expense historically recorded in operating expenses by Angie's List to depreciation and amortization expense to conform to the HomeAdvisor Business presentation.

Note 5. Conversion of Employee Equity Awards Outstanding as of the Effective Time

As a result of the Transactions, the outstanding employee equity awards as of the Effective Time of Angie's List and HomeAdvisor (US) will be converted into awards that are exercisable for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices. The pro forma adjustments related to the conversion of these awards are described below.

Existing Angie's List Employee Equity Awards

As described in adjustment (h) above, the estimated fair value of the vested portion of Angie's List stock options and restricted stock units outstanding as of the Effective Time that will be converted into stock options and restricted stock units of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock is included as part of the estimated purchase price.

The estimated fair value of Angie's List unvested stock options and restricted stock units outstanding as of the Effective Time that will be converted into stock options and restricted stock units of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock will be amortized to expense over the remaining vesting period of these awards.

Existing HomeAdvisor (US) Equity Awards

Upon completion of the Transactions, the outstanding vested and unvested stock appreciation rights that are denominated in the common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) will be converted into awards that are exercisable for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices immediately following the Effective Time.

The incremental fair value arising from the conversion of the outstanding vested HomeAdvisor (US) stock appreciation rights will be recorded as a one-time nonrecurring expense immediately following the Effective Time.

The incremental fair value arising from the conversion of outstanding unvested HomeAdvisor (US) stock appreciation rights will be amortized to expense over the remaining vesting period. In addition to adjustment (h) above, the pro forma adjustments related to the conversion of these awards are described below.

- (t) To reflect a one-time stock-based compensation charge of $74.2 million resulting from the conversion of existing vested HomeAdvisor (US) equity awards into awards that are exercisable for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices immediately following the Effective Time and the related deferred tax asset of $27.4 million.
- (u) To reflect the incremental stock-based compensation expense related to the conversion of existing unvested HomeAdvisor (US) and Angie's List denominated equity awards into equity awards of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock. The total fair value of the converted Angie's List unvested stock options and restricted stock units and the incremental fair value arising from the conversion of outstanding HomeAdvisor (US) unvested stock appreciation rights into awards that are exercisable for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices outstanding as of the Effective Time will be amortized to expense over the remaining vesting period of these awards. The total estimated expense of $206.8 million ($138.8 million related to HomeAdvisor (US) equity awards and $68.0 million related to Angie's List equity awards) will be amortized to expense over the remaining vesting period of approximately four years.

Note 6. Pro Forma Shares

The basic and diluted pro forma net loss per share is based on the estimated number of shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock to be issued in relation to the Merger.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, the calculation of the number of shares used in the computation of pro forma basic and diluted net loss per share is as follows (in thousands):

	Class A	Class B	Combined
Pro forma basic and diluted shares outstanding	61,289	414,343	475,632

Pro forma basic and diluted shares outstanding are the same as the Company is in a pro forma net loss position for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016.

Table of ContentsUNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION
HOMEADVISOR BUSINESS AND MYHAMMER, MYBUILDER AND HOMESTARS

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2016 are based on the historical financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business after giving effect to the acquisition of controlling interests in MyHammer on November 3, 2016, HomeStars on February 8, 2017, and MyBuilder on March 24, 2017 (collectively, the "Acquisitions"), and the assumptions and adjustments described in the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 gives effect to the acquisitions of MyBuilder and HomeStars. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 are presented as if the Acquisitions were completed on January 1, 2016.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 are not intended to be indicative of the results of operations of the HomeAdvisor Business that would have been reported had the Acquisitions been completed as of the date presented, and should not be taken as a representative of the future results of operations of the HomeAdvisor Business. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations have been presented for informational purposes only. The pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of what the HomeAdvisor Business condensed combined results of operations actually would have been had the Acquisitions been completed as of the date indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations does not purport to project the future combined operating results of the HomeAdvisor Business.

Pursuant to the acquisition method of accounting, the purchase prices as described in Note 3 below to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations, have been allocated to assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair values. The pro forma adjustments have been made solely for the purpose of providing the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations.

Since the Acquisitions were completed prior to June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business balance sheet as of June 30, 2017 already reflects the Acquisitions and, therefore, no pro forma balance sheet is presented.

HOMEADVISOR BUSINESS
NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED STATEMENT OF OPERATIONS

Note 1. Description of Transactions

On November 3, 2016, the HomeAdvisor Business acquired a 70% voting interest in MyHammer Holding AG ("MyHammer"), the leading home services marketplace in Germany. On February 8, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business acquired a 90% voting interest in HomeStars Inc. ("HomeStars"), a leading home services platform in Canada. On March 24, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business acquired a 75% voting interest in MyBuilder Limited ("MyBuilder"), a leading home services platform in the United Kingdom.

Note 2. Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations were prepared using the acquisition method of accounting. Under the acquisition method of accounting, the purchase prices are allocated to the underlying MyHammer, HomeStars, and MyBuilder tangible and intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their respective fair market values as of the closing date of the acquisitions with any excess purchase price allocated to goodwill. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for the year ended December 31, 2016 are presented as if the Acquisitions were completed on January 1, 2016.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and for year ended December 31, 2016 are not intended to represent or be indicative of the results of operations of the HomeAdvisor Business that would have been reported had the Acquisitions been completed as of the dates presented, and should not be taken as representative of the future results of operations of the HomeAdvisor Business.

Note 3. Pre-Merger Pro Forma AdjustmentsEstimated Purchase Price and Preliminary Purchase Price Allocation

The HomeAdvisor Business acquired a (i) 70% voting interest in MyHammer for a total purchase price of €17.7 million (or $19.7 million); (ii) 90% voting interest in HomeStars for a total purchase price of $16.6 CAD million (or $12.7 million); and (iii) 75% voting interest in MyBuilder for a total purchase price of £32.6 million (or $40.7 million).

In each case the purchase prices were based on the targets' expected financial performance, not on the value of the net identifiable assets at the time of acquisition. This resulted in a significant portion of the purchase prices being attributed to goodwill because the targets are believed to be complementary and synergistic to the existing HomeAdvisor Business.

The following pro forma adjustments are included in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations:

- (a) To reflect incremental amortization expense associated with the valuation of the definite-lived intangible assets acquired in the Acquisitions. The assets are being amortized on a straight-line basis based on their estimated useful lives.
- (b) To reflect the elimination of transaction related costs incurred by the HomeAdvisor Business related to the Acquisitions in the amount of $1.1 million and $2.1 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.

- (c) To recognize incremental pro forma non-cash compensation expense resulting from the acquisition of HomeStars in the amount of $31 thousand and $0.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016, respectively.
- (d) To reflect the additional interest expense resulting from the Acquisitions.
- (e) To reflect the income tax effect of pro forma adjustments based on the estimated statutory tax rate of 37%.
- (f) To reflect the impact of the pro forma adjustments to the noncontrolling interests.

Officer of IAC Search & Applications, overseeing the desktop software, mobile applications, and media properties that comprised IAC's former Search & Applications segment, since January 2012. From November 2009 to January 2012, Mr. Levin served as Chief Executive Officer of Mindspark Interactive Network, an IAC subsidiary that builds, markets and delivers a wide range of consumer software products, and previously served in various capacities at IAC in Strategic Planning, Mergers & Acquisitions and Finance since joining IAC in 2003. Prior to joining IAC, Mr. Levin worked in the Technology Mergers & Acquisitions group for Credit Suisse First Boston (now Credit Suisse) advising public and private technology and e-commerce companies on a variety of transactions. Mr. Levin has served on the board of directors of Match Group, Inc. since October 2015 and of Groupon, Inc. since March 2017, as well as on the boards of directors of LendingTree, Inc. from August 2008 through November 2014 and The Active Network beginning prior to its 2011 initial public offering through its sale in December 2013.

Thomas R. Evans, age 63, has served the board of directors of Angie's List since February 2016. Mr. Evans was the President and Chief Executive Officer of Bankrate, Inc. (NYSE: RATE), an internet publisher of consumer financial content and rate information from 2004 through 2013. In 2009, Mr. Evans took Bankrate through a $580 million go-private transaction with Apax Partners, a London-based private equity firm. Less than two years later, Mr. Evans led Bankrate through a $1.5 billion initial public offering. Mr. Evans also served on Bankrate's board of directors before retiring as Chief Executive Officer and as a member of their board at the end of 2013. In 2014 and 2015, Mr. Evans served as an advisor to Bankrate's board of directors. From 1999 to 2003, Mr. Evans served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Official Payments Corp., an internet company specializing in processing consumer credit card payments for government taxes, fees and fines online. From March 1998 to June 1999, Mr. Evans was President and Chief Executive Officer of GeoCities Inc., a community of personal websites on the internet. Prior to his internet experience, Mr. Evans was a 20-year veteran of the magazine business. From January 1991 to February 1998, Mr. Evans was President and Publisher of U.S. News & World Report. In addition to his duties at U.S. News & World Report, Mr. Evans served as President of The Atlantic Monthly (1996 to 1998) and as President and Publisher of Fast Company (1995 to 1998), a magazine launched in 1995. Mr. Evans previously served as a director of Millennial Media, Inc. (NYSE: MM), a public mobile marketplace company, in 2014 to November 2015 and as a director of Future Fuel Corp. (NYSE: FF), a public chemical manufacturing company, from 2005 until September 2015. Mr. Evans currently serves as a director of Shutterstock, Inc. (NYSE: SSTK). Mr. Evans received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Arizona State University.

Alesia J. Haas, 40, has served as the Chief Financial Officer of Och Ziff Capital Management LLC since December 2016 and served from January 2013 until August 2015 as Chief Financial Officer of OneWest Bank, NA, a $22 billion commercial bank, which was acquired by CIT Group Inc. in August 2015. She was formerly the Interim Chief Financial Officer of OneWest Bank from September 2012 until January 2013, and Head of Strategy for OneWest Bank from March 2009 to August 2015, and her prior experience includes various investment banking, strategy and other roles with Merrill Lynch and General Electric. Ms. Haas served on the Board of Directors of Sears Holding Corp. from February 2016 to December 2016.

Angela R. Hicks Bowman, age 44, who goes by Angie Hicks, is the co-founder of Angie's List, and has served as its Chief Marketing Officer since May 2000 and on its board of directors since March 2013. As the sole employee in June 1995, Ms. Hicks Bowman started what would become Angie's List in Columbus, Ohio, serving as President from the inception of Angie's List in June 1995 until December 1998. She took a leave of absence from her position as President from December 1998 to May 2000 to pursue a Master of Business Administration. Ms. Hicks Bowman holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from DePauw University and a Master of Business Administration from Harvard Business School.

Mark Stein, age 49, has served as Executive Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer of IAC since January 2016 and prior to that time, served as Senior Vice President and Chief Strategy Officer of IAC from September 2015. Mr. Stein previously served as both Senior Vice President of Corporate Development at IAC (from January 2008) and Chief Strategy Officer of IAC Search & Applications, the desktop software, mobile applications and media properties that comprised IAC's former Search & Applications segment (from November 2012). Prior to his service in these roles, Mr. Stein served in several other capacities for IAC and its businesses, including as Chief Strategy Officer of Mindspark Interactive Network from 2009 to 2012, and prior to that time as Executive Vice President of Corporate and Business Development of IAC Search & Media. Mr. Stein has served on the board of directors of Match Group, Inc. since November 2015.

Suzy Welch, age 57, is a business journalist and public speaker. Ms. Welch is the author of the New York Times bestseller 10-10-10: A Life Transforming Idea, a guide to values-driven decision making. With her husband, Jack Welch, Ms. Welch is also the author of the international best-sellers, The Real Life MBA and Winning. In addition to her writing and public speaking, Ms. Welch has served as a television commentator for numerous networks since 2002, and exclusively for NBC and CNBC since 2015. She is also a contributing editor for LinkedIn, anchoring major editorial projects. Since 2010, Ms. Welch has also served as a curriculum advisor for the Jack Welch Management Institute, which she and her husband co-founded. Ms. Welch began her career working as a reporter for The Miami Herald from September 1981 through June 1985, after which she attended Harvard Business School, where she graduated as a Baker Scholar in 1988. She then worked as a management consultant at Bain & Co., before joining the Harvard Business Review as a senior editor in January 1995. She was named editor-in-chief in 2001, serving in that position until April 2002. Ms. Welch serves on several private company and non-profit boards, including the board of directors of the Humane Society of the United States, on which Ms. Welch has served since September 2015.

Gregg Winiarski, age 46, has served as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of IAC since February 2014 and previously served as Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of IAC from February 2009 to February 2014. Mr. Winiarski previously served as Associate General Counsel of IAC from February 2005, during which time he had primary responsibility for all legal aspects of IAC's mergers and acquisitions and other transactional work. Prior to joining IAC in February 2005, Mr. Winiarski was an associate with Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, a global law firm, from 1996 to February 2005. Prior to joining Skadden, Mr. Winiarski was a certified public accountant with Ernst & Young in New York. Mr. Winiarski has served on the board of directors of Match Group, Inc. since October 2015.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE OF ANGI HOMESERVICES FOLLOWING THE MERGER

Status as Controlled Company

Upon completion of the Transactions, IAC will continue to control a majority of the voting power of ANGI Homeservices' outstanding capital stock. As a result, ANGI Homeservices will be a "controlled company" under the NASDAQ Rules. As a controlled company, ANGI Homeservices will be exempt from the obligation to comply with certain corporate governance requirements under the NASDAQ Rules, including the requirements that:

- a majority of its board of directors be "independent" directors, as defined under the NASDAQ Rules;
- it have a compensation committee that is composed entirely of independent directors with a written charter addressing the committee's purpose and responsibilities; and
- it have a nominating/governance committee that is composed entirely of independent directors with a written charter addressing the committee's purpose and responsibilities.

ANGI Homeservices will agree in the Investor Rights Agreement to avail itself of the exemptions available to a controlled company so long as IAC's voting interest in ANGI Homeservices exceeds 50% (unless otherwise agreed to in advance by IAC). ANGI Homeservices does not currently intend to establish a separate nominating/governance committee, and nomination and corporate governance functions will be managed by the full board of directors until the NASDAQ Rules change, ANGI Homeservices ceases to be a "controlled company" or ANGI Homeservices otherwise determines to do so (subject to IAC's consent if required under the Investor Rights Agreement). The "controlled company" exemption does not modify the independence requirements for the audit committee of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, and ANGI Homeservices will comply with the requirements of the SEC and the NASDAQ Rules requiring that its audit committee be composed exclusively of independent directors.

Initial Board of Directors and Post-Closing Nomination Procedures

The Merger Agreement provides that the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices upon the completion of the Transactions will consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ rules and the Exchange Act, and two directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors. The directors selected by Angie's List will be Angela R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be able and willing to serve. For a description of IAC's rights following the completion of the Transactions to nominate directors and the procedure for selecting any successor(s) to Ms. Hicks Bowman and Mr. Evans prior to the date the 2020 annual meeting of stockholders of ANGI Homeservices is held, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Director Independence

Pursuant to the NASDAQ Rules, the ANGI Homeservices board of directors will have a responsibility to make an affirmative determination that those members of its board of directors that serve as independent directors do not have any relationships with ANGI Homeservices and its businesses that would impair their independence. In addition to determining whether each director satisfies the independence requirements set forth in the NASDAQ Rules, in the case of members of the audit and compensation committees of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, the board of directors will also have to make an affirmative determination that such members also satisfy separate independence requirements and current standards imposed by the SEC and the NASDAQ Rules for audit committee members and by the SEC, the NASDAQ Rules and the Internal Revenue Service for compensation committee members. In connection with these determinations, the board of directors will review information regarding transactions, relationships and arrangements involving ANGI Homeservices and its businesses and each of its directors that the board of directors deems relevant to independence, including those required by the NASDAQ Rules and the rules of the SEC and the Internal Revenue Service, as applicable. This information is obtained from director responses to a questionnaire that will be circulated by the management of ANGI Homeservices, the records of ANGI Homeservices and publicly available information. Following these determinations, the management of ANGI Homeservices will monitor those transactions, relationships and arrangements that are relevant to such determinations, as well as solicit updated information potentially relevant to independence from internal personnel and directors, in order to determine whether there have been any developments that could potentially have an adverse impact on prior independence determinations by the board of directors.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The ANGI Homeservices board of directors will establish a compensation committee. It is expected that no member of ANGI Homeservices' compensation committee (once formed) will be or will have been, during 2016, an officer or employee of ANGI Homeservices or IAC or will have engaged in any transaction in which ANGI Homeservices or IAC was a participant of the type that is required to be disclosed under Item 404 of Regulation S-K. It is expected that no interlocking relationship will exist between the ANGI Homeservices board of directors and its compensation committee and the board of directors or compensation committee of any other company.

Committees of the ANGI Homeservices Board of Directors

The ANGI Homeservices board of directors will establish standing committees in connection with the discharge of its responsibilities. Upon the commencement of the trading of the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices on NASDAQ, these committees will include an audit committee and a compensation committee. The ANGI Homeservices board of directors may also establish such other committees as it deems appropriate, in accordance with applicable law and regulations and the corporate governance documents of ANGI Homeservices.

Audit Committee

The audit committee will function pursuant to a written charter adopted by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. The audit committee will be appointed by the board of directors to assist the board with a variety of matters described in the audit committee charter, which include monitoring: (i) the integrity of the financial statements of ANGI Homeservices, (ii) the effectiveness of ANGI Homeservices' internal control over financial reporting, (iii) the qualifications and independence of ANGI Homeservices' independent registered public accounting firm, (iv) the performance of ANGI Homeservices' internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firm, (v) the risk assessment and risk management policies of ANGI Homeservices as they relate to financial and other risk exposures, and (vi) compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. In fulfilling its purpose, the audit committee will maintain free and open communication among itself, ANGI Homeservices' independent registered public accounting firm, its internal auditors and management. In addition, the Investor Rights Agreement will provide that the audit committee will be responsible (i) for compliance with Section 5630 of the NASDAQ Rules or any successor thereto, whether or not ANGI Homeservices ceases to be listed on the NASDAQ, and (ii) for reviewing any proposed amendments or waivers by ANGI Homeservices of any term of the Ancillary Agreements (other than immaterial amendments and waivers).

Upon the commencement of the trading of the Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices on NASDAQ, the audit committee will be composed solely of members who satisfy the applicable independence and other requirements of the NASDAQ Rules and the SEC for audit committees, and at least one of its members will be an "audit committee financial expert." Moreover, the Investor Rights Agreement will provide that, up until the date on which the 2020 annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders is held, at least one of the members of the audit committee will be either Thomas R. Evans or Angela R. Hicks Bowman (if he or she meets the requirements for service), or any successor to either of them appointed pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement and qualified to serve, as further described in the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Compensation Committee

The compensation committee will function pursuant to a written charter adopted by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. The compensation committee will be appointed by the board of directors to assist the board with all matters relating to the compensation of the executive officers of ANGI Homeservices and will have overall responsibility for approving and evaluating all compensation plans, policies and programs of the company as they affect the executive officers of ANGI Homeservices. The compensation committee will have the ability to form and delegate authority to subcommittees, as well as delegate authority to one or more of its members. The compensation committee will also have the ability to delegate the authority to make grants of equity based compensation to eligible individuals (other than directors or executive officers) to one or more of the executive officers of ANGI Homeservices to the extent allowed under applicable law.

Upon the commencement of the trading of the Class A Shares of ANGI Homeservices on NASDAQ, the compensation committee will be composed solely of members who satisfy the applicable independence and other requirements of the NASDAQ Rules, the SEC and the Internal Revenue Service for compensation committee members.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Prior to the completion of the Transactions, the ANGI Homeservices board of directors will adopt a code of business conduct and ethics that will apply to all of the directors, officers and employees of ANGI Homeservices, including the principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer and persons performing similar functions. The code of ethics will be available upon written request to the corporate secretary or on the ANGI Homeservices website, which is expected to be made available at www.ANGIHomeservices.com following the completion of the Transactions. If ANGI Homeservices amends or grants any waiver from a provision of its code of ethics that applies to its directors or executive officers, ANGI Homeservices will publicly disclose such amendment or waiver on its website and as required by applicable law, including by filing a Current Report on Form 8-K.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE HOMEADVISOR BUSINESS

About the HomeAdvisor Business

The HomeAdvisor Business, which is sometimes referred to in this section as "HomeAdvisor" for simplicity, is the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, connecting homeowners with service professionals for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects. HomeAdvisor's marketplace provides the tools and resources to allow homeowners to find local prescreened service professionals and instantly book appointments online or through HomeAdvisor's award-winning mobile application. HomeAdvisor's marketplace also provides consumers with other home services-related resources, including access to average project costs using HomeAdvisor's True Cost Guide. In addition to its market-leading U.S. operations, the HomeAdvisor Business owns the leading home services online marketplaces in Canada (HomeStars), Germany (MyHammer), France (Travaux.com) and the Netherlands (Werkspot), as well as operations in Italy (Instapro) and the United Kingdom (MyBuilder). The HomeAdvisor Business also operates Felix, a pay-per-call advertising service, and mHelpDesk, a provider of cloud-based field service software for small to mid-size businesses.

As of June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business's network of service professionals in the United States consisted of approximately 164,000 paying professionals providing services in more than 500 categories ranging from simple home repairs to larger home remodeling projects in more than 400 discrete geographies. The HomeAdvisor Business generated approximately 15.7 million service requests from homeowners in the United States during the twelve months ended June 30, 2017.

The HomeAdvisor Business operates in two segments: (i) North America, which is comprised of the brands HomeAdvisor, HomeStars, Felix and mHelpDesk, and (ii) Europe, which is comprised of the brands MyHammer, Travaux.com, Werkspot, Instapro and myBuilder.

The Home Services Market

The HomeAdvisor Business serves a large and growing market. The total value of the home services market in the United States, in particular, is estimated to be approximately $400 billion, according to Cowen and Company. According to the U.S. Census Bureau's 2015 American Housing Survey, there are 74 million owner-occupied households in the United States and, on average, homeowners complete over six jobs per year, according to HomeAdvisor's internal brand tracking study. The home services market is one of the few remaining marketplaces in which digital penetration remains low. HomeAdvisor estimates that a significant portion of home-service requests are fulfilled offline through word of mouth and referrals. HomeAdvisor expects the migration to online marketplaces for finding and booking home services to accelerate in the future due to many factors, including: (i) the increased convenience and appeal of matching homeowners with service professionals through the application of technology, facilitated by the increased consumer adoption of internet-connected mobile devices, (ii) an increasing supply of digitally-savvy service professionals as more of them join online marketplaces as part of the continued shift toward more efficient and trackable marketing solutions and (iii) favorable demographic trends, including increasing homeownership by millennials, who HomeAdvisor believes are generally more willing to use online services than older populations.

Services for Consumers

Matching Services. When a consumer submits a request through the HomeAdvisor marketplace, HomeAdvisor, using its proprietary algorithm, generally matches that consumer with up to four service professionals from its network based on a number of factors, including the type of services desired, service professional availability to accept jobs and the consumer's location. Consumers can then review profiles of service professionals with whom they have been matched and select the professional whom they believe best meets their specific needs. In addition to (or in lieu of) submitting a request through the HomeAdvisor marketplace, consumers can also search, select and contact service professionals through HomeAdvisor's online directory. In all cases, the consumer is under no obligation to work with service professionals referred by, or found through, HomeAdvisor.

On-Demand Services. HomeAdvisor also provides two on-demand services that complement its matching services: Instant Booking and Instant Connect (patent-pending). Through Instant Booking, consumers can schedule appointments for select home tasks on-demand with a pre-screened service professional instantly across HomeAdvisor's platforms (website or mobile application), and through Instant Connect, consumers can connect with a service professional instantly via phone. In certain markets, HomeAdvisor offers a same-day service functionality.

Other Services. In addition to matching and on-demand services, consumers can access HomeAdvisor's free, online True Cost Guide, which provides project cost information for more than 400 project types on a local basis, as well as an online library of home services-related resources, which consists primarily of articles about home improvement, repair and maintenance, tools to assist consumers with the research, planning and management of their projects and general advice for working with service professionals.

Consumers can also access HomeAdvisor services and tools on iOS and Android devices (including the Apple Watch) and through HomeAdvisor's mobile application, as well as access its Instant Connect service through the Amazon Echo and its voice-controlled Alexa personal assistant service.

Subscription Services for Service Professionals

Service professionals who are new to the HomeAdvisor marketplace must sign up for an annual membership package. The basic annual membership package includes membership in HomeAdvisor's network of service professionals, as well as a listing in the HomeAdvisor online directory and matches through the marketplace. HomeAdvisor also offers subscription products that include custom website development and hosting services, as well as integration with mHelpDesk.

Revenue

HomeAdvisor's revenue is primarily derived from consumer connection revenue, which comprises fees paid by service professionals for consumer matches (regardless of whether the professional ultimately provides the requested service) and membership subscription fees paid by service professionals. Consumer connection revenue varies based upon certain factors including the service requested, type of match (such as Instant Booking or Instant Connect) and where the service is provided.

Marketing

HomeAdvisor markets its services to homeowners through search engine marketing, television advertising and affiliate agreements with third parties. Pursuant to these affiliate agreements, third parties agree to advertise and promote on their websites HomeAdvisor's services and those of service professionals that participate in the HomeAdvisor network, and in exchange HomeAdvisor agrees to pay these third parties a fixed fee when visitors from their websites submit a valid service request through the HomeAdvisor platform (on a cost-per-acquisition basis) or click through to the HomeAdvisor platform (on a cost-per-click basis). HomeAdvisor also markets its services to consumers through emails, digital display advertisements, partnerships with other contextually related websites and, to a lesser extent, through direct mail and radio advertising. HomeAdvisor markets its subscription packages to service professionals primarily through its sales force, as well as through search engine marketing, digital media advertising and direct relationships with trade associations and manufacturers.

Table of ContentsAcquisition Strategy

In addition to growing its brands organically, the HomeAdvisor Business opportunistically pursues acquisitions of brands, businesses, products and technologies, including in new geographical markets into which HomeAdvisor seeks to expand. Acquisitions by the HomeAdvisor Business within the last five years have included: Werkspot (April 2013); majority stakes in mHelpDesk (September 2014), MyHammer (November 2016) and HomeStars (February 2017); and MyBuilder (March 2017).

Competition

The home services industry is highly competitive, fragmented and, in many important respects, local. The HomeAdvisor Business competes with, among others, (i) home services-related lead generation services, (ii) internet search engines and online directories and (iii) various forms of local advertising, including radio, direct marketing campaigns, yellow pages, newspapers and other offline directories. HomeAdvisor also competes with local and national retailers of home improvement products that offer or promote installation services. HomeAdvisor believes its biggest competition comes from the traditional methods many people use to find service professionals: word-of-mouth and referrals.

HomeAdvisor believes that its ability to compete successfully will depend primarily upon the following factors:

- the size, quality (as determined, in part, by reference to its pre-screening process, ongoing quality control efforts and customer ratings and reviews), diversity and stability of its network of service professionals and the quality of the services they provide;
- its ability to maintain a robust online marketplace for home services that consistently generates service requests that convert into revenue for its network of service professionals in a cost-effective manner;
- the functionality of its websites and mobile applications and the attractiveness of their features and its services generally to consumers and service professionals, as well as its ability to introduce new products and services that resonate with consumers and service professionals; and
- its ability to continue to build and maintain awareness of, and trust in and loyalty to, the brands that are owned and operated by the HomeAdvisor Business.

Intellectual Property

The HomeAdvisor Business protects its intellectual property through a combination of trademarks, trade dress, domain name registrations, trade secrets and patents applications, as well as contractual provisions and restrictions on access to and use of proprietary information.

Registered trademarks of the HomeAdvisor Business include "HomeAdvisor" and "1-800-Contractor" in the United States, as well as other trademarks in Canada and Europe. The HomeAdvisor Business has also filed other trademark applications in the United States and certain other jurisdictions and will pursue additional trademark registrations to the extent it believes it will be beneficial and cost-effective.

The HomeAdvisor Business has one patent issued in the United States and four patent applications pending in the United States and internationally. The HomeAdvisor Business intends to pursue additional patent protection to the extent it believes it will be beneficial and cost-effective.

One or more HomeAdvisor Entities is the registered holder of a variety of domestic and international domain names that include "HomeAdvisor.com," "ServiceMagic.com," "HomeStars.com," "MyBuilder.com," "My-Hammer.de," "Travaux.com," "werkspot.nl" and "instapro.it."

In addition to the protection provided by the intellectual property rights of the HomeAdvisor Business, from time to time one or more HomeAdvisor Entities enters into confidentiality and proprietary rights agreements with its employees, consultants, contractors and business partners. Employees and contractors of the HomeAdvisor Business are also subject to invention assignment provisions. The HomeAdvisor Business further controls the use of its proprietary technology and intellectual property through provisions in both its consumer and service professional terms of use on its websites and mobile applications.

Government Regulation

The HomeAdvisor Business is subject to foreign and domestic laws and regulations that affect companies conducting business on the internet generally and through mobile applications, including laws relating to the liability of providers of online services for their operations and the activities of their users. As a result, the HomeAdvisor Business could be subject to actions based on negligence, various torts and trademark and copyright infringement, among other actions.

Because the HomeAdvisor Business receives, stores and uses a substantial amount of information received from or generated by the users of its online platforms, the HomeAdvisor Business is also impacted by laws and regulations governing privacy, the storage, sharing, use, processing, disclosure and protection of personal data and data breaches, primarily in the case of its operations in the European Union and its handling of personal data of users located in the European Union. As a result, the HomeAdvisor Business could be subject to various private and governmental claims and actions.

The HomeAdvisor Business is also subject to laws governing marketing and advertising activities conducted by telephone, email, mobile devices, and the internet, including the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, the Telemarketing Sales Rule, the CAN-SPAM Act, and similar state laws.

As a provider of products with a membership-based element, the HomeAdvisor Business is also subject to laws and regulations in certain U.S. states and other countries that apply to its automatically-renewing membership payment models.

For more information regarding these and other regulatory and legal risks faced by the HomeAdvisor Business (and, following the Merger, the combined business of ANGI Homeservices), see the section entitled "Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Business of ANGI Homeservices Following the Completion of the Transactions."

Financial Information About Segments and Geographic Areas

Segment and geographic information regarding the HomeAdvisor Business is set forth in the sections entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the HomeAdvisor Business" and "Selected Historical Combined Financial Information of the HomeAdvisor Business," as well as in the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Index to the Combined Financial Statements of the HomeAdvisor Business."

Employees

As of June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business had approximately 2,720 full-time employees and approximately 80 part-time employees worldwide.

Additional Information

HomeAdvisor, Inc., which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as "HomeAdvisor (US)," was incorporated in Delaware on December 18, 1998 as W3 Ventures, Inc. The entity's name was changed to Wisen.com, Inc. on May 18, 1999 and to ServiceMagic, Inc. on January 13, 2000.

ServiceMagic, Inc. was acquired by, and became a wholly owned subsidiary of, IAC on September 1, 2004. On September 19, 2012, the entity's name was changed to HomeAdvisor, Inc. Prior to the completion of the Merger, IAC will contribute the HomeAdvisor Business to ANGI Homeservices pursuant to the Contribution, at which point HomeAdvisor (US) will become a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices. For additional information, see the section entitled "The Transactions."

The headquarters of the HomeAdvisor Business is located at 14023 Denver West Parkway, Building 64, Suite 100, Golden, Colorado 80401, and its phone number is 1 (877) 800-3177. HomeAdvisor's website address is www.homeadvisor.com. Information contained on, or that can be accessed through, HomeAdvisor's website does not constitute part of this proxy statement/prospectus, and inclusion of HomeAdvisor's website address in this proxy statement/prospectus is an inactive textual reference only.

Properties

The corporate headquarters of the HomeAdvisor Business are located in Golden, Colorado. The HomeAdvisor Business does not own any real property.

The facilities of the HomeAdvisor Business, which it leases both in the United States and abroad, consist of executive and administrative offices and data centers. Certain significant properties that the HomeAdvisor Business leases, all of which consist of executive and administrative offices, are described in the table below.

Location	Approximate Area	Lease Expiration Date	Use
Golden, Colorado	127,000 square feet	December 31, 2019	Current HomeAdvisor headquarters
Denver, Colorado	70,000 square feet	Anticipated to be in 2029	Future HomeAdvisor headquarters
Lenexa, Kansas	35,000 square feet	October 31, 2020	HomeAdvisor Sales Office
New York, New York	26,000 square feet	August 31, 2017	Felix headquarters/HomeAdvisor Sales Office
New York, New York	43,000 square feet	Anticipated to be in 2028	HomeAdvisor Sales Office

The HomeAdvisor Business also leases space in a data center in Aurora, Colorado for its North America operations.

Management of the HomeAdvisor Business believes that its current facilities are adequate to meet its ongoing needs. Management also believes that, if additional space is required, the HomeAdvisor Business will be able to lease additional facilities on commercially reasonable terms.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, the HomeAdvisor Business is involved in various legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business activities, such as patent infringement claims and service professional, customer, employee or advertising complaints. The amounts that may be recovered in such matters may be subject to insurance coverage. Although the results of legal proceedings and claims cannot be predicted with certainty, none of the HomeAdvisor Entities is currently a party to any legal proceedings the outcome of which, management of the HomeAdvisor Business believes, if determined adversely to it, would individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition or results of operations of the HomeAdvisor business. See also the section entitled "Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Business of ANGI Homeservices Following the Completion of the Transactions—ANGI Homeservices may be subject to litigation, and adverse outcomes in such litigation could have an adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations."

Rules of the SEC require the description of material pending legal proceedings (other than ordinary, routine litigation incident to the registrant's business) and advise that proceedings ordinarily need not be described if they primarily involve damages claims for amounts (exclusive of interest and costs) not exceeding 10% of the current assets of the registrant and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis. In the judgment of management of the HomeAdvisor Business, none of the pending litigation matters that it is defending, including that described below, involves or is likely to involve amounts of that magnitude. The litigation matter described below involves issues or claims that may be of particular interest to stockholders of ANGI Homeservices, regardless of whether this matter may be material to the financial position or operations of the HomeAdvisor Business based upon the standard set forth in the SEC's rules.

Service Professional Class Action Litigation against HomeAdvisor. In July 2016, a putative class action, Airquip, Inc. v. HomeAdvisor, Inc. et al., No. 1:16-cv-1849, was filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado. The complaint, as amended, alleges that HomeAdvisor engages in certain deceptive practices affecting the service professionals who join its network, including charging them for substandard customer leads or failing to disclose certain charges. The complaint seeks certification of a nationwide class consisting of all HomeAdvisor service professionals since October 2012, asserts claims including fraud and violation of the Colorado Consumer Protection Act ("CCPA") and the federal RICO statute, and seeks injunctive relief and damages in an unspecified amount. In December 2016, HomeAdvisor filed a motion to dismiss the RICO and CCPA claims, which remains pending. Discovery is under way, and the issue of class certification remains to be litigated. The Company believes that the allegations in this lawsuit are without merit and will continue to defend vigorously against them.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF THE HOMEADVISOR BUSINESS

The following discussion and analysis of the financial condition and results of operations of the HomeAdvisor Business should be read together with the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business and the related notes and the other information included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. See "Index to the Combined Financial Statements of the HomeAdvisor Business." The historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business have been prepared on a standalone basis and are derived from the consolidated financial statements and accounting records of IAC. The combined financial statements reflect the historical financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the businesses comprising the HomeAdvisor Business since their respective dates of acquisition by IAC and the allocation to the HomeAdvisor Business of certain IAC corporate expenses relating to the HomeAdvisor Business based on the historical financial statements and accounting records of IAC. In the opinion of management of the HomeAdvisor Business, the assumptions underlying the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, including the basis on which the expenses have been allocated from IAC, are reasonable. However, the allocations may not reflect the expenses that the HomeAdvisor Business may have incurred as an independent, standalone company (or as part of ANGI Homeservices) for the periods presented. For the purposes of the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, income taxes have been computed as if the entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business filed on a standalone, separate tax return basis. The historical financial results of the HomeAdvisor Business do not necessarily reflect what the historical financial position and results of operations would have been had the HomeAdvisor Business been a standalone public company (or a part of ANGI Homeservices) during the periods presented. In addition, the historical financial results of the HomeAdvisor Business are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for any future period, and results for any interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

The following discussion contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. The actual results, performance and achievements of the HomeAdvisor Business could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those discussed below and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, particularly in the sections entitled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors."

Overview

The HomeAdvisor Business, which is comprised of HomeAdvisor (US), HomeAdvisor (International) and each of their respective subsidiaries, and is sometimes referred to in this section as "HomeAdvisor," the "Company," "we," "our," or "us" for simplicity, is the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, connecting homeowners with service professionals for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects. HomeAdvisor's marketplace provides the tools and resources to allow homeowners to find local prescreened service professionals and instantly book appointments online or through HomeAdvisor's award-winning mobile application. HomeAdvisor's marketplace also provides consumers with other home services-related resources, including access to average project costs using HomeAdvisor's True Cost Guide. In addition to its market-leading U.S. operations, the HomeAdvisor Business owns the leading home services online marketplaces in Canada (HomeStars), which was acquired on February 8, 2017, Germany (MyHammer), which was acquired on November 3, 2016, France (Travaux.com) and the Netherlands (Werkspot), as well as operations in Italy (Instapro) and the United Kingdom (MyBuilder), which was acquired on March 24, 2017. The HomeAdvisor Business also operates Felix, a pay-per-call advertising service, and mHelpDesk, a provider of cloud-based field service software for small to mid-size businesses.

As of June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business's network of service professionals in the United States consisted of approximately 164,000 paying professionals providing services in more than 500 categories ranging from simple home repairs to larger home remodeling projects in more than 400 discrete geographies. The HomeAdvisor Business generated approximately 15.7 million domestic service requests from homeowners in the United States during the twelve months ended June 30, 2017.

The HomeAdvisor Business operates in two segments: (i) North America, which is comprised of the brands HomeAdvisor, HomeStars, Felix and mHelpDesk, and (ii) Europe, which is comprised of the brands MyHammer, Travaux.com, Werkspot, Instapro and MyBuilder.

HomeAdvisor markets its services to homeowners through search engine marketing, television advertising and affiliate agreements with third parties. Pursuant to these affiliate agreements, third parties agree to advertise and promote on their websites HomeAdvisor's services and those of service professionals that participate in the HomeAdvisor network, and in exchange HomeAdvisor agrees to pay these third parties a fixed fee when visitors from their websites submit a valid service request through the HomeAdvisor platform (on a cost-per-acquisition basis) or click through to the HomeAdvisor platform (on a cost-per-click basis). HomeAdvisor also markets its services to consumers through emails, digital display advertisements, partnerships with other contextually related websites and, to a lesser extent, through direct mail and radio advertising. HomeAdvisor markets its subscription packages to service professionals primarily through its sales force, as well as through search engine marketing, digital media advertising and direct relationships with trade associations and manufacturers. We have made, and expect to continue to make, substantial investments in online and offline advertising to homeowners to promote our services and drive traffic to our platform and to service professionals to expand our network.

Other Factors Affecting the Comparability of Our Results

On March 24, 2017, the Company acquired a controlling interest in MyBuilder Limited ("MyBuilder"), one of the leading home services platforms in the United Kingdom, which is included in our Europe segment.

On February 8, 2017, the Company acquired a controlling interest in HomeStars Inc. ("HomeStars"), the leading home services platform in Canada, which is included in our North America segment.

On November 3, 2016, the Company acquired a controlling interest in MyHammer Holding AG ("MyHammer"), the leading home services marketplace in Germany, which is included in our Europe segment.

On August 29, 2014, the Company acquired a controlling interest in mHelpDesk Inc. ("mHelpDesk"), a provider of cloud-based field service software for small to mid-size businesses in the United States, which is included in our North America segment.

During the fourth quarter of 2014, the Company closed its then-existing United Kingdom business.

Key Metrics

In connection with the management of our businesses we identify, measure and assess a variety of key metrics. The principal metrics we use in managing our business are set forth below:

- Domestic Revenue—reflects the HomeAdvisor-branded marketplace service and its owned affiliates. It excludes the other businesses within the North America segment.
- Domestic Service Requests—are fully completed and submitted customer service requests.
- Domestic Paying Service Professionals (or "Domestic Paying SPs")—are the number of service professionals that had an active membership and/or paid for consumer matches in the last month of the period.

Revenue is primarily derived from consumer connection revenue, which comprises fees paid by service professionals for consumer matches (regardless of whether the professional ultimately provides the requested service) and membership subscription fees paid by service professionals. Consumer connection revenue varies based upon certain factors including the service requested, type of match (such as Instant Booking or Instant Connect) and where the service is provided.

The Company's consumer connection revenue is generated and recognized when an in-network service professional is delivered a consumer match. Membership subscription revenue is generated through subscription sales to service professionals and is deferred and recognized over the term of the applicable membership. Membership agreements can be one month, three months, or one year. Deferred revenue is $25.6 million, $18.8 million and $11.9 million at June 30, 2017, December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Cost of revenue

Cost of revenue consists primarily of traffic acquisition costs and credit card processing fees. Traffic acquisition costs consist of amounts based on revenue share arrangements.

Selling and marketing expense

Selling and marketing expense consists primarily of advertising expenditures and compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in selling and marketing, and sales support. Advertising and promotional expense includes online marketing, including fees paid to search engines, and offline marketing, which is primarily television advertising and partner-related payments to those who direct traffic to our brands.

General and administrative expense

General and administrative expense consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs for personnel engaged in executive management, finance, legal, tax, human resources and customer service functions, bad debt expense, facilities costs and fees for professional services.

Product development expense

Product development expense consists primarily of compensation (including stock-based compensation) and other employee-related costs that are not capitalized for personnel engaged in the design, development, testing and enhancement of product offerings and related technology.

Non-GAAP financial measure

Adjusted Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization ("Adjusted EBITDA") —is a non-GAAP financial measure. See the section entitled "—HomeAdvisor's Principles of Financial Reporting" for the definition of Adjusted EBITDA.

General and administrative expense	$ 88,874	$ 38,149	75%
Percentage of revenue	27%		21%

North America general and administrative expense increased $31.9 million, or 74%, in 2017 versus 2016, due primarily to higher compensation expense of $15.9 million and increases of $5.3 million in bad debt expense due to higher revenue, $4.0 million in transaction-related costs ($3.7 million related to the proposed Angie's List transaction and $0.4 million related to the acquisition of HomeStars in 2017), $2.3 million in outsourced customer service expense and $1.3 million in software maintenance costs, as well as $1.3 million of expense from the inclusion of HomeStars. The increase in compensation expense is due to an increase of $11.5 million in stock-based compensation due primarily to the modification charge related to an equity award and the issuance of new equity awards since the prior year, and an increase in headcount from business growth.

Europe general and administrative expense increased $6.2 million, or 80%, in 2017 versus 2016, due primarily to $3.7 million of expense from the inclusion of MyHammer and MyBuilder, $0.8 million in transaction-related costs in 2017 and an increase of $0.9 million in compensation expense due, in part, to increased headcount.

Operating income decreased $10.4 million, to an operating loss of $1.4 million in 2017 versus operating income of $9.0 million in 2016.

North America operating income decreased $3.4 million, or 29%, in 2017 versus 2016, primarily due to increases of $12.0 million in stock-based compensation expense, $2.3 million in depreciation and $0.6 million in amortization of intangibles, partially offset by the increase of $11.4 million in Adjusted EBITDA described below. The increase in stock-based compensation expense is due primarily to the modification charge related to an equity award and the issuance of new equity awards since the prior year.

Europe operating loss increased $7.0 million, or 267%, in 2017 versus 2016, primarily due to the increase in Adjusted EBITDA loss of $4.9 million described below and an increase of $2.0 million in amortization of intangibles.

At June 30, 2017, there was $56.6 million of unrecognized compensation cost, net of estimated forfeitures, related to all equity-based awards, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 3.1 years.

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure and is defined below in the section entitled "HomeAdvisor's Principles of Financial Reporting." For a reconciliation of operating (loss) income for the Company's reportable segments and net earnings attributable to IAC equity in HomeAdvisor Business to Adjusted EBITDA, see "Note 7—Segment Information" to the unaudited combined

Adjusted EBITDA increased $6.5 million, or 35%, in 2017 versus 2016.

North America Adjusted EBITDA grew $11.4 million, or 57%, in 2017 versus 2016, due primarily to the increase in revenue, partially offset by increased investment in online and offline marketing of $34.7 million, higher compensation expense due, in part, to increased headcount, an increase of $5.3 million in bad debt expense due to higher revenue and $4.0 million in transaction-related costs ($3.7 million related to the proposed Angie's List transaction and $0.4 million related to the acquisition of HomeStars in 2017). Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by a $0.6 million write-off of deferred revenue related to the acquisition of HomeStars in 2017.

Europe Adjusted EBITDA loss increased $4.9 million, or 395%, in 2017 versus 2016, driven primarily by our European expansion strategy including increased investment in online and offline marketing of $3.3 million and higher compensation expense of $5.0 million due, in part, to increased headcount and the inclusion of MyHammer and MyBuilder in 2017. Adjusted EBITDA was also impacted by $0.8 million in transaction-related costs in 2017.

The 2017 income tax benefit is due primarily to the effect of adopting the provisions of the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2016-09, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting, on January 1, 2017. Under ASU No. 2016-09, excess tax benefits generated by the settlement or exercise of stock-based awards of $33.5 million in the first six months of 2017 are recognized as a reduction to the income tax provision rather than additional paid-in capital.

The 2016 effective income tax rate is higher than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to unbenefited losses in separate jurisdictions.

For further details of income tax matters, see "Note 2—Income Taxes" to the unaudited combined interim financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Net loss attributable to noncontrolling interests

Noncontrolling interests represent the noncontrolling holders' percentage share of earnings or losses from the subsidiaries in which the Company holds a majority, but less than 100%, ownership interest and the results of which are included in our combined financial statements.

Revenue increased $137.7 million, or 38%, in 2016 versus 2015.

North America revenue increased $132.0 million, or 40%, in 2016 versus 2015, due primarily to an increase of $113.2 million, or 42%, in consumer connection revenue. Revenue growth was driven by a 41% increase in Domestic Paying SPs to 143,000 and a 34% increase in Domestic Service Requests to 13.2 million.

Europe revenue grew $5.7 million, or 18%, in 2016 versus 2015. The growth in Europe revenue was driven by an increase of $4.8 million, or 21%, in consumer connection revenue due primarily to organic growth across all territories, as well as the acquisition of a controlling interest in MyHammer on November 3, 2016.

Revenue increased $77.7 million, or 27%, in 2015 versus 2014.

North America revenue grew $91.7 million, or 38%, in 2015 versus 2014, due primarily to an increase of $75.5 million, or 39%, in consumer connection revenue. Revenue growth was driven by a 49% higher increase in Domestic Service Requests to 9.8 million and a 46% increase in Domestic Paying SPs to 102,000.

Europe revenue declined $14.0 million, or 31%, in 2015 versus 2014, due primarily to the closure of the Company's then-existing operations in the United Kingdom in the fourth quarter of 2014.

General and administrative expense increased $14.9 million, or 21%, in 2015 versus 2014.

North America general and administrative expense increased $19.9 million, or 37%, in 2015 versus 2014, due primarily to an increase of $10.9 million in compensation resulting primarily from an increase in stock-based compensation expense and increased head count, an increase of $4.1 million in bad debt expense due to higher revenue, an increase of $1.9 million in outsourced customer service expenses and an increase of $1.2 million in software maintenance costs. Stock-based compensation expense increased $5.9 million in 2015 due to the impact of a true up of estimated to actual forfeitures in 2014 and the issuance of new equity awards since the prior year.

Europe general and administrative expense decreased $5.0 million, or 28%, in 2015 versus 2014, due primarily to decreases of $1.7 million in bad debt expense and $1.4 million in compensation expense due, in part, to the closure of the Company's then-existing operations in the United Kingdom in the fourth quarter of 2014.

Operating income increased $25.6 million in 2016 versus 2015.

North America operating income increased $30.2 million, or 1,305%, due primarily to the increase of $31.9 million in Adjusted EBITDA described below, and a decrease of $0.8 million in amortization of intangibles, partially offset by increases of $2.2 million in depreciation and $0.4 million in stock-based compensation expense.

Europe operating loss increased $4.5 million, or 117%, due primarily to the increase in Adjusted EBITDA loss of $4.1 million described below, as well as increases of $0.7 million in stock-based compensation expense and $0.2 million in amortization of intangibles, partially offset by a decrease of $0.4 million in depreciation.

At December 31, 2016, there was $16.1 million of unrecognized compensation cost, net of estimated forfeitures, related to all equity-based awards, which is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of approximately 2.5 years.

Operating income decreased $2.2 million, in 2015 versus 2014.

North America operating income decreased $1.7 million, or 43%, in 2015 versus 2014, despite an increase of $0.9 million in Adjusted EBITDA described below and a decrease of $5.3 million in amortization of intangibles, due primarily to increases of $7.1 million in stock-based compensation and $0.8 million in depreciation. The decrease in amortization of intangibles is due primarily to a trade name becoming fully amortized in 2014. The increase in stock-based compensation expense is due to the impact of a true up of estimated to actual forfeitures in 2014 and the issuance of new equity awards since the prior year.

Adjusted EBITDA increased $27.8 million, or 167%, in 2016 versus 2015.

North America Adjusted EBITDA grew $31.9 million, or 175%, in 2016 versus 2015, due primarily to an increase of $132.0 million in revenue, partially offset by increased investment in online and offline marketing of $48.5 million. Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by higher compensation expense due, in part, to increased headcount and an increase in bad debt expense due to higher revenue.

Europe Adjusted EBITDA loss increased $4.1 million, or 277%, in 2016 versus 2015, despite an increase of $5.7 million in revenue, due primarily to increased investment in online marketing of $2.5 million, transaction-related costs of $2.1 million and higher compensation expense due primarily to increased headcount. Adjusted EBITDA was further impacted by a $0.5 million write off of deferred revenue related to the acquisition of MyHammer.

Adjusted EBITDA increased $0.3 million, or 2%, in 2015 versus 2014.

North America Adjusted EBITDA grew $0.9 million, or 5%, in 2015 versus 2014, due primarily to higher revenue, partially offset by increased investment in offline and online marketing, higher compensation expense, and increased bad debt expense and outsourced customer service expenses.

Europe Adjusted EBITDA loss increased $0.6 million, or 75%, in 2015 versus 2014, due primarily to lower revenue resulting from the closure of the Company's then-existing operations in the United Kingdom in the fourth quarter of 2014.

In 2016, the effective income tax rate was higher than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to unbenefited losses in separate jurisdictions and state taxes, partially offset by research credits.

In 2015, the income tax provision is due primarily to an increase in income tax reserves and unbenefited losses in separate jurisdictions, partially offset by research credits.

In 2014, the income tax provision is due primarily to unbenefited losses in separate jurisdictions and state taxes, partially offset by research credits.

At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Company had unrecognized tax benefits, including interest, of $0.6 million and $2.0 million, respectively. Included in unrecognized tax benefits at December 31, 2016 and 2015, is approximately $0.6 million and $0.3 million, respectively, for tax positions included in IAC's consolidated tax return filings. Unrecognized tax benefits, including interest, for the year ended December 31, 2016 decreased by $1.4 million due principally to settlements. If unrecognized tax benefits at December 31, 2016 are subsequently recognized, income tax expense would be reduced by $0.6 million. The comparable amount as of December 31, 2015 is $1.9 million.

HomeAdvisor's Principles of Financial Reporting

We report Adjusted EBITDA as a supplemental measure to GAAP. This measure is one of the primary metrics by which we evaluate the performance of our businesses, on which our internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. We believe that investors should have access to, and we are obligated to provide, the same set of tools that we use in analyzing our results. This non-GAAP measure should be considered in addition to results prepared in accordance with GAAP, but should not be considered a substitute for or superior to GAAP results. We endeavor to compensate for the limitations of the non-GAAP measure presented by providing the comparable GAAP measure with equal or greater prominence and descriptions of the reconciling items, including quantifying such items, to derive the non-GAAP measure. We encourage investors to examine the reconciling adjustments between the GAAP and non-GAAP measure, which we discuss below.

Definition of HomeAdvisor's Non-GAAP Measure

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets, if applicable. We believe this measure is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between our performance and that of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments. The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, and we believe that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business, from which capital investments are made and debt is serviced. Adjusted EBITDA has certain limitations in that it does not take into account the impact to our combined statement of operations of certain expenses.

For a reconciliation of operating (loss) income by reportable segment and net (loss) earnings attributable to IAC equity in HomeAdvisor Business to Adjusted EBITDA for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016 and for the years ended December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, see Note 7 and Note 9 "—Segment Information" to the unaudited and audited combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Non-cash expenses that are excluded from HomeAdvisor's Non-GAAP Measure

Stock-based compensation expense consists principally of expense associated with the grants of stock appreciation rights, stock options, restricted stock units, or RSUs, and performance-based RSUs. These expenses are not paid in cash. Upon the exercise of certain stock appreciation rights, stock options and vesting of RSUs and performance-based RSUs, the awards are settled, at the Company's discretion, on a net basis, with the Company remitting the required tax-withholding amount from its current funds.

Depreciation is a non-cash expense relating to our property and equipment and is computed using the straight-line method to allocate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the lease term, if shorter.

Amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets are non-cash expenses. At the time of an acquisition, the identifiable definite-lived intangible assets of the acquired company, such as technology, contractor relationships, customer lists and user base, and trade names are valued and amortized over their estimated lives. Value is also assigned to acquired indefinite-lived intangible assets, which comprise trade names and trademarks, and goodwill that are not subject to amortization. An impairment is recorded when the carrying value of an intangible asset or goodwill exceeds its fair value. While it is likely that we will have significant intangible amortization expense as we continue to acquire companies, we believe that intangible assets represent costs incurred by the acquired company to build value prior to acquisition and the related amortization and impairment charges of goodwill or intangible assets, if applicable, are not ongoing costs of doing business.

At June 30, 2017, we had $45.3 million of cash and cash equivalents. Internationally, cash equivalents primarily consist of AAA rated government money market funds. Domestically, we participate in IAC's centrally managed U.S. treasury management function in which IAC sweeps domestic cash of HomeAdvisor (US). Long-term debt—related party consists of various promissory notes. See "Note 9—Related Party Transactions" to the unaudited combined interim financial statements and "Note 12—Related Party Transactions" to the audited combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus for additional information on Long-term debt—related party. At June 30, 2017, all cash and cash equivalents was held by entities that are part of the HomeAdvisor Business and are organized and operate outside of the United States. If needed for our U.S. operations, all but $11.8 million of the cash and cash equivalents held by these entities organized outside of the United States could be repatriated without incurring a federal or state income tax liability. The estimated amount of the unrecognized deferred income tax liability with respect to the $11.8 million of such earnings would be $3.6 million. We currently do not anticipate a need to repatriate these funds to finance our U.S. operations and it is our intent to indefinitely reinvest these funds outside of the U.S., therefore, we have not provided for the $3.6 million in U.S. income taxes related to these funds.

HomeAdvisor (US) and certain of its wholly owned domestic subsidiaries are guarantors of IAC's 2013 Senior Notes (4.875% Senior Notes due November 30, 2018; $361.9 million outstanding at June 30, 2017) and 2012 Senior Notes (4.75% Senior Notes due December 15, 2022; $34.9 million outstanding at June 30, 2017). IAC's $300 million revolving credit facility, which terminates on October 7, 2020 and is undrawn at June 30, 2017, is also unconditionally guaranteed by HomeAdvisor (US) and the same domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes and, additionally, is secured by the stock of HomeAdvisor (US) and the stock of certain other domestic and foreign entities that are part of the HomeAdvisor Business. At June 30, 2017, there are no outstanding borrowings under IAC's revolving credit facility. We have not recorded a liability pursuant to this guarantor obligation because HomeAdvisor (US) has not agreed to pay a specific amount through an arrangement with our co-obligors and we do not expect to pay any amount as a result of our guarantee of IAC's Senior Notes and IAC's revolving credit facility. Upon completion of the Transactions, HomeAdvisor (US) and certain of its wholly owned domestic subsidiaries will no longer guarantee any debt of IAC.

Cash flow information

In summary, the Company's cash flow are as follows:

	Six Months Ended June 30,		Years Ended December 31,
	2017	2016	2016 (in thousands)	2015	2014
Net cash provided by (used in):
Operating activities	$ 30,986	$ 21,378	$ 40,223	$ 17,752	$ 12,789
Investing activities	(56,057)	(9,193)	(32,309)	(10,170)	(18,956)

Six Months Ended June 30, 2017

Net cash provided by operating activities consists of net earnings of $25.9 million, adjustments for non-cash items of $46.5 million and a decrease from working capital activities of $41.4 million. Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $16.3 million of stock-based compensation expense, $13.7 million of bad debt expense, $6.5 million of deferred income taxes, $6.2 million of depreciation and $4.1 million of amortization of intangibles. The deferred income tax provision primarily relates to the settlement of stock-based awards. The changes from working capital activities primarily consist of a decrease in income taxes payable of $36.9 million, an increase in accounts receivable of $23.7 million, an increase in other current assets of $3.9 million, partially offset by an increase of $16.5 million in accounts payable and other current liabilities and an increase in deferred revenue of $6.7 million. The decrease in income taxes payable primarily relates to the settlement of stock-based awards. The excess tax benefit from stock-based awards was $33.5 million. The increase in accounts receivable is primarily due to revenue growth at North America. The increase in other current assets is due to an increase in prepaid marketing. The increase in accounts payable and other current liabilities is due to an increase in accrued advertising. The increase in deferred revenue is due to growth in subscription sales to service professionals.

Net cash used in investing activities includes $46.4 million of cash used for the acquisitions of MyBuilder and HomeStars, and capital expenditures of $9.6 million, primarily related to our sales center and corporate headquarters expansion.

Net cash provided by financing activities includes proceeds from the borrowings of related party debt of $51.9 million and funds returned from escrow for the MyHammer tender offer of $10.6 million, partially offset by cash transfers of $13.1 million to IAC pursuant to IAC's centrally managed U.S. treasury management function, the purchase of noncontrolling interests of $12.4 million and principal payments on related party debt of $2.8 million.

Six Months Ended June 30, 2016

Net cash provided by operating activities consists of net earnings of $4.1 million, adjustments for non-cash items of $16.7 million and an increase from working capital activities of $0.5 million.

Table of Contents

Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $7.9 million of bad debt expense, $4.3 million of stock-based compensation expense and $3.8 million of depreciation. The changes from working capital activities primarily consist of an increase in accounts payable and other current liabilities of $11.9 million and an increase in deferred revenue of $5.0 million, partially offset by an increase in accounts receivable of $15.9 million. The increase in accounts payable and other current liabilities is due to the timing of payments. The increase in deferred revenue is primarily due to growth in subscription sales to service professionals. The increase in accounts receivable is primarily due to revenue growth in North America.

Net cash used in investing activities includes capital expenditures of $9.2 million primarily related to an increase in internally developed software.

Net cash used in financing activities includes cash transfers of $10.8 million to IAC pursuant to IAC's centrally managed U.S. treasury management function.

Year Ended December 31, 2016

Net cash provided by operating activities consists of net earnings of $10.6 million, adjustments for non-cash items of $27.7 million and an increase from working capital activities of $1.9 million. Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $17.4 million of bad debt expense, $8.9 million of stock-based compensation expense, $8.4 million of depreciation, $7.7 million of excess tax benefits from stock-based awards, $3.7 million of deferred income taxes, and $3.2 million of amortization of intangibles. The deferred income tax benefit primarily relates to stock-based compensation expense. The changes from working capital activities primarily consist of an increase of $14.9 million in accounts payable and other current liabilities, an increase in income taxes payable of $6.9 million, an increase in deferred revenue of $6.9 million, partially offset by an increase in accounts receivable of $23.9 million, and an increase in other current assets of $3.0 million. The increase in accounts payable and other current liabilities is due to the timing of payments and an increase in employee-related accruals. The increase in income taxes payable is due to current year income tax accruals in excess of current year income tax payments. The increase in deferred revenue is due to growth in subscription revenue. The increase in accounts receivable is primarily due to revenue growth in North America. The increase in other current assets is due to an increase in prepaid marketing.

Net cash used in investing activities includes $15.6 million of cash used for the MyHammer acquisition and capital expenditures of $16.7 million, primarily related to a new sales center and an increase in internally developed software.

Net cash provided by financing activities includes $44.8 million in proceeds from the borrowings of related party debt principally used to fund the acquisition of MyHammer and $7.7 million of excess tax benefits from stock-based awards, partially offset by the refinancing of an $11.4 million promissory note, $10.5 million of funds held in escrow relating to the MyHammer tender offer for the portion of shares publicly held, and cash transfers of $4.3 million to IAC pursuant to IAC's centrally managed U.S. treasury management function.

Net cash provided by operating activities consists of a net loss of $4.0 million, adjustments for non-cash items of $28.8 million and a decrease from working capital activities of $7.0 million. Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $13.2 million of bad debt expense, $7.9 million of stock-based compensation expense, $6.6 million of depreciation, $3.8 million of amortization of intangibles, and $3.5 million of deferred income taxes. The deferred income tax benefit primarily relates to stock-based compensation expense. The changes from working capital activities primarily consist of an increase in accounts receivable of $16.2 million, partially offset by an increase in deferred revenue of $7.2 million and an increase in income taxes payable of $2.5 million. The increase in accounts receivable is primarily due to revenue growth in North America. The increase in deferred revenue is primarily due to the growth in subscription revenue. The increase in income taxes payable is due to current year income tax accruals in excess of current year income tax payments.

Net cash used in investing activities includes capital expenditures of $10.2 million primarily related to an increase in internally developed software.

Net cash used in financing activities includes cash transfers of $9.5 million to IAC pursuant to IAC's centrally managed U.S. treasury management function.

Net cash provided by operating activities consists of a net loss of $2.2 million, adjustments for non-cash items of $25.8 million and a decrease from working capital activities of $10.8 million. Adjustments for non-cash items primarily consist of $10.9 million of bad debt expense, $9.6 million of amortization of intangibles, and $6.5 million of depreciation. The changes from working capital activities primarily consist of an increase in accounts receivable of $14.2 million primarily due to revenue growth in North America.

Net cash used in investing activities includes $12.2 million used for the acquisition of mHelpDesk, and capital expenditures of $6.8 million, primarily related to an increase in internally developed software.

Net cash provided by financing activities includes cash transfers of $5.3 million from IAC pursuant to IAC's centrally managed U.S. treasury management function.

Liquidity and capital resources*For periods prior to the Transactions*

Our principal sources of liquidity have historically been cash flows generated from operations and the funding we receive from IAC, including loans from certain IAC foreign subsidiaries, which have been primarily used to fund acquisitions, as well as our cash and cash equivalents. These sources have been sufficient to enable us to fund our normal operating requirements, including capital expenditures, and our acquisitions. We believe these sources will continue to be sufficient to fund our normal operating requirements, including capital expenditures, which we expect to be approximately 100% higher in 2017 than 2016 due to our sales center and corporate headquarters expansion.

In connection with the Transactions

All outstanding long-term debt—related party and amounts due between IAC and the HomeAdvisor Business, will be settled prior to the completion of the Transactions, with the exception of a promissory note that will be issued to a foreign subsidiary of IAC that is not part of the HomeAdvisor Business in an amount not to exceed €4.0 million.

At or prior to the Closing, ANGI Homeservices and IAC or a subsidiary of IAC will enter into one or more intercompany loan agreements (collectively referred to as the "Intercompany Note"), the form of which is an exhibit to the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Intercompany Note, IAC or a subsidiary of IAC will provide the funds necessary at the Effective Time to repay the outstanding balance under Angie's List's existing credit agreement, which is $60.0 million as of June 30, 2017. ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries may also request further advances under the Intercompany Note or under additional agreements substantially in the form of the Intercompany Note following the Closing to cover general corporate purposes such as the provision of working capital, which IAC in its discretion may agree to provide on the terms set forth in the Intercompany Note.

ANGI Homeservices currently intends to enter into a credit agreement (the "Credit Agreement") with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent and certain lenders after the Closing. The Credit Agreement is expected to provide for a five-year term loan A facility not to exceed $275 million, and to be guaranteed by ANGI Homeservice's wholly owned material domestic subsidiaries. It is expected to be secured by substantially all assets of ANGI Homeservices and the guarantors, subject to certain exceptions to be agreed. The proceeds of the Credit Agreement, if any, are expected to be used to repay indebtedness outstanding to IAC and its subsidiaries, to pay fees and expenses in connection with the Merger and for general corporate purposes, including working capital and dividends. The Credit Agreement is expected to have affirmative, negative and financial covenants to be agreed among the lenders and ANGI Homeservices. While ANGI Homeservices currently intends to enter into the Credit Agreement, it may determine not to do so.

Immediately following completion of the Transactions, IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices which, together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices, will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock. For further details, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement—Election Procedures for the Share Consideration and the Cash Consideration; Aggregate Cap and Possible Proration of the Cash Consideration" and "—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC." As a result, IAC will have the ability to control ANGI Homeservices' financing activities following the Closing, including the issuance of additional debt and equity securities by ANGI Homeservices or any of its subsidiaries, or the incurrence of other indebtedness generally. While ANGI Homeservices is expected to have the ability to access debt and equity markets if needed, such transactions may require the approval of IAC due to its control of the majority of the outstanding voting power of ANGI Homeservices' capital stock and its representation on the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. Additional financing may not be available on favorable terms or at all.

Contractual Obligations

Our principal commitments consist of obligations under related party debt and operating leases for office space and equipment. The following table summarizes our contractual obligations as of June 30, 2017.

	Payments due by period
	Less than 1 year	1 to 3 years	3 to 5 years (in thousands)	More than 5 years	Total
Long-term debt—related party ^(a)	$ 179	$ 5,179	$ —	$ 263,293	$ 268,651
Operating leases ^(b)	7,721	21,293	15,541	34,634	79,189
Purchase obligations ^(c)	364	268	—	—	632
Total contractual obligations ^(d)	$ 8,264	$ 26,740	$ 15,541	$ 297,927	$ 348,472

- (a) Long-term debt—related party consists of promissory notes including interest at both fixed and variable rates. Long-term debt—related party at June 30, 2017 consists of $94.8 million, which bears interest at fixed rates, and $5.0 million which bears interest at a variable rate. The variable rate debt bears interest at LIBOR plus 2.00%, or 3.54%, at June 30, 2017. The amount of interest ultimately paid on the variable rate debt may differ based on changes in interest rates. See "Note 9—Related Party Transactions" to the unaudited combined interim financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus for additional information on Long-term debt—related party.

Table of Contents

- (b) We lease office space, data center facilities and equipment used in connection with our operations under various operating leases, the majority of which contain escalation clauses. In March 2017, we entered into a new 10.5 year lease for our call center in New York and a new 10.5 year lease for our corporate headquarters in Denver, Colorado.
- (c) Purchase obligations primarily consist of advertising commitments.
- (d) We have excluded $0.6 million in unrecognized tax benefits and related interest from the table above as we are unable to make a reasonably reliable estimate of the period in which these liabilities might be paid. For additional information on income taxes, see "Note 2—Income Taxes" to the unaudited combined interim financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Other than the items described above, we have no significant off-balance sheet arrangements.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market RiskForeign currency exchange risk

We conduct business in certain foreign markets, principally in the European Union. For the six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, international revenue accounted for 9% and 8% of combined revenue, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, international revenue accounted for 8%, 9% and 16% of combined revenue, respectively. Our primary exposure to foreign currency exchange risk relates to investments in foreign subsidiaries that transact business in a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, primarily the Euro. As foreign currency exchange rates change, translation of the statements of operations of our international businesses into U.S. dollars affects year-over-year comparability of operating results. The average Euro to U.S. dollar exchange rate decreased 3% in the first six months of 2017 compared to 2016.

Historically, we have not hedged any foreign currency exposures. Our continued international expansion increases our exposure to exchange rate fluctuations and as a result such fluctuations could have a significant impact on our future results of operations.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates

The following disclosure is provided to supplement the descriptions of our accounting policies contained in "Note 2—Summary of significant accounting policies" to the audited combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, in regard to significant areas of judgment. Management of the Company is required to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions during the preparation of its combined financial statements in accordance with GAAP. These estimates, judgments and assumptions impact the reported amount of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and the related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the combined financial statements. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Because of the size of the financial statement elements to which they relate, some of our accounting policies and estimates have a more significant impact on our combined financial statements than others. What follows is a discussion of some of our more significant accounting policies and estimates.

Allowance for doubtful accounts

The Company makes judgments as to its ability to collect outstanding receivables and provide allowances when it has determined that all or a portion of the receivable will not be collected. The Company determines its allowance by considering a number of factors, including the length of time accounts receivable are past due, its previous loss history, the specific customer's ability to pay its obligations and the condition of the general economy and the customer's industry. The Company writes off accounts receivable when they are determined to be uncollectible. The carrying value of the allowance for doubtful accounts is $9.2 million and $8.2 million at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Business combinations

Acquisitions are an important part of the Company's growth strategy. The Company invested $53.4 million and $19.7 million in acquisitions for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the year ended December 31, 2016. The purchase price of each acquisition is attributed to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their fair values at the date of acquisition, including identifiable intangible assets that either arise from a contractual or legal right or are separable from goodwill. The fair value of these intangible assets is based on detailed valuations that use information and assumptions provided by management. The excess purchase price over the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets is recorded as goodwill and is assigned to the reporting unit(s) that is expected to benefit from the combination as of the acquisition date.

Recoverability of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets

Goodwill is the Company's largest asset with a carrying value of $171.0 million and $150.6 million at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Indefinite-lived intangible assets, which consist of the Company's acquired trade names and trademarks, have a carrying value of $4.9 million and $0.6 million at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are assessed annually for impairment as of October 1 or, more frequently, if an event occurs or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit or the fair value of an indefinite-lived intangible asset below its carrying value. In performing its annual assessment, the Company has the option to qualitatively assess whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying value.

For the Company's annual goodwill test at October 1, 2016, a qualitative assessment of the North America and Europe reporting units' goodwill was performed because the Company concluded it was more likely than not that the fair value of these reporting units was in excess of their respective carrying values. The primary factors that the Company considered in its qualitative assessment for each of these reporting units were valuations performed during 2016. These valuations were prepared primarily in connection with the issuance and/or settlement of equity grants that are denominated in the shares of HomeAdvisor (US) or HomeAdvisor (International), as applicable, and certain of their subsidiaries. The valuations were prepared time proximate to, but not as of, October 1, 2016. The Company determined that the fair value of each of these reporting units was significantly in excess of its October 1, 2016 carrying value.

While the Company has the option to qualitatively assess whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of its indefinite-lived intangible asset are less than its carrying value, the Company's policy is to determine the fair value of each of its indefinite-lived intangible assets annually as of October 1. The Company determines the fair value of indefinite-lived intangible assets using an avoided royalty discounted cash flow ("DCF") valuation analysis. Significant judgments inherent in this analysis include the selection of appropriate royalty and discount rates and estimating the amount and timing of expected future cash flows. The discount rates used in the DCF analyses are intended to reflect the risks inherent in the expected future cash flows generated by the respective intangible assets. The royalty rates used in the DCF analyses are based upon an estimate of the royalty rates that a market participant would pay to license the Company's trade names and trademarks. Assumptions used in the avoided royalty DCF analyses, including the discount rate and royalty rate, are assessed annually based on the actual and projected cash flows related to the asset, as well as macroeconomic and industry specific factors. The discount rate used in the Company's annual indefinite-lived impairment assessment was 17% in both 2016 and 2015, and the royalty rate used was 1% in both 2016 and 2015.

The 2016, 2015 and 2014 annual assessments identified no impairments.

Recoverability of long-lived assets

We review the carrying value of all long-lived assets, comprising property and equipment, including leasehold improvements, and definite-lived intangible assets, for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. The carrying value of a long-lived asset is not recoverable if it exceeds the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the asset. If the carrying value is deemed not to be recoverable, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the amount by which the carrying value of the long-lived asset exceeds its fair value. In addition, the Company reviews the useful lives of its long-lived assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that these lives may be changed. The carrying value of property and equipment and definite-lived intangible assets is $29.6 million and $19.5 million at December 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Income taxes

We account for income taxes under the liability method, and deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. A valuation allowance is provided on deferred tax assets if it is determined that it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be realized. As of December 31, 2016 and 2015, the balance of deferred tax assets, net, is $13.0 million and $12.3 million, respectively.

We recognize liabilities for uncertain tax positions based on the two-step process. The first step is to evaluate the tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained on audit, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes, if any. The second step is to measure the tax benefit as the largest amount which is more than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. This measurement step is inherently difficult and requires subjective estimations of such amounts to determine the probability of various possible outcomes. We consider many factors when evaluating and estimating our tax positions and tax benefits, which may require periodic adjustments and which may not accurately anticipate actual outcomes. At December 31, 2016 and 2015, we had unrecognized tax benefits of $0.6 million and $2.0 million, including interest, respectively. Changes to reserves from period to period and differences between amounts paid, if any, upon resolution of issues raised in audits and amounts previously provided may be material. Differences between the reserves for income tax contingencies and the amounts owed by us are recorded in the period they become known.

The ultimate amount of deferred income tax assets realized and the amounts paid for deferred income tax liabilities and uncertain tax positions may vary from our estimates due to future changes in income tax law, state income tax apportionment or the outcome of any review of our tax returns by the various tax authorities, as well as actual operating results of the Company that vary significantly from anticipated results.

No income taxes have been provided on indefinitely reinvested earnings of certain foreign entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business totaling $11.8 million at December 31, 2016. The estimated amount of the unrecognized deferred income tax liability with respect to such earnings would be $3.6 million.

Table of ContentsStock-based compensation

The stock-based compensation expense reflected in our combined statement of operations consists of expense related to stock appreciation rights with respect to HomeAdvisor (US), IAC stock options and restricted stock units issued to employees of the HomeAdvisor Business and equity awards denominated in the equity of certain other entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business.

Prior to the Transactions, the equity awards that relate to common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) or the common stock of certain other entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business are settleable in shares of IAC common stock having a value equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the common stock of the relevant entity of the HomeAdvisor Business. Upon completion of the Transactions, the stock appreciation rights that relate to common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) will be converted into awards that are exercisable for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices, and the equity awards that relate to other entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business will be settleable, at IAC's election, in shares of IAC common stock or in Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices. To the extent shares of IAC common stock are issued in settlement of the awards issued by entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business other than HomeAdvisor (US), ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of those shares by issuing to IAC additional Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock. For IAC equity awards issued to employees of the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of those shares by issuing to IAC, at IAC's election, either cash or additional Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

We measure and recognize compensation expense for all stock-based awards based on the grant date fair value of the awards. The fair value of stock appreciation rights and stock options is estimated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. Fair value is recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis, net of estimated forfeitures, over the requisite service period, which is the vesting period of the award.

The Black-Scholes option-pricing model requires the use of highly subjective and complex assumptions, the most significant of which include estimating the fair value of the underlying shares, expected term, expected volatility of the underlying shares, risk-free interest rates and the expected dividend yield. In addition, the recognition of stock-based compensation expense is impacted by our estimated forfeiture rates, which are based, in part, on historical forfeiture rates. The assumptions used in the option pricing model represent IAC management's best estimates.

Stock-based compensation expense related to HomeAdvisor (US) denominated stock appreciation rights represents the majority of the combined HomeAdvisor Business stock-based compensation expense, exclusive of corporate allocations, for the six months ended June 30, 2017 and the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015. The description below relates to the common stock and stock appreciation rights of HomeAdvisor (US).

Valuations of HomeAdvisor (US)

We estimated the fair value of the common stock and stock appreciation rights of HomeAdvisor (US) using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The fair values of the common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) were approved by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the IAC Board of Directors, or the IAC Committee, after consultation with IAC management and based on valuations prepared by IAC management and, at certain times, valuations prepared by an unrelated third party valuation advisory firm. The IAC Committee intended all awards granted to be exercisable at a price per share not less than the per share fair value of the common stock on the grant date. In the absence of a public trading market of the shares of HomeAdvisor (US), the IAC Committee exercised its reasonable judgment and considered numerous objective and subjective factors to determine what it believed to be the best estimate of the fair value of the shares of common stock of HomeAdvisor (US). These factors generally included the following:

- actual operating and financial performance;
- current business conditions and financial projections;
- the market performance of comparable publicly traded companies;
- recent valuations performed at periodic intervals by an unrelated third-party valuation advisory firm; and
- the U.S. capital market conditions.

In valuing the shares of HomeAdvisor (US), we determined its equity value by assessing a combination of value indicators using a market comparable approach and an income approach. The valuation method ultimately selected to determine the equity value was the market comparable approach after determining that the resulting valuation was reasonable given the range of valuations determined using the income approach.

Market comparable approach

The market comparable approach considers multiples of financial metrics based on both acquisitions and trading multiples of a selected peer group of companies. From the comparable companies, a representative market multiple is determined which is applied to financial metrics to estimate the value of HomeAdvisor (US).

The peer group of companies was determined by considering companies relevant in terms of business function, monetization model, and margin and growth characteristics operating in these sectors: lead generation, local reviews, eCommerce, and branded consumer internet companies with strong earnings growth.

Income approach

For the income approach, a discounted cash flow method was utilized to estimate the enterprise value based on the estimated present value of future net cash flows we are expected to generate over a forecasted period and an estimate of the present value of cash flows beyond that period. The present value was estimated using a discount rate, which accounts for the time value of money and the appropriate degree of risks inherent in the business. For these valuations, we prepared financial projections to be used in the income approach. The financial projections took into account the historical financial results of operations, business experiences and future expectations of HomeAdvisor (US). The risk associated with achieving these forecasts was used to select the appropriate exit multiple and discount rate. There is inherent uncertainty in these estimates, as the assumptions used were highly subjective and subject to change as a result of new operating data and economic and other conditions that impact the business.

Option-pricing model

The key assumptions used in the option-pricing model to value HomeAdvisor (US) denominated stock appreciation rights are estimated as follows:

- Fair value of shares. Because the shares of HomeAdvisor (US) have no publicly traded history, we must estimate the grant date fair value of these shares, as described above.
- Expected term. The stock appreciation rights of HomeAdvisor (US) have generally had one window each year during which a holder could exercise their awards and the expected term is based upon the mid-point of the first and last exercise window.

- Expected volatility. In the absence of a trading history for the common stock of HomeAdvisor (US), we estimated the expected price volatility of these stock appreciation rights by making reference to the peer group of companies used in the preparation of valuations.
- Risk-free interest rate. We base the risk-free interest rate for all awards on U.S. Treasuries equal to the expected term of the award on the grant date.
- Expected dividend yield. The expected dividend assumption for the stock appreciation rights was zero at the time of grant based on the then-current expectation of not paying dividends in the foreseeable future.

The following table summarizes the weighted-average assumptions used in the option pricing model for grants made during the periods indicated for the stock appreciation rights of HomeAdvisor (US).

	Year ended December 31, 2016	Year ended December 31, 2015	Six months ended June 30, 2017

- (1) The grant date fair value per share for these awards does not give effect to the exchange ratio that will be applied in connection with the Merger.

In addition to the above assumptions, we also estimate a forfeiture rate to calculate stock-based compensation expense, which is based on an analysis of historical forfeitures.

Based on the Black-Scholes assumptions in the table above, the weighted average fair value of stock appreciation rights granted during the years ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 and for the six months ended June 30, 2017, are $3.13, $1.34 and $8.24, respectively.

ANGI HOMESERVICES COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis provides information regarding the compensation philosophy, policies, and practices with respect to the compensation of ANGI Homeservices' principal executive officer, principal financial officer, and three other most highly compensated executive officers, collectively referred to as ANGI Homeservices' "named executive officers," for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016. The named executive officers covered by this Compensation Discussion and Analysis have been determined based on the individuals who are expected to serve as executive officers of ANGI Homeservices following completion of the Transactions. Based on this methodology, ANGI Homeservices' named executive officers for the 2016 fiscal year were:

- Chris Terrill, Chief Executive Officer;
- William B. Ridenour, Chief Technology Officer;
- Craig Smith, President and Chief Operating Officer;
- Glenn H. Schiffman, IAC's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, who also will serve as ANGI Homeservices' Chief Financial Officer; and
- Allison Lowrie, Chief Marketing Officer.

During 2016, Messrs. Terrill, Ridenour, and Smith, and Ms. Lowrie were employees of, and received compensation from, HomeAdvisor (US) and Mr. Schiffman was an employee of, and received compensation from, IAC.

Roles and Responsibilities

To date, executive officer compensation (other than with respect to Mr. Schiffman) has been predominantly determined by IAC. Mr. Schiffman serves as a named executive officer of IAC and, as such, all decisions relating to his compensation were made by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors of IAC (the "IAC Committee").

Following completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will have a separate board of directors as described in the section entitled "Board of Directors and Executive Officers of ANGI Homeservices Following the Merger," which board of directors will in turn have a compensation committee with the responsibility of establishing ANGI Homeservices' compensation philosophy and programs and determining appropriate payments and awards to ANGI Homeservices' executive officers, other than Mr. Schiffman, with respect to whom the IAC Committee will continue to make such determinations.

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis deals exclusively with historical information while the HomeAdvisor Business has been a part of IAC, and is not necessarily indicative of future philosophy when ANGI Homeservices is a publicly traded company.

In general, IAC has been responsible for establishing bonus pools and equity pools for employees of the HomeAdvisor Business, other than Mr. Schiffman, and such pools have been allocated throughout the HomeAdvisor Business, with Mr. Terrill making the determinations for most other executive officers, and IAC directly establishing the bonus and equity awards for Mr. Terrill.

Neither ANGI Homeservices nor IAC has an ongoing relationship with any particular compensation consulting firm, though IAC has from time to time retained the services of consultants on specific occasions.

Table of ContentsPhilosophy and Objectives

The historical compensation program for executive officers of HomeAdvisor (US) was designed to increase long-term value by attracting, retaining, motivating, and rewarding leaders with the competence, character, experience, and ambition necessary to enable the HomeAdvisor Business to meet its growth objectives.

When establishing compensation packages for a given executive, IAC followed a flexible approach, and has made decisions based on a host of factors particular to a given executive situation, including its firsthand experience with the competition for recruiting and retaining executives; negotiation and discussion with the relevant individual; competitive survey data; internal equity considerations; and other factors IAC deemed relevant at the time.

Similarly, IAC has not followed an arithmetic approach to establishing compensation levels and measuring and rewarding performance, as IAC believes this approach often fails to adequately take into account the multiple factors that contribute to success at the individual and business level. In any given period, IAC may have had multiple objectives, and these objectives, and their relative importance, often change as the competitive and strategic landscape shifts, even within a given compensation cycle. As a result, formulaic approaches often over-compensate or under-compensate a given performance level. Accordingly, IAC has historically avoided the use of strict formulas in its compensation practices and has relied primarily on a discretionary approach.

Benchmarking

While IAC considers market data in establishing broad compensation programs and practices and may periodically benchmark the compensation associated with particular executive positions, IAC does not definitively rely on competitive survey data or any benchmarking information in establishing executive compensation. IAC makes decisions based on a host of factors particular to a given executive's situation, including those described above and its understanding of the current environment, and believes that over-reliance on survey data, or a benchmarking approach, is too rigid and stale for the dynamic and fast changing marketplace for talent.

Compensation Elements

Compensation packages for executive officers have primarily consisted of salary, annual bonuses, long term incentives (typically equity awards), perquisites, and other benefits. Prior to making specific decisions related to any particular element of compensation, IAC typically reviews the total compensation of each executive officer, evaluating the executive officer's total near- and long-term compensation in the aggregate. IAC determines which element or combinations of compensation elements (salary, bonus, or equity) can be used most effectively to further its compensation objectives. However, all such decisions are subjective, and made on a facts-and-circumstances basis without any prescribed relationship between the various elements of the total compensation package.

Salary

A new executive officer's starting salary is typically negotiated upon arrival, based on the executive officer's prior compensation history, prior compensation levels for the particular position, the executive officer's location, salary levels of other executive officers, salary levels available to the individual in alternative opportunities, reference to certain survey information, and the extent to which IAC desires to secure the executive officer's services.

Once established, salaries can increase based on a number of factors, including the assumption of additional responsibilities, internal equity, periodic market checks, and other factors that demonstrate an executive officer's increased value.

Table of ContentsAnnual Bonuses

General. The annual bonus program is designed to reward performance on an annual basis. Because of the variable nature of the bonus program, and because in any given year bonuses have the potential to make up a significant portion of an executive officer's total compensation, the bonus program provides an important incentive tool to achieve annual objectives.

Historically, after consultation with HomeAdvisor (US) management, IAC established the annual bonus pool for the HomeAdvisor Business based on its assessment of the performance of the HomeAdvisor Business for the completed year. In large part, success has been measured based on growth in revenue and profitability of the HomeAdvisor Business, but success is measured subjectively both in absolute terms over the prior year and in comparison to the competitors of the HomeAdvisor Business, taking into account economic and other factors, without any pre-established targets. Additionally, consideration has sometimes been given to achievement of various strategic objectives over the course of the year, and other factors IAC and HomeAdvisor (US) management deemed relevant. No quantified weight has been given to any particular consideration and there has generally been no formulaic calculation. Rather, IAC has engaged in an overall assessment of appropriate bonus levels based on a subjective interpretation of corporate performance.

IAC has established the bonuses of Messrs. Terrill and Ridenour in large part based on the same considerations used in establishing the bonus pool for the HomeAdvisor Business generally. Mr. Terrill has then generally been responsible for allocating the remainder of the bonus pool to the rest of the company, including the other executive officers, other than Messrs. Ridenour and Schiffman.

IAC has historically paid annual bonuses shortly after year-end following finalization of financial results for the prior year.

Executive officer bonuses tend to be highly variable from year-to-year depending on performance of the applicable company and, in certain circumstances, individual executive officer performance.

2016 Annual Bonus. In setting bonus amounts for 2016, consideration was given to the overall performance of the applicable company (IAC, for Mr. Schiffman, and HomeAdvisor (US) for the other named executives), the amount of bonus for each named executive officer relative to other IAC executives for Mr. Schiffman and other executive officers of HomeAdvisor (US) for the other named executive officers and, with respect to Mr. Schiffman, the recommendations of IAC's Chairman and Senior Executive and its Chief Executive Officer. In addition, 2016 achievements were considered, and compared to achievements and bonus levels in prior years.

Mr. Schiffman. In setting the actual bonus level for Mr. Schiffman in 2016, the IAC Committee considered a variety of factors, including the following: (i) IAC's revenue decreased modestly year over year, while its Adjusted EBITDA increased modestly year over year, (ii) IAC returned over $315 million to stockholders during 2016 by way of share repurchases and otherwise effectively managed its capitalization and cash position, and (iii) IAC took steps to positively advance the strategic position of several of its businesses. While the factors noted above were the primary ones considered in setting bonus award amounts for Mr. Schiffman, the IAC Committee also considered Mr. Schiffman's role and responsibilities, the relative contributions made by Mr. Schiffman during the year and the relative size of the bonuses paid to the other executive officers of IAC. The IAC Committee also considered Mr. Schiffman's new role as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and his oversight of cost-cutting initiatives.

Other Named Executives. In 2016, the HomeAdvisor Business experienced strong growth in revenue and Adjusted EBITDA and grew its service provider network in the United States by over 40%; it also made progress on a number of important strategic initiatives in product development. As a result, IAC determined to pay Mr. Terrill a bonus of $900,000 and Mr. Ridenour a bonus of $600,000.

Likewise, Mr. Smith and Ms. Lowrie received bonuses of $500,000 and $375,000, respectively, based primarily on Mr. Terrill's view of corporate performance and individual contributions. As noted above, in setting individual bonus amounts, there was no weight assigned to any specific factor, and no application of a formulaic calculation.

Long-Term Incentives

General. IAC believes that tying the compensation of executive officers to an increase in value of the business for which they work will drive focus and performance, which in turn will benefit IAC stockholders.

Employees of the HomeAdvisor Business have historically received (i) equity awards denominated in shares of IAC common stock, (ii) equity awards denominated in shares of HomeAdvisor (US), and (iii) in 2016, equity awards denominated in shares of certain other subsidiaries of the HomeAdvisor Business.

In setting particular award levels, the predominant objectives have been providing the person with effective retention incentives, appropriate reward for past performance, and incentives for strong future performance. Appropriate levels to meet these goals may vary from year to year, and from individual to individual, based on a variety of factors. The annual corporate performance factors relevant to setting bonus amounts that were discussed above, while taken into account, have generally been less relevant in granting annual equity awards, as the awards tend to be more forward looking, and are a longer-term retention and reward instrument than annual bonuses.

The IAC Committee made all determinations regarding grants of equity awards to the named executive officers, in consultation with IAC senior management. In assessing the appropriate level of awards, IAC took into account historical practices, its view of market compensation generally, the dilutive impact of equity grants across IAC, and other relevant factors.

Prior to the Transactions, the equity awards that relate to common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) or the common stock of certain other HomeAdvisor Entities are settleable in shares of IAC common stock having a value equal to the difference between the exercise price and the fair market value of the common stock of the relevant HomeAdvisor Entity. Upon completion of the Transactions, the stock appreciation rights that relate to common stock of HomeAdvisor (US) will be converted into awards that are exercisable for Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices, and the equity awards that relate to other HomeAdvisor Entities will be settleable, at IAC's election, in shares of IAC common stock or in Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices.

To the extent shares of IAC common stock are issued in settlement of the awards issued by HomeAdvisor Entities other than HomeAdvisor (US), ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of those shares by issuing to IAC additional Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock. For IAC equity awards issued to employees of the HomeAdvisor Business, ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of those shares by, at IAC's election, either paying IAC cash or issuing to IAC additional Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

For a description of the equity awards granted to employees of the HomeAdvisor Business, see "Note 8—Stock-Based Compensation" to the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

2016 Equity Awards. In February 2016, in connection with IAC's normal course annual compensation practice, IAC granted 350,000 HomeAdvisor (US) stock appreciation rights to Mr. Smith and 400,000 HomeAdvisor (US) stock appreciation rights to Ms. Lowrie, each with a per share exercise price of $9.86, vesting in equal annual installments over four years, and IAC granted 50,000 IAC stock options to Mr. Terrill and 40,000 IAC stock options to Mr. Ridenour, each with a per share exercise price of $45.22, vesting in equal annual installments over four years. On May 12, 2016, in connection with an internal reorganization of the HomeAdvisor Business, IAC granted 7,500 Home Advisor (International) stock appreciation rights to Mr. Terrill, 7,500 HomeAdvisor (International) stock appreciation rights to Mr. Ridenour, and 10,000 Home Advisor (International) stock appreciation rights to Mr. Smith, each with a per share exercise price of $28.89, vesting in equal annual installments over four years. And on December 1, 2016, IAC granted 5,000 IAC stock options to each of Messrs. Terrill, Ridenour and Smith and to Ms. Lowrie, each with a per share exercise price of $65.82, vesting on the fourth anniversary of the grant date.

As further described below, in connection with the execution of his employment agreement upon joining IAC, on April 7, 2016, Mr. Schiffman received a grant of 200,000 IAC stock options, with a per share exercise price of $45.78, vesting in equal annual installments over four years.

Employment Agreements

Employment Agreement with Mr. Schiffman. Effective April 7, 2016, IAC and Mr. Schiffman entered into an employment agreement, pursuant to which Mr. Schiffman became IAC's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The employment agreement has a scheduled term of one year from the effective date of the employment agreement and provides for automatic renewals for successive one-year terms absent written notice from IAC or Mr. Schiffman 90 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term.

The employment agreement provides that Mr. Schiffman will be eligible to receive an annual base salary (currently $600,000), discretionary annual cash bonuses, equity awards, and such other employee benefits as may be reasonably determined by the IAC Committee. Upon joining IAC, Mr. Schiffman was granted 200,000 IAC stock options that vest in equal annual installments over four years, subject to Mr. Schiffman's continued employment with IAC, and have an exercise price equal to $45.78.

Upon certain involuntary terminations of Mr. Schiffman's employment and subject to his execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of IAC and compliance with the restrictive covenants set forth in the employment agreement: (i) IAC will continue to pay Mr. Schiffman his annual base salary for one year following such termination, (ii) the options granted to Mr. Schiffman in connection with his joining IAC will vest as of the date of such termination, (iii) all other IAC equity awards (including any cliff-vesting awards, which will be prorated as though such awards had an annual vesting schedule) held by Mr. Schiffman that would have otherwise vested during the one-year period following such termination will vest as of the date of such termination and (iv) all vested and outstanding IAC stock options held by Mr. Schiffman as of the date of such termination (including any stock options that vested pursuant to the acceleration rights described above) will remain outstanding and exercisable for 18 months from the date of such termination.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Schiffman is bound by a covenant not to compete with IAC's businesses during the term of his employment and for 12 months after certain involuntary terminations, and covenants not to solicit IAC's employees or business partners during the term of his employment and for 18 months after such a termination. In addition, Mr. Schiffman has agreed not to use or disclose any confidential information of IAC or its affiliates.

Employment Agreement with Chris Terrill. Mr. Terrill is party to an employment agreement, dated May 16, 2011, with HomeAdvisor (US) pursuant to which Mr. Terrill currently serves as Chief Executive Officer of HomeAdvisor (US). The employment agreement had an initial four-year term and provides for automatic renewals for successive one-year terms absent written notice from HomeAdvisor (US) or Mr. Terrill 90 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term.

The employment agreement provides that Mr. Terrill will be eligible to receive an annual base salary (currently $400,000), discretionary annual cash bonuses, and such other employee benefits as may be determined by HomeAdvisor (US).

Upon certain involuntary terminations of Mr. Terrill's employment and subject to his execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of HomeAdvisor (US) and compliance with the restrictive covenants set forth in the employment agreement HomeAdvisor (US) will continue to pay Mr. Terrill his annual base salary for one year following such termination.

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Terrill is bound by a covenant not to compete with HomeAdvisor (US)'s businesses during the term of his employment and for 12 months thereafter, and covenants not to solicit HomeAdvisor (US)'s employees or business partners during the term of his employment and for 18 months after such a termination. In addition, Mr. Terrill has agreed not to use or disclose any confidential information of HomeAdvisor (US) or its affiliates.

Prior to the consummation of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices expects to enter into an employment agreement with Mr. Terrill, which will be effective subject to, and upon the consummation of, the Transactions. The terms of the ANGI Homeservices employment agreement are expected to be substantially similar to the terms of the employment agreements entered into between ANGI Homeservices and Messrs. Ridenour and Smith and Ms. Lowrie. See "—ANGI Homeservices Compensation Program Following the Transactions—Employment Agreements with William B. Ridenour, Craig Smith, and Allison Lowrie."

Employment Agreements with William B. Ridenour, Craig Smith and Allison Lowrie. As described in "—ANGI Homeservices Compensation Program Following the Transactions—Employment Agreements with William B. Ridenour, Craig Smith and Allison Lowrie," ANGI Homeservices has entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Ridenour and Smith and Ms. Lowrie, which will become effective subject to, and upon the consummation of, the Transactions.

Change in Control and Severance

IAC believes that providing executive officers with severance and change in control protection is critical to allowing executive officers to fully value the forward looking elements of their compensation packages, and therefore limit retention risk during uncertain times. Accordingly, equity awards granted to employees of the HomeAdvisor Business generally provide for varying degrees of accelerated vesting in the event of a change in control. These benefits, which generally are payable if the executive officer's employment is terminated without cause or the executive resigns with good reason are described in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "ANGI Homeservices Executive Compensation—Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control."

Other Compensation

Under limited circumstances, certain of the ANGI Homeservices named executive officers have received non-cash and non-equity compensatory benefits. The executive officers do not participate in any deferred compensation or retirement program other than IAC's 401(k) plan.

As part of the agreement for Mr. Schiffman to move to the New York City metropolitan area to accept the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of IAC, IAC agreed to compensate Mr. Schiffman for various costs of relocating from Austin, Texas, including airfare for certain trips between the New York City metropolitan area and Austin, Texas until his family joined him in the New York City metropolitan area during the third quarter of 2016, the payment of certain brokerage fees in connection with the disposition of his home, costs of temporary housing, moving expenses and associated tax gross-ups. IAC does not expect these amounts to be recurring, and though the applicable compensation disclosure rules require disclosure of the value of these items as compensation, they were not taken into account in determining the other components of Mr. Schiffman's compensation, as IAC views them as a cost to IAC in facilitating Mr. Schiffman's move to the New York City metropolitan area.

Table of ContentsTax Deductibility

IAC's practice is to structure compensation programs in such a manner so that the compensation is deductible by IAC for federal income tax purposes. However, because ANGI Homeservices' executive officers will now be subject to the limitations on deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and were not previously, certain compensatory arrangements established prior to the Transactions but that will be paid following the completion of the Transactions may not result in deductible compensation for ANGI Homeservices.

ANGI HOMESERVICES COMPENSATION PROGRAM FOLLOWING THE TRANSACTIONS

ANGI Homeservices believes that, following the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices will need to maintain flexibility in designing compensation programs to attract, motivate, and retain ANGI Homeservices executives, including permitting ANGI Homeservices to regularly compensate executive officers with non-cash compensation reflective of ANGI Homeservices' stock performance in the form of publicly traded equity. Accordingly, ANGI Homeservices intends to adopt the ANGI Homeservices Inc. 2017 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan (the "2017 Plan") as described in "—ANGI Homeservices Inc. 2017 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan" below, and has entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Ridenour and Smith and Ms. Lowrie, as described in "—Employment Agreements with William B. Ridenour, Craig Smith and Allison Lowrie" below.

While ANGI Homeservices is still in the process of determining specific details of the compensation program that will take effect following the completion of the Transactions, it is anticipated that ANGI Homeservices' compensation program following the completion of the Transactions will be based on the same principles and designed to achieve the same objectives as the historical compensation program in place at the HomeAdvisor Business.

ANGI Homeservices Inc. 2017 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan

Prior to the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices expects to adopt a stock and annual incentive plan that will be effective upon completion of the Transactions and will have terms substantially as set forth below.

Overview

The purpose of the 2017 Plan is to give ANGI Homeservices a competitive advantage in attracting, retaining, and motivating officers and employees and to provide them with incentives that are directly linked to the future growth and profitability of ANGI Homeservices and its businesses.

The 2017 Plan will replace the HomeAdvisor 2013 Incentive Plan, which is referred to as the "Prior Plan," and the Prior Plan will be automatically terminated and replaced and superseded by the 2017 Plan. Any awards granted under the Prior Plan, which are referred to as "Prior Plan Awards" will remain in effect pursuant to their terms under the 2017 Plan.

The 2017 Plan also will cover any shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock that may be delivered in settlement of equity awards in certain subsidiaries within ANGI Homeservices. For purposes of this summary, these awards are referred to as "Subsidiary Equity Awards." For a description of these Subsidiary Equity Awards, see "Note 8—Stock-Based Compensation" to the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. See also "Ancillary Agreements—Employee Matters Agreement" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of the HomeAdvisor Business—Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates—Stock-based compensation."

Summary of Terms of the 2017 Plan

The principal features of the 2017 Plan are described below. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 2017 Plan, a copy of which has been filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part.

Administration. The 2017 Plan will be administered by the compensation committee of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors (or such other committee of the board of directors as the full board may from time to time designate). Among other things, the compensation committee will have the authority to select individuals to whom awards may be granted, to determine the types of awards (as well as the number of shares of common stock to be covered by each such award) granted, and to determine and modify the terms and conditions of any such awards.

Eligibility. In addition to any individuals who hold Prior Plan Awards and/or Subsidiary Equity Awards at any time, current or prospective officers, employees, directors, and consultants of ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries and affiliates will be eligible to be granted awards under the 2017 Plan.

Shares Subject to the 2017 Plan. The aggregate number of shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock that may be delivered to satisfy awards under the 2017 Plan (including awards previously granted under the HomeAdvisor Inc. 2013 Incentive Plan) cannot exceed 75 million shares. No participant may be granted, in each case, during any calendar year: (a) performance-based awards (other than stock options and stock appreciation rights ("SARs")) intended to qualify under Section 162(m) of the Code covering in excess of 10 million shares; or (b) stock options and SARs covering in excess of 10 million shares. The maximum number of shares that may be granted pursuant to incentive stock options is 10 million. The foregoing share limits are subject to adjustment in certain circumstances by the compensation committee to prevent dilution or enlargement.

The shares subject to grant under the 2017 Plan will be made available from authorized but unissued shares or from treasury shares, as determined from time to time by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. To the extent that any award is forfeited or any stock option or SAR terminates, expires, or lapses without being exercised or any award is settled for cash, the shares underlying such awards will again be available for awards under the 2017 Plan. If the exercise price of any stock option and/or the tax withholding obligations relating to any award are satisfied by a participant delivering shares (by either actual delivery or by attestation), only the number of shares issued net of the shares delivered or attested to will be deemed delivered for purposes of the limits in the 2017 Plan. To the extent any shares subject to an award are withheld to satisfy the exercise price (in the case of a stock option) and/or the tax withholding obligations relating to any award, such shares are not deemed to have been delivered for purposes of the limits set forth in the plan.

Stock Options and SARs. Stock options granted under the 2017 Plan can either be incentive stock options ("ISOs"), or nonqualified stock options. SARs granted under the 2017 Plan can be granted either alone or in tandem with a stock option. The exercise price of options and SARs cannot be less than 100% of the fair market value of the stock underlying the options or SARs on the date of grant. Stock options and SARs cannot be repriced without stockholder approval. Optionees may pay the exercise price in cash or, if approved by the compensation committee, in shares (valued at their fair market value on the date preceding the date of exercise) or a combination thereof, or by way of a "cashless exercise" through a broker approved by ANGI Homeservices or by withholding shares otherwise receivable on exercise.

The term of a stock option or SAR is as determined by the compensation committee, but a stock option or SAR may not have a term longer than ten years from the date of grant. The compensation committee determines the vesting and exercise schedule of stock options and SARs, which the compensation committee may waive or accelerate at any time, and the extent to which they will be exercisable after the award holder's employment terminates. Generally, unvested stock options and SARs will terminate upon the termination of employment, and vested stock options and SARs will remain exercisable for one year after the award holder's death, disability, or retirement and 90 days after the award holder's termination for any other reason. Vested stock options and SARs also terminate upon the optionee's termination for cause. Stock options and SARs are transferable only by will or by the laws of descent and distribution or pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order or, in the case of nonqualified stock options or SARs, as otherwise expressly permitted by the compensation committee, including, if so permitted, pursuant to a transfer to the participant's family members or to a charitable organization, whether directly or indirectly or by means of a trust or partnership or otherwise.

Restricted Stock. The 2017 Plan provides for the award of shares that are subject to forfeiture and restrictions on transferability as set forth in the 2017 Plan and as may be otherwise determined by the compensation committee. Except for these restrictions and unless otherwise determined by the compensation committee, upon the grant of a restricted stock award, the recipient will have rights of a stockholder with respect to the underlying restricted stock, including the right to vote the restricted stock and to receive all dividends and other distributions paid or made with respect to such restricted stock on such terms as are set forth in the applicable award agreement. Unless otherwise determined by the compensation committee: (a) cash dividends on the shares that are the subject of the restricted stock award will be automatically reinvested in additional restricted stock and held subject to the vesting of the underlying restricted stock; and (b) dividends payable in shares shall be paid in the form of additional restricted stock and held subject to the vesting of the underlying restricted stock. Restricted stock granted under the 2017 Plan may or may not be subject to performance conditions. During the restriction period set by the compensation committee, the recipient may not sell, transfer, pledge, exchange, or otherwise encumber the restricted stock. Generally, all shares of unvested restricted stock shall be forfeited upon the award holder's termination, unless otherwise agreed or the compensation committee waives such forfeiture.

RSUs. The 2017 Plan authorizes the compensation committee to grant restricted stock units ("RSUs"). RSUs are awards denominated in shares that will be settled, subject to the terms and conditions of the RSUs, in an amount in cash, shares, or both, based upon the fair market value of a specified number of shares. RSUs are not shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and do not entitle the recipients to the rights of a stockholder. The award agreement for RSUs will specify whether, to what extent, and on what terms and conditions the participant will be entitled to receive current or delayed payments of cash, shares, or other property corresponding to the dividends payable on the shares. RSUs granted under the 2017 Plan may or may not be subject to performance conditions. The recipient may not sell, transfer, pledge, or otherwise encumber RSUs granted under the 2017 Plan prior to their vesting. Generally, all unvested RSUs will be forfeited upon the award holder's termination, unless otherwise agreed or the compensation committee waives such forfeiture.

Other Stock-Based Awards. Other stock-based and other awards that are valued in whole or in part by reference to, or are otherwise based on, shares, including unrestricted stock, dividend equivalents, and convertible debentures, may be granted under the 2017 Plan. Shares covered by the 2017 Plan may be used to satisfy obligations with respect to equity-based awards that correspond to shares of subsidiaries of ANGI Homeservices.

Cash-Based Awards. Cash-based awards may be granted under the 2017 Plan. No participant may be granted cash-based awards that have an aggregate maximum payment value in any calendar year in excess of $10 million if the awards are intended to qualify as tax-deductible performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code.

Performance Goals. The 2017 Plan provides that performance goals may be established by the compensation committee in connection with the grant of any award under the 2017 Plan. In the case of an award intended to qualify for the performance-based compensation exception of Section 162(m) of the Code, such goals will be based on the attainment of specified levels of one or more of the following measures: specified levels of earnings per share from continuing operations, net profit after tax, EBITDA, EBITA, gross profit, cash generation, unit volume, market share, sales, asset quality, earnings per share, operating income, revenues, return on assets, return on operating assets, return on equity, profits, total stockholder return (measured in terms of stock price appreciation and/or dividend growth), cost saving levels, marketing-spending efficiency, core non-interest income, change in working capital, return on capital, and/or stock price, with respect to ANGI Homeservices or any subsidiary, affiliate, division or department of ANGI Homeservices.

Change in Control. Unless otherwise provided by the compensation committee in an award agreement or otherwise, in the event that, during the two-year period following a change in control of ANGI Homeservices, a participant's employment is terminated by ANGI Homeservices (other than for cause or due to death or disability) or a participant resigns for good reason:

- any stock options and SARs outstanding as of the date of termination of employment that were outstanding as of the date of the change in control will become fully exercisable and vested and will remain exercisable for the greater of: (a) the period that they would remain exercisable absent the change in control provision and (b) the lesser of the original term or one year following such termination of employment;
- the restrictions applicable to restricted stock awards will lapse, and such restricted stock will become free of all restrictions and fully vested and transferable; and
- all RSUs will be considered to be earned and payable in full, any restrictions will lapse and such RSUs will be settled in cash or shares as promptly as practicable.

The compensation committee or the ANGI Homeservices board of directors may provide for different treatment in the event of a change in control, including the vesting of awards upon a change in control.

Amendment and Discontinuance. The 2017 Plan may be amended, altered, or discontinued by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, but no amendment, alteration, or discontinuance may impair the rights of an optionee under a stock option award or a recipient of a SAR award, restricted stock award, RSU award, or cash-based award previously granted without the consent of the optionee or recipient. Amendments to the 2017 Plan will require stockholder approval to the extent such approval is required by law or the listing standards of the applicable exchange. The 2017 Plan will terminate on the ten-year anniversary of the adoption of the 2017 Plan.

Subsidiary Stock Awards

IAC has granted equity awards in certain HomeAdvisor Entities to certain employees. For a description of these subsidiary equity awards, see "Note 8—Stock-Based Compensation" to ANGI Homeservices historical financial statements contained elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Pursuant to the Employee Matters Agreement, these equity awards will vest over a period of years and may be settled, at IAC's option, in shares of IAC's common stock or in shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock. To the extent shares of IAC common stock are issued, ANGI Homeservices will reimburse IAC for the cost of these shares by issuing IAC additional shares of ANGI Homeservices Class B common stock. See the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Employee Matters Agreement."

Employment Agreements with William B. Ridenour, Craig Smith and Allison Lowrie

ANGI Homeservices entered into an employment agreement with each of Messrs. Ridenour and Smith and Ms. Lowrie on August 24, 2017. The employment agreements have a scheduled term ending on December 31, 2019, and provide for automatic renewals for successive one-year terms absent written notice from ANGI Homeservices or the executive officer 90 days prior to the expiration of the then-current term.

The employment agreements provide that the executive officer will be eligible to receive an annual base salary (currently $400,000, in the case of Messrs. Ridenour and Smith, and $300,000, in the case of Ms. Lowrie), discretionary annual cash bonuses, and such other employee benefits as may be determined by ANGI Homeservices.

Upon certain involuntary terminations of the executive officer's employment and subject to his or her execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of ANGI Homeservices and compliance with the restrictive covenants set forth in the employment agreement: (i) ANGI Homeservices will continue to pay the executive officer his or her annual base salary for one year following such termination, and (ii) all ANGI Homeservices or IAC equity awards (including any cliff-vesting awards, which will be prorated as though such awards had an annual vesting schedule) held by the executive officer that would have otherwise vested during the one-year period following such termination will vest as of the date of such termination (subject, in the case of performance-based awards, to the satisfaction of the applicable performance conditions).

Pursuant to the employment agreements, the executive officers are bound by a covenant not to compete with ANGI Homeservices' businesses during the term of their employment and for 12 months thereafter, and covenant not to solicit ANGI Homeservices' employees or business partners during the term of their employment and for 12 months after such a termination. In addition, the executive officers have agreed not to use or disclose any confidential information of ANGI Homeservices or its affiliates.

Under the employment agreements, the executive officers may not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices acquired upon exercise or settlement of ANGI Homeservices equity awards prior to December 31, 2019. This restriction will lapse upon a termination of the executive officer's employment by ANGI Homeservices without cause, by the executive officer with good reason, or due to the executive officer's death. Following the consummation of the Transactions, the applicable annual limits on the number of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices with respect to which Messrs. Ridenour or Smith may exercise stock appreciation rights will remain in effect (as equitably adjusted to reflect the exchange ratio).

The employment agreements with each of Messrs. Ridenour and Smith and Ms. Lowrie will become effective subject to, and upon the consummation of, the Transactions.

Table of ContentsANGI HOMESERVICES EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION*Overview

This Executive Compensation section sets forth certain information regarding total compensation earned by those persons who are expected to serve as named executive officers of ANGI Homeservices upon Closing (the "NEOs"), and would have been the NEOs in 2016 if ANGI Homeservices had been a reporting company. This section also reports equity awards made to the NEOs in 2016, equity awards held by the NEOs on December 31, 2016, and the dollar value realized by the NEOs upon the vesting and exercise of equity awards during 2016.

Summary Compensation Table

The following summary compensation table sets forth the total compensation paid to, awarded to, or earned by the NEOs during the 2016 fiscal year.

Name and Principal Position	Year	Salary ($)	Bonus ($)	Stock Awards ($)	Option Awards $(1)	All Other Compensation $(2)	Total ($)
Christopher Terrill Chief Executive Officer	2016	$ 400,000	$ 900,000	—	$ 695,237	$ 7,950	$ 2,003,186

- (1) These amounts represent the grant date fair value of stock option and stock appreciation right awards using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. For details regarding the assumptions used to calculate these amounts, see footnote 7 to the "Grants of Plan-Based Awards in 2016" table below.
- (2) For all executives except Mr. Schiffman, represents the 401(k) plan company match. The amount for Mr. Schiffman reflects $145,359 paid to or on behalf of Mr. Schiffman for certain costs related to the relocation of him and his family to the New York City metropolitan area and $80,227 in related tax reimbursements on income imputed to Mr. Schiffman for certain of these costs.
- (3) Mr. Schiffman was appointed as IAC's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in April 2016. He will continue in that role, and take on the additional role of Chief Financial Officer of ANGI Homeservices upon consummation of the Transactions. Information presented for Mr. Schiffman is compensation paid to him as an executive officer of IAC and none of this amount was allocated to the HomeAdvisor Business.

- (6) The exercise price for each award is equal to the fair market value per share (as defined in the applicable stock and annual incentive plan) of the common stock of the applicable issuer of the award on the grant date, as applicable.
- (7) Reflects the grant date fair value of stock option/SAR awards using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The Black-Scholes option pricing model incorporates various assumptions, including expected volatility (based on the (a) historical volatility of IAC common stock for IAC options and (b) historical stock price volatilities of peer companies that were used in the preparation of internal valuations used in valuing the HomeAdvisor Business for other awards), risk-free interest rates (based on U.S. Treasury yields for notes with terms comparable to those of the awards, in effect at the grant date), expected term (based on the (i) historical exercise behavior of IAC employees in the case of IAC options and (ii) mid-point of the first and last exercise windows for

2016 Option Exercises and Stock Vested

The table below provides information regarding the number of shares acquired by the named executive officers upon the exercise of stock options and/or HA SARs in 2016 and the related value realized, excluding the effect of any applicable taxes. The dollar value realized upon the exercise of stock options or HA SARs represents the difference between the fair market value of the shares acquired upon exercise and the exercise price of the stock options or HA SARs, multiplied by the number of awards exercised.

Name	Number of Shares Acquired Upon Exercise (#)	Value Realized Upon Exercise ($)	Number of Shares Acquired Upon Vesting (#)	Value Realized Upon Vesting ($)

- (1) Reflects number of IAC stock options exercised.
- (2) Reflects number of HA SARs exercised. No shares of HomeAdvisor (US) were issued upon exercise of the SARs; instead, these HA SARs were settled in shares of IAC common stock having a value equal to the difference between the exercise price of the HA SAR and the fair market value of HomeAdvisor (US) common stock at the time of exercise, multiplied by the number of HA SARs exercised.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

Certain employment agreements, compensation plans, and equity award agreements entitle one or more of the named executive officers to continued base salary payments, the acceleration of the vesting of equity awards, and/or extended post-termination exercise periods for stock options upon certain terminations of employment (including certain terminations during specified periods following a change in control). These arrangements are described below as they would have applied to each named executive officer on December 31, 2016.

As noted above, ANGI Homeservices entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Ridenour and Smith and Ms. Lowrie on August 24, 2017, which will become effective subject to, and upon the consummation of, the Transactions. These employment agreements are described in "—ANGI Homeservices Compensation Program Following the Transactions—Employment Agreements with William B. Ridenour, Craig Smith and Allison Lowrie."

Table of ContentsMessrs. Terrill and Smith

Upon a termination without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016, pursuant to the terms of an employment agreement with HomeAdvisor (US) then in effect, each of Messrs. Terrill and Smith would have been entitled to receive 12 months of his base salary (and in the case of Mr. Smith, reimbursement for COBRA payments during the 12-month period), subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims and compliance with post-termination confidentiality, noncompetition (12 months), nonsolicitation of employees (18 months), nonsolicitation of business partners (18 months), and assignment of certain employee developments covenants, and subject to offset for any amounts earned from other employment during the severance period.

No payments would have been made to Messrs. Terrill or Smith upon a change in control of IAC or any of its subsidiaries on December 31, 2016. However, upon a termination without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016 that occurred during the two-year period following a change in control of the issuer of the award (i.e., IAC, HomeAdvisor (US), or HomeAdvisor (International)), in accordance with the applicable compensation plans and the related equity award agreements, the vesting of all then outstanding and unvested stock awards held by Messrs. Terrill and Smith that were issued by such issuer would have been accelerated.

Mr. Ridenour and Ms. Lowrie

No payments would have been made to Mr. Ridenour or Ms. Lowrie pursuant to any agreement between any HomeAdvisor Entity and these named executive officers (i) upon a termination without cause or due to death or disability or a resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016 or (ii) upon a change in control of any of HomeAdvisor (US), HomeAdvisor (International), or IAC on December 31, 2016. However, upon a termination without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016 that occurred during the two-year period following a change in control of the issuer of the award (i.e., IAC, HomeAdvisor (US), or HomeAdvisor (International)), in accordance with the applicable compensation plans and the related equity award agreements, the vesting of all then outstanding and unvested stock awards held by Mr. Ridenour and Ms. Lowrie that were issued by such issuer would have been accelerated.

Mr. Schiffman

Upon a termination without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016, pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement with IAC, Mr. Schiffman would have been entitled to:

- receive 12 months of his base salary, subject to the execution and non-revocation of a release of claims and compliance with post-termination confidentiality, noncompetition (12 months), nonsolicitation of employees (18 months), nonsolicitation of business partners (18 months), and assignment of certain employee developments covenants, and subject to offset for any amounts earned from other employment during the severance period;
- the vesting of all outstanding and unvested stock options granted to him in 2016;
- the partial vesting of outstanding and unvested stock options and/or restricted stock units (as applicable) granted after 2016 (including cliff vesting awards, which would be prorated as though such awards had an annual vesting schedule) in amounts equal to the number that would have otherwise vested in accordance with the terms of such awards during the 12-month period following such termination of employment; and
- continue to have the ability to exercise his vested stock options through June 30, 2018.

No payments would have been made to Mr. Schiffman pursuant to any agreement between IAC and Mr. Schiffman upon a change in control of IAC or any of its subsidiaries on December 31, 2016.

Upon a termination without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016 that occurred during the two-year period following a change in control of IAC, in accordance with IAC's omnibus stock and annual incentive plans and the related award agreements, the vesting of all then outstanding and unvested stock options held by Mr. Schiffman would have been accelerated.

Estimated Potential Incremental Payments to Executives Upon Termination or Change in Control

The table below describes and quantifies certain amounts that would have become payable to the named executive officers upon certain terminations of employment or change in control events, assuming that the relevant event occurred on December 31, 2016. These amounts, which exclude the effect of any applicable taxes, are based on:

- the named executive's base salary as of December 31, 2016;
- the number of equity awards held by an executive on December 31, 2016; and
- the fair market value of a common share of HomeAdvisor (US) ($16.83) and the closing price of IAC common stock ($64.79) on December 30, 2016. As the value of HomeAdvisor (International) has not increased since the date awards were granted in early 2016, no incremental payments relating to HomeAdvisor (International) awards would have been made upon any termination of employment or change in control.

- (2) Represents the value of IAC stock options that would have vested upon a termination of employment without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016 that occurred during the two-year period following a change in control of IAC in accordance with IAC's applicable omnibus stock and annual incentive plans and the related award agreements. Market value of equity awards represents the difference between the closing price of IAC common stock ($64.79) on December 30, 2016 and the exercise price(s) of all in-the-money options accelerated upon the occurrence of the relevant event, multiplied by the number of stock options accelerated. Mr. Schiffman would also receive salary continuation in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement.
- (3) Represents the value of HA SARs for each executive, except Mr. Schiffman, that would have vested upon a termination of employment without cause or resignation for good reason on December 31, 2016 that occurred during the two (2) year period following a change in control of HomeAdvisor (US) in accordance with HomeAdvisor (US)'s annual incentive plan. Market value of equity awards represents the difference between the fair market value of a HomeAdvisor (US) share of common stock ($16.83) on December 30, 2016 and the exercise price(s) of all in-the-money HA SARs accelerated upon the occurrence of the relevant event, multiplied by the number of HA SARs accelerated. For Mr. Schiffman, because there is a termination of employment, he would be entitled to accelerated vesting of his IAC stock options as discussed above and to salary continuation in accordance with the terms of his employment agreement.

Table of ContentsANGI HOMESERVICES DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Following the completion of the Transactions, the ANGI Homeservices board of directors will have primary responsibility for establishing non-employee director compensation arrangements, which will be designed to provide competitive compensation necessary to attract and retain high quality non-employee directors and to encourage ownership of ANGI Homeservices common stock to further align the interests of non-employee directors with those of ANGI Homeservices stockholders.

Each non-employee director will receive an annual retainer in the amount of $50,000, each member of the audit committee and the compensation committee (including their respective chairs) will receive an additional annual retainer in the amount of $10,000 and $5,000, respectively, and the chair of each of the audit committee and the compensation committee will receive an additional annual chairperson retainer in the amount of $20,000.

In addition to the annual retainers described above, each non-employee director will receive a grant of restricted stock units corresponding to shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock with a dollar value of $250,000 upon his or her initial election to the ANGI Homeservices board of directors and annually thereafter upon re-election on the date of the ANGI Homeservices annual meeting of stockholders. The terms of these restricted stock units provide for (i) vesting in three equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the grant date, (ii) cancellation and forfeiture of unvested units in their entirety upon termination of service with the ANGI Homeservices board of directors, and (iii) full acceleration of vesting upon a change in control of ANGI Homeservices. Non-employee directors are also reimbursed for all reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attendance at ANGI Homeservices board of directors and committee meetings.

For purposes of these compensation arrangements, non-employee directors are those directors who are not employed by (or otherwise providing services to) ANGI Homeservices or IAC (or any of its subsidiaries).

DESCRIPTION OF ANGI HOMESERVICES CAPITAL STOCK

The following section contains a summary of the ANGI Homeservices common stock and certain provisions of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that will be in effect upon the completion of the Transactions. This summary does not purport to be complete, may not contain all the information that is important to you and is qualified in its entirety by (i) the full text of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws, the forms of which are attached as Annex C and Annex D, respectively, and (ii) the applicable provisions of Delaware law.

Authorized Capital Stock

Upon the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices' amended and restated certificate of incorporation will authorize it to issue up to 5,500,000,000 shares of stock, comprised of 2,000,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value Class A common stock, 1,500,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value Class B common stock, 1,500,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value Class C common stock, and 500,000,000 shares of $0.001 par value preferred stock. Immediately following the completion of the Transactions, ANGI Homeservices is expected to have approximately 60.5 million Class A shares outstanding and 413.2 million Class B shares outstanding, assuming that all Angie's List stockholders receive the Share Consideration in the Merger. For more information on these calculations, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC." There will be no shares of Class C common stock or preferred stock outstanding immediately following the completion of the Transactions. The number of authorized shares of any class of stock of ANGI Homeservices may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) by the vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all then-outstanding Class A shares, Class B shares and any outstanding series of preferred stock entitled to vote thereon, voting together as one class.

Types of Capital Stock

Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Class C Common Stock

The rights of holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock will be identical, except for the differences described below under "—Voting Rights," "—Dividend Rights" and "—Conversion Rights." Any authorized but unissued shares of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock will be available for issuance by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors without any further stockholder action, subject to any limitations imposed by NASDAQ Rules.

Voting Rights. Holders of Class A common stock will be entitled to one vote per share on all matters to be voted upon by stockholders. Holders of Class B common stock will be entitled to ten votes per share on all matters to be voted upon by stockholders. Holders of Class C common stock will not be entitled to any votes per share (except as, and then only to the extent, otherwise required by the laws of Delaware, in which case holders of Class C common stock will be entitled to one one-hundredth of a vote per share). None of the holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock or Class C common stock will have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Dividend Rights. Holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock will be entitled to ratably receive dividends (other than in the event of a share distribution or an asset distribution, as further described below) if, as and when declared from time to time by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors in its discretion out of funds legally available for that purpose, after payment of any dividends required to be paid on any outstanding preferred stock. Under Delaware law, ANGI Homeservices can only pay dividends either out of "surplus" or out of the current or the immediately preceding year's net profits. Surplus is defined as the excess, if any, at any given time, of the total assets of a corporation over its total liabilities and statutory capital. The value of a corporation's assets can be measured in a number of ways and may not necessarily equal their book value.

In a distribution of shares of ANGI Homeservices' common stock, ANGI Homeservices may distribute (i) shares of Class C common stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class C common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock or (ii) (x) shares of Class A common stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class A common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class A common stock; (y) shares of Class B stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class B common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class B common stock; and (z) shares of Class C common stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class C common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class C common stock.

In a distribution of any other securities of ANGI Homeservices or the capital stock or other securities of another person or entity, ANGI Homeservices may choose to distribute: (i) identical securities, on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock, (ii) a separate class or series of securities to holders of shares of Class A common stock, a separate class of securities to holders of shares of Class B common stock and a separate class or series of securities to holders of shares of Class C common stock, on an equal per share basis, (iii) a separate class or series of securities to holders of shares of Class B common stock and a different class or series of securities to holders of shares of Class A common stock and Class C common stock, on an equal per share basis or (iv) a separate class or series of securities to holders of shares of Class C common stock and a different class or series of securities to holders of shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock, on an equal per share basis, provided that, in the case of clause (ii), (iii) or (iv), the different classes or series of securities to be distributed are not different in any respect other than their relative voting rights (and any related differences in designation, conversion, redemption and share distribution provisions, as applicable), with either (x) holders of shares of Class B common stock receiving the class or series of securities having the highest relative voting rights or (y) holders of shares of Class B common stock and Class A common stock receiving a class or series of securities having the highest relative voting rights. A dividend involving a class or series of securities of another person or entity may be treated as a share distribution or as an asset distribution as determined by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors.

In a distribution of assets owned by ANGI Homeservices (including shares of any class or series of capital stock of another person or entity owned by ANGI Homeservices) to holders of any class or classes of common stock, a dividend in cash and/or other property will be paid to holders of each other class of common stock then outstanding on an equal per share basis in an amount, in the case of a dividend consisting solely of cash, equal to the fair market value of such holders' ownership interest in the assets paid as a dividend pursuant to the asset distribution, or having a fair market value, in the case of any other dividend, equal to the fair market value of such holders' ownership interest in assets paid as a dividend pursuant to the asset distribution.

The ANGI Homeservices board of directors will have the power and authority to, in good faith, make all determinations regarding, among other things, (i) whether or not a dividend is an equal dividend per share or is declared and paid on an equal per share basis, (ii) whether one or more classes or series of securities differ in any respect other than their relative voting rights and (iii) any other interpretations that may be required under the dividend rights provisions of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation described above.

Conversion Rights. Class B shares will be convertible into Class A shares at the option of the holder at any time on a share for share basis. The conversion ratio will in all events be equitably preserved in the event of any recapitalization of ANGI Homeservices by means of a stock dividend on, or a stock split or combination of, the outstanding Class A shares or Class B shares, or in the event of any merger, consolidation or other reorganization of ANGI Homeservices with another corporation. Upon the conversion of a Class B share into a Class A share, the applicable Class B share will be retired and will not be subject to reissue. Class A shares and Class C shares will have no conversion rights.

Liquidation Rights. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of ANGI Homeservices, holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock are entitled to receive ratably the assets available for distribution to the stockholders after the rights of holders of shares of preferred stock have been satisfied.

Other Matters. The Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock will have no preemptive rights pursuant to the terms of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices. There will be no redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to the Class A common stock, Class B common stock or Class C common stock. All outstanding shares of Class B common stock will be fully paid and non-assessable, and the shares of Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger, when issued in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, will be fully paid and non-assessable.

Preferred Stock

Pursuant to the amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices, shares of preferred stock will be issuable from time to time, in one or more series, with the designations of the series, the voting rights of the shares of the series (if any), the powers, preferences and relative, participation, optional or other special rights (if any), and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof as the ANGI Homeservices board of directors from time to time may adopt by resolution (and without further stockholder approval, subject to any limitation imposed by NASDAQ Rules). The rights, preferences and privileges of such preferred stock may be greater than, and may adversely affect, the rights of ANGI Homeservices' common stock. Each series will consist of that number of shares as will be stated and expressed in the certificate of designations providing for the issuance of the preferred stock of the series.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions of the DGCL and the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws of ANGI Homeservices

Certain provisions of the DGCL and certain provisions that will be included in the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices summarized below may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and may delay, deter or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a stockholder of ANGI Homeservices might consider to be in such stockholder's best interests, including attempts that might result in a premium being paid over the market price for the shares held by ANGI Homeservices stockholders.

Preferred Stock

Under the DGCL, the certificate of incorporation of a corporation may give the board of directors the right to issue new classes of preferred stock with voting, conversion, dividend distribution and other rights to be determined by the board at the time of issuance. The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices will give the board of directors this right.

Multi-Class Structure

As discussed above, Class B common stock has ten votes per share, while Class A common stock, which is the class of stock that ANGI Homeservices is issuing in connection with the Merger and which as of the Closing will be the only class of stock which is publicly traded, has one vote per share. Except as provided in the amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices or by the DGCL, the holders of Class A shares and the holders of Class B shares will vote on all matters (including the election of directors) together as one class. ANGI Homeservices Class C common stock, of which no shares will be outstanding immediately following the completion of the Transactions, will not have any voting rights. Immediately following the Merger, IAC will own and control all of the outstanding Class B shares, which at that time will constitute a substantial majority of both the total voting power and the total number of shares of ANGI Homeservices capital stock then outstanding. For further details, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC." Even if IAC in the future owns significantly less than 50% of ANGI Homeservices' total outstanding capital stock, because of the multi-class structure of ANGI Homeservices common stock and the higher relative voting rights of Class B shares compared to Class A shares, IAC will be able to control all matters in which the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock vote together as one class that are submitted to ANGI Homeservices stockholders for approval. This concentrated control could discourage others from initiating any potential merger, takeover or other change of control transaction that other stockholders may view as beneficial.

Director Vacancies

The DGCL provides that vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office (even though less than a quorum) or by a sole remaining director unless (i) otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or (ii) the certificate of incorporation directs that a particular class of stock is to elect such director, in which case a majority of the other directors elected by such class, or a sole remaining director elected by such class, will fill such vacancy.

The amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices will provide that vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining directors elected by the stockholders who vote on such directorship (even if less than a quorum) or the vote or written consent of a majority of the voting power of the shares of ANGI Homeservices stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on such directorship (subject to the provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement concerning two ANGI-Designated Directors, as further described in the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement").

No Cumulative Voting

Under the DGCL, cumulative voting for elections of directors is not permitted unless the corporation's certificate of incorporation specifically provides for it. The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices will not provide for cumulative voting.

Special Meetings of Stockholders

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by such other persons as may be authorized in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation.

The amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices will provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the chairman of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices or by a majority of ANGI Homeservices directors. The ANGI Homeservices stockholders, however, may not call for a special meeting of the stockholders.

Table of ContentsAmending the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws of ANGI Homeservices

Under the DGCL, a certificate of incorporation may be amended if: (i) the board of directors adopts a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment, declares the advisability of the amendment and directs that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders (except that, unless required by the certificate of incorporation, no meeting or vote of stockholders is required to adopt an amendment for certain specified changes); and (ii) the holders of a majority of shares of stock entitled to vote on the matter approve the amendment, unless the certificate of incorporation requires the vote of a greater number of shares. If a class vote on the amendment is required by the DGCL, or by the certificate of incorporation, approval by a majority of the outstanding shares of stock of the class is required, unless a greater proportion is specified in the certificate of incorporation or by other provisions of the DGCL. The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices will provide that ANGI Homeservices reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the certificate of incorporation, as prescribed by the DGCL.

Under the DGCL, the board of directors may adopt, amend or repeal a corporation's bylaws if so authorized in the certificate of incorporation. The stockholders of a Delaware corporation also have the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws.

The amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices will allow the board of directors to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws by the vote of a majority of all directors. Under the Investor Rights Agreement, however, up until the date on which the 2020 annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders is held, IAC will agree not to vote in favor of any amendments to the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that would be inconsistent with certain provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement and would adversely affect the rights of holders of Class A Shares, other than as may be approved by the audit committee of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors and a majority of the holders of Class A shares.

Authorized but Unissued Shares

Delaware companies are permitted to authorize shares that may be issued in the future. Following the completion of the Transactions, a substantial number of unissued shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock, Class B common stock, Class C common stock and preferred stock will be available for future issuances by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors without stockholder approval, subject to any limitations imposed by NASDAQ Rules. Issuances of these shares could be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future offerings to raise additional capital, acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of any authorized but unissued and unreserved Class A common stock, Class B common stock, Class C common stock and preferred stock could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of ANGI Homeservices by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise.

Exclusive Jurisdiction

The amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices will provide that a state court located within Delaware, or if no state court located within Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware, will be the exclusive forum for all of the following: (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of ANGI Homeservices, (ii) any action asserting a claim for or based on breach of fiduciary duty owed by any current or former director or officer or other employee of ANGI Homeservices to ANGI Homeservices or to its stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against ANGI Homeservices or any of its current or former directors, officers, or other employees pursuant to the DGCL, its certificate of incorporation, or its bylaws, (iv) any action asserting a claim relating to or involving ANGI Homeservices that is governed by the internal affairs doctrine, or (v) any action asserting an "internal corporate claim," as defined under the DGCL.

Limitation on Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Under the DGCL, subject to specified limitations in the case of derivative suits brought by a corporation's stockholders in its name, a corporation may indemnify any person who is made or is threatened to be made a party to any action, suit or proceeding on account of being a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation (or was serving at the request of the corporation in such capacity for another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise) against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the action, suit or proceeding, provided that there is a determination that: (i) the individual acted in good faith and in a manner the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; and (ii) in a criminal action or proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Without court approval, however, no indemnification may be made in respect of any derivative action in which an individual is adjudged liable to the corporation, except to the extent the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to be indemnified.

The DGCL requires indemnification of directors and officers for expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably relating to a successful defense on the merits or otherwise of a derivative or third-party action.

Under the DGCL, a corporation may advance expenses relating to the defense of any proceeding to directors and officers upon the receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the individual to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified.

The DGCL permits the adoption of a provision in a corporation's certificate of incorporation limiting or eliminating the monetary liability of a director to a corporation or its stockholders by reason of a director's breach of the fiduciary duty of care. The DGCL does not permit any limitation of the liability of a director for: (i) breaching the duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith; (iii) engaging in intentional misconduct or a known violation of law; (iv) obtaining an improper personal benefit from a transaction; or (v) paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase or redemption that was illegal under applicable law.

The amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices will provide for limitations on liability of its directors and the indemnification of its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL.

Waiver of Corporate Opportunity for IAC and Officers and Directors of IAC

The DGCL permits the adoption of a provision in a corporation's certificate of incorporation renouncing any interests or expectancy of a corporation in, or in being offered an opportunity to participate in, specified business opportunities or specified classes or categories of business opportunities that are presented to the corporation or one or more of its officers, directors or stockholders.

The amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ANGI Homeservices will include a "corporate opportunity" provision that renounces any interests or expectancy of ANGI Homeservices or its subsidiaries (i) to participate in any business of IAC or (ii) in any potential transaction or matter that may constitute a corporate opportunity for both (a) IAC and (b) ANGI Homeservices or its subsidiaries. Under this provision, ANGI Homeservices further recognizes that (1) any of its directors or officers who are also officers, directors, employees or other affiliates of IAC or its affiliates (except that ANGI Homeservices and its subsidiaries will not be deemed affiliates of IAC or its affiliates for the purposes of this provision) and (2) IAC itself will have no duty to offer or communicate information regarding such a corporate opportunity. The provision generally will provide that neither IAC nor officers or directors of ANGI Homeservices who are also officers or directors of IAC or its affiliates will be liable to ANGI Homeservices or its stockholders for breach of any fiduciary duty by reason of (i) such person's participation in any business on behalf of IAC or (ii) the fact that any such person pursues or acquires any corporate opportunity for the account of IAC or its affiliates, directs or transfers such corporate opportunity to IAC or its affiliates, or does not communicate information regarding such corporate opportunity to ANGI Homeservices. This renunciation will not extend to corporate opportunities expressly offered to one of the officers or directors of ANGI Homeservices solely in his or her capacity as an officer or director of ANGI Homeservices.

Listing and Trading

ANGI Homeservices common stock is currently not listed on any securities exchange. It is currently expected that following the completion of the Transactions, Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices will trade on NASDAQ under the symbol "ANGI," which is the current ticker symbol for Angie's List.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

Upon completion of the Transactions, the transfer agent and registrar for ANGI Homeservices common stock will be Computershare Trust Company, N.A.

COMPARISON OF THE RIGHTS OF ANGIE'S LIST STOCKHOLDERS AND HOLDERS OF CLASS A SHARES OF ANGI HOMESERVICES

If the Merger is consummated, stockholders of Angie's List who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger will become holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices. Angie's List and ANGI Homeservices are both organized under the laws of Delaware. However, differences in the rights of holders of Angie's List common stock and holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices will arise due to differences between their respective certificates of incorporation and bylaws. As holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices, your rights with respect thereto will continue to be governed by Delaware law, including the DGCL, as well as the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices. This section summarizes all of the material differences between the rights of Angie's List stockholders and holders of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices.

The following summary is not a complete statement of the rights of the stockholders of either of the two companies or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to below. The identification of specific differences is not intended to indicate that other equally significant or more significant differences do not exist. Angie's List has filed with the SEC its constituent documents and will send copies of these documents to you, without charge, upon your request, which you are urged to read carefully. The forms of the amended and restated certificate of incorporation and amended and restated bylaws of ANGI Homeservices that will be in effect upon the completion of the Transactions are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C and Annex D, respectively. For additional information, please see the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

ANGI Homeservices

Angie's List

Authorized Capital Stock

The ANGI Homeservices Charter authorizes ANGI Homeservices to issue up to (i) 2,000,000,000 shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share, (ii) 1,500,000,000 shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share, (iii) 1,500,000,000 shares of Class C common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and (iv) 500,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share.

The Angie's List Charter authorizes Angie's List to issue up to (i) 300,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and (ii) 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share.

Common Stock

The ANGI Homeservices Charter provides that (i) holders of Class A common stock will be entitled to one vote per share on all matters to be voted upon by stockholders, (ii) holders of Class B common stock will be entitled to ten votes per share on all matters to be voted upon by stockholders and (iii) holders of Class C common stock will not be entitled to any votes per share (except as, and then only to the extent, otherwise required by the laws of the Delaware, in which case holders of Class C common stock will be entitled to one one-hundredth of a vote per share).

Except as provided in the ANGI Homeservices Charter or by the DGCL, the holders of Class A shares and the holders of Class B shares will vote on all matters (including the election of directors) together as one class.

Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of ANGI Homeservices, holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock are entitled to receive ratably the assets available for distribution to the stockholders after the rights of holders of shares of preferred stock have been satisfied.

The Angie's List Charter provides that each holder of common stock will be entitled to one vote per share of common stock on all matters to be voted upon by stockholders. However, except as otherwise required by law, holders of common stock are not entitled to vote on any amendment to the Angie's List Charter (including any certificate of designations relating to any series of preferred stock) that relates solely to the terms of one or more outstanding series of preferred stock if the holders of such affected series are entitled, either separately or together with the holders of one or more other such series, to vote thereon pursuant to the Angie's List Charter (including any certificate of designations relating to any series of preferred stock) or pursuant to the DGCL.

Table of ContentsANGI Homeservices

Under the ANGI Homeservices Charter, Class B shares will be convertible into Class A shares at the option of the holder at any time on a share for share basis. The conversion ratio will in all events be equitably preserved in the event of any recapitalization of ANGI Homeservices by means of a stock dividend on, or a stock split or combination of, the outstanding Class A shares or Class B shares, or in the event of any merger, consolidation or other reorganization of ANGI Homeservices with another corporation. Upon the conversion of a Class B share into a Class A share, the applicable Class B share will be retired and will not be subject to reissue. Class A shares and Class C shares will have no conversion rights.

Preferred Stock

Under the ANGI Homeservices Charter, shares of preferred stock will be issuable from time to time, in one or more series, with the designations of the series, the voting rights of the shares of the series (if any), the powers, preferences and relative, participation, optional or other special rights (if any), and any qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof as the ANGI Homeservices board of directors from time to time may adopt by resolution (and without further stockholder approval subject to any limitations imposed by NASDAQ Rules). Each series will consist of that number of shares as will be stated and expressed in the certificate of designations providing for the issuance of the preferred stock of the series.

Dividends

The DGCL allows directors, subject to any restrictions in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, to declare and pay dividends upon the shares of the corporation's capital stock out of its surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of the current or the immediately preceding year's net profits. However, no dividends may be declared or paid out of net profits if a corporation's capital is less than the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets until the deficiency has been repaired.

Angie's List

Under the Angie's List Charter, the board of directors is empowered to authorize by resolution the issuance of one or more classes or series of preferred stock and to fix the designations, powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, with respect to each such class or series of preferred stock and the number of shares constituting each such class or series, and to increase or decrease the number of shares of any such class or series to the extent permitted by the DGCL.

The DGCL allows directors, subject to any restrictions in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, to declare and pay dividends upon the shares of the corporation's capital stock out of its surplus or, if there is no surplus, out of the current or the immediately preceding year's net profits. However, no dividends may be declared or paid out of net profits if a corporation's capital is less than the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets until the deficiency has been repaired.

ANGI Homeservices

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that, subject to the provisions of the ANGI Homeservices Charter, the board of directors may declare and pay dividends in cash, property or contractual rights, or in shares of the capital stock of ANGI Homeservices.

Holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock will be entitled to ratably receive dividends (other than in the event of a share distribution or an asset distribution, as further described below) if, as and when declared from time to time by the ANGI Homeservices board of directors in its discretion out of funds legally available for that purpose, after payment of any dividends required to be paid on any outstanding preferred stock.

In a distribution of shares of ANGI Homeservices' common stock, ANGI Homeservices may distribute (i) shares of Class C common stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class C common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and Class C common stock or (ii) (x) shares of Class A common stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class A common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class A common stock; (y) shares of Class B stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class B common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class B common stock; and (z) shares of Class C common stock (or securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Class C common stock), on an equal per share basis, to holders of Class C common stock.

Angie's List

The Angie's List Bylaws provide that, subject to limitations contained in the DGCL and the Angie's List Charter, the board of directors may declare and pay dividends upon the shares of capital stock of Angie's List, which dividends may be paid either in cash, in property or in shares of the capital stock of Angie's List.

The Angie's List Charter does not contain any restrictions on dividends.

ANGI Homeservices

In a distribution of assets owned by ANGI Homeservices (including shares of any class or series of capital stock of another person or entity owned by ANGI Homeservices) to holders of any class or classes of common stock, a dividend in cash and/or other property will be paid to holders of each other class of common stock then outstanding on an equal per share basis in an amount, in the case of a dividend consisting solely of cash, equal to the fair market value of such holders' ownership interest in the assets paid as a dividend pursuant to the asset distribution, or having a fair market value, in the case of any other dividend, equal to the fair market value of such holders' ownership interest in assets paid as a dividend pursuant to the asset distribution. For additional information, see the section entitled "Description of ANGI Homeservices Capital Stock—Types of Capital Stock."

Number and Qualification of Directors

The DGCL provides that the board of directors must consist of one or more members, each of whom must be a natural person, and that the number of directors will be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the bylaws, unless the certificate of incorporation fixes the number of directors, in which case a change must be made only by amendment to the certificate of incorporation.

The ANGI Homeservices Charter and Bylaws provide that the number of directors will be the number that is determined from time to time by resolution of the board of directors. Directors need not be stockholders.

Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, at the Effective Time, the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will consist of ten directors, with six directors designated by IAC, two directors designated by IAC who qualify as "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, and two ANGI-Designated Directors, which refers to the directors selected by Angie's List from the Angie's List board of directors, who will be Angie R. Hicks Bowman and Thomas R. Evans, if they continue to be willing and able to serve. IAC will retain the right to nominate a certain number of ANGI Homeservices directors corresponding to its degree of equity and voting interest in ANGI Homeservices until such time as its equity and voting interest are both less than 10%, and to appoint replacements of its designated directors should such individuals become unable or unwilling to serve. For additional information, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Structure of Board of Directors; Term of Directors; Election of Directors

The DGCL provides that, pursuant to a certificate of incorporation, an initial bylaw or a bylaw adopted by the vote of the stockholders, a classified board of directors with staggered terms may be created. A maximum of three classes of directors is permitted.

Angie's List

The Angie's List Charter provides that the board of directors must consist of not less than three directors, with the exact number of directors to be determined from time to time solely by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of authorized directors. The Angie's List Bylaws provide that the number of directors will initially be six and, thereafter, will be fixed exclusively from time to time solely by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of authorized directors. Directors need not be stockholders.

The DGCL provides that, pursuant to a certificate of incorporation, an initial bylaw or a bylaw adopted by the vote of the stockholders, a classified board of directors with staggered terms may be created. A maximum of three classes of directors is permitted.

Table of ContentsANGI Homeservices

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws do not provide for classes of directors. The board of directors of ANGI Homeservices will be elected annually. Pursuant to the ANGI Homeservices Bylaws, each director will serve for a term of one year from the date of his or her election and until his or her successor is elected or until his or her earlier resignation, removal or death. The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that, at all meetings of the stockholders at which directors are to be elected, election of directors will be by ballot and, subject to the rights of the holders of shares of preferred stock to elect directors under specified circumstances, a plurality of the votes cast will elect each director.

Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, until and excluding the ANGI Homeservices annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2020, the two ANGI-Designated Directors, including any successor(s) to the initial ANGI-Designated Directors, will, if able and willing, continue to serve on the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices. IAC will agree to vote its shares of ANGI Homeservices common stock in favor of the ANGI-Designated Directors at any meeting at which any of them stand for election. For additional information, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Removal of Directors

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that any director or the entire board of directors may at any time be removed effective immediately, with or without cause, by a majority of the voting power of shares of stock issued and outstanding of the class or classes that elected such director.

Pursuant to the Investor Rights Agreement, IAC will agree not to vote to remove any ANGI-Designated Director, other than for cause. For additional information, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Angie's List

The Angie's List Charter and Bylaws provide that the directors are divided into three classes, designated Class I, Class II and Class III. The Angie's List Bylaws provide that each class must consist, as nearly as may be possible, of one-third of the total number of directors constituting the entire board of directors. Pursuant to the Angie's List Charter and Bylaws, each director serves for a term ending on the date of the third annual meeting of stockholders next following the annual meeting at which such director was elected. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each director will hold office until such director's successor has been duly elected and qualified or until such director's earlier death, resignation or removal.

The Angie's List Charter provides that election of directors need not be by written ballot unless the Angie's List Bylaws so provide. The Angie's List Bylaws do not require written ballots for the election of directors. The Angie's List Bylaws provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock to elect additional directors under specific circumstances, directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares of capital stock of Angie's List present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors.

The Angie's List Charter and Bylaws provide that no director may be removed from office by the stockholders except for cause with the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than a majority of the total voting power of all outstanding securities then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining directors elected by the stockholders who vote on such directorship, though less than a quorum, or a majority of the voting power of shares of such stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on such directorship. The directors so chosen will hold office until the next annual election and until their respective successors are duly elected or until their earlier resignation, removal or death.

If, prior to the annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders in 2020, any ANGI-Designated Director becomes unwilling or unable to serve, the ANGI Homeservices board of directors will select a replacement. Any individual selected as a replacement must be (i) "independent" pursuant to NASDAQ Rules and the Exchange Act, if the director to be replaced was also "independent," (ii) qualified to serve as an "independent" director of IAC (were such individual to be appointed) and (iii) acceptable to the remaining ANGI-Designated Director then serving on the ANGI Homeservices board of directors. For additional information, see the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

The Angie's List Charter provides that vacancies on the board of directors resulting from death, resignation, removal or otherwise and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors will, except as otherwise provided by law, be filled solely by a majority of the directors then in office (although less than a quorum) or by the sole remaining director. Each director so elected will hold office for a term that coincides with the term of the Class to which such director has been elected.

In addition, the Angie's List Bylaws provide that (i) if there are no directors in office, then an election of directors may be held in accordance with the DGCL, and (ii) unless otherwise provided in the Angie's List Charter, when one or more directors resigns from the board of directors, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, will have the power to fill such vacancy or vacancies and each director so chosen will hold office as provided in the filling of the other vacancies.

Stockholder Action by Written Consent

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of such action must be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

The Angie's List Charter provides that any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken only upon the vote of stockholders at an annual or special meeting duly noticed and called in accordance with the DGCL and the Angie's List Charter and may not be taken by written consent of stockholders without a meeting. The Angie's List Bylaws similarly provide that, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock then outstanding, as may be set forth in the certificate of designation relating to such preferred stock, any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be taken only upon the vote of stockholders at an annual or special meeting duly noticed and called in accordance with the DGCL and may not be taken by written consent of stockholders without a meeting.

Quorum

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that, except as otherwise provided by law, the holders of shares representing a majority of the voting power of ANGI Homeservices entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders for the transaction of business. However, where a separate vote by a class or series or classes or series is required, a majority of the outstanding shares of such class or series or classes will constitute a quorum with respect to such vote.

The Angie's List Bylaws provide that, unless otherwise provided under the Angie's List Charter or Bylaws and subject to the DGCL, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding capital stock of Angie's List entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Special Meetings of Stockholders

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by such other persons as may be authorized in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation.

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by such other persons as may be authorized in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation.

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the chairman of the board of directors of ANGI Homeservices or by a majority of ANGI Homeservices directors. The ANGI Homeservices stockholders, however, may not call for a special meeting of the stockholders.

The Angie's List Charter and Bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the board of directors acting pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the total number of authorized directors, the chairman of the board of directors, the chief executive officer, the president or the secretary of Angie's List and may not be called by any other person. The Angie's List Charter further provides that, notwithstanding the foregoing, whenever holders of one or more classes or series of preferred stock will have the right, voting separately as a class or series, to elect directors, such holders may call, pursuant to the terms of the resolutions applicable thereto adopted by the board of directors, special meetings of holders of such preferred stock.

Table of ContentsANGI Homeservices*Angie's ListNotice of Stockholder Meetings*

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that, for stockholder meetings, written notice stating the date, time and place, if any, of such meeting, the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, and in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes thereof, will be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the meeting, either personally or by mail, facsimile, telegraph or other means of electronic communication.

Meetings may be held without notice if all stockholders entitled to vote are present (unless any such stockholders are present for the purpose of objecting to the meeting as lawfully called or convened), or if notice is waived by those not present. Any previously scheduled meeting of the stockholders may be postponed, and any special meeting of the stockholders may be canceled, by resolution of the board of directors upon public notice given prior to the time previously scheduled for such meeting of stockholders.

The Angie's List Bylaws provide that, whenever stockholders are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting will be given which states the place, if any, date and hour of the meeting, the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxy holders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Unless otherwise provided by the DGCL, such notice will be given not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

A written waiver of any such notice signed by the person entitled thereto, or a waiver by electronic transmission by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, will be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a stockholder meeting will constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Nominations and Other Provisions

The ANGI Homeservices Charter and Bylaws do not provide for procedures with respect to stockholder proposals or director nominations.

Annual meetings:

The Angie's List Bylaws provide that nominations of persons for election to the board of directors or the proposal of other business to be transacted by the stockholders at an annual meeting of stockholders may be made only (i) pursuant to Angie's List's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto), (ii) by or at the direction of the board of directors or any committee thereof or (iii) by any stockholder who is a stockholder of record at the time such stockholder gives notice and at the time of the annual meeting and who is entitled to vote at the meeting and complies with the notice procedures set forth in the Angie's List Bylaws.

Angie's List

For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must give timely notice in writing to the secretary of Angie's List and any such proposed business (other than the nominations of persons for election to the board of directors) must constitute a proper matter for stockholder action. To be timely, the notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received by, the secretary of Angie's List at the principal executive offices of Angie's List not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting of stockholders. In the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced more than 30 days prior to such anniversary date or delayed more than 70 days after such anniversary date, then to be timely such notice must be received by Angie's List (i) no earlier than 120 days prior to such annual meeting and (ii) no later than the later of 70 days prior to the date of the meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of the meeting was first made. In no event will the adjournment or postponement of any meeting, or any announcement thereof, commence a new time period (or extend any time period) for the giving of such stockholder's notice.

Special meetings:

The Angie's List Bylaws further provide that, if the election of directors is included as business to be brought before a special meeting in Angie's List's notice of meeting, then nominations of persons for election to the board of directors at a special meeting of stockholders may be made by any stockholder who is a stockholder of record at the time such stockholder gives notice and at the time of the special meeting and who is entitled to vote at the meeting and complies with the procedures set forth in the Angie's List Bylaws. For nominations to be properly brought before a special meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must give timely notice in writing to the secretary of Angie's List. To be timely, the notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the principal executive offices of Angie's List (i) not earlier than 120 days prior to the date of the special meeting and (ii) no later than the later of 90 days prior to the date of the special meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of the special meeting was first made.

Notice requirements:

Any such notice must set forth certain information as to the nominee or the other proposed business, the stockholder giving notice and any person associated with such stockholder on whose behalf the proposal is being made, as specified in the Angie's List Bylaws.

The Angie's List Bylaws provide that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in the Angie's List Bylaws, the notice requirements set forth in the Angie's List Bylaws with respect to director nominations or other business will be deemed satisfied by a stockholder if such stockholder has submitted a proposal to Angie's List, a nomination in compliance with Rule 14a-11 or a proposal in compliance with Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, and such stockholder's nomination or proposal, as the case may be, has been included in a proxy statement that has been prepared by Angie's List to solicit proxies for the meeting of stockholders.

Table of ContentsANGI Homeservices*Angie's ListAmendment of Charter*

Under the DGCL, a certificate of incorporation may be amended if: (i) the board of directors adopts a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment, declares the advisability of the amendment and directs that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders (except that unless required by the certificate of incorporation, no meeting or vote is required to adopt an amendment for certain specified changes); and (ii) the holders of a majority of shares of stock entitled to vote on the matter approve the amendment, unless the certificate of incorporation requires the vote of a greater number of shares.

Under the DGCL, a class of stockholders has the right to vote separately as a class on an amendment to the corporation's certificate of incorporation, even if the certificate does not provide such a right, if the amendment would:

- increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class (unless the certificate of incorporation adopted prior to the issuance of any shares of such class of stock, or as amended with the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of such class, permits such increase or decrease by only an affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of stock entitled to vote, as permitted under the ANGI Homeservices Charter, as further described below);
- increase or decrease the par value of the shares of the class; or
- change the powers, preferences or special rights of the shares of such class so as to affect them adversely.

If the powers, preferences or special rights of one or more series of a class but not the entire class are affected, only the shares of such series that would be affected will be considered a class for the purposes of such voting.

Under the DGCL, a certificate of incorporation may be amended if: (i) the board of directors adopts a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment, declares the advisability of the amendment and directs that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders (except that unless required by the certificate of incorporation, no meeting or vote is required to adopt an amendment for certain specified changes); and (ii) the holders of a majority of shares of stock entitled to vote on the matter approve the amendment, unless the certificate of incorporation requires the vote of a greater number of shares..

Under the DGCL, a class of stockholders has the right to vote separately as a class on an amendment to the corporation's certificate of incorporation, even if the certificate does not provide such a right, if the amendment would:

- increase or decrease the par value of the shares of the class; or
- change the powers, preferences or special rights of the shares of such class so as to affect them adversely.

If the powers, preferences or special rights of one or more series of a class but not the entire class are affected, only the shares of such series that would be affected will be considered a class for the purposes of such voting.

The ANGI Homeservices Charter may be amended in accordance with the DGCL. The ANGI Homeservices Charter specifically provides that the number of authorized shares of any class of stock may be increased or decreased (but not below the number of shares of such class then outstanding) by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and any one or more series of preferred stock entitled to vote on the matter, voting together as one class.

Under the Investor Rights Agreement, however, up until the date on which the 2020 annual meeting of ANGI Homeservices stockholders is held, IAC will agree not to vote in favor of any amendments to the ANGI Homeservices Charter or the ANGI Homeservices Bylaws that would be inconsistent with certain provisions of the Investor Rights Agreement and would adversely affect the rights of holders of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock other than as may be approved by the audit committee of the ANGI Homeservices board of directors and a majority of the holders of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock. See the section entitled "Ancillary Agreements—Investor Rights Agreement."

Angie's List

Under the DGCL, if a corporation's certificate of incorporation requires the vote of a greater number or proportion than required under the DGCL for action by the board of directors, by the holders of any class or series of shares or by the holders of any other securities having voting power, the provision of the certificate of incorporation requiring such greater vote will not be altered, amended or repealed except by such greater vote.

The Angie's List Charter provides that Angie's List reserves the right to amend the Angie's List Charter in any manner permitted by the DGCL and all rights and powers conferred upon stockholders, directors and officers therein are granted subject to this reservation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions set forth in the following articles of the Angie's List Charter may not be repealed or amended in any respect, and no other provision may be adopted, amended or repealed which would have the effect of modifying or permitting the circumvention of such provisions, unless such action is approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66²/₃% of the total voting power of all outstanding securities of Angie's List then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class:

- Article V (Bylaws);
- Article VI (Board of Directors);
- Article VII (Meetings of Stockholders);
- Article VIII (Indemnification);
- Article IX (Forum Selection); or
- Article X (Amendments).

Amendment of Bylaws

Under the DGCL, the stockholders entitled to vote have the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws. In addition, a corporation may, in its certificate of incorporation, confer such power upon the directors, but such conferral does not divest the stockholders of their power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws.

Angie's List

Under the Angie's List Charter, the board of directors is authorized to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws by resolution adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of authorized directors. The stockholders may adopt, amend or repeal bylaws with the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the total voting power of all outstanding securities of Angie's List then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Limitation on Director Liability

The DGCL permits the adoption of a provision in a corporation's certificate of incorporation limiting or eliminating the monetary liability of a director to a corporation or its stockholders by reason of a director's breach of the fiduciary duty of care. The DGCL does not permit any limitation of the liability of a director for: (i) breaching the duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith; (iii) engaging in intentional misconduct or a known violation of law; (iv) obtaining an improper personal benefit from a transaction; or (v) paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase or redemption that was illegal under applicable law.

The ANGI Homeservices Charter will provide for limitations on liability of its directors to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. The ANGI Homeservices Charter further provides that any amendment or repeal of this provision will not adversely affect any right or protection of a director existing before such amendment or repeal. Moreover, the ANGI Homeservices Charter provides that the liability of a director will be further eliminated or limited to the full extent permitted by the DGCL, as it may be amended in the future.

Indemnification

The ANGI Homeservices Charter provides that the directors, officers, employees and agents of ANGI Homeservices (and any person serving in such capacity for another corporation or other enterprise at the request of ANGI Homeservices) will be indemnified by ANGI Homeservices in accordance with the ANGI Homeservices Bylaws, to the full extent permitted (whether now or in the future) by the DGCL or other applicable law.

Mandatory indemnification:

The Angie's List Charter provides that Angie's List will indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, each person (and the heirs, executors or administrators of such person) who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to, or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, because such person is or was (i) a director or officer of Angie's List or (ii) serving at the request of Angie's List as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

Table of ContentsANGI HomeservicesMandatory indemnification:*

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that ANGI Homeservices must indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL (whether now or in the future), any person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, because he or she is or was (i) a director or officer of ANGI Homeservices or (ii) serving at the request of ANGI Homeservices as a director, officer or trustee of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans maintained or sponsored by ANGI Homeservices, against all expense, liability and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding. This indemnification will continue as to a person who is no longer a director, officer or trustee and will inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators.

However, ANGI Homeservices will be required to indemnify any such person in connection with an action, suit or proceeding initiated by the person seeking indemnification only if such action, suit or proceeding was authorized by the board of directors, except for an action, suit or proceeding brought against ANGI Homeservices to recover an unpaid indemnification claim.

Mandatory advancement of expenses:

In addition, the ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that ANGI Homeservices will pay for the expenses incurred in defending any such action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition. However, if required by the DGCL, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as a director or officer will be made only upon delivery to ANGI Homeservices of an undertaking by, or on behalf of, such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses.

In addition, the Angie's List Charter provides that the right to indemnification includes the right to be paid by Angie's List the expenses incurred in connection with any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL.

Permitted indemnification and advancement of expenses:

The Angie's List Charter further provides that Angie's List may, by action of its board of directors, provide indemnification to the employees and agents of Angie's List to such extent and to such effect as the board of directors determines to be appropriate and authorized by DGCL.

Permitted insurance:

Under the Angie's List Charter, Angie's List may also purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Angie's List, or is or was serving at the request of Angie's List as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any expense, liability or loss incurred by such person in any such capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not Angie's List would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the DGCL.

Angie's List

Exclusive Forum

The ANGI Homeservices Bylaws provide that a state court located within Delaware, or if no state court located within Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Delaware, will be the exclusive forum for all of the following: (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of ANGI Homeservices, (ii) any action asserting a claim for or based on breach of fiduciary duty owed by any current or former director or officer or other employee of ANGI Homeservices to ANGI Homeservices or to its stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim against ANGI Homeservices or any of its current or former directors, officers, or other employees pursuant to the DGCL, its certificate of incorporation, or its bylaws, (iv) any action asserting a claim relating to or involving ANGI Homeservices that is governed by the internal affairs doctrine, or (v) any action asserting an "internal corporate claim," as defined under the DGCL.

The Angie's List Charter provides that the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware is the sole and exclusive forum for (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on behalf of Angie's List, (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of fiduciary duty owed by any director, officer or other employee to Angie's List or its stockholders, (iii) any action asserting a claim arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL or (iv) any action asserting a claim governed by the internal affairs doctrine. The Angie's List Charter further provides that any person or entity purchasing or otherwise acquiring any interest in shares of capital stock of Angie's List will be deemed to have notice of, and consented to, this provision of the Angie's List Charter.

As of August 25, 2017, Angie's List had approximately 9 registered stockholders of record. The number of stockholders of record is based upon the actual number of stockholders registered at such date and does not include holders of shares in "street name" or persons, partnerships, associations, corporations or other entities identified in security position listings maintained by depositories.

The above table shows only historical market prices. Angie's List stockholders are urged to consult publicly available sources to obtain current market quotations for Angie's List common stock, and to review carefully the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus (including the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus), in considering whether to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement at the Angie's List special meeting. The market price of Angie's List common stock is expected to fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the Closing. No assurances can be given concerning the market price of Angie's List common stock at any time in the future, or the market price of Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices after the Closing. Changes in the market price of Angie's List common stock prior to the Closing will affect the number of Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued to IAC prior to the Closing, and thus the aggregate economic interest in ANGI Homeservices as of the Closing of the Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger. For additional information, see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Determination of the Number of Class B Shares of ANGI Homeservices to Be Issued to IAC."

Angie's List has never declared or paid, and does not anticipate declaring or paying, any cash dividends on its common stock. Additionally, the financing agreement that governs Angie's List's outstanding long-term debt, as well as the Merger Agreement, contain covenants restricting the ability of Angie's List to make distributions, such as dividends, to stockholders. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends, if any, will be at the discretion of the Angie's List board of directors and will depend on then-existing conditions, including Angie's List's financial position, operating results, contractual restrictions, capital requirements, debt covenants, business prospects and other factors that the Angie's List board of directors may deem relevant.

PRO FORMA SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT OF ANGI HOMESERVICES

Prior to the Effective Time, all of the outstanding shares of common stock of ANGI Homeservices will be owned by IAC. The following pro forma security ownership table sets forth information with respect to the estimated beneficial ownership of (i) each person or entity who is expected to beneficially own more than five percent of the outstanding shares of any class of ANGI Homeservices common stock immediately following the Effective Time, to the extent known by ANGI Homeservices or Angie's List or ascertainable from public filings, and (ii) each person who is expected (as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus) to serve as a director or a named executive officer of ANGI Homeservices, as well as all expected directors and executive officers of ANGI Homeservices as a group. For illustrative purposes, the following pro forma security ownership table assumes that all of the stockholders of Angie's List receive the Share Consideration in the Merger and that the Effective Time occurred on August 18, 2017.

The pro forma security ownership of ANGI Homeservices common stock immediately following the Effective Time presented in the following table has been estimated based upon the following (using information available as of August 18, 2017):

- total outstanding shares of Angie's List common stock of 61,288,904 (assuming full settlement of options exercised through August 18, 2017);
- an assumed average of the daily dollar-volume-weighted average price for Angie's List common stock on NASDAQ for each of the ten trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date of $11.80 (which for simplicity was the closing price of Angie's List common stock on the NASDAQ on August 17, 2017);
- outstanding Angie's List equity awards consisting of (i) 2,312,486 restricted stock units in respect of Angie's List common stock, (ii) 2,879,663 performance awards of restricted stock units and (iii) stock options to purchase 5,352,725 shares of Angie's List common stock with a weighted average per share exercise price of $10.54, each assuming full settlement of options exercised through August 18, 2017;
- total outstanding shares of HomeAdvisor, Inc. of 122,864,560 (assuming completion of the restructuring or reorganization of the assets and liabilities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business in accordance with the Contribution Agreement); and
- 3,935,649 outstanding vested in-the-money HomeAdvisor, Inc. stock appreciation rights with an average per share exercise price of $3.73, and 7,856,169 outstanding unvested in-the-money HomeAdvisor, Inc. stock appreciation rights with an average per share exercise price of $12.67 (in each case, prior to applying the adjustments described under "Ancillary Agreements—Employee Matters Agreement").

So far as is known to ANGI Homeservices, each of the persons indicated below would have sole voting power with respect to the shares estimated to be owned by them, except as otherwise stated in the notes to the table.

For purposes of the following pro forma security ownership table, beneficial ownership of shares of ANGI Homeservices Class B common stock, though convertible following the Effective Time on a one-for-one basis into shares of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock, is reported as beneficial ownership of Class B common stock, and not as beneficial ownership of Class A common stock, but the voting power of the Class A common stock and Class B common stock has been aggregated. The percentage of votes for all classes of capital stock is based on one vote for each share of ANGI Homeservices Class A common stock and ten votes for each share of ANGI Homeservices Class B common stock.

Based on the foregoing assumptions, immediately following the Effective Time, (i) former holders of Angie's List common stock and equity awards would hold, in the aggregate, Class A shares representing approximately 12.7% of the economic interest in ANGI Homeservices common stock (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method), and less than 2% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock, (ii) IAC would hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices representing approximately 80.6% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 97.6% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock and (iii) former holders of equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor, Inc. (which will be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices in connection with the Transactions) would hold Class A shares representing approximately 6.7% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis, calculated using the treasury stock method) and approximately 0.8% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices common stock.

The share ownership figures set forth in the previous paragraph calculate shares to be issued with respect to former Angie's List stock options on a treasury stock method basis, that is, assuming the proceeds from the payment of the exercise price on stock options are used by the company to repurchase shares. RSUs are reflected on gross basis. ANGI Homeservices expects, however, that a significant portion of the outstanding equity awards will be net settled. Net settlement significantly reduces the number of shares issued in respect of an award, as approximately 45% of the intrinsic value of the award would be settled by cash tax remittances by the company on behalf of the employee. In addition, the share ownership figures in the previous paragraph do not give effect to any potential repurchases of ANGI Homeservices shares that could be financed with the tax benefits that may accrue to ANGI Homeservices at the time of exercise or settlement of the awards.

PROPOSAL 1—THE MERGER PROPOSAL

As discussed throughout this proxy statement/prospectus, Angie's List is asking its stockholders to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Angie's List will be acquired by ANGI Homeservices, which at that time will hold the HomeAdvisor Business. Specifically, pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Angie's List, with Angie's List surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices. Following the Merger, Angie's List common stock will be delisted from NASDAQ, deregistered under the Exchange Act and cease to be publicly traded. The Class A shares of ANGI Homeservices to be issued to Angie's List stockholders who receive the Share Consideration in the Merger are expected to trade on NASDAQ under the current Angie's List ticker symbol, "ANGI."

Holders of shares of Angie's List common stock should carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, including its Annexes and the information incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, for more detailed information concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger. In particular, holders of shares of Angie's List common stock are directed to the sections entitled "The Transactions" and "The Merger Agreement," as well as to the Merger Agreement itself, a copy of which is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Under the Merger Agreement, the consummation of the Merger is conditioned upon the adoption of the Merger Agreement by Angie's List stockholders.

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors

Approval of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock of Angie's List.

The Angie's List board of directors unanimously recommends that Angie's List stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement.

PROPOSAL 2—ADVISORY VOTE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Under Section 14A of the Exchange Act, which was enacted as part of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, Angie's List is asking its stockholders to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote on the compensation that may be payable to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger, as described in the section entitled "The Transactions—Interests of Angie's List's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions—Golden Parachute Compensation," including in the associated narrative discussion. In accordance with these requirements, Angie's List is asking its stockholders to vote on the adoption of the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be payable to Angie's List's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, as disclosed in the table captioned "Golden Parachute Payment" in the section entitled "The Transactions—Interests of Angie's List's Directors and Executive Officers in the Transactions—Golden Parachute Compensation," including the associated narrative discussion, and the agreements or understandings pursuant to which such compensation may be payable, are hereby APPROVED."

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors

The approval of this proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on such matter. The vote on the executive compensation payable in connection with the Merger is a vote separate and apart from the vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. You may vote to approve this proposal and vote not to approve the Angie's List Merger proposal, or you may vote against this proposal and vote to adopt the Merger Agreement. Because the vote on this proposal is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Angie's List. Accordingly, because Angie's List is contractually obligated to pay the compensation covered by this proposal, such compensation will be payable, subject only to certain applicable conditions, if the Merger is approved and regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

The Angie's List board of directors unanimously recommends that Angie's List stockholders vote "FOR" this proposal.

If you return a properly executed proxy card, but do not indicate voting instructions on your proxy card with respect to this proposal, your shares of Angie's List common stock represented by such proxy card will be voted "FOR" this proposal.

PROPOSAL 3—ADJOURNMENT

Angie's List stockholders are being asked to approve a proposal that will give Angie's List the authority to adjourn the special meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. If this adjournment proposal is approved, the special meeting could be adjourned by the Angie's List board of directors to any date, subject to specified limitations set forth in the Merger Agreement. In addition, the Angie's List board of directors could postpone the special meeting before it commences, whether for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies or for other reasons. If the special meeting is adjourned for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, stockholders who have already submitted their proxies will be able to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

If you sign and return a proxy and do not indicate how you wish to vote on any proposal, or if you sign and return a proxy and you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement but do not indicate a choice on the adjournment proposal, your shares of Angie's List common stock will be voted in favor of the adjournment proposal. However, if you indicate that you wish to vote against the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, your shares of Angie's List common stock will only be voted in favor of the adjournment proposal if you indicate that you wish to vote in favor of that proposal.

If the special meeting is adjourned, any Angie's List stockholder who has already submitted his or her proxy will be able to revoke it at any time prior to its use.

Angie's List does not intend to call a vote on this proposal if Proposal 1 (regarding the adoption of the Merger Agreement) has been approved at the special meeting.

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Angie's List Board of Directors

The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of Angie's List common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the adjournment proposal is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

FUTURE ANGIE'S LIST STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

If the Merger is consummated, Angie's List will no longer have public stockholders, and there will be no public participation in any future meetings of stockholders of Angie's List. However, if the Merger is not consummated, stockholders of Angie's List will continue to be entitled to attend and participate in meetings of stockholders of Angie's List.

If the Merger is not consummated and Angie's List's 2018 annual meeting of stockholders is held, to be considered for inclusion in Angie's List's 2018 proxy materials, a proposal of an Angie's List stockholder must be submitted in writing by January 4, 2018 to Angie's List's Corporate Secretary at 1030 East Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202. If an Angie's List stockholder wishes to submit a proposal that is not to be included in the 2018 proxy materials pursuant to the SEC's stockholder proposal procedures or to nominate a director, such stockholder must do so between February 13, 2018 and March 15, 2018, provided that if the date of the 2018 annual meeting of stockholders is earlier than May 14, 2018 or later than August 22, 2018, you must give notice no earlier than 120 days prior to such annual meeting date and no later than the later of 70 days prior to the date of the meeting or the 10th day following the day of public announcement of the annual meeting date by Angie's List. Angie's List stockholders are advised to review Angie's List's Amended and Restated Bylaws, which contain additional requirements about advance notice of stockholder proposals and director nominations.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement or annual report, as applicable, addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially provides extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

Brokers with account holders who are Angie's List stockholders may be "householding" Angie's List's proxy materials. A single proxy statement may be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that it will be "householding" communications to your address, "householding" will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you notify your broker or Angie's List that you no longer wish to participate in "householding."

If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in "householding" and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, you may (1) notify your broker, (2) direct your written request to: Investor Relations, Angie's List, Inc., 1030 East Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46202 or (3) contact Angie's List's Investor Relations department by telephone at (888) 619-2655. Angie's List will promptly deliver, upon written or oral request to the address or telephone number above, a separate copy of the proxy materials to a stockholder at a shared address to which a single copy of the documents was delivered. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy materials at their address and would like to request "householding" of their communications should contact their broker.

OTHER MATTERS

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the Angie's List board of directors does not know of any matters that will be presented for consideration at the Angie's List special meeting other than as described in this proxy statement/prospectus. If any other matters come before the special meetings or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting and are voted upon, the enclosed proxies will confer discretionary authority on the individuals named as proxies to vote the shares represented by the proxies as to any other matters. The individuals named as proxies intend to vote in accordance with their best judgment as to any other matters.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION

Each of IAC and Angie's List file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC under the Exchange Act. You may read and copy any of this information at the SEC's Public Reference Room at 100 F Street, N.E., Room 1580, Washington, D.C. 20549. Please call the SEC at 1 (800) SEC-0330 for further information on the Public Reference Room. The SEC also maintains a website that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding issuers, including IAC and Angie's List, who file electronically with the SEC. The address of that site is www.sec.gov.

Investors may also consult IAC's or Angie's List's website for more information concerning the Transactions described in this proxy statement/prospectus. IAC's website is www.iac.com. Angie's List's website is www.investor.angieslist.com. The information contained on the websites of IAC, Angie's List and the SEC (except for the filings described below) is expressly not incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

ANGI Homeservices has filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-219064) of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. The registration statement registers the Class A shares to be issued by ANGI Homeservices to Angie's List stockholders in connection with the Merger. The registration statement, including the exhibits attached thereto, contains additional relevant information about the Class A shares and the Transactions.

In addition, the SEC allows ANGI Homeservices and Angie's List to disclose important information to you by referring you to other documents filed separately with the SEC. This information is considered to be a part of this proxy statement/prospectus, except for any information that is superseded by information included directly in this proxy statement/prospectus.

This proxy statement/prospectus incorporates by reference the documents listed below that Angie's List has previously filed or will file with the SEC (other than information furnished pursuant to Item 2.02 or Item 7.01 of a Current Report on Form 8-K). These documents contain important information about Angie's List, its financial condition and other matters.

- Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, filed on February 21, 2017.
- Proxy Statement on Schedule 14A, for the 2017 Annual Meeting of Angie's List Stockholders, dated and filed on April 28, 2017.
- Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2017, filed on May 4, 2017 and for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2017, filed on July 27, 2017.
- Current Reports on Form 8-K dated May 1, 2017 (filed on May 2, 2017), May 2, 2017 (filed on May 3, 2017) and June 13, 2017 (filed on June 14, 2017) (other than any portions of such Current Reports deemed to be furnished and not filed).
- The description of Angie's List common stock contained in Item 1 of Angie's List Registration Statement on Form S-1 (File No. 333-181093) filed May 1, 2012, as amended.

In addition, any future filings that Angie's List makes with the SEC under Section 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (other than information furnished pursuant to Item 2.02 or Item 7.01 of a Current Report on Form 8-K) after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and prior to the date of the Angie's List special meeting is hereby incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. Any such documents will be considered to be a part of this proxy statement/prospectus, effective as of the date such documents are filed. In the event of conflicting information in these documents, the information in the latest filed document should be considered correct.

The HomeAdvisor Business is the operator of the largest global home services marketplace, connecting homeowners with service professionals for home repair, maintenance and improvement projects. HomeAdvisor's marketplace provides the tools and resources to allow homeowners to find local pre-screened service professionals and instantly book appointments online or through HomeAdvisor's award-winning mobile application. HomeAdvisor's marketplace also provides consumers with other home services-related resources, including access to average project costs using HomeAdvisor's True Cost Guide. In addition to its market-leading U.S. operations, the HomeAdvisor Business owns the leading home services online marketplaces in Canada (HomeStars), which was acquired on February 8, 2017, Germany (MyHammer), which was acquired on November 3, 2016, France (Travaux.com) and the Netherlands (Werkspot), as well as operations in Italy (Instapro) and the United Kingdom (MyBuilder), which was acquired on March 24, 2017. The HomeAdvisor Business also operates Felix, a pay-per-call advertising service, and mHelpDesk, a provider of cloud-based field service software for small to mid-size businesses.

As of June 30, 2017, the HomeAdvisor Business's network of service professionals in the United States consisted of approximately 164,000 paying professionals providing services in more than 500 categories ranging from simple home repairs to larger home remodeling projects in more than 400 discrete geographies. The HomeAdvisor Business generated approximately 8.9 million domestic service requests from homeowners in the United States during the six months ended June 30, 2017.

On May 1, 2017, IAC/InterActiveCorp ("IAC") announced that it had entered into a definitive agreement with Angie's List (the "Merger Agreement") to combine the HomeAdvisor Business and Angie's List under a new publicly traded company to be called ANGI Homeservices Inc. The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition of Angie's List by ANGI Homeservices Inc. by way of the merger of a direct wholly owned subsidiary of ANGI Homeservices Inc. with and into Angie's List (the "Merger"), with Angie's List continuing as the surviving company in the Merger. Following the Merger, Angie's List and the parent entity that will hold the HomeAdvisor Business will each be direct wholly owned subsidiaries of ANGI Homeservices Inc. Immediately following the completion of the Merger, IAC is expected to hold Class B shares of ANGI Homeservices Inc. which together with Class A shares underlying equity awards in respect of HomeAdvisor (US) to be converted into awards in respect of ANGI Homeservices Inc., will represent between approximately 87% and 90% of the economic interest (on a fully diluted basis) and approximately 98% of the total voting power of ANGI Homeservices Inc. common stock, depending on the number of Angie's List stockholders that elect to receive cash consideration in the Merger. The Merger is expected to take place in the late third quarter or early fourth quarter of 2017.

All references to "HomeAdvisor," the "Company," "we," "our" or "us" in these historical combined financial statements are to the HomeAdvisor Business, which is comprised of HomeAdvisor (US), HomeAdvisor (International) and each of their respective subsidiaries.

The Company prepares its combined financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP").

These historical combined financial statements have been prepared on a standalone basis and are derived from the historical consolidated financial statements and accounting records of IAC. The combined financial statements reflect the historical financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the businesses comprising the HomeAdvisor Business since their respective dates of acquisition by IAC and the allocation to the HomeAdvisor Business of certain IAC corporate expenses relating to the HomeAdvisor Business based on the historical consolidated financial statements and accounting records of IAC. For the purpose of these financial statements, income taxes have been computed as if the entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business filed on a standalone, separate tax return basis. The financial statements are being prepared on a combined basis as the final steps of the legal reorganization where IAC contributes the HomeAdvisor Business, along with cash sufficient to fund the aggregate cash consideration payable in the Merger, if any, to ANGI Homeservices Inc. are not yet complete and will not be complete until immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger.

All intercompany transactions and balances between and among the Company, its subsidiaries and the entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business have been eliminated. All intercompany transactions between (i) HomeAdvisor and (ii) IAC and its subsidiaries, with the exception of notes payable due to IAC subsidiaries, are considered to be effectively settled for cash at the time the transaction is recorded. The total net effect of the settlement of these intercompany transactions is reflected in the combined statement of cash flows as a financing activity and in the combined balance sheet as "Invested capital." The notes payable due to IAC subsidiaries are included in "Long-term debt—related party" in the accompanying combined balance sheet.

In the opinion of management, the assumptions underlying the historical combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business, including the basis on which the expenses have been allocated from IAC, are reasonable. However, the allocations may not reflect the expenses that we may have incurred as an independent, standalone company for the periods presented.

The accompanying unaudited combined financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP for interim financial information and with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited combined financial statements include all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. The accompanying unaudited interim combined financial statements should be read in conjunction with the annual audited combined financial statements of the HomeAdvisor Business and notes thereto for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Accounting estimates

Management of the Company is required to make certain estimates, judgments and assumptions during the preparation of its combined financial statements in accordance with GAAP. These estimates, judgments and assumptions impact the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses and the related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

On an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates its estimates and judgments including those related to: the recoverability of goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets; the useful lives and recoverability of definite-lived intangible assets and property and equipment; the carrying value of accounts receivable, including the determination of the allowance for doubtful accounts; the determination of revenue reserves; the liabilities for uncertain tax positions; the valuation allowance for deferred income tax assets; and the fair value of and forfeiture rates for stock-based awards, among others. The Company bases its estimates and judgments on historical experience, its forecasts and budgets and other factors that the Company considers relevant.

Recent accounting pronouncements*Accounting pronouncements not yet adopted by the Company*

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which clarifies the principles for recognizing revenue and develops a common standard for all industries. ASU No. 2014-09 was subsequently amended during 2015 and 2016; these amendments provide further revenue recognition guidance related to principal versus agent considerations, performance obligations and licensing, and narrow-scope improvements and practical expedients.

ASU No. 2014-09 is a comprehensive revenue recognition standard that will supersede nearly all existing revenue recognition guidance under GAAP. The new standard provides a single principles-based, five-step model to be applied to all contracts with customers. This five-step model includes (1) identifying the contract(s) with the customer, (2) identifying the performance obligations in the contract, (3) determining the transaction price, (4) allocating the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract and (5) recognizing revenue when each performance obligation is satisfied. More specifically, revenue will be recognized when promised goods or services are transferred to the customer in an amount that reflects the consideration expected in exchange for those goods or services. ASU No. 2014-09 is effective for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted for interim and annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016. Upon adoption, ASU No. 2014-09 may either be applied retrospectively to each prior period presented or using the modified retrospective approach with the cumulative effect recognized as of the date of initial application.

While the Company's evaluation of the impact of the adoption of ASU No. 2014-09 on its combined financial statements continues, it has progressed to the point where we have reached certain preliminary determinations. The Company will adopt ASU No. 2014-09 using the modified retrospective approach effective January 1, 2018. Therefore, the cumulative effect of adoption will be reflected as an adjustment to beginning retained earnings for the period ending March 31, 2018. The effect on the Company will be that sales commissions, which represent the incremental direct costs of obtaining a service professional contract, will be capitalized and amortized over the average life of a service professional. These costs are expensed as incurred currently. The cumulative effect of the adoption of

ASU No. 2014-09 will be to establish an asset equal to the unamortized cost of the sales commissions paid to obtain a service professional and a related deferred tax liability with the net effect being recorded as an increase to retained earnings as of January 1, 2018. The ultimate amounts recorded will depend upon both the timing and amount of monthly sales commissions during the year ended December 31, 2016 and the year ending December 31, 2017 and the average life of a service professional as of January 1, 2018. To illustrate the effect of adoption on the Company's combined financial position, if January 1, 2017 were the date of adoption, the cumulative effect of adoption would have been less than 9% of total assets, less than 8% of total liabilities and less than 10% of shareholders' equity. The Company does not expect the adoption of ASU No. 2014-09 to have a material effect on its combined results of operations or cash flows.

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842), which supersedes pre-existing guidance on accounting for leases in "Leases (Topic 840)" and generally requires all leases to be recognized in the statement of financial position. The provisions of ASU No. 2016-02 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018; early adoption is permitted. The provisions of ASU No. 2016-02 are to be applied using a modified retrospective approach. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of this standard update will have on its combined financial statements.

In May 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-09, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Scope of Modification Accounting, which provides guidance about the changes to the terms and conditions of a share-based payment award that require an entity to apply modification accounting in "Stock Compensation (Topic 718)." The provisions of ASU No. 2017-09 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017; early adoption is permitted. The provisions of ASU No. 2017-09 are to be applied prospectively to an award modified on or after the adoption date. The Company does not expect the adoption of this standard update to have a material impact on its combined financial statements and is currently evaluating the timing of adoption.

Accounting pronouncements adopted by the Company

In August 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-15, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Classification of Certain Cash Receipts and Cash Payments, which clarifies how cash receipts and cash payments in certain transactions are presented and classified on the statement of cash flows. The provisions of ASU No. 2016-15 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods, and will require adoption on a retrospective basis unless it is impracticable to apply, in which case we would be required to apply the amendments prospectively as of the earliest date practicable; early adoption is permitted. The Company early adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2016-15 on January 1, 2017 and the adoption of this standard update did not have a material impact on its combined financial statements.

In March 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-09, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Employee Share-Based Payment Accounting. The Company adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2016-09 on January 1, 2017. Excess tax benefits or deficiencies related to equity awards to employees upon exercise of stock options and the vesting of restricted stock units after January 1, 2017 are (i) reflected in the consolidated statement of operations as a component of the provision for income taxes, rather than recognized in equity, and (ii) reflected as operating, rather than financing, cash flows in our combined statement of cash flows. Excess tax benefits for the six months ended June 30, 2017 were $33.5 million. Excess tax benefits of $7.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 2016 were reclassified in the combined statement of cash flows to conform to the current year presentation. The Company continues to account for forfeitures using an estimated forfeiture rate.

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles—Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment, which is intended to simplify the accounting for goodwill impairment. The guidance eliminates the requirement to calculate the implied fair value of goodwill under today's two-step impairment test to measure a goodwill impairment charge. The provisions of ASU No. 2017-04 are effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019; early adoption is permitted. The provisions of ASU No. 2017-04 are to be applied on a prospective basis. The Company early adopted the provisions of ASU No. 2017-04 on January 1, 2017 and the adoption of this standard update did not and is not expected to have a material impact on its combined financial statements.

NOTE 2—INCOME TAXES

HomeAdvisor is a member of IAC's consolidated federal and state income tax returns. In all periods presented, current and deferred income taxes have been computed for the entities comprising the HomeAdvisor Business on an as if standalone, separate return basis. HomeAdvisor's payments to IAC for its share of IAC's consolidated federal and state income tax return liabilities have been reflected within cash flows from operating activities in the accompanying combined statements of cash flows.

At the end of each interim period, the Company makes its best estimate of the annual expected effective income tax rate and applies that rate to its ordinary year-to-date earnings or loss. The income tax provision or benefit related to significant, unusual, or extraordinary items, if applicable, that will be separately reported or reported net of their related tax effects are individually computed and recognized in the interim period in which they occur. In addition, the effect of changes in enacted tax laws or rates, tax status, judgment on the realizability of a beginning-of-the-year deferred tax asset in future years or income tax contingencies is recognized in the interim period in which the change occurs.

The computation of the annual expected effective income tax rate at each interim period requires certain estimates and assumptions including, but not limited to, the expected pre-tax income (or loss) for the year, projections of the proportion of income (and/or loss) earned and taxed in foreign jurisdictions, permanent and temporary differences, and the likelihood of the realizability of deferred tax assets generated in the current year. The accounting estimates used to compute the provision or benefit for income taxes may change as new events occur, more experience is acquired, additional information is obtained or our tax environment changes. To the extent that the expected annual effective income tax rate changes during a quarter, the effect of the change on prior quarters is included in income tax provision in the quarter in which the change occurs.

For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recorded an income tax benefit of $30.2 million. The income tax benefit for the six months ended June 30, 2017 is due primarily to the effect of adopting the provisions of ASU No. 2016-09 on January 1, 2017. Under ASU No. 2016-09, excess tax benefits generated by the settlement or exercise of stock-based awards of $33.5 million are recognized as a reduction to the income tax provision rather than additional paid-in capital. For the six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company recorded an income tax provision of $4.3 million which represents an effective income tax rate of 51%. The effective income tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2016 is higher than the statutory rate of 35% due primarily to unbenefited losses in separate jurisdictions.

HomeAdvisor is routinely under audit by federal, state, local and foreign authorities in the area of income tax as a result of previously filed separate company and consolidated tax returns with IAC. These audits include questioning the timing and the amount of income and deductions and the allocation of income and deductions among various tax jurisdictions. The Internal Revenue Service is currently auditing IAC's federal income tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2010 through 2012, which includes the operations of the HomeAdvisor Business. The statute of limitations for the years 2010 through 2012 has been extended to June 30, 2018. Returns filed in various other jurisdictions are open to examination for various tax years beginning with 2009. Income taxes payable include reserves considered sufficient to pay assessments that may result from examination of prior year tax returns. Changes to reserves from period to period and differences between amounts paid, if any, upon the resolution of audits and amounts previously provided may be material. Differences between the reserves for income tax contingencies and the amounts owed by the Company are recorded in the period they become known.

The Company recognizes interest and, if applicable, penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in the income tax provision. At both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, the Company has not accrued any amount for the payment of either interest or penalties.

At both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, unrecognized tax benefits are $0.6 million. Included in unrecognized tax benefits at both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, is $0.6 million for tax positions included in IAC's consolidated tax return filings. If unrecognized tax benefits at June 30, 2017 are subsequently recognized, income tax provision would be reduced by $0.6 million. The comparable amount as of December 31, 2016 is also $0.6 million.

NOTE 3—BUSINESS COMBINATIONS*North America acquisition*

The Company acquired a 90% voting interest in HomeStars Inc. ("HomeStars"), a leading home services platform in Canada, on February 8, 2017. The purchase price for HomeStars was $16.6 CAD million (or $12.7 million) in cash and is net of a $0.3 CAD million (or $0.2 million) working capital adjustment to be paid in full to the Company in the third quarter of 2017. In connection with the acquisition, the Company measured and recorded the acquisition date fair value of the 10% noncontrolling interest in HomeStars, which totaled $1.9 CAD million (or $1.4 million). The determination of the fair value of noncontrolling interest was calculated using the implied value of 100% of the enterprise value of the business using the purchase price.

The financial results of HomeStars are included in the Company's combined financial statements, within the North America segment, beginning February 8, 2017. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company included $2.2 million of revenue and $0.9 million of net losses in its combined statement of operations related to HomeStars.

The table below summarizes the fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition:

	HomeStars (In thousands)
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 181
Other current assets	165
Goodwill	9,841
Intangible assets	6,414
Total assets	16,601
Current liabilities	(649)
Other long-term liabilities	(1,873)
Net assets acquired	$ 14,079

The purchase price was based on the expected financial performance of HomeStars, not on the value of the net identifiable assets at the time of acquisition. This resulted in a significant portion of the purchase price being attributed to goodwill because HomeStars is complementary and synergistic to the other North America businesses of the HomeAdvisor Business.

The fair values of the intangible assets acquired at the date of acquisition are as follows:

	HomeStars (In thousands)	Weighted-average useful life (years)
Indefinite-lived trade name	$ 2,358	Indefinite
Contractor relationships	2,435	2
Developed technology	1,522	2

Total intangible assets acquired	$ 6,414

Other current assets, current liabilities and other long-term liabilities of HomeStars were reviewed and adjusted to their fair values at the date of acquisition, as necessary. The fair values of trade names and contractor relationships were determined using variations of the income approach; specifically, in respective order, the relief from royalty and excess earnings methodologies. The fair values of developed technology and user base were determined using a cost approach that utilized the cost to replace methodology. The valuations of the intangible assets incorporate significant unobservable inputs and require significant judgment and estimates, including the amount and timing of future cash flows and the determination of royalty and discount rates. The amount attributed to goodwill is not tax deductible.

The Company acquired a 75% voting interest in MyBuilder Limited ("MyBuilder"), a leading home services platform in the United Kingdom, on March 24, 2017. The purchase price was £32.6 million (or $40.7 million) in cash and includes a £0.6 million (or $0.8 million) working capital adjustment to be paid in full by the Company in the third quarter of 2017. In connection with the acquisition, the Company measured and recorded the acquisition date fair value of the 25% noncontrolling interest in MyBuilder, which totaled £10.7 million (or $13.3 million). The determination of the fair value of noncontrolling interest was calculated using the implied value of 100% of the enterprise value of the business using the purchase price.

The financial results of MyBuilder are included in the Company's combined financial statements, within the Europe segment, beginning April 1, 2017. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company included $2.7 million of revenue and $0.2 million of net losses in its combined statement of operations related to MyBuilder.

The table below summarizes the fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition:

On November 3, 2016, the Company acquired a 70% voting interest in MyHammer Holding AG ("MyHammer"), the leading home services marketplace in Germany. The purchase price was €17.7 million (or $19.7 million). In connection with the acquisition, the Company measured and recorded the acquisition date fair value of the 30% noncontrolling interest in MyHammer, which totaled €9.4 million (or $10.4 million). The determination of the fair value of noncontrolling interest was calculated using the MyHammer share price on the acquisition date.

The financial results of MyHammer are included in the Company's combined financial statements, within the Europe segment, with effect from the date of acquisition. For the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company included $5.9 million of revenue and $0.4 million of net losses in its combined statement of operations related to MyHammer.

NOTE 5—FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS AND FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company categorizes its financial instruments measured at fair value into a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used in pricing the asset or liability. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are:

- Level 1: Observable inputs obtained from independent sources, such as quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2: Other inputs, which are observable directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs for which there is little or no market data and require the Company to develop its own assumptions, based on the best information available in the circumstances, about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the assets or liabilities.

- (a) The Company's primary financial measure is Adjusted EBITDA, which is defined as operating income excluding: (1) stock-based compensation expense; (2) depreciation; and (3) acquisition-related items consisting of amortization of intangible assets and impairments of goodwill and intangible assets, if applicable. The Company believes this measure is useful for analysts and investors as this measure allows a more meaningful comparison between our performance and that of our competitors. Moreover, our management uses this measure internally to evaluate the performance of our business as a whole and our individual business segments, and this measure is one of the primary metrics by which our internal budgets are based and by which management is compensated. The above items are excluded from our Adjusted EBITDA measure because these items are non-cash in nature, and we believe that by excluding these items, Adjusted EBITDA corresponds more closely to the cash operating income generated from our business, from which capital investments are made and long-term related party debt is serviced. Adjusted EBITDA has certain limitations in that it does not take into account the impact to HomeAdvisor's statement of operations of certain expenses.
- (b) Consistent with the Company's primary metric (described in (a) above), the Company excludes, if applicable, goodwill and intangible assets from the measure of segment assets presented above.

NOTE 8—CONTINGENCIES

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is a party to various lawsuits. The Company establishes reserves for specific legal matters when it determines that the likelihood of an unfavorable outcome is probable and the loss is reasonably estimable. Management has also identified certain other legal matters where we believe an unfavorable outcome is not probable and, therefore, no reserve is established. Although management currently believes that resolving claims against us, including claims where an unfavorable outcome is reasonably possible, will not have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of the Company, these matters are subject to inherent uncertainties and management's view of these matters may change in the future. The Company also evaluates other contingent matters, including income and non-income tax contingencies, to assess the likelihood of an unfavorable outcome and estimated extent of potential loss. It is possible that an unfavorable outcome of one or more of these lawsuits or other contingencies could have a material impact on the liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition of the Company. See "Note 2—Income Taxes" for additional information related to income tax contingencies.

NOTE 9—RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONSRelationship with IAC prior to the Merger

HomeAdvisor's combined statement of operations includes allocations of general and administrative costs, including stock-based compensation expense, related to IAC's accounting, treasury, legal, tax, corporate support and internal audit functions. These allocations were based on HomeAdvisor revenue as a percentage of IAC's total revenue. Allocated general and administrative costs, inclusive of stock-based compensation expense, were $3.1 million and $2.1 million, in 2017 and 2016, respectively, and are included in "General and administrative expense" in the accompanying unaudited combined statement of operations. It is not practicable to determine the actual expenses that would have been incurred for these services had HomeAdvisor operated as a standalone entity during the periods presented. Management considers the allocation method to be reasonable.

$15.5 million due March 20, 2047 ("Note B"), respectively, to two foreign subsidiaries of IAC that are not part of HomeAdvisor. The proceeds were used to finance the acquisition of MyBuilder. Note A and Note B bear interest at 6.5% and 7% per annum, respectively, and are payable at maturity.

On February 7, 2017, the Company, through a foreign subsidiary, issued a promissory note due February 7, 2024 in the amount of £8.4 million ($10.6 million at June 30, 2017) to a foreign subsidiary of IAC that is not part of HomeAdvisor. The proceeds were used to finance the acquisition of HomeStars. The promissory note bears interest at 6.875% per annum and is payable at maturity.

On August 29, 2013, the Company, through a foreign subsidiary, issued a promissory note due August 29, 2018 in the amount of $5.0 million to a foreign subsidiary of IAC that is not part of HomeAdvisor. The proceeds were used to repay certain indebtedness. The promissory note bears interest at LIBOR plus 2.00%, or 3.54% at both June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016.

Interest expense related to the long-term debt is included in "Interest expense—related party" in the accompanying combined statement of operations.

On November 15, 2013 and December 21, 2012, IAC issued 4.875% Senior Notes due November 30, 2018 ("2013 Senior Notes") and 4.75% Senior Notes due December 15, 2022 ("2012 Senior Notes"), respectively. The 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes are unconditionally guaranteed by HomeAdvisor (US) and certain of its wholly owned domestic subsidiaries. At June 30, 2017, $361.9 million and $34.9 million were outstanding under the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes, respectively.

IAC has a $300 million revolving credit facility which expires on October 7, 2020, and is unconditionally guaranteed by HomeAdvisor (US) and the same domestic subsidiaries that guarantee the 2013 and 2012 Senior Notes and is also secured by the stock of HomeAdvisor (US) and certain other domestic and foreign entities that are part of the HomeAdvisor Business. At June 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, there are no outstanding borrowings under IAC's revolving credit facility.

The Company has not recorded a liability pursuant to this guarantor obligation because we have not agreed to pay a specific amount through an arrangement with our co-obligors and we do not expect to pay any amount as a result of our guarantee of IAC's Senior Notes and IAC's revolving credit facility. Upon completion of the Merger, HomeAdvisor (US) and certain of its wholly-owned domestic subsidiaries will no longer guarantee any debt of IAC.

Relationship with IAC following the Merger

We expect to enter into certain agreements with IAC to govern the relationship between ANGI Homeservices Inc. and IAC following the Merger. These agreements will include: a contribution agreement; an investor rights agreement; a tax sharing agreement; a services agreement; an employee matters agreement; and an intercompany note.

The Board of Directors and Shareholders of IAC/InterActiveCorp

We have audited the accompanying combined balance sheet of the HomeAdvisor Business (the Company) as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the related combined statements of operations, comprehensive operations, shareholders' equity, and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2016. Our audits also included the financial statement schedule on page FS-65. These financial statements and financial schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. We were not engaged to perform an audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the combined financial position of the HomeAdvisor Business at December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the combined results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2016, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Also, in our opinion, the related financial statement schedule, when considered in relation to the basic combined financial statements taken as a whole, presents fairly in all material respects the information set forth therein.
